Use Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial for all throat diseases.

Piles.—The unceasing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using Briggs' Pile Remedies.

Use Kennedy's Hemlock Ointment.

Corns.—Since pride and fashion have had control of mankind, and shoemakers were compelled to make boots and shoes to fit fancy instead of the feet, the suffering from Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Sore Insteps, Blistered Heels, Callosities on the bottom of the feet, &c., cannot be described. But Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies will allay all such torments, and proper fitting boots will prevent their reproduction. Sold by all druggists. al2

Use Kennedy's Hemlock Ointment.

Castoria—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Narcotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jn1 4w

Holloway's Pills.—These Pills alone, among all the medicines in existence, possess the property of cleansing and regulating the bowels and purifying the animal fluids without depressing either body or mind. Sold at 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per box. Ask for new style; the old is counterfeited.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Wholesale Stimulant, That Is Absolutely Pure.

Physicians throughout the world agree as to the necessity for diffusive stimulants in medical practice, but complain, and with good reason, of the impossibility of obtaining them pure. The difficulty here presented would be a serious one indeed, if the class of agents was limited to the adulterated liquors and wines of trade. It vanished, however, when the absolute purity and extraordinary restorative properties of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are taken into consideration. As a stimulant the article is absolutely free from everything objectionable; but this is only one of its recommendations. If it were nothing more than an excitant its effects would be fleeting. It might refresh and revive the system for a few minutes, but could produce no permanent benefit. The stimulating elements of the Bitters is a means, not an end. The tonic, anti-bilious, depurative and aperient vegetable juices combined in the preparation are the agents that impart vigor and regularity to the weakened and disordered organization, the spirituous principle being chiefly useful in diffusing their influence through the system and otherwise facilitating their operation. Alcohol, even in its purest form, is not so much a medicine as a motive power, by which the specifics of the vegetable kingdom may be brought to bear upon the debilitating and disordered organs that require renovating and regulating; and it is in this way that the pure essence of rye incorporated in Hostetter's Bitters increases the efficiency of the purely medical ingredients.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

The Bar Room Remedy for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Ram Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with Vinegar Bitters, a pure Vegetable Stomachic, Corrective and Aperient, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vatility into your exhausted and disordered system. Notice—William Sladen.

The Concert

To be given by Mr. Martyn and troupe at the Temple this evening, promises to be the most brilliant and interesting he has yet given us. The programme is a good one, and includes some very fine selections. Mrs. Martyn is to give us "Sherman's March to the Sea," by particular request, and will also sing some of her most popular serio-comic songs, including some of those that created such enthusiasm on the first evening she appeared here. The youthful prodigy, Van Raalte, will add in no small degree to the enjoyment of the evening, while Messrs. Martyn, Hills and Warren will agreeably fill up a programme that is rarely excelled. The company deserve a crowded house, and as tickets have been put at the popular price,—35 cents to all parts of the Temple,—we have no doubt they will meet with the success they merit. Tickets will be for sale during the day at Preston's.

Laconics.

At the special election in Ward One, Monday, for the choice of a representative to fill the vacancy in the legislature occasioned by the death of the late Hon. Horton D. Walker, Hon. James W. Emery, Republican, received 143 votes to 2 for Mr. Benj. Canney, Democrat.

The Concord Railroad has just received from the Taunton Car Company two monitor-top passenger cars, fifty-four feet ten inches long. The cars are a pale straw color, with drab trimmings of various shades. Each has Hitchcock's newly patented ventilator and is finished inside with half a dozen choice ornamental woods. The metal trimmings are bronze and it will be a pleasure to ride in such comfortable carriages. Their capacity is sixty-four persons each.

In his charge to the grand jury at Newport, Chief Justice Bellows referred very pointedly to the prevalent practice of gambling among religionists of the day, at festivals and other social gatherings of church membership, where lotteries, grab-bags, guess-cakes, and almost every known thing or system of gambling was introduced to raise money for the spread of the gospel! All these are recognized in law as indictable offences, and the proper officers fail to do their duty where they are suffered to pass unnoticed.

The New York Herald has received advices from the European squadron to the effect that "the entire credit of saving the shipping in the harbor of Marseilles [on the occasion of the burning of a petroleum laden ship, some time ago,] is due to Capt. Shufeldt, who was in command, Rear Admiral Alden being at the time in Paris. It was under the direction of Capt. Shufeldt that the boats were so promptly manned and the shipping in the harbor saved from destruction." The personal appearance of Captain Shufeldt, — who was formerly stationed here and will be remembered by many of our citizens as a man of commanding presence as well as a gentleman, — indicates energy, coolness and decision, qualities indispensable in a naval officer, as was shown by the affair at Marseilles.

Several communications on the subject of idle boys in our streets have recently appeared in our columns, and from one or more of them it may be inferred that the City Marshal is remiss in not so enforcing the vagrant law as to clear the streets of the boys described. The fact is the City Marshal has no power at all to deal with them except with the consent of their parents, and when parents do not care whether their children attend school or not, they are not likely to invoke the City Marshal's aid to make them attend. If the vagrant law of this State was like that of Massachusetts, Maine or Minnesota, the act passed by the legislature of 1871 for the purpose of compelling idle children to attend school would attain its object. As the vagrant law now stands, the anti-truancy law is a dead letter.

Howe's Circus and Sanger's Menagerie will exhibit in this city shortly. Brewster's Gazette, of New York, says "the five trained elephants, the trained zebras, Bengal tigers, hyenas, lions, etc., all fat and full of vim, and the large collection of rare wild animals makes this menagerie one of the most interesting and attractive we have ever seen. There is no trash among it; everything is worth seeing and will bear close study and examination." The circus part of the combination is said to be good.

We take pleasure in announcing that John W. Moses, Esq., having partially recovered from the illness which has confined him at home for the past five months, can again be found at his place of business on Market Street by his friends and patrons generally, whose orders in the clothing line he will be happy to attend to as he has done for the last thirty-four years.

The Merrimack Journal says that William Milton, Esq., of Franklin, 78 years of age, is a most remarkable man, being now, at his great age, possessed of all the mental and physical energies of a man in his prime. For the last three years he has been in Upper Canada engaged in getting masts for the market, and since last autumn has taken from the forest and sent to Boston $20,000 worth. In 1837 he explored the whole lumbering region of Maine, his surveys being the sine qua non for the operators in all the stupendous lumber speculations of that period. He has voted for President at every presidential election since he became of age, voting successively for Munroe, Adams, Wirt, Clay, Harrison, Clay, Taylor, Grant—and proposes to again vote for Grant. He was formerly engaged in shipbuilding in this city.

The stockholders of the Portsmouth, Saco & Portland Railroad held their regular annual meeting in Kittery at 11 o'clock Monday forenoon, and the following board of directors were unanimously elected: Thornton K. Lothrop, Nathaniel Hooper, Stephen H. Bullard, Boston; S. Lothrop Thorndike, Beverly; John B. Brown, Charles E. Barrett, Portland; Ichabod Goodwin, Portsmouth. The matter of building the proposed new line along the seashore was referred to the directors.

At a meeting of the South Parish, Monday afternoon, it was voted to increase the pastor's salary to $3,500 a year.

A Supplement.

Messrs. Editors:—Tendering you my sincere thanks and grateful remembrances from the inmost thoughts of my heart, I offer for your kind consideration and acceptance a supplement to an article published in your paper two weeks ago, and headed "Has Anti-christ Risen?" By the last accounts I received from the college where the young man referred to in that article is now studying, I learn that he is enjoying good health and never felt better in his life; and the same is true concerning his father, who is yet a clear-eyed, hearty old fellow,—both are well and grateful to a kind Providence for His mercies, notwithstanding they were cursed by a great expounder of the christian law, who prayed that the father and son might never live to see each other alive!

What language—what a hope to come from a minister of God! Weep, oh, weep ye fathers and mothers, when such blasphemies come from lips whence sanctity and purity of mind and thought should gush forth as clear and beautiful as the noonday sun, coming as it were from the lips of our good and kind Redeemer. I desire to keep this "christian minister" posted as to the good health and happiness of the two men whom he reviled and cursed, and that they are men of high and noble inspirations, trusting in Providence, and not in priestcraft nor in a mere sinful man who should repent with tears, like David of old, in sackcloth and ashes, and who, had he any human feeling in his breast, would bow his head in shame and in silence weep. If he had received the cup of human kindness or one spark of humanity, he would not dare insult God's majesty by violating one of His most sacred laws.

The father and son will in due time cause to drop from the public mind a name that has been a shock to christian people and which should go down in silence and rest in forgetfulness and oblivion. Such should—and I believe will—be the retribution visited upon the unworthy man who arrogates to himself so much on such slender deserving.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases. For the Asthma, Croup, Cough, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the ounce of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. At "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all this afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage at which time there is no SOVEREIGN cure) relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs,
Croup,
Diphtheria,
Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "walking in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
— OF —
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or feed, some advantage in running of needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents sell them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
SINGER
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.
N. B. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

Saxonton has three Baptist churches, but no settled pastor.

Weekly production of flannel in Newport: Sagar River Mills, 16,000 yards; Granite State Mills, 12,000; Eagle Mills, 4,500; Newport Mills, 3,600.

On a recent Sunday afternoon six converts were immersed in Horseshoe pond in Concord by Elder O. Hock, evangelist, Elder Silas Curtis, Freewill Baptist, Rev. Mr. Drew, Methodist, and Rev. J. H. Lovering, pastor of the Unitarian society, all of whom entered the water at the same time. Over 200 persons have been immersed at this place since the commencement of the great religious revival, and the interest still continues, apparently unabated.

Miss Annie E. Nesmith of Franklin, only daughter of Judge Nesmith, has about a quarter of an acre of strawberries in a most admirable condition. She has for two years been exercising her agricultural and gardening intelligence. She bought her lot for $600, has been reclaiming it by drainage for strawberry culture, has it now nearly all under cultivation, and will doubtless another year have it entirely in strawberries. She manages it alone, hires the heavy work done by a man, but superintends closely every item of labor which she does not do herself.

THE LAST SENSATION.—Some people are fond of sensations, notwithstanding the fearful alarm they may create in the minds of those naturally timid. Within a few years past, times have been repeatedly set for the end of the world. There is one on hand now, and when that shall have passed and time still continue, other periods will undoubtedly be fixed for the terrible catastrophe. To add to this kind of folly, not long since it was published that an astronomer of Geneva had predicted that a comet would dash against the earth and destroy it, on the 12th of August next. This has already been exploded by the German astronomer's contradiction that he ever made any such prediction. And then again, the comet that may be due next August, is Biela's, having a system of about six and two-thirds years. For two or three revolutions past, it has not been seen at all. In 1852 it appeared in a divided state, and as it was not seen in 1859 nor 1866, it is conjectured that it has further divided and may never be seen again. What will be the next sensation as to the end of all below? J. P.

THE INDEPENDENT JOURNALIST AT HOME.—We informed our readers some time ago of the terrible effect produced upon Mr. Samuel Bowles, according to his own account, by the Cincinnati nomination. It will be remembered that he and a number of other gentlemen went dejectedly to the house of Judge Stallo, and there, on the performance on the Judge's piano of a piece of music by Senator Schurz (written, according to Mr. Bowles, by Auber, but, according to another account, by Balfe), burst into tears. The consolatory power of music was never more strikingly shown. Mr Bowles has recovered from his depression and is now supporting Mr. Greeley. It is pretty evident, however, to those who have kept themselves au courant of the "inside" of the Greeley party, that there are a good many of the original performers whose misery not even the strains of music have been able to assuage.

This is a very delicate subject, and we desire to approach it in a spirit of decorum and reserve. But we cannot help taking this opportunity of assuring independent journalists throughout the country that if they could even for a moment hear the private confessions of embarrassment which we hear, they would derive a great deal more amusement from reading each other's editorials than they do now. To support a candidate from motives of expediency is one thing; but to support him violently in public and go about in private denouncing him and exculpating yourself from all share in his intrigue for place is another. This is now, from what we can learn, the private occupation of the independent journalist. In the morning he publishes furious articles on the campaign. He exposes the wickedness of the administration. He sings the praises of the Cincinnati candidate. He lauds his honesty, his sagacity, his sympathy with the popular movement. He describes the Cincinnati convention as a stately parliament, its platform as a second declaration of independence, its candidate as a later Franklin. In the evening he collects his friends together and dejectedly explains to them that these articles were written from motives of expediency; that he has no heart in this dirty business; that he wishes he were well out of it, and that Charles Francis Adams was always his real choice for President.

Let no one suppose that we refer to any particular independent journalist. We refer to numbers of people. Each one of them, perhaps, is unaware of what the other is about; but to those who know what is going on behind the scenes, the wonderful sham that is kept up for the benefit of the public is rather ludicrous.—N. Y. Evening Post.

—A correspondent of the Country Gentleman says that even where land was too poor to grow clover to amount to anything, plowing under two crops of rye brought the land in good condition for clover, and this, plowed under, put the land in good order for other crops.

—Ping Wing, the fireman's son, was the very worst boy in all Canton; he stole his mother's pickled mice, and he threw the cat in the boiling rice; and he ate her up, and then says he, "Me wonder where the mew-cat be."

JURUBEBA
Is a Powerful Tonic, especially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DELIBITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.
It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, combines the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.
DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA
Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.
It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful Tonic and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequaled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Alleyantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy; $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.
COUCHS. Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.
CORNS! The excruciating pain occasioning twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciated public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest Instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.
PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.
For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREFETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.
CORNS, Bunions, Bad Nails, and other diseases of the feet, Scrofulous and Cancerous Humors, Piles, etc., skillfully treated at the great central Chiropodical and Healing Institute, No. 765 Broadway, New York. Dr. J. BRIGGS, President; DR. ALEXANDER WEBBER, Secretary. ap9

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.
The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about fifty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures, which have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most astonishing cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, which is well founded, if the remedy be used in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by the timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords in sudden attacks, and by its timely use.

The Daily Chronicle,

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5, 1872.

What The People Say.

MANCHESTER, June 3.

Editors Chronicle:—During the four weeks past I have travelled in prosecution of my business extensively over the State of New Hampshire, and have had very many opportunities of learning the vox populi on political affairs; and I desire, with your leave, to state thro' your columns what was the general impression of those I conversed with, and heard discuss the question of Senatorial rotation. I do this without intending to say a word regarding the competing candidates that will especially favor or oppose any of them, and with the sole desire that such as may have power in choosing a United States Senator, and who are among your readers, may have an idea of what is popularly thought of the important duty their constituents have assigned them to do in that respect.

On overhauling my accumulated copies of the CHRONICLES I find that the subject of "rotation" has been very ably handled by various correspondents with reference to the claims of certain candidates; I touch the subject in entire relation to itself, and to the effects its recognition or its repudiation may have on the Republican party, of which you know me to be no raw recruit.

Wherever I have heard "rotation" discussed (and this has been at all places where I have been,) it has been mainly in relation to its present policy and necessity, and in regard to its absolutely essential recognition, in order that future party unity should be preserved. I have participated in, and have listened to, calm and heated discussions of these points, and have carefully observed the preponderance of feeling among those engaged in such debates; and I am conscientiously and fully satisfied that two-thirds of the active, thinking, working Republicans of this State endorse the principle of rotation in the Senatorial office at the present time—and for these reasons:

They believe that a man of average character as a statesman should be well satisfied with ten years of public office, particularly when there are many others in the State when the people would delight to honor in a similar way, and in favor of whose preference gratitude for past services—noble and valuable—speaks so loudly and so justly as it certainly does to-day.

While the majority concede that there may be an occasion when surpassing greatness in statesmanship may justify a setting aside of the rotation rule, that sort of occasion, they say, has not now occurred. They also entertain the opinion that the rotation system embrace the best policy, for the reason that it acts as an incentive to men holding the position of statesmen to place their relationship above the standard of mediocrity, and because only super-eminent merit can induce the people to justify to themselves any invasion of the rotation principle. Great men have been entrusted, time and time again, with leading public interests, because the people decreed it to be so; actual merit always speaks eloquently in favor of such men, and by its native force causes the people to pile honor upon honor on their heads. Exaltation offers itself naturally to worth and modesty, but is always shy and retiring before men of small attainments and very big claims,—especially when the minuteness of the one and the massiveness of the other have been proved. Such is the essence of opinions I have heard expressed; and when I add to them the feeling that we must have Congressional representation better suited to the practical wants of the State and that there is no solid reason existing why rotation in the Senatorial office should not take place just now, I sum up what are the governing opinions of the majority on the subject.

Just a word as to consequences of the rotation or anti-rotation action of our legislature. The violation of the rotation principle in 1870 fell upon the hearts of the Republicans of the State, and withered their party enthusiasm as an early June frost would destroy a healthy and promising vegetation. Such another risk, common opinion says, must not be run. As parties now tend to disintegration under new political influences, which excite passion and bury reason, such process would be suicidal, and, even were political affairs more placid and solidly based than they are now, the practical repudiation of the rotation principle would be fatal to the Republican party in New Hampshire.

We want new men, say many, for reason that things are new, and require new advocates, men whose sentiments chime in with the times, and whose practical workings are not threatened by older political relations and incumbrances, as those of old incumbents of Congressional offices would certainly be. The science of politics is progressive, changing almost every day; but men in office get so lumbered up by individual and other obligations that they never recognize this law, only at election times,—then they do so only to take the old, tardy, tangled track if they happen to be lucky in getting re-elected. We must have young, vital fluid in the veins of our Congressmen, and the music of their hearts and sound of their deeds must be in consonance with the popular sentiment and requirements.

Not a few advocate rotation for the reason of the great aptitude of local political powers getting too big for their boots, and too overbearing and tyrannical to be tolerated. Rotation would effectually kill off this kind of barnacles which cling around our Congressional representatives, and are offensive in every way. This may seem to be a subordinate matter, but it has greater importance as a reason why Senatorial rotation should succeed, just now, than some people suppose.

I have hardly told half my tale, but the sheets of manuscript before me warn me to cease. C. J.

Mr. Sumner's Speech.

Hon. Charles Sumner's long speech against Grant in the Senate, is a masterpiece of invective and calumny, brim-full of personal hatred and a reckless thirst for revenge, and as a blow-pipe with which to scatter a knowledge of the Senator's personal animosity over the land is an entire success; but that it will change the vote of a single delegate at Philadelphia we do not believe, and that it will have any appreciable effect upon the popular vote in November—except perhaps to strengthen Grant—we are equally incredulous. Sumner hates Grant; and the personal animus is too plain in his high-sounding and scurrilous speech for it to have the desired effect—to "beat Grant." If Sumner's opposition to Grant is patriotic and not the result of mere personal dislike, why has he kept so quiet the knowledge he must long have had of Grant's alleged enormities? A true patriot should have exposed the evils at once, and not have allowed them to continue for three years unrebuked by the country's friends.

Massachusetts has ignored rotation in selecting her Senators, and Mr. Sumner has been sent to Congress again and again, until he apparently imagines himself "the Government,"—or that he should be. Whether he fancies that his long, able and earnest labors in the cause of freedom entitled him to the Presidency at the last election and that Grant is an interloper in his seat, or from whatever course it may arise, the Senator has opposed and disliked the President from the first. The San Domingo affair gave him a chance to ventilate this dislike, which he hastened to do; and in the light of his subsequent proceedings we may well question if his opposition was not actuated by a maximum of personal hostility and a minimum of honest patriotism. The French arms fiasco—with Sumner's long and vituperative preamble, which he voted against himself after having taken up the time of the Senate for weeks—showed still more conclusively that Mr. Sumner was ready and eager to lend the weight of his name and reputation to any and every scandal and slander, however unsupported and ridiculous, if it would only promise to injure the man whom he so bitterly hates. But his San Domingo and French arms efforts are thrown completely in the shade by this last assault, which seems more like the attack of a turkey buzzard than that of a high-minded Senator, and will injure Sumner more than it will Grant.

Mr. Sumner's long string of accusations, some of which at least he knows to be false, shows that he is willing to undo, so far as is in his power, the work of his life, if only he can injure his enemy by so doing. He is not the first who has blotted a clean record, from personal rancor, though his record is the brightest one so blotted. But when we see Horace Greeley, the man who "didn't want to be President," willing to swallow not only himself but the Democratic party, Ku-Klux and all, for the sake of a nomination at the hands of men whom he has opposed and denounced for twenty years; when we see a large fraction of the Democratic party ready to swallow Greeley if nothing else will suffice to give them a possible chance for a scramble at the Treasury, and the party caterers busily engaged in making Horace's bail bond, Niagara peace conference, semi-secession and anti-Lincoln memories into a salad which it is hoped will enable the old Bourbons to worry down the unsavory morsel,—after these experiences in political gymnastics it is possible to realize that even Charles Sumner is now ready, animated only by personal spite, to work as heartily for the restoration to power of the men who once cracked the slave-whip as he formerly worked for their overthrow, though he is fully alive to the fact that no greater misfortune could happen to the colored race. He could have entertained no idea that his virulent attack would prevent Grant's renomination; his aim then must have been to contribute to his defeat at the polls; and when it comes to that, he shows that he is willing to consign the colored men of the South to the tender mercies of the ex-slave-holding Ku-Klux, merely to gratify his personal animosity. "Anything to beat Grant" is not a war cry to arouse any great respect for the devotion to principle of the men who use it, and by joining in it Charles Sumner has partially overthrown one idol of the party of equal rights; and the idol he has overthrown is not President Grant. But the good work he has done when devoted to principle will be remembered, long after the evil he has attempted to do under the influence of prejudice and passion is forgotten.

Political.

The Republican National Convention meets to-day at Philadelphia, to name the next President and Vice President of the United States. U. S. Grant is certain to receive the first place on the ticket. For second place Schuyler Colfax and Henry Wilson appear to have good chances, and Gen. Joseph R. Hawley of Connecticut is a possible compromise candidate in case of a struggle. Either of the candidates named will command the united support of the party, but if Colfax is to be rotated we should be pleased to see Gen. Hawley's name accompany Grant's.

About twenty colored delegates to the Philadelphia Convention called on Senator Sumner on Sunday, to pay their respects. In conversation on the political situation they said the men in the South who had opposed and opressed colored people, and had stood out against impartial suffrage, civil rights and other questions affecting their race, were all in favor of the election of Greeley to the Presidency, and they did not think it their duty to go with their oppressors for the sake of voting for Greeley.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Dead Delusion.

The theory that human beings whose strength has been exhausted by pain and sickness can be restored by depleting medicines and water gruel, if not absolutely a dead delusion, is in the last agonies of dissolution. At length it is understood that strength cannot be purged into a debilitated frame, though life may be easily purged out of it and that it is about as wise to withhold a healthful stimulant from the weak, in the expectation that they will rally without one, as it would be to deprive a lamp of oil and expect it to burn the brighter for it.

The immense and uniform success which has attended the use of that wonderful combination of a pure stimulant with the finest medicinal herbs, known as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, has largely assisted in dispelling the absurd chimera. Frantic attempts are made to revive it, but in vain. When the sick feel that their strength is departing, and that unless invigorated they must utterly break down, it is in vain to tender them feculent slops in the place of genuine restoratives. They may be imposed upon in this way once, but the imposition cannot be repeated. They desire to be comforted, refreshed, braced up, and decline to be griped a second time.

Under the operation of Bitters, on the other hand, all the processes necessary to physical restoration go on simultaneously. The system is stimulated and tined, the bowels regulated, the appetite cultivated, the nerves composed and the condition of the blood improved at one and the same time by a single medicine. Common sense tells us that such a preparation must be invaluable.

HAVE IT ALWAYS AT HAND.—Accidents will happen in the best regulated families, and for this reason among many others, the MUSTANG LINIMENT should find a place in the cupboard of every household. In all the world there is nothing comparable to it as an application for cuts, contusions, burns, sprains, and scalds, and when every other preparation that medical ingenuity can suggest, has failed to afford relief in rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, glandular swellings, muscular contractions, cramps, toothache &c., this powerful anti-inflammatory and pain-destroying agent immediately assuages the sufferer's agony and eventually accomplishes a radical cure. Probably there is not a connoisseur in horse flesh or an amateur horseman in the land who does not know, either from personal observation or reports that the MUSTANG LINIMENT is the supreme remedy for all external diseases and injuries of the horse.

The Coal Trade.

We have more than once alluded to the large amount of business which is being done at Railroad Wharf, in the landing of coal and other freight on the Concord Railroad cars for transportation to the interior of our State and elsewhere. No one who has not visited that locality can have a correct idea of the immense amount of freight that is there daily transferred from the vessel to the railway car. While the wharf accommodations have been increased one-fifth over those of last year, the road finds the facilities in this direction greatly deficient thus early in the season; and notwithstanding that the labor of transhipment goes on by night as well as by day, still demurrage bills accrue for the want of more room.

As this matter of unloading and reloading freight constitutes a large part of the business of our city, we trust that some means will be hit upon for the more complete accommodation of this enterprise. It would be a pity to lose the employment which is thus furnished our laboring men, through want of wharf room, while there is almost a mile of wharfing lying comparatively idle. It is a reproach to this city that there should be found in it those who would sacrifice public interests, and their own private interests as well, to their selfish greed or whims. We know that in this matter of freighting coal, buyers will seek the avenue of transportation which will enable them to lay down their coal at the lowest figures; and if vessels are compelled to wait here three or four days and thereby large demurrage is added to the price of the cargo freighted, other ports of entry will be sought, where such obstacles will not be encountered.

Laconics.

The Martyn concert announced for Tuesday evening was postponed on account of the heavy rain.

Two schooners,—one loaded with coal, bound for Kittery, and the other outward bound, having just discharged her cargo at Railroad wharf,—grounded on Pumpkin Island, near the Navy Yard, on Tuesday. Both will probably get off soon if they are favored with full tides.

It is expected that the U. S. steamer Tuscarora will drop below on Friday, preparatory to an immediate departure for sea. This steamer is said to be one of the finest equipped vessels in the Navy. Her destination is unknown.

Steamer Appledore was taken up on the railway of Messrs. John Neil & Co., at Kittery, on Tuesday, for a few repairs on her hull preparatory to comencing her regular trips to the Shoals under the pilotage of Capt. E. M. Baker,—a popular skipper, too well known to need any newspaper "puff" endorsing his ability in his line of business.

There is to be a mass rehearsal of all the Jubilee Societies in this region, at Haverhill, Mass., on Friday next, June 7th. Also at Dover on Tuesday, June 11th. The Portsmouth Music Society have voted to attend both, having found the similar visit to Exeter a very pleasant and profitable excursion. Superintendents Chamberlain of the Concord Railroad, and Merritt of the Boston and Maine, have kindly allowed half-fare for both events, and tickets may be had at the Concord depot in this city—$1 for the round trip to Haverhill, and 68 cents to Dover and return. These musical picnics are very enjoyable, and doubtless a large delegation of singers and others from Portsmouth will attend. A chorus of a thousand is expected at Haverhill. Carl Zerrahn will conduct on both occasions.

The Portsmouth Society, with Harlow's fine Ochestra, will probably give a concert in this city, previous to the Jubilee. The Exeter Society are to give one on the 12th inst., and the Dover chorus one on the 16th,—Sunday evening.

Governor-elect Straw will be inaugurated on Thursday, and a grand time is expected. Fare over the Concord Railroad will be reduced to $2.35, from this city to Concord and return, for that day.

There will be a Union Prayer Meeting at the chapel of the North Church this evening, to commence at quarter before 8 o'clock.

Mr. Frost, the agent of the Christain Union, is at Mr. E. A. Joy's music store with the chromos, "Wide Awake" and "Fast Asleep," for the subscribers to that paper, who are requested to call there and receive them. Mr. Frost is desirous of distributing all the pictures this week, and requests those who are entitled to them to call as soon as convenient. Mr. Frost will also receive the names of new subscribers, who will each get the two chromos.

State News.

The great and General Court of New-Hampshire meets to-day at Concord. With the overwhelming Republican majority in both branches no such work as that of last year can occur, and the main interest of the session will centre in the choice of a United States Senator.

The city marshal and police of Dover made a raid on the liquor dealers on Monday. Seven arrests were made.

An Italian named Obadiah Loratte, of Rochester, has been arrested at Lawrence, Mass., for robbing the store of Charles Mallory of South Berwick, Me., on the 29th ult. The goods stolen were found and identified.

The centennial anniversary of the foundation of the Congregational church in Warner will be celebrated on the 12th

The carriage shop of Joseph E. Gove of East Deering was burned June 2d, with several unfinished carriages. Mr. Gove, who lives close by his shop, did not know it was on fire till it was burned flat.

Charles E. Towne of Orford committed suicide by drowning, May 31. He was 35 years old and leaves a wife and three children. Insanity.

Henry Lompard of Keene hung himself on a tree, June 1. Insane from drink.

The wife of J. W. Kessler of Manchester was seriously injured in that city on Monday, by the carriage in which she was riding with another lady and two children being struck by a train of cars. The carriage was smashed, Mrs. Kessler had her right thigh and left leg broken, one of the children had an arm broken, and the other lady and child were somewhat bruised.

The Concord Monitor reports the depth of snow in the woods at Hart's Location to have been thirty-one inches, by actual measurement, on the 23d of May.

Hillsborough is reported free from small-pox. There have been seventeen cases in all, three fatal.

A son of Rev. S. C. Hayford, Universalist minister of Enfield and Lebanon, was drowned on Sunday afternoon by falling through a railroad bridge. The body was found two hours later.

Forty-two persons were admitted to the Union Christian Church at Concord on Sunday.

An unknown woman was found in the Connecticut river, near Hanover, on Monday evening. Her face was wrapped in a shawl, and her hands were tied to her side. No clue has been discovered as to the cause of her death.

The News.

The residence, barn, and other buildings of Fredrick Douglass in Rochester, N. Y., were burned on Sunday night. Loss several thousand dollars. The family were absent.

A heavy fall of rain in central Illinois has done great damage to crops and railroads.

A passenger train from Basle, Swizerland, to Mayence, Hesse Darmstadt, came in colision with another passenger train going south. Nine persons killed and a number injured.

The merchant steamer Clara, temporarily fitted up as a Spanish man-of-war, while cruising in search of the Edgar Stewart, ran into the Spanish gun-boat Celage on Sunday night. The Celage sunk in six minutes afterwards. The crew and money-box were saved by the Clara, which was but slightly injured.

A despatch from General Howard states that at a council of the Mexicans, Papages, Pimos and Apaches, a plan has been agreed upon by the Indians agreeing to stop further raids and aid General Crook in capturing the incorrigibly hostile Indians. General Howard says that success now appears sure.

The fishing schooner Enola C., of Gloucester, Mass., has been seized for an alleged violation of the fishery laws of the Canadian Dominion. She was on a trolling trip. No particulars are given.

THE CURRANT WORM has at length arrived. A convenient way of keeping him off your currant bushes is to cut the bushes carefully down and burn them, though it is quite true that a rifle ball behind the shoulderblade is sometimes fatal. In all probability, however, the most effective system is not to have any currant bushes.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases, for the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the ounce of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "is stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage at which time there is no cure) and relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling of the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a decade years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sedative and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs,
Croup,
Diphtheria,
Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients of "discovered" by "walking in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
— OF —
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch, or tension, or some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
SINGER
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does every thing that any other does in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

Morning Chronicle.

The Senate was almost wholly given up, Monday, to Messrs. Carpenter and Logan, in reply to Mr. Sumner; and both of them made strong points against Mr. Sumner. Mr. Carpenter's statement of his protracted conversations with Mr. Stanton entirely broke the force of Mr. Sumner's version of Stanton's communication as given in the speech last Friday. Mr. Logan's reading from Stanton's four campaign speeches, in which Grant was spoken of in terms of eloquence, has, in connection with Mr. Carpenter, effectually demolished that part of Sumner's speech. Mr. Logan showed besides that no Senator knew of the law which rendered Mr. Stewart ineligible as Secretary of the Treasury until after he had been unanimously confirmed, and consequently Mr. Sumner's arraignment of the President in this matter for deliberately violating law went for absolutely nothing.

The Secretary of State, replying to a letter from General Banks, says that no American citizens are imprisoned in Canada on account of complicity in the invasion of Canada.

☞ The New Hampshire Gazette for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. BUSINESS NOTICES.

Use Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial for all throat diseases.

The Amount of Gold received each week for Custom-house duties ceases to seem so fabulous when one has been through a great importing house (like that of Jordan, Marsh & Co.'s, Boston,) and viewed the wealth of silks and velvets, of shawls and rich goods, weekly received from all foreign ports of importance.

Piles.—The unceasing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using Briggs' Pile Remedies.

Use Kennedy's Hemlock Ointment.

Corns.—Since pride and fashion have had control of mankind, and shoemakers were compelled to make boots and shoes to fit fancy instead of the feet, the suffering from Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Sore Insteps, Blistered Heels, Callosities on the bottom of the feet, &c., cannot be described. But Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies will cure all such torments, and a proper fitting boots will prevent their reproduction. Sold by all druggists. a12

Castoria—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jal 4w

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray; either of them disposes to fall off prematurely, and either effect is unsightly and unpleasant to behold. Dr. Ayer's concentrate still has produced an antidote for these deformities, which has won gratitude for him from multitudes of men and women. His Hair Vigor sometimes reproduces lost hair; and always restores to faded and gray hair its natural color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The comparatively few bald and gray heads, that we now see, are those who have not yet discovered the virtues of Ayer's Hair Vigor for renewing the hair. The fresh and youthful hair we see on older heads is often the product of his art. If you are disfigured, or made old, austere and ugly, by gray hair, restore its youthful color, and with your features to their original softness and agreeable expression.

As an elegant dressing for beautifying the Hair, it has no superior.

Garrison to Sumner.

The following letter from Wm. Lloyd Garrison to Charles Sumner explains itself. Mr. Garrison, as one of the founders of the Republican party, and one of its staunchest supporters throughout its history, has the best possible right to speak in its behalf, and the sterling honesty and unwavering faith in the future of the party which is shown in this address to his former co-worker and friend, makes the rebuke all the more scathing:

ROXBURY, June 1, 1872.

Dear Mr. Sumner:—I owe it to you to say, with all the frankness which a sincere friendship justifies, that I have carefully read your speech in sharp arraignment of the President; and my conviction is that it is ill-judged, ill-timed, and so extravagant in its charges and bitter in its personalities as to neutralize whatever of just criticism can be found in it. It will assuredly serve the purpose of the worst foes the cause of impartial freedom has most to fear, very many of them now rallying under the deceptive banner of "Liberal Republicanism;" but the loyal liberty-upholding party with which you have hitherto been proud to be identified, will peruse it with deep regret if not unfeigned astonishment. Certainly, you do not represent Massachusetts in this sweeping impeachment. Her Republican people are almost a unit for the re-election of the man whom you attempt to stain with crime and cover with infamy. You cannot separate General Grant from the party which put him in the Presidential chair, and which means to keep him in it, if possible, another term, being satisfied as to his ability, integrity and patriotism; and, therefore, in stigmatizing him as a venal self-seeker and an unscrupulous usurper, you virtually pronounce it to be equally corrupt and untrustworthy. This you have a right to do, on your own responsibility, if you must; but in so doing you will find yourself, for the first time, in marked opposition to the sentiment of Massachusetts, as its Senator in Congress, and surrounded by allies who have heretofore been your deadliest enemies.

Occupying, as I do, an outside position, I write this under no party bias, and because I feel constrained in this manner to free my mind as a proof of friendship. Receive it in the spirit which has dictated it.

Faithfully and regretfully yours,

WM. LLOYD GARRISON.

—A short time ago a little babe in Portland, Maine, died, and, as is sometimes the case, was laid away in the bureau drawer till the funeral. The day of the funeral came, and the bereaved was convulsed with grief over the little casket, and sobbing laid it away in the cold ground. On her return home she thought she would go to the drawer and gaze once more at the place which would henceforth be consecrated, when what should meet her eyes, when the drawer was opened, but the lifeless corpse of the child that been entirely forgotten in preparation for the funeral.

—A drummer went mad at Indianapolis lately and puzzled his employer in New York by telegraphing to send on immediately one barrel condensed beef, thirteen steamboats, one medium white elephant, and ten gross of June bugs (assorted).

—A Newburg damsel has framed the verdict a jury gave in her favor in a suit for breach of promise of marriage, and has hung it conspicuously in her parlor as a frightful warning to all triflers.

JURUBEBA

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the vital powers and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in native country as possessing wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Stomach, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequaled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Alleviator absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUGHS. Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Alleviator for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind and for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, DR. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREFETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

CORNS, Bunions, Bad Nails, and other diseases of the feet, Scrofulous and Cancerous Humors, Piles, etc., skillfully treated at the great central Chiropodical and Healing Institute, No. 705 Broadway, New York. DR. J. BRIGGS, President; DR. ALEXANDER WEBBER, Secretary. ap9

The Daily Chronicle,

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1872.

Election of U. S. Senator.

Editors of the Chronicle:—I desire to present the following reasons why Hon. EDWARD H. ROLLINS should be chosen Senator in Congress:

1. He has the ability, industry, intelligence and experience in public affairs which would enable him to discharge, to the advantage of the State and with credit to himself, the duties of that high office.

2. He has done more than any other Republican within our borders to infuse energy and give cohesive power to the Republican party of New Hampshire, having on several occasions organized victory in the face of predicted defeat and enabled us long to triumph over a political foe who fights for lost power with a degree of vigor, and even desperation, not brought into exercise by the Democratic party in any other State.

3. He would, in the Senate of the United States, be a decided, sagacious and intrepid supporter of the principles of the Republican party, and upon an enlarged field be an able coadjutor with his associates in that body of like faith, in contributing to the ascendency of the Republican party so long as it is, as now, the party of the people.

4. He is the choice of a great majority of the Republicans of New Hampshire; and while the re-election of the present incumbent would bring no strength to our cause, the defeat of Mr. Rollins will produce profound disappointment through the ramifications of the party, and therefore weaken us for the strife to which we shall be speedily summoned with our ancient enemy, whereas we need to be strengthened and encouraged anew for that conflict.

5. He should be elected in order that the Republican party of New Hampshire do not become a "close corporation," and its most honorable public positions be conferred for long tenures upon a few incumbents, no more able or deserving than others to fill offices of honor and profit. The doctrine of rotation has long been in favor in New Hampshire, and cannot safely be ignored.

A REPUBLICAN FROM THE START.

The National Convention.

The delegates to the Republican National Convention had nearly all arrived in Philadelphia on the evening of June 4th, and not a little speculation was rife concerning the choice of a candidate for Vice President, Colfax and Senator Wilson of Massachusetts being the leading candidates for the nomination, and the friends of each confident—or assuming to be—of success.

The question of who should have the first place on the ticket seems not to have received a thought, the delegates recognizing that the people had already selected ULYSSES S. GRANT as their leader in the approaching campaign, and that the convention's only business, so far as the nomination of a candidate for President was concerned, was to formally announce the decision long ago arrived at by the Republican party and expressed by the State conventions and the press through the country.

The New Hampshire delegation organized by the choice of Ex-Governor Frederick Smyth as chairman, and O. E. Moore as secretary. The committees were filled as follows: Vice-president, W. H. Y. Hackett; permanent organization, Daniel Barnard; rules, S. W. Johnson; resolutions, Ossian Ray.

On Wednesday, at 12 o'clock, M., the delegates began to get settled in their seats, and at a quarter past twelve Gov. Claflin called the convention to order and Rev. Dr. Reed, a Presbyterian clergyman, offered prayer, the audience rising. Hon. Morton McMichael of Philadelphia was chosen temporary chairman, and was conducted to the chair by Messrs. Lane of Indiana, Pratt of Virginia, and Lewis of Louisiana, the latter a colored man. John W. Newton of New Jersey, Hiram Potter, Jr., of Florida, and John R. Hubbard of West Virginia were chosen temporary secretaries.

By a special dispatch over the International Line, after the adjournment of the convention, we learn that Judge Settle was chosen President, and that speeches were made by Gen. Logan, Gerritt Smith, Gov. Morton, Gov. Oglesby and Gov. Orr. The dispatch closes—"Henry Wilson will win." The utmost enthusiasm prevailed.

The State Legislature.

The Republican members of the House met in caucus in Phœnix Hall, Concord, June 4, and were called to order by Judge Nesmith of Franklin. Hon. Charles H. Bell of Exeter was appointed temporary chairman, when a committee of ten, one from each county, was appointed to report a list of officers for permanent organization, and the committee selected for chairman Hon. Charles H. Bell of Exeter, and for secretaries Edward Farrar of Keene and William M. Weed of Sandwich. A ballot was taken for speaker, with the following result:—

Necessary for a choice	82
Asa Fowler of Concord had	82
William C. Patten of Kingston had	78
Scattering	2

and Hon. Asa Fowler of Concord was declared nominee, which on motion of Mr. Patten was made unanimous. For clerk, Josiah H. Benton, Jr., of Lancaster, for assistant clerk, Samuel C. Clark of Guilford, and for sergeant at arms, Charles H. Roberts of Farmington, were respectively nominated by acclamation. A committee appointed for the purpose reported for doorkeepers the names of Samuel D. Robinson of Pembroke, Colonel Charles H. Long of Claremont and Franklin G. Moody of Concord, after which the caucus adjourned.

The Senatorial caucus was held in the Phœnix Hotel and the following nominations were made: For President, Hon. Charles Cambell of Nashua; for clerk, Luther S. Morrill of Concord; and for assistant clerk, Tyler Westgate of Haverhill.

The Legislature assembled at 11 o'clock, Wednesday forenoon. Governor Weston, attended by the Council, called the assembly to order and administered the customary oaths of qualification, after which his Excellency and the Council withdraw.

The House was called to order by the Clerk, and Hon. G. W. Nesmith of Franklin was chosen temporary chairman.

After a few remarks by Mr. Nesmith the House proceeded to ballot for a Speaker, with the following result: Number of votes cast 347. William C. Patten, 1; Thomas Cogswell, 138; Asa Fowler, 208.

Mr. Fowler on assuming the chair, made brief remarks, recommending a short session.

On motion of Thomas Cogswell, James H. Benton, of Lancaster, was elected clerk. Charles H. Roberts was elected Sergeant-at-Arms, and after some discussion Samuel D. Robinson of Pembroke, Charles H. Long of Claremont and Franklin G. Moody of Concord were elected doorkeepers.

The Speaker was authorized to appoint two pages. A committee of one from each county was appointed to nominate a chaplain. It was voted that last year's rules of the House be observed this session till otherwise ordered.

The Senate met and organized by electing Charles H. Campbell, of Nashua, president; Luther S. Morrill, of Concord, clerk; Tyler Westgate of Haverhill, assistant clerk; and Zelotus Stevens, of Concord, doorkeeper.

THE INAUGURATION PROGRAMME.—The following programme has been arranged for the inauguration ceremonies of Governor Straw at Concord to-day. Colonel W. H. Maxwell will assume command of the military force present and the line will be formed at ten o'clock in Railroad square in this order: Adjutant-General Haines and aids; Concord brass band; first regiment N. H. V. M., Lieutenant-Colonel D. J. Flanders, commanding; Dover cornet band; second regiment N. H. V. M., Captain J. M. Clough, commanding; Hall's band; Amoskeag Veterans, Major Natt Head, commanding. On the arrival of the train bearing the Governor he will be received with the customary honors and a salute of fifteen guns will be fired in Railroad square by the first light battery, section B, Lieutenant S. S. Piper, commanding, when the line will break in columns of four and proceed through the principal streets to the State house, where the escort will be given up and the troops return to Phœnix Hall for a collation. The order of the procession will be as follows: Adjutant-General Haines and staff; Colonel Maxwell's command; Hon. Ezekiel Straw, governor-elect; Governor Weston; the president of the senate and the speaker of the house in a barouche; Governor Weston's staff; ex-governors of the State; the council and State officers; city governments of Concord and Manchester; citizens in carriages; cavalcade. At the close of the inaugural ceremonies, about half-past one o'clock, the line will be reformed and the troops reviewed by Governor Straw from the balcony of the Eagle Hotel, after which the troops will return home.

THE PUBLIC DEBT was decreased during the month of May $4,226,061.78.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

USE BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL for all throat diseases.

THE AMOUNT OF GOLD received each week for Custom-house duties ceases to seem so fabulous when one has been through a great importing house (like that of Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston,) and viewed the wealth of silks and velvets, of shawls and rich goods, weekly received from all foreign parts of importance.

USE KENNEDY'S HEMLOCK OINTMENT.

USE BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL for all throat diseases.

PILES.—The unceasing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using BRIGGS' PILE REMEDIES.

USE KENNEDY'S HEMLOCK OINTMENT.

CORNS.—Since pride and fashion have had control of mankind, and shoemakers were compelled to make boots and shoes to fit fancy instead of the feet, the suffering from Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Sore Insteps, Blistered Heels, Callosities on the bottom of the feet, &c., cannot be described. But Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies will cure all such torments, and proper fitting boots will prevent their reproduction. Sold by all druggists. a12

USE KENNEDY'S HEMLOCK OINTMENT.

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jul 4w

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is compounded. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vatility into your exhausted and disordered system. m29 4w

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—These Pills alone, among all the medicines in existence, possess the property of cleansing and regulating the bowels and purifying the animal fluids without depressing either body or mind. Sold at 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per box. Ask for new style; the old is counterfeited.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Dead Delusion.

The theory that human beings whose strength has been exhausted by pain and sickness can be restored by depleting medicines and water gruel, if not absolutely a dead delusion, is in the last agonies of dissolution. At length it is understood that strength cannot be purged into a debilitated frame, though life may be easily purged out of it and that it is about as wise to withhold a healthful stimulant from the weak, in the expectation that they will rally without one, as it would be to deprive a lamp of oil and expect it to burn the brighter for it.

The immense and uniform success which has attended the use of that wonderful combination of a pure, stimulant with the finest medicinal herbs, known as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, has largely assisted in dispelling the absurd chimera. Frantic attempts are made to revive it, but in vain. When the sick feel that their strength is departing, and that unless invigorated they must utterly break down, it is in vain to tender them feculent slops in the place of genuine restoratives. They may be imposed upon in this way once, but the imposition cannot be repeated. They desire to be comforted, refreshed, braced up, and decline to be griped a second time.

Under the operation of Bitters, on the other hand, all the processes necessary to physical restoration go on simultaneously. The system is stimulated and toned, the bowels regulated, the appetite cultivated, the nerves composed and the condition of the blood improved at one and the same time by a single medicine. Common sense tells us that such a preparation must be invaluable.

Wreck.

Schooner Fanny Fern, of Kennebunkport, Capt. Curtis, bound from Boston to Kenebunkport with a cargo of molasses and flour, went ashore at 11 o'clock P. M., Tuesday, on Odiorne's Point at the entrance to this harbor, owing to her compasses being out of order; and the gale of Wednesday morning broke her up, the only portion of the her cargo saved being a few barrels of flour in a damaged condition. The Fanny Fern was a small vessel of about 45 tons burthen, and was uninsured, Capt. Curtis losing $1000 by the wreck. She had one passenger on board, who was brought up to town by Rev. O. F. Van Cise, who drove to the point Wednesday forenoon to view the ocean and was in time to get an idea of its power in a storm by seeing the light job made by the waves in shattering the unlucky schooner.

Laconics.

The report of the Directors of the P. S. & P. Railroad shows the net earning of the road to be $165,000 for the past year, $30,000 more than for the year previous, and about $15,000 over the 10 per cent. guaranteed by the Eastern Railroad.

Mr. Charles Perkins, a locomotive fireman on the Eastern Railroad, was knocked off the cab of his engine into the water, between Somerville and Everett, Mass., on Monday night, June 3d, and drowned. He was about thirty-five years old, and belonged in Maine.

A stiff breeze from the southwest sprang up Tuesday night, working around to the northeast before morning and blowing a heavy gale throughout Wednesday, large quantities of rain falling at the same time. We have heard of no serious accidents as yet, excepting the wreck of the Fanny Fern, which is mentioned in another place:

A despatch from this city to the Boston Globe says that "for the past fortnight the friends of Mr. Lot M. Norton, a mate on board the frigate Sabine in this harbor, have been solicitous in regard to this fate, he having some three weeks since been granted a furlough of three days and not yet having been heard from. Norton was inclined to liquor drinking, and it is supposed that while intoxicated he attempted to reach the ship and was drowned. A short time after he was missing a despatch was received from a town in Maine to Norton informing him that his wife was dying, and requesting him to come immediately, but he was nowhere to be found, and from that time to this present moment, no pains have been spared to solve the mystery connected with his absence. His death is well nigh beyond a doubt."

Some sneak thief has been operating at the residence of H. F. Wendell, Esq., and has transferred a rubber door-mat to parts unknown to Mr. Wendell, who offers a reward of twenty dollars for the conviction of the annoying nuisance.

Tickets to Haverhill and return for the Jubilee rehearsal Friday, 7th inst., may be obtained by singers and others, at the Concord depot in this city. Train starts at five minutes before 8.

A trusty, reliable boy can find employment as telegraph messenger, by calling at the Western Union Office immediately.

Capt. Colvercoresses, formerly of the U. S. Navy and some years ago (when a lieutenant) on duty at this naval station, was murdered in Bridgeport, Conn., at 11 o'clock P. M., June 3d, while on his way to the New York boat, on which he had previously secured a passage. He had a satchel with him, which he seemed to guard carefully. Shortly after he left his hotel a pistol shot was heard by the police, who found the captain dying, having received a bullet in the lower left breast and a severe cut on the hip. His sword cane was bent double, showing that he had defended himself stoutly, and a large single barrelled pistol of peculiar make was found near him. His satchel and watch were gone. It is believed that the satchel contained about $10,000. Capt. Colvercoresses had a life insurance of $60,000. He was a Greek by birth, and was brought to this country when a boy by an officer of high rank in the navy.

—The Dominion flag does not appear to command high respect at St. John, N. B. The Telegraph of that city has the following: "The flags of Spain and the United States floated from staffs, adjoining Queen's square, on Sunday last. On the staff in the square, where our own flag should have been flung to the breeze, there was a dead cat suspended by the halyards."

The News.

In the United States Senate, June 4, the conference report on the tariff bill was agreed to. The bill to prevent cruelty to animals in transition was passed. The report of the New York custom-house investigation committee was submitted. At evening session the sundry civil service appropriation bill was consided. In the House, the bill to distribute to the late insurrectionary States their quota of arms and equipments for the years from 1862 to 1869 was passed. The conference report on the tariff bill was agreed to without a division. This finally disposes of legislation on the tariff question. The omnibus appropriation bill was not ready, and the House adjourned until Friday.

The verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of Daniel Webster Appleton, burned to death in a Boston police station, censures the system which permits a prisoner to be confined unattended, relieves the officer in charge of all blame, and finds that Appleton set the lock-up on fire intentionally.

Hon. Nathan Weston, late chief justice of the supreme court of Maine, died in Augusta June 4, at the age of eighty-nine years.

There was an excited scene in the British House of Lords, June 4, over the Alabama treaty. Lord Russell drew loud cheers by saying: "The nation must show as it has before that it is jealous of the honor of the British crown. It must treat the United States as it treated them in the Trent case." The noble lord has probably not yet heard that the American civil war ceased some months ago;—and the United States Congress is not the only legislative gasometer in the world.

Mr. Samuel A. Way, the well-known Boston banker, died in that city June 4th. His recent trouble with the government hastened his death.

"Father Cleveland," for more than forty years a missionary to the poor of Boston, died on Wednesday morning, June 5, being 100 years old, lacking less than a month.

State News.

A paintshop and storehouse in Wilton, owned and occupied by Messrs. Putnam & Cochran, furniture manufacturers, was destroyed by fire June 4th. Loss $5000; insurance $3000.

A clerk in a grocery store in Manchester, undertook to ascertain the cause of the head of a hogshead of molasses bulging out by striking it with a mallet, when a loud report ensued, and he was thrown violently across the floor, and enveloped from head to foot in a flood of molasses. He says he never felt so sweet in all his life.

The liquor saloons of Pittsfield have been closed by the Selectmen.

John Cook, Jr., who with his wife and three children was murdered last April by Indians at the west, was a native of Campton and has relatives at Plymouth and surrounding town. Mrs. Cook's maiden name was Dianthia Washburne, and she was a native of Maine.

Frank Perkins fell from a board in Meredith while shingling, June 3, and was killed. He was 41 years old and leaves no family.

Political.

The New York Sun thinks it even possible that Sumner's speech—the ammunition for which it claims to have provided—may "help and not hinder the President's re-election." For once Republicans in general will agree with the copper Sun.

The New York Evening Post, a paper not to be accused of friendliness for the present Administration, pronounces Senator Sumner's latest speech his weakest also, and his assault upon President Grant as "pedantic, impassioned scolding."

To the list of eminent anti-slavery men who condemn Senator Sumner's late speech must be added the name of the poet, John G. Whittier.

RACING.—The spring meeting at Beacon Park opened June 4, with a race for 2:35 horses, purse $800. Phil Sheridan won in three straight heats, Bristol Bill second—time, 2:31 1-2, 2:34 1-2, 2:35 1-2.

At Prospect Park, June 3, the first race, mile heats, purse 1000, was won by George, best time 2:29 3-4. The second race, purse $1760, was won by Charley Green; best time 2:26 3-4.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases, such as the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the choice of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage at which time there is no local cure) relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs,
Croup,
Diphtheria,
Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "rambling in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
—OF—
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE WORLD,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run it. It works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.
N. B. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

Morning Chronicle.

OLD BEN WADE.—Wade, on one occasion, replied to Toombs of Georgia, in the Senate; and, to all appearances, used language which would compel Toombs to challenge him. Several friends went to Wade and begged him to desist, but the old fellow became more and more violent, until Toombs indicated his intention of calling him out, when Wade quietly sat down, seemingly having accomplished what he sought. The Southern men looked at each other in astonishment, and it was manifest to all that Wade had deliberately provoked a quarrel with Toombs.

That night a friend of the Southern Senator called on Mr. Wade to know if he would retract the offensive words he had used.

"No, I won't take back a d—d word," was Wade's emphatic reply. "Then," said the friend of Mr. Toombs, "it will be necessary for Senator Toombs to challenge you to mortal combat." "That is just what I want, and we might have got to the point without all this palaver," said Wade.

"You surely can't be in earnest, Mr. Wade," said the Southerner.

"Why, of course I am, man. You see, sir, we Northern men don't fight often, or like to fight. Now, I am opposed to the code, and so are my constituents, but you fellows have broken Sumner's head, and we must spank up a little or you will break all our heads. The shortest way to end the matter is to kill off a few of you, and I have the choice of weapons, and I'll take my old rifle, and d—d me if I don't bring him down at the first crack!"

When Toombs heard of what Wade said, he was mightily disturbed, and replied: "Well, I suppose I will have to let it go—I can't challenge him; if I do, the old rascal will kill me, sure enough." It appears Wade and Toombs had been out together shooting with a rifle several times, and while Toombs could shoot very well with a pistol, he was a poor rifle shot. On the other hand Wade was an old hunter and an adept with the rifle. In those days he could hit a dollar at a hundred yards, three out of five shots, and old Toombs had seen him do it. The Georgia fire-eater had no idea of becoming the target of such a man. Long after the affair was over, I said one day to Mr. Wade, "If Toombs had actually challenged you, would you really have accepted and gone out to fight?"

Mr. Wade replied solemnly: "If old Toombs had challenged me that time, as I expected he would, I would have accepted and fought him. I had it all arranged in my own mind; I would have put a patch on my coat over my heart of the size of a dollar and made Toombs do the same. I was used to that kind of shooting, and if the old fellow had stood still, d—d me if I wouldn't have cut his patch first fire. I was not much afraid of getting hurt; for old Toombs knew me as a good rifle shot, while I knew him to be a very bad one, and I felt quite sure that patch business would demoralize him."

Not only did Mr. Toombs refuse to challenge Mr. Wade, but no Southern member could be induced to send him a challenge, no matter what he might say.

JUST AS WAS TO BE EXPECTED.—The New York World has the following: A painful rumor is current in our neighboring city of Brooklyn to the effect that a personal difficulty of a grave character has arisen between the spirit of Demosthenes and the accomplished editor of the Golden Age. It appears that upon the nomination to the Presidency of Mrs. Victoria C. Woodhull by the convention for giving everybody everything, Demosthenes called upon Mr. Tilton to fulfil the expectations of the spirit-world, aroused by his interesting biography of that gifted woman, and "come out" in her support. To this Mr. Tilton replied that he had already "gone in" for Horace Greeley, in sign whereof he invited the attention of the illustrious orator to a brand-new white hat which he was at the moment wearing. The enraged Greek, without another word, raised the right hand which had essayed to shake the Macedonian throne, and struck the white hat over the wearer's eyes. A high joint commission, consisting of Stephen Pearl Andrews, Brigham Young and the ghost of Fanny Wright, is now sitting on the case, which it is hoped, may be settled without bloodshed.

"DEAR FATHER, COME DOWN."—Oh, father, dear father, come down with the stamps, my dress-maker's bill is unpaid; she said she would send it right down from the shop as soon as the flounces were made. My new dress from Percy's is down in the hall, the boy will not leave without pay; I've nothing to sport in—can't go to the ball, so please send the boy away! Come down! come down! Oh, hear the sweet voice of thy child, who cries in her room alone; oh, who could resist her most pitiful tears? So, father, with stamps you'll come down. Oh, father, dear father, come down with the stamps, my curls are not fit to be seen—the hairdresser said he would not do them up unless I could pay him fifteen—he only asked twenty to have a new set, and take the old hair in exchange; besides, pa, my waterfall's awfully rough, and so my back hair will look strange. Come down! come down! Please father, come down!

—"Now, children," said a Sunday school gentleman visitor, who had been talking to the scholars about good people and bad people, "now, children, when I am walking in the street, I speak to some persons I meet, and I don't speak to others; and what's the reason?" He expected the reply would be, "Because some are good and others are bad," but to his discomfort, the general shout was, "Because some are rich and others are poor!"

SECOND

Grand Gift Concert

IN AID OF THE

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY,

AT LOUISVILLE KY.

BY authority in the act of the Legislature incorporating the PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY, the Trustees will give their

SECOND GIFT CONCERT

In the great hall of the Public Library building in Louisville, Ky., on Saturday, September 28, '72.

This magnificent hall, known as Weisiger Hall, is the largest, most centrally located, and best arranged for large and fashionable audiences of any in Louisville and is fitted up in superb style. The building has a front of 165 feet on Fourth St., by a depth of 200 feet, four stories in height, and was recently purchased for the Public Library at a cost of $210,000. Three large rooms are now fitted up for a library, and contain about 20,000 volumes and a museum of 100,000 specimens, now open, and free to the gratuitous use and enjoyment of all citizens of every State in the Union. It is the purpose of the Trustees, by the GRAND GIFT CONCERT now announced, to raise the money with which to pay the balance of the purchase money due upon the Public Library building, to enlarge the library, and to endow the institution so as to make it self sustaining and forever beyond the necessity of calling upon any individual who uses the books for the contribution of a single cent toward its support.

100,000 TICKETS OF ADMISSION

will be issued at $10 each; half tickets $5; quarter tickets $2.50; 11 whole tickets for $100; 28 for $225; 56 for $450; 113 for $1000; 565 for $5,000; 875 for $8,000. 20 per cent discount on less than $100 worth of tickets at a time.

Tickets will be sent, when requested, by registered letter. The money for them may be sent by Adams' Express Co. and its connections, P. O. money order, registered letter, or bank draft.

The holder of each ticket, or fraction of a ticket (a half or a quarter,) is entitled to admission to the concert and to the gift awarded to it. During the concert the sum of

will be given to the holders of tickets by distribution by lot of ONE THOUSAND GIFTS, as follows:

This Concert, like the first of the 10th of December last, (which was so decidedly successful, and at which the first grand gift was drawn by and paid to Mr. John R. Duff, of Memphis, Tenn.,) is for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky.

The Farmers' and Drovers' Bank is Treasurer, and the corporators and supervisors are all representative men, and are among the most respectable and distinguished citizens of the State. Should any tickets be left unsold on the day of the drawing, they will be destroyed, and the one thousand gifts offered will all be drawn and paid, but diminished in value in proportion to the percentage of unsold tickets. For instance, if only three-fourths of the tickets are sold, the capital gift will be reduced to $75,000, and all the others in proportion.

The Hon. THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, late Governor of Kentucky, has consented to represent the Trustees in the management of this second Grand Gift Concert, and he will personally see that the money from the sale of Tickets is deposited with the Treasurer, that the drawing is fairly conducted, and the gifts justly awarded and promptly paid.

The drawing will take place in public, in full view of the audience, and under the immediate supervision and direction of the officers and Trustees of the Public Library of Kentucky and the following named eminent and disinterested citizens, who have consented to be present and see that all is fairly done:

Hon. M. R. HARDIN, Judge Court Appeals, Ky.

Every Man His Own Physician.

CAUTION.

THE immense demand for HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT, has tempted four principled parties to counterfeit these valuable medicines.

In order to protect the public and ourselves, we have issued a new "Trade Mark," consisting of an Egyptian circle of a serpent, with the letter H in the centre. Every box of genuine HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT will have this trade mark on it; none are genuine without it.

REPTILES IN MADAGASCAR.—Beasts of prey are unknown in Madagascar; but the rivers abound in alligators, and scorpions are extremely prolific, more especially at Bembatooka, which Lieutenant Bataler had an opportunity of ascertaining, by accidentally finding under a stone on the declivity of a projecting point, a little above high water mark a, black scorpion, but in so lethargic state, that, although when touched with a stick, it resented the attack by stinging with its tail, yet it would not change its position until repeatedly irritated in the same way. He afterwards removed several other stones most of which were found with one of the venomous reptiles beneath. It is not, perhaps, generally known that the most destructive enemy to these reptiles is the common mouse. They never meet without a contest, which almost universally terminates in favor of our little domestic annoyance, who, either by force of arms or stratagem, contrives to destroy his enemy. This he does by irritating the scorpion with his constant and agile attacks, until the reptile becomes so fatigued as to be an easy prey, or to become as some suppose, his own executioner. Lieutenant Jones and Dr. Guland landed on the Island of Rattow with their guns, and, in a short time returned with several birds of different kinds, and a large serpent of the boa-constrictor species, which they suddenly encountered, whilst walking through the jungle. When first seen it was scarcely five yards distant, and, either frightened or irritated at being disturbed, it assumed a most menacing attitude, its bright eyes glaring with fury, and coiling itself up, as if preparing to spring on Dr. Guland, who happened to be in advance; but that gentleman, before the monster had time to accomplish its purpose, lodged the contents of his gun in its head; the wound was fatal, and after lashing with its tail the surrounding bushes and grass for a few minutes, the huge reptile expired. It measured twelve feet in length, and in the thickest part of the body was nine inches round. About half-way down, the stomach was distended far beyond its usual size, which appeared evidently to proceed from something that it had devoured. On examination, a young springbok, about the size of a cat, was extracted in a perfect state, with the exception of a small portion of the head, upon which the monster's digestive organs had begun to act. The last time the doctor had visited this island, he was encountered by a crocodile about eight feet in length; the animal was frightened, and retreated one way, while Dr. Guland, whose gun was only charged with small shot, most readily availed himself of the other.—London Daily News.

BIG SUNDAY DINNERS.—A Sunday's dinner is made the most sumptuous meal of the week in a great many households, and the guests retire from the table more like gorged anacondas than intellectual human beings, with the result that during the whole afternoon there is such an amount of mental, physical and religious sleepiness, if not actual stupidity, that no duties whatever are performed with alacrity, efficiency and acceptableness. The Sunday dinner made of a cup of hot tea, some bread and butter, with slice of cold meat, and absolutely nothing else would be wiser and better for all; it would give the servants more leisure; the appetite would be as completely satisfied half an hour afterwards, while body, brain and heart would be in a fitting condition to perform the duties of the Sabbath with pleasure to ourselves, with greater efficiency to others, and doubtless with larger acceptance to Him toward whom all our service is due.—Hall's Journal of Health.

A NEW USE FOR FRESH EGGS.—The Scientific Press quotes the testimony of a gentleman in San Francisco with regard to the value of fresh eggs in affording nourishment to weak animals. He remarked that he had known a young colt which to all appearances was nearly dead, the breath of life being barely perceptible, to be quite instantly revived by giving it one or two fresh eggs. The same results, in several cases to which he was knowing, have followed the administration of eggs to weak calves, and also to feeble and chilled lambs. A remedy so simple, so easy at hand and so effectual in cases mentioned—which often occur with calves and lambs—should be remembered by our reader.

MANGEL-WURZEL.—All things considered, we regard this as the root crop for our climate, if the land is rich enough, and the plants get a good start, the severest drough seldom hurts the crop. Sow in drills three feet apart, and thin out twelve to fifteen inches in the rows. It requires about four pounds of seed per acre. The earlier the seed is sown in May the better, provided the soil can be got in good condition. But it is better to wait until June, or substitute ruta-bagas, rather than to sow on poorly-prepared land.—American Agriculturist.

JURUBEBA

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the MANKIND and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known to native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a specific in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS. Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twingling from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediately relieving the pain by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREFETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1872.

The National Convention.

The work of the convention was finished June 6th, GRANT and WILSON having been selected as the next President and Vice President of the United States. At twenty-five minutes before 11 o'clock, A. M., the convention was called to order and prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Harper.

A delegate from Oregon then made the gratifying announcement that his State is redeemed. At the election held there on Monday, June 3d, the Democratic rule, under which the State has been four years, was thrown off and a Republican Congressman and Legislature was elected.

While waiting for the Committee on Resolutions, the States were successively called upon to give the names of their choice for members of the National Committee for the next four years. The name of Governor Claflin was received with great applause, and so was the name of William E. Chandler of New Hampshire. William P. Frye was named by Maine; Wm D. Brayton by Rhode Island.

Various speakers occupied the time until quarter to 1 o'clock, P. M., when Mr. Cullom of Illinois nominated ULYSSES S. GRANT for President of the United States. The nomination was received with wild enthusiasm, all rising and cheering. Hats and handkerchiefs were waved. The band played Hail to the Chief, and round after round of applause rang through the building.

When silence was restored Gov. Stuart L. Woodford eloquently seconded the nomination in the name of the Empire State.

The roll call of States was then proceeded with. As each State was called, and responded through the chairman of the delegation by voting unanimously for Grant, applause followed.

When Ohio was called there was a moment of silent suspense, as the action of some of the delegates in opposing Grant in the State caucus, in the morning, had spread among the delegates. The chairman responded to the call of the State by responding that the delegation stood as a unit and cast her vote solid for Grant.

The roll call was then completed, and the President declared the nomination of Grant, by a unanimous vote, there being no opposition.

When the announcement was made another scene of enthusiasm followed, the delegates cheering for some minutes.

The balloting for a candidate for Vice President resulted as follows:

Henry Wilson had	364 1-2
Schuyler Colfax	321 1-2
Maynard	26
Davis	16
Scattering	2

Virginia then changed 20 to Wilson and he was declared the nominee of the convention, the nomination being made unanimous.

The News.

The latest advices from Persia are to the effect that the famine is gradually drawing to a close, after a year's unparalleled suffering of the inhabitants, and the almost total depopulation of some of the provinces. A traveller through that unhappy country describes the last stage of the famine as worse than the first. On his journey from Shiraz to Teheran he found the road strown with half-eaten corpses; cannibalism was very prevalent, and starvation had aroused the usually peaceable inhabitants to despair, and brigandage and other crimes of violence were rife all along the road. In the capital alone, out of a population of eighty thousand, at least twenty thousand had fallen victims to the famine and its attendant diseases.

The fearful increase of crime in the city of New York has had the effect of rousing the people to a determination to take the severest measures for its crushing out. It is suggested that in addition to imprisonment the worst criminals shall be subjected to the lash.

Lately four human skeletons were discovered in an old vault in Memphis. Since then thirteen more skeletons have been found in the same place. The vault was attached to the once notorious Shelby House, and the bones are supposed to be those of men murdered there years ago.

The schooner Enola C. of Gloucester, Mass., before reported as seized by the Dominion authorities, was taken at Trinity Bay on the 29th of May, having at the time two trawls set and two men in the act of raising them. Before being seized she had two more trawls in Trinity Bay, some 50 to 100 yards from the shore, and two men were in the act of raising them, with two live halibut in them, when she was boarded. Their lines extended along the shore, four or five miles. The Enola C. is owned by Sylvanus Smith & Co. of Gloucester, Mass., and had on board about 2000 pounds of halibut.

The New York Times discovers that a single bill of six hundred dollars was made to serve the Tammany manipulators as a basis for warrants for $73,860 during Hoffman's term as mayor, all of which were signed by him. The bill was for carpets furnished for the court-house by Gregg & Company. The latter received a warrant for the amount of their bill, and Ingersoll, E. A. Woodward and other tools of the ring managed the remainder for the benefit of the pockets of their rulers.

State News.

Governor-elect Straw arrived in Concord at half-past 11 o'clock Thursday forenoon, and was escorted to the State House, where the oath of office was administered by President Campbell of the Senate, who then declared Ezekiel A. Straw Governor of New Hampshire. Governor Straw being in poor health requested that the Speaker have the clerk read his message.

By a fire in Exeter, June 5, the brick block on Water street, owned by Mrs. Means, with its entire contents, was consumed. It was occupied by Mace & Scammon, butchers; Mrs. M. L. Billing, milliner; and Chas. H. Gerrish, dentist. The losses are estimated as follows: on building, $3,000, insured $1,200; Mace & Scammon, $1,500, insured $1,000; Gerrish, -1,000, insured $800; Mrs. Billings, $1,000, insured $400.

About half the granite for the new capitol at Albany, N. Y., will be quarried in Keene.

The Franklin Journal tells a strange story of an outrage to Charles C. Robinson of Northfield, who, being in feeble health, went to New York for medical treatment. He called at a doctor's office soon after arriving, and took some medicine. Suspecting poison, however, he did not take the whole dose. The "doctor" thereupon fell upon him, battered up his face, robbed him, and turned him over to the police as a drunken desperado. The police officers took him to the lobby, and tried to pour liquor down him. He was then taken to the work-house, where he was found by one of his friends, and taken home. The unfortunate man has a family, is a gentleman of high intelligence and respectability, and is known in the community as an upright man of correct habits.

The annual meeting of the Sugar River Railroad was held in Newport on the 1st and the following Directors chosen: E. L. Goddard, D. W. Johnson, J. S. Walker, J. P. Upham, Dexter Richards, Edmund Burke, L. W. Barton.

On the 31st ult., in Acworth, Mr. D. Nye fell from a beam in the barn of Mr. Daniel Nye, breaking his skull and one wrist. His recovery is very doubtful. He is aged twenty.

On the 1st, in Bath, a son of Mr. Cyrus Luck had the bad fortune to shoot his own foot instead of a crow.

Mrs. B. T. White of Wentworth had on the 4th ripe tomatoes growing in her garden, which she has raised without a hot-house.

Political.

The Springfield Republican, a supporter of Mr. Greeley, says: "So far as present appearances go, the prospect for a change of tenants at the White House next March can hardly be described as encouraging."

The Baltimore American, after taking a careful view of the field, thinks that, with Greeley and Brown as the opposing candidates, there is a cheerful prospect of carrying even Maryland for Grant.

The Democracy of Haddon township (Indians) resolve "That we, the members of the Democratic party of Haddon township, not being desirous that the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention shall live or die our debtor, pledge ourselves, that, under no contingency, will we ever cast a vote for Horace Greeley; and, further, we cordially indorse the action of our Representative in Congress, Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, etc."

The Baltimore American recommends for a motto above the doors of the Baltimore Convention, a quotation from Greeley, as follows: "All Democrats are not horse-thieves, but all horse-thieves are Democrats."

There were about forty people present at the first Greeley meeting in Chicago.

PILES.—The nauseating torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using BRIGGS' PILE REMEDIES.

USE KENNEDY'S HEMLOCK OINTMENT.

CORNS.—Since pride and fashion have had control of mankind, and shoemakers were compelled to make boots and shoes to fit fancy instead of the feet, the suffering from Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Sore Insteps, Blistered Heels, Chilblains on the bottom of the feet, &c., cannot be described. But Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies will cure all such torments, and proper fitting boots will prevent their reproduction. Sold by all druggists. al2

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not gripe or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nostrums Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will all always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York jal 4w

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is compounded. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vitility into your exhausted and disordered system. m29 4w

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—These Pills alone, among all the medicines in existence, possess the property of cleansing and regulating the bowels and purifying the animal fluids without depressing either body or mind. Sold at 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per box. Ask for new style; the old is counterfeited.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Dead Delusion.

The theory that human beings whose strength has been exhausted by pain and sickness can be restored by depleting medicines and water gruel, if not absolutely a dead delusion, is in the last agonies of dissolution. At length it is understood that strength cannot be purged into a debilitated frame, though life may be easily purged out of it and that it is about as wise to withhold a healthful stimulant from the weak, in the expectation that they will rally without one, as it would be to deprive a lamp of oil and expect it to burn the brighter for it.

The immense and uniform success which has attended the use of that wonderful combination of a pure stimulant with the best medicinal herbs, known as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, has largely assisted in dispelling the absurd chimera. Frantic attempts are made to revive it, but in vain. When the sick feel that their strength is departing, and that unless invigorated they must utterly break down, it is in vain to tender them feculent slops in the place of genuine restoratives. They may be imposed upon in this way once, but the imposition cannot be repeated. They desire to be comforted, refreshed, braced up, and decline to be griped a second time.

Under the operation of Bitters, on the other hand, all the processes necessary to physical restoration go on simultaneously. The system is stimulated and toned, the bowels regulated, the appetite cultivated, the nerves composed and the condition of the blood improved at one and the same time by a single medicine. Common sense tells us that such a preparation must be invaluable.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

HAVE IT ALWAYS AT HAND.—Accidents will happen in the best regulated families, and for this reason among many others, the MUSTANG LINIMENT should find a place in the cupboard of every household. In all the world there is nothing comparable to it as an application for cuts, contusions, burns, sprains, and scalds, and when every other preparation that medical ingenuity can suggest, has failed to afford relief in rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, glandular swellings, muscular contractions, cramps, toothache &c., this powerful anti-inflammatory and pain-destroying agent immediately assuages the sufferer's agony and eventually accomplishes a radical cure. Probably there is no connoisseur in horse flesh or an amateur horseman in the land who does not know, either from personal observation or reports that the MUSTANG LINIMENT is the supreme remedy for all external diseases and injuries of the horse

The Storm.

Few if any trees were destroyed in this vicinity, the losing of large limbs by two elm trees near the residence of F. W. Miller, Esq., on Lincoln Hill, being the principle disaster in that line of which we have any cognizance.

Schooner Denmark, Call, from Boston for Dresden, sprung a leak in the gale of June 5th, making 800 strokes an hour, and was beached at Newcastle by the pilot, for repairs.

Schooner Enterprise, topsail schooner Challenge and British schooner Armanilla went ashore on Great Island in the gale of the 5th, but all got off next day without damage, with the assistance of a tug.

Schooner Sun, Capt. Mosely, of Hancock, Me., loaded with wood and bound for Boston, went ashore on Eastern Point near York harbor, and was a total loss, with no insurance. All hands saved.

Schooner Doris, Capt. Keith, of Ellsworth, Me., went ashore on Salisbury beach and will be a total loss. No insurance. All hands saved.

Schooner Cyprus, Capt. Robinson, of Millbridge, Me., ran ashore on the beach near Rye fish houses and went to pieces. No lives lost.

Several vessels rode out the gale in safety under the lee of Boon Island and the Shoals. Other wrecks are reported at more distant points along the coast, but no loss of life is mentioned. The gale was one of the worst for many years.

Laconics.

Schooners Velocipede and Annie M. Nash arrived at Messrs. Harding and Doane's, June 5th, with 400 barrels mackerel, the first fares of the season.

Ass't Engineer James A. Deaver and Mate John L. Vennard have been detached from the U. S. S. Speedwell at this Station. Mr. Deaver is waiting orders and Mr. Vennard has been ordered to the Navy Yard. The boilers of the Speedwell are being taken out and new ones are to be put in, while the vessel's hull is to undergo thorough repairs.

Gen. M. F. Wentworth of Kittery on Thursday threw to the breeze a large national flag bearing the names of "Grant and Wilson,"—certainly one of the first Republican campaign flags raised in New England since the nomination of the gentlemen named.

Farmers inform us that the recent storm has been very destructive to the abundant apple blowth in this vicinity.

A friend has given us an account of a back-action "sell" perpetrated upon Capt. Baker of the Appledore, which we tell at the risk of offending his well known modesty. A friend of Baker's a short time since purchased a box of tomato plants, and upon counting them found what seemed to be thirteen shoots instead of twelve, the number usually sold for a box. Upon closer inspection the purchaser discovered that one was a weed, known among farmers as "ragweed," which in the early stages of its growth very closely resembles the tomato plant. The friend thought he would play a good joke on Baker and so gave him the counterfeit tomato plant, which the captain very politely accepted, and carrying it home carefully planted it, thinking, doubtless, as he watered and nursed it from day to day, of the numberless ripe tomatoes that would result from his assiduous labor. The perpetrator of the sell, thinking it too bad to allow the captain to be so cruelly deceived, told him the joke a few days after and had a good laugh at Baker's expense; but the best of the story is that the ragweed turns out to be a genuine tomato plant, having been examined by experts and pronounced the real article beyond question, which rather turns the laugh on the other side.

Jubilee Notes.

The telegraph wires have been connected with the press room of the Coliseum.

Mr. Louis Elsen of Boston has completed an English version of Abt's "Lark's Rejoicing," to be sung by Madame Peschka-Leutner at the Jubilee.

The first rehearsal of the Anvil Chorus was held at the Walter E. Hawes engine house, No. 15, South Boston, Wednesday evening. P. S. Gilmore was present and conducted the exercises.

One entire section of the parquette floor, near the entrance to press headquarters, has been reserved by the executive committee for the press alone. This section contains over six hundred seats.

The entire arrangements for receiving and entertaining the press representatives who will be present at the Jubilee are in the hands of Mr. S. R. Niles, who is peculiarly fitted for this position on account of his large experience and extensive acquaintance with the newspaper profession throughout the country.

Strauss has concluded to compose a dashing potpourri, made up of excerpts from the best of his former works, and to which he will give the appropriate name of "Sounds in Boston." In addition, he is writing a new waltz especially for the Jubilee, which will be given to the world for the first time under the title of "Fair Columbia."

The sum realized for tickets is now fast approximating $100,000.

Correspondence.

KITTERY, ME., June 6.

On Friday evening the Republicans of Kittery will meet at Armory Hall for the nomination of delegates to the State, District and County Conventions. As Gov. Perham is to receive a re-nomination, and the County officers likewise, the only interest of the caucus is in the choice of delegates to the District Convention which is to nominate a candidate for member of Congress. A large majority of the votes of this town will work hard to secure, if possible, the nomination of Col. Wentworth, who has been a prominent worker in the Republican party ever since its organization. There are other equally true and earnest Republicans who are committed in their preferences to other candidates.

The earnest and determined manner in which the interests of the several candidates has been worked up, has not been altogether free from personal prejudices, which under the present state of affairs should be regarded by every true friend of the administration and party as not wholly consistant with their best interests; and hence as true partisans we should all seek harmony above any personal consideration. To do this every Republican should go to the caucus feeling that he has free and unobstructed privilege to vote just as he chooses; and after the choice of delegates has been made, the choice should be made unanimous,—that so far as Kittery is concerned, all having had an opportunity to express themselves should retire with the best of feelings one toward the other, and be the better prepared to act when the nomination on the 26th inst. shall have been made. With a united and unbroken front, we can enter the coming campaign with undoubted prospects of success. Then let us review our thoughts on the issue before us and vote without fear or favor at our caucus Friday evening,—and after all has been done that could be reasonably expected of us, let us fall into line again prepared to advance when the order is given, and not be satisfied until we shall hear the order to "halt" come echoing from the farthest point of the old Pine Tree State on the evening of the 2d Tuesday in September next,—and we furl our banner over a victorious field. OBSERVANDA.

—The Dowagiac, Mich., Good Templars are men of enterprise and originality. They offered their ball to a pair of elopers for the marriage ceremony free of expense, but charged every person that desired to see the show fifteen cents, and furnished a plate of ice cream as an additional attraction.

—If Mrs. Elizabeth Allen of Columbus, Ohio, had not attempted to fill a lighted kerosene lamp she would have been 33 years old next October.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Disease. For the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the ONES OF PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage, at which time there is no local cure) relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, QUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is substituted for alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs,
Croup,
Diphtheria,
Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "walking in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
— OF —
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running on needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

Morning Chronicle.

Correspondence.

BOSTON, June 5.

Have you no Boston correspondents? If so, what are they doing? Really one might write columns of twaddle from the Hub just at present, and you could fill your columns daily with communications in regard to what is going on here.

The anniversaries of last week brought the usual amount of unpleasant weather, seemingly illustrative of the necessity of "sprinkling."

The "shower bath" may be all that is needed, but a "Turkish Bath" at Dr. Dio Lewis' elegant Bellevue House, 19 Beacon street, will find more favor with all who believe cleanliness akin to godliness. The sensation of freedom, of strength, of renewed life given by one of these baths is something marvellous to the uninitiated.

The Jubilee is an engrossing topic, and the rapid progress of the Coliseum toward completion a source of gratification to the many friends of this gigantic enterprise. Ere the week ends the notes of the foreign bands will begin to re-echo in our streets.

James R. Osgood & Co. have published an admirable book for strangers, entitled "Boston Illustrated," showing points of interest in the city and suburbs, and furnishing a mass of information hard to be reached through any other medium. Fifty cents will buy this convenient guide to the city.

H. A. Brown & Co., 144 Tremont Street, also publish a guide book and map for strangers in the city at the low price of 20 cents, with all necessary direction and details.

Is a dealer in salt necessarily a salt cellar? [Answers enclosing a ten cent stamp thankfully received.]

California wine has grown into immense demand, chiefly through the long continued exertions of Perkins, Stern & Co., (whose house in Boston is 108 Tremont Street,) and their judicious advertising is the pattern by which most imitators hope to lead the public to test new brands by simulation. If your patrons wish a genuine article, they should insist on the brand of this house. Other brands may be good, but the public does not wish to pay the expense of the test.

It is no reason because a chiropodist makes an extract of corn that he must be a distiller. The man who claims for him the title of champion husker, is also at fault.

A lady friend astonished us by telling of the profusion of roses at a recent theatrical performance, but removed our wonder by remarking that the curtain "rose" seven times.

The prohibitory law is enforced in Boston, as usual;—that is, not at all. A few places are visited semi-occasionally, and the fine for "first offence" imposed. The whole working of the State Constabulary in Boston, in this direction, is simply a gigantic system of blackmailing. I would that we could see the law rigidly enforced for three months. M.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray; either of them disposes to fall off prematurely, and either effect is unsightly and unpleasant to behold. DR. AYER'S consummate skill has produced an antidote for these deformities, which has won gratitude for him from multitudes of men and women. HAIR VIGOR sometimes reproduces lost hair; and always restores to faded and gray hair its natural color, with the glossy and freshness of youth. The comparatively few bald and gray heads, that we now see, are those who have not yet discovered the virtues of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR for renewing the hair. The fresh and youthful hair we see on older heads is often the product of his art. If you are disfigured, or made old, austere and ugly, by gray hair, restore its youthful color, and with it your features to their original softness and agreeable expression.

As an elegant dressing for beautifying the Hair, it has no superior.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures, which have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicines. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, which is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords in sudden attacks, and by its timely use.

CORN SOWN FOR FODDER.—We have given frequently detailed directions for raising corn fodder—always sowing it in drills or furrows, the latter being the best, allowing more breath for the rows. An inquirer asks what time it should be sown? We answer, any time in the Northern States between the middle of May and the middle of July. Those who use it for early soiling may sow it as early as the weather and soil will allow, early in May, and if small early corn is sown quite thickly, say three bushels to the acre, it will give a heavy crop of fine fodder on good ground by the time of common wheat harvest. But if intended only for autumn soiling, or for winter fodder, it need not be sown earlier than the middle of June, and a larger variety of corn will do better. But never sow less than two or three and a half bushels of seed to the acre.

If the ground is poor, the crop will be greatly increased by manuring. Coarse manure may be used to good advantage on corn fodder. Plough two-horse furrows about three feet apart, fill them half full of manure by throwing with a fork from the cart or wagon, then strew the corn along from a half bushel basket on the left arm, at the rate of about three bushels per acre, and then harrow the whole lenthwise with the furrows. The harrow will break up the manure and mix it with the soil, and the seed will be mixed with both.

It may be scattered some, but more fodder will grow on a wide than on a narrow furrow, and if a few grains are left uncovered, there will still be enough for a good crop. If the owner happens to have a smoothing harrow, he may harrow the whole surface before the corn is up and two or three times afterwards; and this operation, together with the shading of the crop, will leave the surface as clean and smooth as a floor after the crop is gathered. It should not be overlooked by those not familiar with this mode of raising fodder that two or three times as much dry fodder may thus be obtained from corn as from good meadow; that cattle will eat the whole, stalks and all; and that the stalks will be sure to heat and spoil with the novice the first year,—therefore begin moderately.—Country Gentleman.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lapulina, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, Itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS, Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so universally successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the uncessing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREFETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

Editorial Correspondence.

The Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.

The New Hampshire delegation are snugly ensconced at the Continental, which is the scene of excitement. The corridors and parlors are thronged with thousands of men, eagerly and earnestly discussing the claims of the Vice Presidential candidates. It is estimated that 10,000 persons visited the Continental yesterday and last night the proprietors of the hotel succeeded in stowing away 1100 sleepers. The chances of the two most prominent candidates for the Vice Presidency are about equal. Senator Wilson has much individual strength, while Vice President Colfax has the most untiring workers. The Pennsylvanians and New Yorkers hope to decide the question. The nomination of Wilson would be assured if New England were unanimous in his support. As it is, Massachusetts and New Hampshire are unanimous for Wilson, Maine will probably give Colfax 10 and Wilson 4 votes, Rhode Island is for Colfax, Vermont is divided between Colfax and Hawley, and Connecticut is for Gen. Hawley. Somner's speech may nominate Mr. Wilson, as the delegates here desire to rebuke the egotistic, brow beating Senator whose bile has advantage of his judgment just now.

A more enthusiastic assemblage of national delegations never met than those in attendance here. From every State comes the assurance that there will be no loss from party strength by reason of Greeleyism. Fifty delegates to the Convention are colored; they represent their colored constituents as firmly for Grant. It is evident that President Grant is stronger than his party. The Pennsylvania campaign has opened gloriously. Last night the "wigwam" was dedicated by a vast crowd which filled every available foot of space, while it was impossible to get within half a mile of the entrance after the speaking commenced.

At the same time, 5000 Grant men were parading the principal streets with torch-lights and were greeted everywhere with shouts that rang out upon the air until near midnight. It was a great demonstration and the delegates will return home, feeling confident that those twin yet discordant elements, Democracy and Liberalism, cannot defeat the ticket nominated this week. G.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE is composed of the following gentleman, nearly all of whom are well known to the nation, as men of the highest character, and earnest advocates of the great principles represented by the Republican party:

Alabama, George D. Spencer; Arkansas, Powell Clayton; California, George C. Gorham; Connecticut, Marshall Jewell; Florida, William H. Gleason; Georgia, J. S. Fanning; Illinois, J. G. Scammon; Indiana, O. P. Morton; Iowa, G. W. Dodge; Kansas, John A. Martin; Kentucky, William C. Goodloe; Louisiana, G. Cessanual; Maine, W. B. Frye; Maryland, C. C. The committee organized by electing the following officers:—

Chairman—E. D. Morgan of New York.

Secretary—W. E. Chandler of New Hampshire.

Executive Committee—E. D. Morgan, New York; William Claflin, Massachusetts; Marshall Jewell, Connecticut; A. G. Cattell, New Jersey; Oliver P. Morton, Indiana; William H. Kemble, Pennsylvania; J. Y. The News.

The monster balloon in which Prof. King was to have ascended from Boston Common on the 4th of July, has burned itself up by spontaneous combustion.

John Bull having asked for more explanations and other arrangements concerning the supplemental article to the Alabama treaty and been informed that he can't have anything more, has stopped the Grenadier Guards' Band from coming to this country to take part in the Jubilee. John probably thinks the whole thing will "bust" now.

Two prominent citizens of Ayer, Mass., have been arrested and stand charged with having purposely caused the terrible fire in that town some weeks ago, for the purpose of defrauding insurance companies.

Koopmanschap, the great importer of "Chinese cheap labor," has failed. His assets and liabilities balance—$260,000 each—but the "assets" are worth nothing, consisting of $100,000 in bills due from Chinamen, and $160,000 in the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad, which is insolvent.

Earl Granville has been notified that the action of the United States Senate is the ultimatum in the Alabama claims question.

The Steamer Laurent has reached New York with the first of the foreign bands for the International Peace Jubilee—the celebrated Garde Republicaine Band of Paris.

Later advices state that the Grenadier Guard's Band of England left Liverpool for this country in steamship City of Brussels, playing American and English national airs as they left the harbor.

Political.

The nominations made at Philadelphia meet with enthusiastic endorsement from the Republican party all over the country. Now let's see how Baltimore will make out.

Horace Greeley wrote to B. Gratz Brown a few months ago the following, which reads rather queerly in the light of late events: "General, I long ago learned that principles were inconvenient, and that he who makes his own aggrandizement his aim must wear them loosely or put them aside altogether. I doubt that you would ever have attained your present dizzy elevation had you allowed yourself to be encumbered with them. But I am old fashioned and cannot change my camp or my flag with your admired facility."

The Louisville Courier-Journal calls Alexander H. Stephens a "voluminous old gentleman out of date and tune." The Courier-Journal advocates "anything to beat Grant," and Stephens is not willing to see the ancient slavery-upholding party supporting an abolitionist. That's what's the matter.

Speaking of the denial lately made by the children of the late John Greeley of certain remarks made by him, concerning his nephew's unfitness for the Presidential chair, the Nashua Telegraph says: "We haven't the slightest objection to their denying it. It is true, nevertheless, every particular. 'Horace will never be President of the United States. He is not the man.' The gentleman to whom Mr. John Greeley made this remark is a citizen of Nashua, and will make oath that he said it before and after the nomination of philosopher Horace."

State News.

There is one case of small-pox, and one of varloloid, in Wolfeborough—both workmen on the railroad—and the disease was brought by a Frenchman from Canada. The town authorities have taken prompt steps to prevent the spread of the disease by isolating the few persons who have been exposed.

George W. Weston, Esq., the new Register of Deeds, has assumed the duties of his office, at Exeter, and will doubtless give good satisfaction therein. Mr. Belknap, the late efficient incumbent, has injured his health by long and close application to business. The other new County officers have not commenced duty, but will do so in a few days.

Superintendent Pollard, of the County Farm at Brentwood, is still sick of rheumatism, but is recovering. Mr. E. P. Twitchell and wife, of Manchester, have charge of the hospital, in place of Mr. and Mrs. Rowe who resigned on account of sickness. Mr. Elbridge Towles, of Epping, who has been at the house but a few days, and is suffering with humor in his leg, had the limb amputated a few days since to prevent mortification, and it is doubtful whether he will recover.

Mr. Wm. K. Quimby of Whitefield has a pine tree on his timber land, which measures 21 feet in circumference at the butt. The tree is as straight as a candle, and limbless for 100 feet above the ground. Mr. Quimby estimates that the tree contains 7,000 feet of sound lumber, a large portion of it clear enough for lucifer matches.

Mr. Geo. R. Dexter of Jefferson Mills bought a swarm of bees on the first of April, and much to his surprise, on the twenty-sixth of the same month a large swarm came off, which, by being fed for a short time, lived and are now thriving finely.

CASTOROIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Miscela, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and be will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jn1 4w

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vitility into your exhausted and disordered system. SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Dead Delusion.

The theory that human beings whose strength has been exhausted by pain and sickness can be restored by depleting medicines and water gruel, if not absolutely a dead delusion, is in the last agonies of dissolution. At length it is understood that strength cannot be purged into a debilitated frame, though life may be easily purged out of it and that it is about as wise to withhold a healthful stimulant from the weak, in the expectation that they will rally without one, as it would be to deprive a lamp of oil and expect it to burn the brighter for it.

The immense and uniform success which has attended the use of that wonderful combination of a pure stimulant with the finest medicinal herbs, known as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, has largely assisted in dispelling the absurd chimera. Frantic attempts are made to revive it, but in vain. When the sick feel that their strength is departing, and that unless invigorated they must utterly break down, it is in vain to tender them feculent slops in the place of genuine restoratives. They may be imposed upon in this way once, but the imposition cannot be repeated. They desire to be comforted, refreshed, braced up, and decline to be griped a second time.

Under the operation of Bitters, on the other hand, all the processes necessary to physical restoration go on simultaneously. The system is stimulated and toned, the bowels regulated, the appetite cultivated, the nerves composed and the condition of the blood improved at one and the same time by a single medicine. Common sense tells us that such a preparation must be invaluable.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

HOUSEKEEPING GOODS are now among the necessaries of life. Parties in search of curtains, patches, quilts, embroidered covers, blankets, flannels, linens or cottons, will find all that is new and desirable at the fine establishment of Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston.

NO PILL IN THE WORLD ever had anything like the circulation of Ayer's Pills. Throughout these States, Mexico, and the Central American republic, down the slopes of the Andes, and across the pampas of South America, in negro villages, amid the fervid wilds of Africa, throughout the jungles of India, and the steppes of interior Asia, over the continent of Australia, and the islands of the Pacific, these pills are known and everywhere used as family remedies for diseases. With distant nations, their wonderful cures attract more attention than they do at home; for the sentiment of wonder takes a far deeper hold on their minds than the results of a higher scientific skill with us. The amount consumed require seventy-five thousand doses a day to supply it. An inspection of the manufactory showed us how this enormous demand is made and sustained. Added to the consummate skill of their composition, is an extreme care in their manufacture, which at once secures the most perfect material and accurate combination. The consequence is a power and certainty in controlling disease which other remedies never attained.—Baltimore Courier.

City Councils.

In Board of Aldermen, Thursday evening, June 6, an application of the North Church for relay of sidewalk was referred to Committee on Streets, and the application of the Eastern Railroad relative to removal of the bridge on Greenland Road was referred to the Chairman with power to act.

A communication from Wm. H. Sise relative to the celebration of the 250th anniversary of the settlement of the city was considered, and it was voted that a suitable book be provided by the City Clerk in which natives of Portsmouth resident abroad may record their names, agreeably to said communication.

A message was received to the effect that the "Common Council having declared the office of Mayor vacant by reason of the death of Hon. Horton D. Walker, are now ready to meet the Aldermen in Convention for the purpose of choosing a Mayor to serve during the remainder of the municipal year." The message was laid on the table.

The Chairman of the Committee on Accounts presented the monthly file of bills, stating that he had not been able to obtain a meeting of the committee. Bills of the following amount were approved by the Board:

Streets	$1553.90
Contingent	216 50
School Houses	71.90
Salaries	108.32
Police	127.75
Watch	332.86
Total	$2411.23

The Committee on Streets, to whom was referred the subject of the grade of Pleasant Street, reported that the sidewalks in front of H. F. Wendell's land should be raised, and the committee were empowered to act.

The bond of C. A. Shannon, Collector of taxes, was accepted, and it was voted that the City Treasurer be required within one week to give bonds in the sum of $30,000.

Voted: That the Chairman be instructed to cause the two old barns at the City Farm to be united and repaired in such manner as he thinks necessary.

The Common Council met, and on motion of Councilman Emery the clerk's chair was taken by Councilman Wendell of Ward Three.

A motion was passed to notify the Board of Aldermen that the Council were ready to meet the Alderman in convention for the purpose of choosing a Mayor to serve during the remainder of the municipal year.

After waiting some time a vote was passed to notify the Alderman that the Council would adjourn in five minutes if no other business came before them,—and neither Aldermen nor business appearing the Council adjourned.

Laconics.

The express freight train from Portland to Boston, Thursday evening, met with an accident just below Kennebunk, caused by the breaking of an axle of one of the freight cars; thirteen cars with their contents, were badly damaged. The 5:30 train from this city was detained ten hours in Kennebunk, and went on with the 10 P. M. Pullman train. The express train from Bangor, due here at 3 A. M., Friday, arrived at 6:20. No lives were lost and no blame can attach to the employees of the road.

A billiard match between two amateurs of this city came off at Partridge's billiard hall on Market Street, Thursday evening. The game was 500 points, and was won by 44, the largest run made being 36 points. The game occupied two hours, and occasioned considerable interest among the billiardists.

Eliphalet Nott, Esq., who has for more than twenty years been treasurer of the P. S. and P. Railroad Company, has resigned that position and accepted the place of Auditor of the Eastern Railroad. The duties of Treasurer now devolve upon Mr. Parker, Treasurer of the Eastern.

At the Republican caucus at Kittery, Friday evening, delegates in favor of the nomination of Gen. M. F. Wentworth were chosen to attend the Congressional district convention.

Mr. Gamaliel Rowe of the "Farm Lane" in Seabrook, aged 72, lost his wife six or seven weeks ago, and his long experience of wedded life having convinced him that it is not good for man to dwell alone, he recently contracted a second matrimonial alliance with a blooming widow of 55, the mother of something like thirteen children. Their neighbors, on Monday evening, June 3d, secured the services of the Atlantic Cornet Band of South Seabrook and treated the happy couple to a good selection of suitable tunes, well played,—a compliment duly appreciated by the recipients of the honor. The bridegroom is evidently not the Gamaliel at whose feet Saul of Tarsus sat, as that Gamaliel's teachings were not favorable to matrimony, if we may judge from Paul's sentiments on the question.

The Young Men's Christian Association will hold a Strawberry Festival in Congress Hall on Monday evening, May 10; admission 10 cents.

The House committees were announced at Concord, June 7. Hon. James W. Emery of this city is chairman of the committee on railroads.

Rev. Mr. Dinsmore, pastor of the M. E. Church, having arrived home from the General Conference, will again fill the pulpit on Sunday.

Mr. Geo. Milo Dutcher will deliver a free Temperance lecture in the Temple on Sunday evening, at half past 7 o'clock, to which all are invited. Mr. Dutcher comes warmly recommended by Gov. Bullock, and speaks only in the interests of Temperance—not of any sect or party.

The Storm.

Later accounts show that the gale was seriously destructive of human life. The schooner Jane, Capt. Clark, of Boston, was wrecked on Squam beach in Ipswich bay, and the crew of five men lost. It is feared a woman also was on board at the time of the wreck.

Schooner M. M. Freeman, of Camden, Me., went on the rocks at Folly Cove in Ipswich bay, and three men were drowned, two escaping.

The British schooner Julia was bilged and sunk in Gloucester harbor, the British schooner Edinburgh is ashore and full of water at the same place, and British schooner J. W. Lawrence is totally lost on Plum Island; three vessels were wrecked at the latter place.

The schooner E. M. Branscomb, from Calais, Me., split her sails and becoming unmanageable was blown on the rocks at the mouth of Hampton River, near Seabrook. The crew of four persons were lashed to the wreck, and a boat manned by Sewall B. Walton, John Boyd, Howard Boyd and John Felch, put off from the shore when the gale was blowing its heaviest, and succeeding in rescuing the entire crew.

THE FIRST FLAG OF THE CAMPAIGN. The first American flag bearing on its folds the names of Grant and Wilson that was thrown to the breeze in New England greeted the eyes of those who passed the Journal office at the early hour of six and a half o'clock this morning.—Boston Journal June 7th.

Not the first, Bro. Journal. Gen. Mark F. Wentworth of Kittery, Me., —who we hope is soon to take the place in Congress to which he reasonably aspires and to which his long and honorable service in the field and the Republican party entitles him,—showed our friends across the river how the star spangled banner would look with "Grant and Wilson" on it in bold letters on the evening of June 6th.

—At a confectionery and small ware store in Carleton, New Brunswick, soda water "with choice syrups" is sold, and a thirsty youth went into the place and called for some. He got it and did not like the flavor of it, as it made him sick. He declared it was "too flat," and the divinity in charge examined the syrup to satisfy herself that it was all right. Imagine her surprise and regret when she found she had sold a considerable quantity of hair oil for five cents.

—"Salts of demoniac" was recently called for at a country store in Western Massachusetts. The apothecary filled the bill with a pint of New England rum. Any thing more demoniac than that, he said, wasn't down in his materia medica.

—A Detroit youth bet one dollar that he could climb a telegraph pole, and stand on his head upon the top. While lying in bed with his skull cracked he came to the conclusion that he shouldn't like to follow the business as a means of livelihood.

—The births in Mexico, according to William Cullen Bryant, are in the proportion of three girls to one boy. As all the males are pressed into military service by the government or the insurgents, there are but slight inducements for them to be born.

MARRIAGES.

In this city, June 4, by Rev. Carlos Martyn, Mr. Wm. P. Brown of this city and Miss Miranda E. Bennett of Newmarket.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases. For the Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the ounce of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all this afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in the advanced stage at which time there is no local cure) relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could procure, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &C. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently purgative. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs,
Croup,
Diphtheria,
Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "wandering in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
— OF —
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices —and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
ON THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing now in use throughout the country, and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to do it; it does equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.
N. B. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

Morning Chronicle.

Gov. Straw's Message.

From the inaugural speech of Gov. Straw,—which though short we cannot spare room for,—we make the following extracts:

After speaking of the solemn responsibilities of the office of Governor and that of legislator, the Governor said that during the past year a large addition has been made to our State debt by the issue of State bonds to our cities and towns to reimburse, in part, their war expenditures. The total amount awarded for this purpose, by the commissioners appointed agreeably to the provisions of laws authorizing the reimbursement, was $2,205,695.44. This partial assumption by the State of debts which to some of our towns were a very heavy burden, it is to be hoped will prove such a measure of relief as will enable them to rapidly diminish their remaining debt. Should this desirable result be attained, the State will be amply compensated for the increased burden it has assumed.

Previous to the issue of these reimbursement bonds, our State debt had largely diminished year by year, since the close of the war, and was in process of rapid extinction.

During the last year the revenue amounted to $732,154.45; and the expenses for same time were $304,495.75, leaving a balance on hand of $427,658-.70 to be applied to the reduction of the State debt, which now amounts to $4,-565,782.96.

Three hundred and fifty thousand dollars of our State bonds fall due this year. To redeem these, to meet the interest on the debt, and the current expenses of the State for the coming year, you will need to provide for the Treasury about $800,000.

To meet a deficiency the State Treasurer should be authorized to borrow temporarily $250,000. In view of the fact that $700,000 of the State debt falls due in 1873, '74, you will consider the question of the levy of the State tax for 1873. It seems to me that a return to the sum of $600,000, the amount levied for 1871, is the true policy to be pursued, more especially as the issue of the reimbursement bonds has become the equivalent of the reduction of twenty-five per cent, in local taxation. With such a tax continued for five years, other revenues of the State, and such other temporary loans as can be always readily obtained, we should be able to redeem the State bonds at maturity, pay the interest of our debt, and meet the current expenses of the State, after which time a tax of $450,000 or less would be sufficient. This amount of taxation could be easily borne could it be assessed equally upon all property in our State, and amendments to the laws remedying the present state of things should be brought before you.

Of all the banks of discount chartered by the State but two now remain, whose aggregate liabilities are but $85,608.93, which they can apparently meet with ease. There are now fifty-four savings banks in the State, with aggregate deposits amounting to the sum of $24,700,744.47, and an accumulated surplus of $1,038,624.01, a total of assets belonging to depositors of $25,739,368.48. The number of depositors amount to 86,790, while the deposits show an increase of $3,228,623.47, and in the depositors of 9318. These deposits represent a larger proportion of active capital than the invested capital of all our manufacturing corporations in the State, more than the cost of all the railroads in the State, and equal to the assessed valuation of our three largest cities. Hence the importance of laws relating to the regulation of these institutions, and the report of the bank commissioners will advise such amendments to the present laws as they may think advisable, and I have no doubt they will meet with your careful consideration.

I believe that it is one of the primary duties of the State government to provide the means for the education of its youth, and if necessary, to compel the use of the means which are provided. In my judgment the durability and safety of our Republican form of government, depends upon future citizens receiving, in their youth, an education at least equal to that which is now to be obtained in our common schools, and the right of the State to enforce this education is as good, and rests upon the same basis, as their right to enforce the collection of taxes.

The condition of our correctional institutions and that of the insane asylum is eminently satisfactory. I commend the suggestion of the trustees of the reform school to your notice. The insane asylum needs no suggestion from me to commend to your liberal and watchful guardianship, the most sacred public charity. The Agricultural College now connected with Dartmouth College, bids fair by its progress to fulfil the expectations of its warmest friends. But it is not yet placed beyond the need of material aid from the State, which I have no doubt will be generously rendered by you.

Our manufacturing establishments have been considerably increased in various portions of the State, and in their neighborhood the towns and villages have shown marked improvements in wealth and prosperity. Our railroads have been considerably extended, and new lines opened to the use of important sections of the State, heretofore deprived of the great business facilities which they afford. The valuation of the State, as compared with that made four years since, has been considerably increased, although made under a system of local valuation that is well understood to grossly underrate the value of property.

The labor question is one which should not escape your attention. Under the authority of a resolution of the last General Court the Governor and Council appointed three persons to "act as a committee to collect material and present a plan for the organization of a Bureau of Labor Statistics" at this session of the legislature. I have no knowledge of the action or report of this committee, but it will probably be presented to you before the close of the session.

The purity of the ballot box is a subject which cannot be watched too closely, nor be too securely guarded. I commend to your careful inspection the statutes we now have bearing upon this subject, with a view to their amendment, should you discover any defects which can be remedied by legislation; and I desire to suggest particularly for your consideration, whether a change cannot be made in the time for making up and correcting the check lists, which would tend to secure a greater degree of firmness and impartiality in determining who are, and who are not, entitled to the exercise of the important right of suffrage. This duty is now performed upon the eve of election, when all the political elements are in commotion and in the midst of the excitement and partisan bitterness, for which our elections have become proverbial.

It has been the custom of my predecessors to allude to national affairs and to some extent discuss the policy of the national administration.

When this administration was inaugurated, two things, more than aught else, demanded its especial attention: one, the large public debt entailed by the rebellion, and the other, the heavy burden of taxation on the people and their industries. To preserve the public credit, the first had to be paid or provided for; and to make the other tolerable it required to be largely reduced.

Both these matters are extremely difficult to deal with, but with both the best results have been attained. More of the public debt has been paid than the most sanguine could have anticipated, and from the industry of the country very much of its heavy burden has been removed. In our own State, the taxes collected by the general government under the internal revenue laws in 1868, were $1,940,000. This year they have been so reduced as not to exceed $240,000, less than one eighth.

Abuses will always more or less creep into the administration of any government, and it was to be expected that they would the more readily do so, into one so closely succeding a state of war, and though investigating committee have been appointed as often as asked, they have been unable to see any conduct on his part incompatible with the character of the earnest and unflinching patriot who compelled the leader of the Rebel armies to lay down his arms at Appomattox Court House.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,

NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents or inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

JOHN TAGGART."

Jury Trials.

From an able article in the Westminster Review for April, on "Trial by Judge and Trial by Jury," we make the following extracts:—

In Dublin, the jury system, in the trial of Kelly for the murder of Talbot, appeared in a highly unfavourable light; resulting in an acquittal in the face of evidence, on the charge of an act which the Nationalist press, and other known partisans of the prisoner, so far from indignantly denying, claimed for him as a deed of patriotism and righteous vengeance. The sentiment that killing was no murder in the case of a police spy was as influential with the Irish jury, as a like sentiment in the case of a Prussian soldier was influential in dictating one of the most shameful decisions of a French tribunal. Many have been prompted in consequence to raise the inquiry whether jury trial is any benefit to the people of Ireland. But the question may be carried far deeper; it is time we should revise at home as well as abroad, our popular panegyrics on the Palladium of British liberty. Priding ourselves, and with good reason, on our administration of justice as one of the truest glories of our country, we overlook the numerous and grave defects inherent in one branch of its procedure. To many an Englishman, depriving a man of trial by jury seems next thing to introducing Jedwood justice—execution to-day and trial to-morrow. That the jury system is far from comprising the whole—if it comprises any part—of the merits of modern English law is apparent from the plain fact that it dates back through centuries, in which our courts have presented such a spectacle of pettifogging technicality and judical murder as had never been witnessed under more despotic governments; when a mistake in a special plea sent men to the gallows untried, and rascals charged with bigamy escaped, through having not two wives but three. If we ever inquire what other system would be possible, the alternative that usually suggests itself is the judical bench, such as it existed in the days when judicial ability was sold to the wealthiest suitor or prostituted to court favour. That the jury system has lived so long, and has set off its claims to respect by a borrowed descent from the great Saxon lawgiver—like a wealthy family which the Heralds College discovers to have come over with the Conqueror—affords no very strong presumption of its suitability to modern requirements. * * * *

Neither for suitability to ordinary nor to political occurrences does trial by jury merit the panegyrics commonly lavished upon it. Incompetent for the former, it is no valid protection against the most menacing evils attendant on the latter. It is time that the public mind should be more awake to its many deficiencies, and to the greater claims on their confidence of a trained judge, superior alike in experience, in the responsibility of his position, and in freedom from popular prejudice. To these qualifications the confidence of the people would add one now wanting, and would ripen the views confined to a small minority into the established creed of the nation. Such changes as we have spoken of will be in accordance with that respect for education and intelligence which is indispensably required it the increasing power of the masses is to be indeed a blessing.

The following paragraph from the Nashua Telegraph gives a good idea of what a precious "bulwark of liberty" the system is which makes a lottery of the administration of the law,—and it may be confidently asserted that New Hampshire courts are as pure and New Hampshire juries as intelligent and honest as those of any State in the Union:—

The uncertainty of law is pretty well illustrated by a recent case before the Supreme Judical Court at Amherst. The case was as follows: Some four months ago Samuel C. Brown, "a whipper-in and fighting man" who was fed and clothed by a disorderly house in Manchester for the protection his ample muscle afforded, whipped two Scotchmen who declined to leave the bar room at the precise moment indicated by the proprietor. Brown was arrested, and two indictments were found against him for an aggravated assault. The circumstances and evidence were the same on both indictments. He was put on trial on the first, and the twelve jurymen acquitted him. In half an hour afterwards he was arraigned on the second indictment and the evidence gone over again. This time the jury disagreed. A third jury was selected and the same testimony given as before and he was convicted! Brown was counsel for himself. He got six months in jail.

—A Janesville girl in her anxiety to find out who was making the music under her window, fell out and frightened her serenader away. She was but little hurt.

—Mr. Darby would not have known a house was being newly painted, had not a pail of paint fallen from a ladder upon him. This directed his attention to it.

JURUBEBA

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LIVER is SLUGGISH and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the languishing, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Medical Science, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a specific in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS. Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, sale and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREPEHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

The News.

Rev. Dr. John Lanahan of the Methodist Book Concern has been arrested on an order granted by superior court, in which Samuel Goodenough has begun an action against the doctor for libel and slander. His bail is fixed at $5000.

A sculling-match on the Schuylkill, between Thomas C. Butler of Boston and Willie Scharff of Pittsburg Pa., took place Friday. Scharff won the race and made the fastest time ever made in this country—five miles in 26:27.

A negro man and his white wife have been murdered at Montgomery, Ala. The man was shot dead in his house; the woman was then bound, the house fired, and the corpse and living woman burned.

Great damage has been done in the Northwest by heavy rains. Large tracts have been flooded, ruining the crops, and railroad tracks and bridges have been swept away. Several lives were lost.

A race between Goldsmith Maid and Lucy came off Friday afternoon at Suffolk Park, Philadelphia. The rain fell during the last two heats. The time made was 2:22 3-4, 2:22 1-4, and 2:22 1-2.

The striking workmen in New York have commenced riot and murder. Bad work, for themselves as well as others.

The Garde Republicaine Band, of France, received quite an ovation on their arrival in Boston, Friday.

State News.

Mrs. Henry Tattersal of Manchester was drawn under the cars at the railroad station in that city, Friday, and killed. Both legs were severed above the knees. She attempted to get off a train while it was in motion, and it is supposed that her clothing caught upon some part of the platform.

Mr. William B. Walker of Deering, a pensioner of the war of 1812, died recently, aged 71 years. His remains were carried to Warner, and buried on the very spot where he was born, the house having been taken down.

The Phenix Hotel in Concord has been greatly improved by the addition of twenty handsome and convenient rooms.

The circular of the State Normal School at Salem, Mass., has upon it the following New Hampshire pupils for the present term: S. Abbie Greene, Kensington; Annie Horne, Wolfeborough; Leanette L. Mills, Loudon Ridge; Harriet E. Smith, Winchester; Mary F. Garrett, Portsmouth; Fannie J. Hayes, Rochester; Georgianna Patterson, West Henniker; Ella J. Plummer, Great Falls; Nellie J. Sanborn, Kingston; Helen A. Walton, Seabrook; Emma L. Webster, Nashua; Mary D. Webster, Chester; Mary Clough, Wentworth, and Annie E. George and Margaret B. Wardwell, West Hampstead.

Mr. Peter Kimball of Grafton has a bull calf that weighed 211 pounds when twenty-four days old. Mr. A. H. Merrill of Salem has just sold for beef an Ayershire cow weighing, alive, 1460 lbs. The Reform School owns a heifer, twelve and a half months old, which weighs 934 lbs., and a bull calf four months old weighing 525. A seven months grade Durham calf just killed, weighed 206 lbs. Wm. W. Wiggin of Dover has a cow, part Albany, and part Durham, six years old, which recently gave in one day forty-five pounds of milk.

Political.

Two more of the trumped-up charges against the administration have been settled and with the usual results. The Senate Comittee on Privileges and Elections have adopted a report (concurred in by the Democratic members of the committee) completely clearing Senator Pomeroy from all reasonable suspicion of guilt in having used corrupt means to secure his re-election five years ago, and with regard to Senator Clayton, of Arkansas, the committee is prepared to report that the allegations against him are wholly unfounded and unjust.

The Springfield Republican (semi-copperhead) says "if the administration at Washington is not to be perpetuated in the same hands and with the same spirit, there must be a closer combination of the opposition than is now promised, a wider popular demonstration of the country's dissatisfaction with the situation and the prospect than are now apparent."

The Linn (Missouri) Democrat can't find words forcible enough to express its contempt for the Cincinnati ticket, and therefore prints the names of the candidates without capital letters, in this fashion: "We do not propose to vote for a Republican for President in any possible contingency, and least of all for greeley and brown."

The following is a passage from a letter from Colonel Hecker, which has just been published in the Western papers: "The rumor has been circulated that I have given my adhesion to the abominable Cincinnati ticket. It is a falsehood." Mr. Hecker was once an enthusiastic Liberal.

The missing records of the Buell military commission have been restored to the War Department. These were all the records that were missing, the Democratic statements that others had been taken being entirely false.

COMMENCEMENT AT DARTMOUTH COLLEGE.—The following is the programme for Commencement Week at Dartmouth College:

Thursday, 8 A. M., Meeting of the Alumni in the Chapel; 10 A. M. Commencement Exercises.

Base Ball.

Boston 7, Baltimore 0.

THE NOMINATIONS.—Grant and Wilson make a strong ticket. It can be beaten by one in opposition, not by two. Baltimore can elect Grant if it will. Henry Wilson is a workingman, and life-long Republican, who has passed through thirty years of political contests without a question of his devotion to principle, or a stain upon his integrity. To place these men in nomination the machinery has been used of the party still the greatest in the country, bearing the prestige of continuous and beneficent success, and still regarded by hundreds of thousands of the best men and women of the land as the savior of the republic in the past and its only sure protection now. The same splendid organization which evoked yesterday, at the word of command, from the throats of thousands in Philadelphia Academy of Music, cheer after cheer as ringing as the old battle-cries of Grant's divisions, will bring to the polls a disciplined body of voters whem no exposures of incompetence abroad or corruption at home can turn from their purpose. Will the Liberal Republicans and their probable allies confront them with equal organization, equal purpose, equal skill? —N. Y. Tribune.

"THE PRINCESS NELLIE."—Some papers of small calibre are disposed to carp at the attention shown Miss Nellie Grant by high dignitaries in Europe, being unable to so far forego partisanship as to see the compliment is paid the daughter of the highest officer of a great nation, and not to an individual. In marked contrast is this item from the St. Louis (Mo.) Republican, as staunch a Democratic paper as any in the country:

The Princess Nellie.—Miss Nellie Grant, who is receiving receptions from the crowned heads of Europe, once gave a reception in this city, as will recur to the recollection of many who paid their respects on the occasion. But the reception alluded to was not given by Miss Nellie from a throne, or any such exalted position before which people bow down, and go through the genuflections of court etiquette, surrounded by all the gilded trappings of royalty. On the contrary, she gave her receptions in a big shoe. It was during the Great Sanitary Fair, when among the attractions calculated to draw, was a monster shoe representing the old woman, mentioned in Mother Goose's melodies, who lived in a shoe, and who had so many children she didn't know what to do. Miss Nellie being then in her infantile years—about seven—took a position in the shoe, personating the "Old Woman," while she was surrounded by a galaxy of dolls, packed together like friendly sardines, representing the "many children" of the household. The personation was a success, and being daily repeated, no part of the many attractions drew better than the receptions given by the beautiful little Nellie Grant.

—Mistress (to lazy housemaid)—"Now Mary, you know I'm going to give a ball to-morrow night, and I shall expect you to bestir yourself, and make yourself generally useful." Mary.—"Yes M'm. But I'm sorry to say, M'm, I can't dance!"

—"Prince John" Van Buren visited England during his father's presidential term, and actually had the honor of dancing with the same Queen who now, after a lapse of thirty-two years, politely entertains the child of another President.

—Not amiss—A pretty widow.

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not disorese or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Narcotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and be still always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jn1 4w

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vatility into your exhausted and disordered system. m29 4w

Special Notices.

A Dead Delusion.

The theory that human beings whose strength has been exhausted by pain and sickness can be restored by quaffing medicines and water gruel, if not absolutely a dead delusion, is in the last agonies of dissolution. At length it is understood that strength cannot be purged into a debilitated frame, though life may be easily purged out of it and that it is about as wise to withhold a healthful stimulant from the weak, in the expectation that they will rally without one, as it would be to deprive a lamp of oil and expect it to burn the brighter for it.

The immense and uniform success which has attended the use of that wonderful combination of a pure stimulant with the finest medicinal herbs, known as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, has largely assisted in dispelling the absurd chimera. Frantic attempts are made to revive it, but in vain. When the sick feel that their strength is departing, and that unless invigorated they must utterly break down, it is in vain to tender them feculent slops in the place of genuine restoratives. They may be imposed upon in this way once, but the imposition cannot be repeated. They desire to be comforted, refreshed, braced up, and decline to be griped a second time.

Under the operation of Bitters, on the other hand, all the processes necessary to physical restoration go on simultaneously. The system is stimulated and toned, the bowels regulated, the appetite cultivated, the nerves composed and the condition of the blood improved at one and the same time by a single medicine. Common sense tells us that such a preparation must be invaluable.

Business Notices.

NO PILL IN THE WORLD ever had anything like the circulation of Ayer's Pills Throughout these States, Mexico, and the Central American republic, down the slopes of the Andes, and across the pampas of South America, in negro villages, amid the fervid wilds of Africa, throughout the jungles of India, and the steppes of interior Asia, over the continent of Australia, and the islands of the Pacific, these pills are known and everywhere used as family remedies for diseases. With distant nations, their wonderful cures attract more attention than they do at home; for the sentiment of wonder takes a far deeper hold on their minds than the results of a higher scientific skill with us. The amount consumed require seventy five thousand doses a day to supply it. An inspection of the manufactory showed us how this enormous demand is made and sustained. Added to the consummate skill of their composition, is an extreme care in their manufacture, which at once secures the most perfect material and accurate combination. The consequence is a power and certainty in controlling disease which other remedies never attained.—Baltimore Courier.

LOVELINESS ON THE INCREASE.—An increase of female loveliness is the eye-delighting result of the immense popularity which Hagan's Magnolia Balm has obtained among the ladies of America. Complexions and arms with snowy purity and tinged with the roseate hue of health are commonly met with wherever it is used. For the sallow and unwholesome appearance of the face and neck, this article entirely counterbalances the effect of any personal attraction the owner may possess, it substitutes that clear, pearl-like complexion which is such a transcendant charm in woman, and renders the roughest skin as soft as Genoa velvet. No one is more astonished than the person using it at the marvellous transformation which it effects in these particulars.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—The astonishing rapidity with which this preparation extinguishes pain, reduces external inflammation, heals sores, eruptions and tumors, and cures rheumatism, gives it boundless popularity. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price 24 cents per pot. Ask for now style; the old is counterfeited.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Laconics.

The Mechanic Fire Society held their regular quarterly meeting and supper at the Franklin House, Friday evening, the host on this occasion being Hon. M. Bufford.

The brick house corner State and Mulberry Streets, belonging to the estate of the late John Donovan, was sold by H. F. Wendell on Saturday to John S. Treat for $2100. The wooden house and barn belonging to the same estate were purchased by M. Janvrin for $1325.

Two well known young men of this city are to walk five miles on the Rockingham Fair Grounds next week.

Mr. John Hodgdon, 2d, having purchased the remaining stock and secured the store of Mr. Samuel Donnell, on Congress Street, proposes to keep a full stock of all kinds of family groceries for sale at reasonable prices. He will make a speciality of flour.

Fourth of July.

As nothing has been said regarding this, the great day of the nation, I presume that it will again pass unnoticed by our citizens. Why is it they do not observe it? Other cities and towns do, and the young look forward to its coming with pleasure. But it appears not to be so here. Is it a day unworthy of our notice? Several years have elapsed since anything has been done, and I should think it was about time that some activity was shown. If the older citizens are not wide awake enough, let the younger ones take hold of the matter. Where are the grotesque Antiques and Horribles? Nothing has been said or seen of them for three years. Why not have them turn out in the morning? Certainly they are the life of a Fourth of July. I hope some of our go ahead boys will recruit this band and let us have something to put us in mind that Independence Day has come. T.

KITTERY.—At the Republican caucus in Kittery, Me., Friday evening, the following gentlemen were chosen as delegates to the various conventions:

County.—Daniel C. Norton, Samuel Swain, William W. Locke, William M. Sanborn, Joseph B. Fletcher, Charles W. Cottle, Benjamin R. Frisbee, William A. Fernald, Stephen Grant.

State.—Charles N. Holmes, Levi Remick, Albert A. Hayes, Charles L. Duncan, Mark W. Paul, Alonzo Fernald.

Congressional. — Calvin L. Hayes, Joseph H. Seaward, John Wentworth, Robert Briard, Warrington Paul, William H. Sanborn, John Rogers.

The sense of the caucus was overwhelmingly in favor of the nomination of Gen. Mark F. Wentworth of Kittery as a candidate for Representative to Congress from the first District. The vote stood 231 to 52.

Eliot has chosen delegates favoring Gen. Wentworth,—101 to 66; and the York caucus was unanimous for him.

A BOLD MAN.—The Boston Traveller gives the following account of an incident in the naval life of the late Captain Colvocoresses:

During the civil war, and while the contest between Chili and Spain was at its height, he was in command of the corvette St. Marys, then comprising our whole effective force in South American waters. The Spanish fleet having threatened to bombard Valparaiso, the St. Marys proceeded there to guard the interests of American citizens, and anchored directly between the Spanish iron-clads and the business portion of the city, so that in case of bombardment she would be in direct line of the Spanish fire. Admiral Pruzon, who commanded the Spanish fleet, being desirous of opening fire, and afraid of insulting the flag, wrote a letter to Captain Calvocoresses informing him that if he did not shift his anchorage, he must consider himself responsible for any damage which might happen to the corvette in the event of the bombardment. This roused the "Greek fire" in the captain's nature, and he replied to the Spaniard in a fiery letter, warning him of insulting the American flag, and closing as follows:

"In the event of a bombardment of the city, I beg you, sir, to have a care that none of your shot touch the hull of the St. Marys. I am perfectly aware of the weakness of my corvette in comparison with the powerful squadron of her most Catholic Majesty now blockading the port, but I beg, sir, to remind you that the flag that floats at her peak, represents three thousand guns on the sea."

The Spaniard concluded he would not fire, and the captain became immensely popular in Chili.

The Hartford Evening Post says: "He distinguished himself during the late war, and received, as we are informed, some $25,000 as his share of prizes captured. He leaves a wife, four daughters, and one son, who is an ensign in the navy. He has resided in Litchfield, Conn., some fifteen years, and was highly respected and esteemed by those who were acquainted with him. The deceased had insurance on his life to the amount of $185,000. This very large amount of insurance, and the fact that it has all been taken out within a few months, naturally suggests the idea of the death being caused by the dead man's own hand, and agents of some of the Hartford companies have gone to Bridgeport to look into the matter. The reputed wealth of the deceased, the broken sword cane, the rifled satchel, however all tend against the theory of suicide."

The Normal School.

An effort is being made to secure more State aid for the State Normal School, an institution whose benefit (if only it be properly supported) to the educational interests of the State can hardly be over-estimated. The Manchester Mirror publishes an editorial article in favor of the proposed plan, from which we borrow the following:—

This institution was established without State aid, solely by the generous benefactions of private individuals, the town of Plymouth, and officers of the railroad which runs through this town. The school was established by act of the Legislature of 1870, only the limited appropriation of three hundred dollars being made in its behalf. Before a half-year had passed, a school was established, and pupils sought admission in numbers far exceeding the capacity to accommodate. In June of last year a small appropriation of five thousand dollars was made towards enlarging the buildings, which would not be too capacious after an expenditure of five times that sum. This is all that the institution, which does honor to our State, has received by public authority.

Thus far every person who has sought instruction in its Normal course has paid tuition in the same manner as at a private school, a seminary, or a college. But to insure the greatest good to the common schools of the State,—the head of which this institution really is,—every teacher, through all the districts of the State, should enjoy its benefits.

To do this, tuition must be free. To make it free, the means of its support must be met by an income from other sources than those that now supply the means.

Petitions are in circulation asking for legislation to meet the demand. It is simple and direct; it is not to take $6,000 annually from the State Treasury, nor is to raise a special tax on counties or on towns, but to require each town when it has complied with the statute and appropriated a definite amount for the support of common schools, to set apart a certain per cent. of that sum for the benefit of this institution. The whole sum appropriated to the common schools for the State is nearly a half million dollars annually, say four hundred thousand dollars; one per cent. of this being four thousand, it is evident that from one to two per cent. would be adequate to support the institution, free of tuition to all pupils having a residence in the State.

This is the plan to be presented to the Legislature. It is a plain and direct one. It will afford the requisite aid to the institution, and give an opportunity for many a young man or woman to enjoy the benefits of the school, who would under the present arrangement, never enter its walls.

It is an institution worthy of our patronage. Let us give that patronage generously, and at once.

—A small boy sends Hearth and Home the following conundrum: Why did not George Washington's little sister go out with him to cut down the cherry tree; because she had not got her little hat yet. This is she first answer, and the other is, George Washington never had any sister.

—The analytical juryman has now made his appearance in Baltimore. The reduction of a wife to mince meat, by a jealous husband, has inspired him to find a verdict that "the murdered woman was killed by her husband, in a fit of jealousy, superinduced by her acquaintance with Mr. Smith."

—This is an extract from the report of a "fancy farmer" to the assistant assessor of internal revenue, when called upon for a statement of his income for the past year: —"My farming operations I have to report as follows: My cattle have eat up my crops, and my bired men have eat up my cattle."

—A correspondent wants to know "how we would break an ox," says a contemporary editor. "If only one ox, a good way would be to hoist him by means of a long chain attached to his tail, to the top of a pole forty feet from the ground. Then hoist him by a rope tied to his horns, to another pole. Then descend on to his back a five ton pile driver, and if that don't break him, let him start a country newspaper and trust people for subscription. One of the two ways will do it sure."

DEATHS.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases. For the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the ounce of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the PULMOCINE of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage at which time there is no local cure) relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs,
Croup,
Diphtheria,
Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "walking in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
— OF —
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices — and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling these use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does twenty-fifth the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

Morning Chronicle.

RINGS.—We no doubt have too many "rings." Even Charles Sumner, in certain emergencies, relies upon the judgment of a "ring" or a certain set of friends in whom he has more confidence than in other men. It is only a few years ago that Mr. Sumner secured the appointment of a postmaster for the city of Salem,—a person who, it is understood, had been in confidential relations with him. It was an appointment which so shocked the moral sense of the community, that a petition, numerously signed by men like John Bertram,—the most upright men who could be found in this community,—speedily found its way to Mr. Sumner to prevent the consummation of the deed. Well do we remember the story which came back, in due time, that Mr. Sumner contemptuously turned his back upon a petition "which men hastily sign," as not suitable offset to recommendations from three or four men who happened to constitute the "ring" upon which he had been accustomed to reply against all other Salem men. The appointment of Mr. Sumner was duly consummated, and the government was defrauded out of more than five thousand seven hundred dollars as a consequence of the appointment! Really, Mr. Sumner should be lenient in his judgments of others.—Salem Gazette.

SAWDUST.—The London Field, one of the highest authorities, says of sawdust: "I litter the horses on it to the depth of nine inches, raking off the damp and soiled parts every morning, and spreading evenly a little fresh, removing the whole only four or five times a year. Its advantages appear to be many, of which I will state a few which give it, in my estimation, its greatest superiority over straw. It is much cleaner and more easily arranged and of course much cheaper at first cost, making in the end an excellent manure. It is peculiarly beneficial to the feet, affording them a cool, porous stuffing, a substitute for the soil of earth we always find in the hoofs of a horse at grass, and presents the nearest resemblance to the horse's natural footing—the earth. We have never had a diseased foot since sawdust was introduced into the stable, now some years since. Horses bedded on sawdust are also freer from dusts and stains than when on ordinary litter, simply because sawdust is a better absorbant, perhaps, and testify their approval of it by frequently lying down four hours in the day. It has also the recommendation of being uncatable—an advantage which all in charge of horses with the habit of eating their litter, will readily admit."

STRAWBERRIES FOR THE MILLION.—It is a burning shame at this day for any farmer or gardener, no matter where located, to be without a clean and thrifty strawberry patch for family use. The old plea that the common farmer has no time to fritter away in raising such "stuff" never was a valid excuse for neglecting the kitchen garden. It is one of the most profitable parts of any farm. No kitchen garden is complete without a strawberry bed. To one who has always been accustomed to a bountiful supply of small fruits for home use, it is strange, too; and farmers cultivating from fifty to two hundred acres with the ordinary field crops from year to year, still these very same men—"working hard and still contented"—without a raspberry, a current, or a strawberry under culture. These farmers would think it quite important to keep a fifty-acre field of corn as clear as an onion bed, yet they have no such feeling about strawberries. We have seen many plats that might with propriety be called grass beds, with here and there a strawberry plant, belonging to this class of farmers.—N. Y. Tribune.

GREELEY, GRATZ, GRANT. Profundissimus has been making a philologico-politicoalgebraical calculation of the comparative values of sundry candidates now before the people. For example, he figures on Greeley, Gratz (Brown) and Grant thus wisely. On comparing the names it will be observed that each commences with Gr. Now let these Gr's cancel each other and there remains of the first name celey, a word suggestive of all sliminess and slippiness. Of the second, which is of German origin, there is left atz, from the verb atzen, to devour, to prey upon, to sponge, a character which too many of our public men already possess. The third term of equation after the Gr. is eliminated, is ant, the type of industry, frugality and success.—Newburyport Herald.

—A "scientist" has at last solved the ancient conundrum, "Can an Ethiopian change his skin?" This is the way he proposes to do it: The candidate will be the first subjected to a bath of alkaline water. Having been well cleansed, he is placed in a room where a reliable thermometer indicates 120 degrees of Fahrenheit. After fifteen minutes' baking the partially cooked victim is conducted to a bath of chlorine at the ordinary temperature. The heat has opened all the pores, so the chlorine flows in and reaches the coloring matter. To close the pores the subject must be introduced into an ice cellar, where he spends ten minutes in absolute agony, but relative bliss, for the next step is to drop his exhausted form into water heated to 180 degrees. In this the pores open, the chlorine grapples the coloring matter and departs with it, and the colored brother is colored no more. The scientific gentleman is now looking for a few colored persons for his bleaching experiments.

—Betrothal parties are all the excitement in New York—and are so delightful. One young lady has had five the past season.

—John R. Sarratt has been married to Miss Victorine Hunter, of Montgomery county, Md.

CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood.

Are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organ into action, and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most eminent clergymen, most skillful physicians, and our best citizens send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits they have derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN

HAIR RENEWER.

ITS EFFECT IS

MIRACULOUS.

It is a perfect and wonderful article. Cures baldness. Makes hair grow. A better dressing than any "oil" or "pomatum." Softens harsh, dry and wiry hair into Beautiful Silken Tresses. But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR.

The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter.

The first application will do good; you will see the NATURAL COLOR returning every day, and BEFORE YOU KNOW IT, the old, gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving place to lustrous, shining and beautiful locks.

Ask for Hall's Sicilian Hair Renewer; no other article is at all like it in effect.

See that each bottle has our private Government Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations.

—An Iowa farmer strapped his shotgun to his plow to be ready for any wild game that might cross his path. He cannot recover.

—The Springfield Republican's pet Thomas Cat, a dignified and respected member of the editorial corps, lately threw himself into a wheel in the engine room and committed suicide. The reporters had dubbed him "Horace Greeley," which was too much for the proud spirited feline.

—The old story of a bachelor filling his hair-oil bottle with an objectionable compound for the benefit of the chambermaid has been revived. This time, however, the compound is nitro-glycerine which exploded when the girl was dancing at a ball, and blew her own and her partner's head off.

—Five months ago, say the London journals, a retriever dog bit several people at Crookes, near Sheffield, England. Two of them, children, died soon afterwards. Thomas Asbdale, a painter, another of those bitten, has just died at one of the hospitals in Sheffield, from hydrophobia in worst form. A valuable horse and a number of dogs bitten by the same brute on the same day have been destroyed.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS, For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs, NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

JURUBEBA

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Modern Medicine, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a specific in all cases of Dyspepsia, Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUGHS. Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. Briggs' Corn and Ulcerated Bunions, the surest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolute cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Piles Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

TUESDAY, JUNE 11, 1872.

The Next Senator.

We have allowed correspondents to advocate through these columns the claims of their respective candidates for the office of U. S. Senator, and it certainly is not their fault if our readers are not thoroughly conversant with the merits and demerits of the various candidates. The action of the Republican caucus will, doubtless, in a few days determine the result of the controversy.

We have hesitated to express our convictions as fully as have some of our correspondents, feeling that though our conclusions were reached many weeks ago, among our readers there was such diversity of opinion that to obtrude our views upon their attention prematurely would be unwise and impolitic. To refrain from expressing our convictions now that the time for action has arrived would be alike unwise.

We have closely watched the contest, have mingled with the leading Republicans from all sections of the State, have received earnest letters from those whose friendship and judgment we value, and with but one object in view, viz: the best interests of the Republican party of the State of New Hampshire, have endeavored to cast aside all personal appeals as being but the result of prejudice.

Realizing the personal worth of Senator Patterson, and his claims as a scholar and orator, we have been pained to know that some of his opponents have chosen to treat him discourteously, forgetting that such action necessarily developes bitterness and discord. We do not defend the Senator from charges which may or may not be proven. Each Republican member of the legislature will find it his duty to determine for himself whether these charges have weight and are supported by evidence. We regret also that the Senator has taken such a course that any personal defence is needed, and remember in contrast the position occupied by Senator Cragin two years ago, in which that gentleman, having the confidence of his associates and constituents, escaped personal abuse and was not necessitated to make a defence.

The present issue we think involves the safety of the Republican party. With the experiences of the past, the only safe course for continued Republican ascendency seems to lie in rotation in the office of U. S. Senator. To this conviction we have gradually arrived and it is not the result of impulse. We have found, too, a great change in the feelings of Republicans all over the State. Silently, but surely, warm friends of Senator Patterson have with regret become convinced that three terms of Congressional life, lasting through a decade, is a sufficient reward for his political services in that line, when it is considered that there are other leaders, men who have borne the brunt of the battle, men who have made great sacrifices and whose party loyalty has never been questioned, who deserve recognition and the highest reward that men of gratitude can give.

We believe that a large majority of the Republicans of New Hampshire, untrammeled by office, earnestly desire the choice of some other than Senator Patterson for the term ending in 1879. This is shown by the earnestness of the active, working men of the party, who fearing that the defeat of rotation by the representatives of the Republican party of New Hampshire may bring rotation to the party in the next election, ask to-day that the claims of others too long ignored be now carefully considered.

This week there is assembled at the State Capital a horde of office holders in the interest of Senator Patterson, every one of whom feels bound to reciprocate favors. We know that some of these men privately acknowledge that if unfettered they would favor rotation as a principle, knowing that rotation alone will assure future success. These latter are not sufficiently courageous to take an open stand for the safety of their party, but being convinced that rotation will win are preparing to abandon their candidate for the winning man on the second ballot. In bright contrast to this, is the action of the men who believe that success is the first duty and uncompromisingly and unflinchingly advocate the rule of rotation.

We confess to an admiration for the gallant Gen. Gilman Marston, whose services in the field were by no means the least in value of New Hampshire's noble sons, and who has no superior among the candidates named. Again, Ex-Gov. Stearns, whose executive ability is unquestioned, certainly demonstrated that all that is claimed for him by his supporters may be conceded. Ex-Gov. Fred Smyth, than whom no citizen of New Hampshire would represent more faithfully and creditably the old Granite State, with the business interests of which he is so thoroughly identified, would become a Senator whom every son of New Hampshire would be proud of. Gen. Harriman, whose eloquent voice has been heard in many campaigns at home and abroad, and who led the glorious Eleventh Regiment to the front and became a prisoner of war, has claims that should not be forgotten. Each of these gentlemen has done as much, to say the least, for the credit of the State and the success of the party as has Senator Patterson, and but one of them has received the compliment of a term in Congress.

A more prominent candidate and one who deserves the gratitude of the party and its highest honors, is Hon. EDWARD H. ROLLINS, the vigilant, energetic untiring and able Chairman of the Republican State Committee. The campaigns of the past seventeen years show but one defeat under his leadership, and victory has been repeatedly snatched from the jaws of defeat by means of his indomitable energy. Possessed of an executive ability unsurpassed by any member of the party, self reliant and with keen appreciation of the wants of that party, Mr. Rollins' claims have been ignored more than once, though there can be no unprejudiced person who has not appreciated his efforts. Under his lead the canvass has repeatedly verified itself by the returns, and no man in the whole Union thinks New Hampshire doubtful when Edward H. Rollins publishes an official statement that a Republican triumph is assured. In the recent campaign, notwithstanding his family and intimate friends endeavored to persuade him to decline the position of Chairman of the State Committee, he chose to remain at his post of duty, risking his health in doing so and emerging from the contest greatly reduced physically and so injured in health by constant application day and night to the duties of the position, that it was perceptible to all who know him. Had Mr. Rollins chosen, he could have declined serving on the Committee and have quietly returned to his present duties. Had he done so, however, we firmly believe in common with his associates on the special committee who supervised the campaign, that no Republican triumph would have been assured.

It is this man of wonderful executive ability, who ACCOMPLISHES and is not content to promise, to whom we believe the highest honors should be accorded by the Republican party of New Hampshire. Let not our friends chosen last March to the legislature forget that gratitude alone, that the remembrance of services rendered by a man who can fill the Senatorial seat creditably, faithfully and satisfactorily, should lead them to tender to Hon. E. H. Rollins the position he merits. In a vote of 76,240, last March, Governor Straw had but 1002 majority, THE REPUBLICAN VOTE BEING BUT FIFTY AND SEVEN TENTHS PER CENT. OF THE TOTAL. A change of 502 votes, ONLY ONE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTIETH OF THE WHOLE, would insure the defeat of the party in the future! Is it best to release a faithful servant without proper recompense for seventeen years of campaigning, thereby endangering Republican ascendency by the basest ingratitude, or to encourage him by a recognition, a tardy one though,—of valuable services already rendered? To us, the alternative appears to mean for the future, defeat or success.

VOTE FOR GOVERNOR.—After correcting a single informality in the returns, we give the following as the official vote of the State:

Whole number,	76,240
Scattering,	16
Blackmer, (temp.)	478
Cooper, (i. r.)	540
Weston, (dem.)	36,585
Straw, (rep.)	38,621

Straw over Weston, 2036—over all others, 1002.

An accident occurred on the Atkinson and Nebraska Railroad on Saturday night, in which Frank R. Firth of Boston, the superintendent and engineer of the road, lost his right arm and sustained other serious injuries, and Otis E. Allen, one of his assistants, was killed. They were on an engine which fell through a bridge, which had probably been weakened by heavy rains.

A steamer has arrived from Zanzibar, with news which puts the safety of Dr. Livingstone beyond a doubt. The couriers had reached Zanzibar from the interior with positive intelligence that Dr. Livingstone had arrived at Unyanyembe. Mr. Stanley, the New York Herald explorer, had left the place with letters from the great explorer, and was near the coast.

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jal 4w

NO PILL IN THE WORLD ever had anything like the circulation of Ayer's Pills. Throughout these States, Mexico, and the Central American republic, down the slopes of the Andes, and across the pampas of South America, in negro villages, amid the forests of Africa, throughout the jungles of India, and the steppes of interior Asia, over the continent of Australia, and the islands of the Pacific, these pills are known and everywhere used as family remedies for diseases. With distant nations, their wonderful cures attract more attention than they do at home; for the sentiment of wonder takes a far deeper hold on their minds than the results of a higher scientific skill with us. The amount consumed require seventy-five thousand doses a day to supply it. An inspection of the manufactory showed us how this enormous demand is made and sustained. Added to the consummate skill of their composition, is an extreme care in their manufacture, which at once secures the most perfect material and unsurpassed combination. The consequence is a power and certainty in controlling disease which other remedies never attained.—Baltimore Courier.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—The astonishing rapidity with which this preparation extinguishes pain, reduces external inflammation, heals sores, eruptions and tumors, and cures rheumatism, gives it boundless popularity. Special Notices.

A Dead Delusion.

The theory that human beings whose strength has been exhausted by pain and sickness can be restored by depleting medicines and water gruel, if not absolutely a dead delusion, is in the last agonies of dissolution. At length it is understood that strength cannot be purged into a debilitated frame, though life may be sadly purged out of it and that it is about as wise to withhold a healthful stimulant from the weak, in the expectation that they will rally without one, as it would be to deprive a lamp of oil and expect it to burn the brighter for it.

The immense and uniform success which has attended the use of that wonderful combination of a pure stimulant with the finest medicinal herbs, known as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, has largely assisted in dispelling the absurd chimera. Frantic attempts are made to revive it, but in vain. When the sick feel that their strength is departing, and that unless invigorated they must utterly break down, it is in vain to tender them fecolent slops in the place of genuine restoratives. They may be imposed upon in this way once, but the imposition cannot be repeated. They desire to be comforted, refreshed, braced up, and decline to be griped a second time.

Under the operation of Bitters, on the other hand, all the processes necessary to physical restoration go on simultaneously. The system is stimulated and toned, the bowels regulated, the appetite cultivated, the nerves composed and the condition of the blood improved at one and the same time by a single medicine. Common sense tells us that such a preparation must be invaluable.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Laconics.

A meeting of the Board of Trade will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Common Council Rooms. A full attendance of the members is requested, as the committee upon the water question will make their report.

A subscription paper is being circulated, to raise money for procuring fireworks for a display on Market Square on the evening of July 4th. As few of the rising generation in this city have any idea that fireworks include anything besides crackers, rockets and ten-cent pin wheels, we hope the subscriptions will be liberal enough to give them a good show.

Mrs. Dr. Julia Dickinson, to whose advertisement in another column we call special attention, is lady of prepossessing appearance and comes highly recommended by the Press. A Western exchange says:—"It is but an act of justice to the lady to state that during her brief sojourn here she has secured the respect and esteem of all who have been brought into intimate relations with her, and done much toward convincing an incredulous public that at least some professed Clairvoyants and Spiritualists are neither humbugs nor monomaniacs." Mrs. Dickinson may be consulted at the Franklin House.

The Portsmouth members of the State legislature are apportioned as follows on the standing committee of the House: on National affairs, Pender; on railroads, Emery (chairman); on banks, Hutchinson; on manufactures, Walden; on finance Willey; on division of towns, Giddings; on insane asylum, Robinson; on incorporations, Knowlton; on bills on their second reading, Broughton; Hon. Warren Brown is chairman of the Senate committee on agriculture and manufactures.

Maj. Hackett sold Russell's wharf, store, dwelling house, land, &c., on Water Street, Monday, at auction, to Mr. Wm. F. Russell for $3550. Hon. Frank Jones purchased the interest of the late S. L. Russell in land adjacent to the Kearsarge Mills, for $40.

To-day, the Music Societies of Portsmouth, Exeter, Lawrence, Biddeford, Haverhill, Mass., Plaistow, North Hampton, Stratham, Farmington and Wolfeboro' will join with the Dover Society in a grand rehearsal of Jubilee music, under the direction of Mr. Carl Zerrahn. Tickets for the trip to Dover and return may be had at 68 cents each. Admission to the rehearsal, 25 cents, for persons not members of choruses.

Schooner E. Segur, Grogan, from Hoboken for this city with coal, before reported a total loss, has been raised and towed to Norwalk, Conn., where she will be repaired and proceed thence to New York.

The handsomest billiard room in New England will be that in the new addition to the Rockingham House, when it is completed. The finishings are of black walnut and chestnut, and Mr. P. A. Butler (who frescoed the Rockingham House last year) has laid a variety of colors on the walls and ceiling, in tasteful patterns, producing a rich though not gaudy effect. The big wooden eagle whose eyrie will be over the Warren Street entrance is fully equal if not superior to the live article in ferocity of appearance, but we are not sure whether he holds the world or a billiard ball in his claws; it seems too small for one and too big for the other.

The Portsmouth Jubilee chorus, with Harlow's orchestra, propose to give one or more public rehearsals this week, one of which will probably be on Sunday evening.

Eight seamen belonging to the U. S. S. Tuscarora attempted to desert from the Navy Yard on Sunday. They effected an entrance into the ordnance building by a rear window, got out the oars and rowlocks of the ordnance boat, then took to the boat, and pulled away for Spruce Creek. They were seen by a watchman who at once gave the alarm, and five of the men were soon captured, the other three being still at liberty.

We hear it mentioned that the North Parish propose to beautify the interior of their church by having its ceiling and walls painted in fresco. We do not know whether the presence in town of Mr. P. A. Butler has anything to do with the rumor, but a look at his frescoing at the Rockingham House will give an idea of the beautiful effects which are produced when the work is done by an artist. Mr. Butler is next to a native of this city, his wife having been born here.

A contract has actually been closed between the Eastern R. R. Co. and the Portsmouth and Dover R. R. Co., by which the former agrees to pay 6 per cent. on the cost of constructing the road bed, laying the rails, erecting stations, &c., of the latter road, and also agrees to divide equally the net profits of the latter road between the two companies after deducting the 6 per cent. dividend, and expenses of running, the Eastern to furnish the rolling stock. So it is now understood that the P. & D. road is to be built. The Enquirer reported the "rumor on change," and we take the liberty to report the facts as we understand them to be.—Foster's Democrat, Dover.

The News.

In San Francisco, June 8th, J. H. Mansfied, a printer, met Miss Mary Hein, the daughter of a prominent wholesale merchant, on the street, and demand that she should retract her refusal to marry him, which she declined to do, whereupon he shot her twice with a revolver, once in the breast and once in the hip. He then shot himself twice in the breast. Both are now living, and it is thought Miss Hein may recover.

Governor Jewell of Connecticut has offerred a further reward of $2000 for the detection of the murderer of Captain Colvocoresses. A man giving the name of Samuel Tanks has been arrested in Jersey City as having been connected with the murder. He was lately released from prison in Bridgeport, which is also supposed to have been the case with the murderer.

A terrible tornado passed over Bellefontaine, Ohio, and vicinity, Friday night, tearing up trees, unroofing the houses in the towns of Degraf and Quincy, Ohio. The latter place was nearly destroyed, and fifty persons were injured at Degraf. Ten or twelve buildings were blown down, the Methodist church being destroyed. Three persons were killed. Further reports concerning the great storm on Thursday night, in central Illinois, show an immense amount of damage done in Peoria, Fulton, Knox and other counties of that section of the State. The destruction of bridges on country roads was almost universal. In Peoria, fences and trees were blown down and cellars were filled with water. Every railroad leading out of Chicago suffered. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad had about four miles of track and a great many bridges swept away. The Toledo, Peoria and Wabash suffered severely, losing one bridge of 150 feet and an entire road bed in number of places. The town of Hilton was almost entirely under water, and barns, stock, etc., were swept miles away. The most singular circumstance of the storm was the running up stream of the Illinois River; an immense volume of water, more than could flow away, poured into the stream and created a back water, and there was a strong current running northward.

There was a stormy and excited debate on the enforcement bill in the U. S. House of Representatives on Monday. No decision was reached, though the lie was given by one member to another. Mrs. Dr. Mary E. Walker took the Speaker's chair and proceeded to make a woman's rights speech; she was ejected by force of arms, denouncing the whole concern.

Minister Sickles has presented a demand for the release of Dr. Howard to the Spanish government.

MARRIAGES.

In Boston, June 5th, by Rev. O. T. Walker, Mr. EDWIN FERNALD of the Great Falls Journal and Miss JOSIE A. BUTLER of South Berwick, Maine. To the young couple, our heartiest greetings. May their future be all their fondest hopes anticipate, and their paths be shorn of roughness and unpleasantness.

In Portland, Me., June 6th, Mr. D. HORACE HOLMAN and Miss MINNIE BEST. Our congratulations to the happy bridegroom and the fair bride,—to the one that he has made after all the best choice in life and to the other that in capturing our old friend she secures a prize. A happy wedded life is our wish to both.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. Every FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases. For the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the ounce of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of the FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage at which time there is no local cure) relieves the prescring, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before it was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, QUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs,
Croup,
Diphtheria,
Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment; is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "walking in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a secret in Africa thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
— OF —
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run it; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

Nasby Pledges the Crossroads for Cincinnati.

CONVEDERIT X ROADS,
(Wich is in the State of Kentucky,)
April 17, 1872.

We determined two weeks ago to cast our lot with the liberal reform movement inoggeratted in the republikin party by those great good men, Horace Greeley, Carl Schurz and Trumbull. The dimocrisy uv the Corners feel keenly the need uv a thorough, sweeping radical reform in the administration uv the government. We feel that corrupshun, violence, brootality and tyranny have held away to long, and we hail gladly any prospeck uv relief. Here in the heart uv Kentucky, a nigger is postmaster! while I am pickin up a precarious subsistence ez best I may, dependin on chance invitashens to drink for a livelihood. Polluck, an Illinoy interloper, sells goods and collects the revenoo in perfect sekurity, with that disturber Bigler ez his deputy, while a nigger assesses onto us unconstooshnel taxes. Two hundred nigger families up toards Garretstown are living on land which wuz wrestlt from the aristocracy uv this seckshen, mockin us by waring clothes sich ez we can't afford, and endangerin our lastitooshens with schools and meetin houses in wich heresies uv the most alarmin nacher is taught and preached. Troo, that land wuz bought and paid for, but for its sale the tyrannical government is nevertheless responsible. Hed it not been for the unconstooshnel war waged onto us, there never wood hev bin no necessity for sellin it, and there wood hev bin no free niggers to buy it.

I received from Tweed uv Noo York a account uv the great liberal republikin meetin held in Cooper Instoot in that city on the 12 inst., which Greeley got up for Schurz and Napoleonic injunction at the bottom. "Do likewise." I too went called together the faithful and instructed them in the new deparcher, and ex to the method uv getting at it.

Ex a matter uv course the first step wuz to hev a meetin of the liberal republikins, that noble army who is opposed to the corrupshens now pervading all the departments of the government, ez well ez to the centralization uv power aimed at by those now in power, and we determined at that meetin to not only enunciate our principles but to nominate a county ticket. The call was circulated by Deekin Pogram and Kernel McPelter, and wuz signed by all uv the citizens uv the Corners who kin write, except Pollock, the Illinoy store keeper, Joe Bigler, Lubbock, the nigger postmaster, and Watkins the nigger assessor.

The meetin wuz one uv the most enthoosiastic I ever presided over. The meetin-house wuz uv course, a republikin meetin, but the fact there were confederit flags and the Seymore and Blair banners uv the last campane didn't seem singular or strange. In addishen to these, we had hung about the walls in conspicuous places portraits which hed bin painted for Lee, Boregard and Breckinridge, but we simply changed the names under em to Greeley, Schurz and Trumbull, and they answered the purpose jist as well.

I presided uv course, and the rest of the citizens present wuz made vice-presidents and sekretaries. The preliminaries hevin bin gone thro with, I reported the followin declarashun uv principles:

Resolved, That an attempt to convert this republic into an absloot monarchy, with a hereditary emperor and titled nobility, shood be severely frowned down by the republikins uv Kentucky, and is hereby frowned down.

Resolved, That public offices are, or should be created for public convenience and not ex rewards for partisan service, and that, therefore, the ackshun uv the administration in removin the assessor and postmaster uv Confederit X Roads, who wanted the places and who hed them, and appintin in their stead men who hedn't the places, but who did vote for the present President, wuz an act wich can't be too severely frowned upon.

Resolved, That the triumph of Republikin principles is of paramount importance to the country, and that therefore, we pledge to Messrs. Greeley, Schurz and Trumbull, our corjel co-operashun in their landable effort to bust Grant and the republikin party. Stipolatin, uv course, that in the new deal there shall be a fair divide of the plunder among all concerned.

Resolved, That the prosperity uv the country demands thorough, radical and imejit change in all departments uv the public service—specifying pertickerly the posishens uv the assessor, and collector and postmaster at the Corners, which was taken from the honored chairman uv this meetin, Kernel McPelter and Issaker Gavit, and given the two niggers and a ablishen interloper.

Resolved, That on the minor questions uv tariff, banks, payment uv the debt, and sich, it aint best to express any pertikler opinion, allowin each man to hold his own, if he can. We welcome cheerfully to this new movement Horace Greeley and protecshun, Wells and free trade, Schurz and amnesty, Trumbull and perlitikle disability, by beatin Grant with whatever assorted cargo uv principle they happen to be loaded with.

At this point Pollock, Bigler, Lubbock, Watkins, and a dozen or more uv the republicans of the Corners, made their appearance and demanded the rite uv participation in the proceedings. We mildly but firmly denied the rekest.

"Isn't this a republikin meeting?" asked Pollock.

"It is," I responded.

"Well, then," sed Pollock, "why shant I purticipate? I was a delegate to the Pittsburg convenshun which organized the party; I voted for Fremont, for Linkin twice, and for Grant, and—"

I explained to the misguided man, that while it wuz a republikin meetin, it wuz a reform republikin meetin—that it wuz called fur the purpose uv consolidatin the elements who desired to purify the public service and hev a more honest and efficient administration uv affairs, and therefore—

"You put up as chairman a defaultin postmaster, and among your vice-presidents hev a defaultin assessor and collector," sung out Joe Bigler.

The unfortunit remark cost Joseph suthin. He hed been sick with ague and fever for several weeks and was weak, and ex the Ku Klux law hez deferred our people from being demonstrative, he hesn't been carrying his revolver for several months. Immejitly Kernel McPelter and perhaps twenty uv our able-bodied citizens fell onto him, and the others which were with him, and in ten minuits they woodent hev knowed themselves. How they got to their re-pective homes, I hev no means of knowin. They won't obtrude theirselves into a reform meetin again very soon.

This little episode over, we proceeded to nominate a reform republikin ticket for county offises, puttin up on course for the various places Deekin Program, Elder Pennibacker, and the others who had em reglerly since Jackson's time and hevin transacted all the biznis for which it wuz convened, the meeting adjourned.

Ez it was necessary to have a meetin uv the democrisy uv the Corners, to ratify the ackshun uv the reform republikin convenshun, we all uv us walked out uv the meetin-house, ez republikins; turned around and walked back ez democrats. I called em to order, was elected chairman, and hed the vice presidents and secretaries all re-elected ex such. Then I moved the adoption of the followin resolooshuns:

Resolved, That the dimocrisy uv the Corners, viewin with alarm the corrupshun that hez existed in the government since it passed out uv the hands uv the gileless Bookanon, and seein no earthly hope of gittin it back by their own unaided efforts, hail with joy the ackshun uv Greeley, Schurz and Trumbull in their efforts to bust Grant and pledge them our happy support.

Resolved, that the dimocrisy uv the Corners, desirin the co-operation uv the reform republikins, will make no nominashuns for county officers, but will support those made by the reform convenshun heartily and in good honest faith.

Resolved, That the platform uv principles laid down by the convenshun uv reform republikins, meets our ideas uv the situashun egsactly and the democratic convenshun adjourned.

We hev this thing fixed now to soot us, and if the dimocrisy everywhere act with ex much wisdom, success is ez certain ez anything kin be in this world. This ackshun will hev its effect on the country.

Jubilee Notes.

The committee on the reception of the press have issued a circular in which they state that the tickets for the press will be ready for delivery at the press headquarters in the Coliseum building on Saturday, June 15th, and following days; the committee will be in attendance on Saturday, June 15th, from 10 o'clock A. M. until 2 o'clock P. M.; on Monday, from 8 to 10 30 A. M., and from 1 to 3 P. M. The press headquarters are situated on the east side of the Coliseum building, opposite the foot of the West Canton street, leading from Trement street and Columbus avenue. A separate entrance has been provided at this point which is devoteted exclusively to the convenience of members of the press. Within the headquarters ample telegraphic and postal facilities will be afforded. It is hoped that all representative of the press will present themselves at headquarters as early as possible after arriving in the city. The mayor and the committee of arrangements of the city council of Boston will receive the representatives of of the press in Faneuil Hall at 11 o'clock A. M., on Monday, June 17th, the opening day of the Jubilee.

The Surplus Receipts of the Festival will be devoted to charitable purposes.

The most complete telegraph and postal facilities will be afforded in the Press headquarters at the Coliseum. All mail matters for the representatives of the Press, marked "Coliseum," Boston, will be delivered every hour during the day. The mails will also be collected every hour. The Telegraph Company will have twelve wires and the same number of operators, and the wires will make direct connection with all parts of the United States and Canada, the French and Atlantic Cables. The local and suburban wires will also be connected, enabling messages to be sent to any part of the city or the suburbs.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Family Physic,

CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood,

Are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organ into action, and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most eminent clergymen, most skillful physicians, and our best citizens send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits they have derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

JURUBEBA

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS. Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no solid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment, immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest stump, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Alleavantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind since the world has existed for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN

HAIR RENEWER.

ITS EFFECT IS

MIRACULOUS.

It is a perfect and wonderful article. Cures baldness. Makes hair grow. A better dressing than any "oil" or "pomatum." Softens, heals, dry and wiry hair into Beautiful Silken Tresses. But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR.

The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not injure the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter.

The first application will do good; you will see the NATURAL COLOR returning every day, and the old, gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving place to lustrous, shining and beautiful locks.

Ask for Hall's Sicilian Hair Renewer; no other article is at all like it in effect.

The Daily Chronicle,

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1872.

Editorial Correspondence.

CONCORD, N. H., June 11.

The principal object of interest in New Hampshire this week is the legislature, which is now practically in working order. Concord is filled with strangers attendant upon that august body and the annual meetings of various societies. Portsmouth is well represented in the third house, the subject of rotation being uppermost in discussion. I notice Postmaster Peirce, Collector Bailey, Inspector Young (who hasn't lost that office, whereby hangeth a tale of double dealing on somebody's—not Aaron's—part.) Messrs. James A. Waterhouse, William C. Ham and Jos. H. Emery, a triumvirate of invincibles from the first Ward, Messrs. N. F. Mathes, A. F. Howard, and Drs. J. F. Hall and and S. C. Whittier, who are but a vanguard of coming reinforcements which Strawberry Bank is to furnish as spectators and actors in their various spheres of duty, self imposed or otherwise. The medical fraternity look the least care-worn and doubtless congratulate themselves that their duty is to relieve poor suffering humanity. The worthy President of the association, not heretofore unknown on the stump, is just now relieving himself of a most excellent address which is a credit to his adopted city.

It affords us the greatest satisfaction to announce that the contract for the building of the Portsmouth & Dover R. R. was yesterday signed by the Eastern R. R. Directors, and that its immediate construction is positively assured. This action has started up the friends of the Lake Shore route and another attempt, which may be more successful than previous efforts in that line, will be made to secure a charter, that a complete route may be furnished from Portsmouth to the connecting roads which open the exterior of the State to our only seaport. Of course, strong opposition is being organized and a severe contest is to ensue in both houses of the legislature.

The committee of arrangements for the annual editorial excursion have a portion of the completed route laid out, and have voted that the excursion shall take place soon after the adjournment of the legislature. The route completed embraces a trip to Wolfeboro', a moonlight excursion on Lake Winnipesaukee, a day at Conway and a repetition of last year's memorable trip among the mountains. A more satisfactory arrangement could not be made.

The Senatorial question is the absorbing topic of conversation. The Republican caucus will probably be held on Thursday evening. Thus far, the rotationists are in the ascendency unmistakably. The members of the legislature who desire re-election are looking ahead to future contingencies. With two coming political campaigns to be tenaciously contested, the larger portion of the Republican members are without doubt hesitating ere they decide to re-elect Senator Patterson. The outside pressure for rotation is too strong to be resisted. Men from every section are boldly pressing the necessity of change in the Senatorial office for the salvation of the party. Rollins stock is decidedly uppermost and gaining in popularity. A few testy Patterson men are reported as talking mildly of bolting should Mr. Rollins be nominated, but by so doing they only show their desperation. The loss of their tempers by some of the firmest advocates of Senator Patterson's re-election is an indication that they have not full confidence of their ability to carry the caucus.

Another bomb shell has been thrown into the Patterson ranks from Washington. Judge Hall of the State Committee has received a telegram of which the following is a correct copy;—

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.

The undersigned, colored physicians and regular practitioners in the District of Columbia, protest against the return of J. W. Patterson as a Republican Senator to the United States Senate because of wrongs perpetrated on us as physicians and upon our race by his support of legislation excluding us from the medical societies on account of our race and color. As colored citizens, we also protest against his return because of his opposition to the bill giving colored children equal school privileges with others in this District.

(Signed) CHAS. B. PURVIS, M. D.
A. T. AUGUSTA, M. D.

ADJOURNED.—The 42d Congress has adjourned. In the Senate, Monday, the Ohio bridge bill and the bill removing the political disabilities of Ex-Gov. Vance, were passed.

The conference report on the omnibus bill was concurred in. A short evening session was held, at which no business of importance was done, and the final adjournment then took place.

In the House the conference report upon the omnibus appropriation bill was presented, the enforcement amendment being somewhat modified. Filibustering was at once begun and carried on in a very lively manner, but after a while the report was recommitted by a vote of 99 to 79. A resolution extending the session till six o'clock in the evening was then adopted. At the afternoon session, the conference committee on the omnibus bill reported that they were unable to agree and a new committee; was ordered the same members were appointed. A bill was passed abolishing the franking privilege after September 1, 1872. The conference report was presented again, the enforcement amendment being still further modified. Some discussion followed, and the report was agreed to by a party vote. An evening session was held, at which several minor bills were passed and at nine o'clock the forty-second Congress was a thing of the past.

The News.

Judging from recent dispatches from Matamoras, the insurgent Mexicans are meeting with more success of late than has hitherto been accorded their cause. They recaptured Monterey on the 4th inst., driving the regular forces toward Matamoras. Another siege of Matamoras is imminent.

The Geneva arbitration must now adjourn over until Congress meets again, as the supplementary article to the Washington Treaty cannot be brought before the Senate for ratification until December next.

An Italian in New York shot his German wife, 18 years old, on Monday; her brother shot him, and he in return shot the brother. All will die.

The great demonstration which the New York strikers promised for Monday turned out to be a slim affair. There were only about two thousand persons in the procession, no crowds and little enthusiasm.

The international boat race on the Thames, between the London Rowing Club and the Atlantas of New York, was easily won by the English crew.

The Alabama claims treaty is considered a failure and arbitration is virtually abandoned. The responsibility rests with England, the United States having conceded all that was possible in hope of saving the treaty.

Suspicion points to two men, William Sank and Alonzo Swords, as having had a hand in the murder of Capt. Colvocoresses. They were discharged from the Bridgeport (Conn.) jail, Monday morning, having worked out a sentence. Both are supposed to be New York thieves, and have not been seen since Monday. The police are active, and will probably call in the services of New York detectives. The suicide theory has been entirely abandoned.

State News.

A severe rain storm has raised the Merrimack river at Littleton to a higher point than ever previously known in the summer. The inundation of several smaller streams has done much damage carrying away bridges and washing out railroads.

A workman on the branch railway in Bethlehem fell off the gravel train Monday afternoon and received what are feared to be fatal injuries.

Isaac A. Stevens of Dover dropped dead Sunday at Middleton Corner. Heart disease is supposed to be the cause. He was, during the rebellion, a member of Company I, Eighth N. H. Volunteers, and was held about six months as a prisoner of war.

The Boston and Maine railroad station at Rochester was entered sometime during Sunday night by thieves, who broke into the ticket office and baggage room. They got little plunder.

The loss by the freshet at Littleton is $150,000 to $200,000. Every bridge and dam on the river for a space of eight miles is gone, and many logs carried away.

Base Ball.

The Bostons on Monday defeated the Mutuals in New York by a score of three to two. The latter made one in the fourth and fifth innings, and the Bostons one in the third, eighth and eleventh.

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Morphine, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jul 4w

NO PILL IN THE WORLD ever had anything like the circulation of Ayer's Pills. Throughout these States, Mexico, and the Central American republic, down the slopes of the Andes, and across the pampas of South America, in negro villages, amid the forest wilds of Africa, throughout the jungles of India, and the steppes of interior Asia, over the continent of Australia, and the islands of the Pacific, these pills are known and everywhere used as family remedies for disease. With distant nations, their wonderful cures attract more attention than they do at home; for the sentiment of wonder takes a far deeper hold on their minds than the results of a higher scientific skill with us. The amount consumed require seventy-five thousand doses a day to supply it. An inspection of the manufactory showed us how this enormous demand is made and sustained. Added to the consummate skill of their composition, is an extreme care in their manufacture, which at once secures the most perfect material and accurate combination. The consequence is a power and certainty in controlling disease which other remedies never attained.—Baltimore Courier.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—The astonishing rapidity with which this preparation extinguishes pain, reduces external inflammation, heals sores, eruptions and tumors, and cures rheumatism, gives it boundless popularity. A Dead Delusion.

The theory that human beings whose strength has been exhausted by pain and sickness can be restored by depleting medicines and water gruel, if not absolutely a dead delusion, is in the last agonies of dissolution. At length it is understood that strength cannot be purged into a debilitated frame, though life may be easily purged out of it and that it is about as wise to withhold a healthful stimulant from the weak, in the expectation that they will rally without one, as it would be to deprive a lamp of oil and expect it to burn the brighter for it.

The immense and uniform success which has attended the use of that wonderful combination of a pure stimulant with the finest medicinal herbs, known as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, has largely assisted in dispelling the absurd chimera. Frantic attempts are made to revive it, but in vain. When the sick feel that their strength is departing, and that unless invigorated they must utterly break down, it is in vain to tender them feculent slops in the place of genuine restoratives. They may be imposed upon in this way once, but the imposition cannot be repeated. They desire to be comforted, refreshed, braced up, and decline to be griped a second time.

Under the operation of Bitters, on the other hand, all the processes necessary to physical restoration go on simultaneously. The system is stimulated and toned, the bowels regulated, the appetite cultivated, the nerves composed and the condition of the blood improved at one and the same time by a single medicine. Common sense tells us that such a preparation must be invaluable.

Board of Trade.

The frequent, urgent and just complaints made by our citizens of the insufficient supply of water, have induced several discussions at the meetings of the Board of Trade, and resulted some weeks since in the appointment of a committee of three to ascertain if possible the capacity of the Fountain Head, and devise some means for increasing the supply of water. The committee are satisfied that the present mode of supplying water is inadequate to the wants of the city, and that for sanitary reasons, for the better protection of the city from fire and for the encouragement of important manufacturing interests, a largely increased water supply is indispensable. The committee called upon Col. J. W. Peirce, President of the Aqueduct Co., who stated that there was a sufficient quantity of water at the Fountain Head to supply a city of twenty or thirty thousand inhabitants; that the company were desirous of doing all in their power to supply the wants of the people, and had recently laid out $20,000 in laying new pipes, etc. Col. Peirce maintained that all the company are required to do is to bring the water to any one's premises, and if citizens wish it in upper apartments they are to lift it there at their own expense, with pumps. The committee at the meeting of the Board on Tuesday evening, June 11, offered the following report:

The committee appointed to examine into the amount of water to be had in the vicinity of Portsmouth make the following report:

They find by examination and from the officers of the aqueduct corporation that there is a large supply of water at the Fountain Head, sufficient for a city of thirty thousand inhabitants, but lying at so low an elevation as to be nearly useless in its present state.

Your committee would recommend, if the inhabitants of Portsmouth want a larger supply of water, for the city to negotiate with the aqueduct corporation by purchase of their capital stock or otherwise, build a large reservoir on the high grounds west of the Fountain, and by forcing the water to that elevation have a head of water of sufficient force to throw a stream over the highest house in the city; then, by having hydrants at different locations, they can possibly prevent any large conflagration by keeping it in subjection while the steamers are getting ready for action. The question of a larger supply of water must sooner or later come before the city authorities for action, and as more manufacturing interests are springing up in our midst, it seems now to be a fitting opportunity to bring the subject before the people.

WM. R. PRESTON,
(Signed) J. C. CARR,
H. M. CLARK.

Two members of the committee, Messrs. Carr and Preston, visited Salem, Mass., to inspect the water works of that city, and were shown every attention by D. H. Sanborn, Esq., Superintendent of Salem Water Works. From data furnished the committee by Mr. Sanborn, from the Water Board records and their personal inspection of the reservoir and machinery at Wenham Pond, the committee gathered many facts of interest to our citizens just at this time,—as Portsmouth seems to be now passing through an experience similar to that which Salem looks back upon. We give some extracts from the report compiled by Wm. R. Preston, Esq., and read before the Board of Trade, Tuesday evening:

Probably no city in New England is so well supplied with pure water for all domestic, mechanical and manufacturing purposes as Salem. The history of the successive steps taken to reach this desirable end, from the first organization of an aqueduct company in 1799 to the present time, is one of great interest. Commencing with a fish-hogshead for a fountain head, with saplings of three inch bore for a main and a reservoir only ten feet deep by about twenty-four feet square, the aqueduct company had in 1865 absorbed the whole of three large ponds, with a capacity of over 600,000 gallons of water per day. At this time the water was conveyed in two mains, one twelve and the other sixteen inches in diameter; but notwithstanding these two large pipes could furnish over ninety times as much water as the first three-inch pipe, the supply was still inadequate to the needs of the city.

After repeated promises from the old aqueduct company, and as many failures, the patience of the citizens was exhausted; and in 1865 a committee of citizens reported that "there was not a house where water always flowed regularly on the second floor;" that only two fire hydrants were available in the city, and that they would not fill a hand engine; that the steam fire engine would pump out any cistern, and had done so; that the flow of water was so limited that a steam fire engine in the upper part of the city could interrupt the supply of the whole city; that this state of things had existed for a long time, and had been the source of constant complaint, at one time resulting in the organization of a rival aqueduct company; that the distributing and service mains were wholly unequal to their proposed object; that the evil had long been growing worse, and that no measures had been taken to remedy what could be remedied; that manufacturing and other enterprises had been checked and their establishment in some instances wholly prevented; that it was impossible in some parts of the city to obtain sufficient water for domestic purposes; and that in order to enable the city to maintain its relative position among other cities, it was absolutely necessary to increase the water supply.

In 1868, ninety-four citizens petitioned the City Councils to take the necessary measures to procure from the legislature of the State power to establish City Water Works. After several meetings of the authorities and other committees, and reports from them that they had visited and ascertained the capacity of several ponds and springs and found them inadequate, their attention was turned to Wenham Lake. This occasioned determined opposition from the old aqueduct company, which desired to have the privileges of the Wenham aqueduct also. In 1864 a committee reported that an ample supply of water could be procured from Wenham Lake, which if introduced would afford increased facilities for business, and promote the comfort of the people and the value and safety of property.

On the 17th of July, 1865, the Water Commissioners held their first meeting for action, (postponed for so long a time on account of the war,) and chose an engineer to make surveys. From that time the work was prosecuted diligently, to the opening of the works in 1869. On the first of January, 1869, the hydrants were tested. Seven hydrants, all in sight of the street corner near Salem depot, were opened, and to each hydrant six lines of hose were attached, making forty-two streams of water which were being played at once; the trial was entirely satisfactory, convincing the citizens that all had been done to protect property from fire that could well be done.

Wenham Lake is four and one-half miles from Salem City Hall, and has an area of thirty-eight acres, a depth of fifty-three feet and an estimated capacity of 3,000,000 gallons of water per day; 500,000 gallons are pumped from it daily. The water flows through a 36-inch pipe a distance of 175 feet into a well chamber under the Water Works engine house; this pump well holds 45,000 gallons. From the pump well the water is forced through 5600 feet of 30-inch pipe to the reservoir, which is 114 feet above the lake, and holds 20,000,000 wines gallons. The engine can easily pump two and one-half millions of gallons in twelve hours, and though it has been in use four years has not cost one cent for repairs. The main is four miles long, of cast iron, and twenty inches in diameter; the distributing pipes are of iron and cement, and from twelve inches to four in diameter.

Hydrants are placed at the corners of every street in the city, and each hydrant will throw six effective streams of water over the highest buildings, without the aid of an engine; and it may be said that the fire extinguishing apparatus of Salem consists of three hose carriages. As an instance of the efficiency of the water works in extinguishing fires, the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of Salem mentioned the following circumstance to the visiting committee of the Board of Trade: a steamer was attached to a hydrant at the terminus of a line of 6-inch pipe 2140 feet long; the steamer played through 1000 feet of hose into the third story of a building; and at the same time two other streams were drawn from the same hydrant, through 100 feet of hose, and thrown to the height of 60 feet.

The committee in their report say, "When we come to the cost of the works, it need not frighten our people into apathy or induce them to say 'we will content ourselves with what we have now, without incurring such a great outlay;' this is unnecessary, for our requirements do not call for enlarged and extravagant expenditures. The actual cost of all the [Salem] works is $1,198,500, for which the city of Salem has a source of supply of 2,500,000 gallons per day, an engine capable of pumping 5,000,000 gallons, and means to throw the water to a height of 142 feet."

The committee also say, "When the city water works were first proposed in Salem a doleful cry was heard in some directions, of large taxes and depreciation in value of real estate, and it was predicted that the wealthiest citizens would leave the town to escape taxation." In answer to this the committee produce data showing that real estate has risen in value more rapidly since the water works were commenced than ever before, and that taxes if not diminished are not appreciably increased.

The committee, in closing their report, recommend the employment of Mr. George H. Norman of Newport, R. J., the contractor for laying the pipe and building the reservoir for the Salem Water Works, to visit the Fountain Head and adjacent springs, and, if necessary, Raymond Pond, believing that his large experience will enable him to furnish all the information required in relation to an increased supply of water for the city of Portsmouth.

Laconics.

The Israelites of old thought themselves hardly used when they were required to make bricks without straw; but if they had only tried running a "local newspaper" when there wasn't any news—local or other—they would have been glad to have returned to their brick making, though they had not been allowed even clay to make them of.

An alarm of fire was occasioned at Kittery on Monday evening, at a quarter to 9 o'clock, by the partial burning of Mr. Samuel A. Jackson's house. Mr. Jackson was in this city at the time and Mrs. Jackson absent at a neighbor's. The fire destroyed most of the personal effects of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, the latter not having a change of clothing left; and the house was considerably damaged by water. Mr. Jackson was insured in the Queen Ins. Co. of London. Cause of fire unknown.

The question now arises, was the accident on the Portland, Saco and Portsmouth railroad on Thursday night an accident or an organized plan to rob the mails? It will be remembered the freight train was thrown from the track at Kennebunkport, and that the passenger trains were delayed and mixed up. The next morning many Portland merchants and banks failed to receive valuable letters, and complaints from their correspondents ask if letters were sent or received. The post-office officials say they thought they received their customary mail, but they too have missed several letters mailed by the office. Detectives have been employed to work up the case in Boston, and one went to Portland Monday.

By an advertisement in another column it will be seen that the popular and widely-famed Appledore House, Isles of Shoals, will be opened for the season next Saturday, June 15th. The handsome, swift and staunch little steamer Appledore will commence her regular trips on that day, under command of Capt. Edwin M. Baker, whose reputation as a skillful seaman and a courteous and attentive gentleman to his passengers, is endorsed by the thousands who have travelled in the Appledore for the past three years. Messrs. Laighton, as in the past, propose to spare no exertions to make the stay of their guests a season of pleasure; and we are pleased to learn that the indications are that they will have more guests to look after this season than ever before.

The Portsmouth Music Society, which at first was booked for 56 seats in the grand Jubilee chorus, now has the names of 74 members on the list for that event, the balance of whom will attend as alternates. Harlow's fine orchestra has been rehearsing with them, and has procured the entire score of the music to be performed; and together the chorus is a powerful one. The Portsmouth Society will give a public rehearsal of the Jubilee music, on Sunday evening next, as has been done by most similar Societies elsewhere; and to assist in paying their expenses, an admission fee of 25 cents will be charged. Application has been made for the use of one of the churches for the occasion, and it would seem that some of them should feel sufficient interest in the advancement of sacred music to gladly grant the request.

The Granite House at Hampton Beach, having been remodelled and renovated, will be reopened to the public June 15, by the well known caterer, Mr. W. J. Walker, who proposes to merit general patronage by giving courteous treatment and good accommodations at fair prices, and hopes to receive a fair share of the favors of the public in return.

Workmen are engaged in raising the bridges on the line of the Portsmouth, Great Falls and Conway railroad, in order that the Pullman cars can run under them.

The annual excursion of the N. H. Printers and Editors will take place during the second or third week in July.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases. For the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred FIRE AT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the ounce of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage at which time there is no local cure) relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.

Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial

is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing to its favor.

BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL

Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.

Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.

For Coughs,
Croup,
Diphtheria,
Asthma, &c.

USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.

The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "walking in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
—OF—
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the work of any other in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.
N. B. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

New Publications.

The June number of American Homes is fully up to its high standard of the past. A new Oil Chromo called the "Two Pets" is given with this Magazine. Price $1.25 per year; Chas. H. Taylor & Co., Boston, Publishers.

Merry's Museum for June is a gem. The bright pages, handsome illustrations, interesting stories, sound morals and good manners taught in this popular monthly, explain its glad welcome among the boys and girls. $1.50 a year. Horace B. Fuller, Publisher, Boston.

Ballou's Magazine, the July number of Ballou's Magazine commences a new volume, the 36th of this popular and prosperous monthly. It is so good and so cheap that it should be in the hands of a million people. The contents of the July number are excellent. $1.50 per year. Thomas & Talbot, 63 Congress Street, Boston.

The London Quarterly Review (Am. reprint) for April has the following list of contents: The State of English Architecture; Thomas Carlyle; Trade with China; Masson's Life of Milton; Modern Scepticism—the Duke of Somerset; The British Parliament—its History and its Eloquence; Diaries of a Diplomatist; Education, Secularism and Nonconformity; Concession to the United States. Leonard Scott Pub. Co., 140 Fulton Street, N. Y.; $4 per year.

The New Hampshire Journal of Music, published at Manchester, is a valuable monthly, of good size, ably edited and neatly printed and always full of matter interesting to all in any way in music, as well as the general reader. At the very low price of $1 per year, it should have a large circulation, especially in New Hampshire. I. S. Whitney is the editor and publisher.

THE CROPS.—The New England Farmer in commencing upon the backwardness of the season and the chances of a short hay crop, gives some timely hints. We quote:

Our stock must be preserved for this the right arm of our business. Without it, future crops would fail, even though the elements were propitious.

We must make large provision for fodder crops. Where land is laid to grass with oats or barley, cut the plants for fodder, and take great pains to cure them in the best manner.

Put corn in drills at different periods, so as to have it for August and September feeding, and an ample surplus for drying for winter.

A crop of millet, not grown too rankly, and well cured and housed, will furnish fodder not far behind timothy and red top grasses in value. It may be sown from the 25th of May, on through the entire month of June, and with fair prospects of a good crop. About twelve quarts of seed to the acre is the amount usually employed. Make the soil fine, sow evenly and roll or otherwise compress the surface a little, so as to bring the earth in immediate contact with the seed.

Make an effort to produce roots in considerable quantity. Fed with dry fodder they have a wonderfully beneficent power upon the animals. In addition to the flat turnip, sow as much land as can be well manured and tended with the mangel wurtzel beet and Swede turnips. There is no difficulty in raising either of those crops. They will produce well on a fair sandy or clay loam. The land should be rich enough to produce a good crop of Indian corn, and then some rich compost strewn in the furrows over which the seed is to be planted. Sow by middle of June.

Cut the meadow grasses that have not been considered worth the labor heretofore, and that that grows by the wayside, making an effort to secure the largest amount of fodder of every kind, possible.

SUCCESS!

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties to be found in Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a specific in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupulino, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS, Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so uniformly successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success that have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it effectively cures the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREFETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

CORNS, Bunions, Bad Nails, and other diseases of the feet, Scrofulous and Cancerous Humors, Piles, etc., skillfully treated at the great central Chiropodical and Healing Institute, No. 765 Broadway, New York. DR. J. BRIGGS, President; DR. ALEXANDER WEBBER, Secretary. ap9

THURSDAY, JUNE 13, 1872.

Editorial Correspondence.

CONCORD, June 12.

With the arrival of the evening trains of Tuesday, there was an influx of hundreds of eager politicians. The Eagle hotel, the headquarters of the Republicans, is filled to overflowing, and that most urbane and obliging clerk, Mr. John F. Byron, was obliged to forsake his room for the comfort of his guests and take refuge for a night's rest in a barber's chair!

But little interest seems to be taken in legislative matters, the Senatorial fight being uppermost in men's minds. To-day, Representative Pendexter gave notice of a bill, which embodies the views of the Portsmouth delegation, for changing the city election to the second Tuesday in March. This morning, another delegation from Strawberry Bank put in an appearance and their presence insures the stay of Drs. Hall, Parsons and Whittier for a time. As yet, however, no surgical operations are necessary.

Concord's unpalatable water and warm temperature operates steamingly on those who have been breathing east winds elsewhere. Said a Portsmouth gardener recently, hired to set out some trees for an orchard, when asked by the lady whose worse half had selected the trees without consulting her, in answer to her query as to the size of the trees—"About the size of yer leg, mum!" The Senatorial growth has fully attained to "about the size of your leg," and is at boiling pitch. The coolest people here are members législatif, who propose to settle the matter themselves after all the other persons do the talking.

From the first the rotationists have steadily led, notwithstanding the presence of HUNDREDS OF OFFICE HOLDERS, who are clamoring for Senator Patterson's re-election. Senator Patterson has not yet denied the charges made against him, but it is presumed he will do so on the day of the caucus when his opponents will not have time to prove their statements. Messrs. Crane, Wedgewood and Smith of Washington, D. C., are here pleading for the defeat of Senator Patterson, who they say has disfranchised them by his bill which gave the present "Ring" full control of the District of Columbia. Following them comes Gen. Chipman of Washington to defend the Ring and urge Senator Patterson's re-election. Following him comes Prof. Greene, a colored Washingtonian, who is advertised to speak in the open air this evening and show up Senator Patterson's action. The Washington people, regardless of any effect their action may have on the various candidates, go in regardless of consequences, on their own hook, in their denunciation of the Senator.

Active canvassing is going on, night and day. A caucus for the nomination of candidates for State officers will be held this evening. There is doubt whether the Senatorial caucus will be held Thursday, Friday or Monday evening. The only doubt thrown on the success of rotation is the appearance of Gen. Chipman and the fears that he has $50,000 to expend for his friend Patterson. Rael Durkee, the impenetrable and principal absorber of news, is working almost hopelessly for Patterson. Some of the latter's friends now talk Tappan, but the Senator won't let them withdraw him. We see no reason to doubt the success of rotation this week or next. There will be no choice as things look now, on the first ballot, Rollins and Patterson each receiving between 80 and 90 votes of the 221. Mr. Rollins' friends are sanguine of his nomination on the second ballot. He gains strength with those who wish to ensure the future success of the Republican party of New Hampshire. G.

[By Western Union Line.]

CONCORD, June 12, 10 P. M.

At the Republican caucus to-night B. F. Prescott, Secretary of the Republican State Committee, was nominated for Secretary of State on the fourth ballot, over George E. Jenks—106 to 66. For State Treasurer Gen. Solon A. Carter of Keene had 110 votes, L. W. Cogswell 46, Peter Sanborn 17. For State Printer, O. C. Moore was nominated; for Commissay-General, C. F. Montgomery. By acclamation it was unanimously voted to hold the Senatorial caucus Thursday evening. Rollins stock is still climbing, Marston stock is gaining from Patterson, and the Stearns men are lively.

THE NEW POSTAL REGULATIONS.—The new postal bill which became a law just before the Congress adjourned makes some changes in existing postal regulations which are of general interest. The most important is the authorization of one cent postal cards for correspondence or for printed circulars similar to those which were introduced in Great Britain nearly two years ago and now are used in nearly all European countries. The House provided in the bill for a paper flap to cover and conceal the writing. The Senate changed this to an open card. In conference committee the style of the card was left to the discretion of the Postmaster-General, who prefers the open card and will order that kind only to be manufactured.

The face of the card will bear a one-cent stamp, and will be provided with lines for the address, and the back will be ruled for the letter. The price of the card and stamp will be only one cent. It will probably be three or four weeks before they will be ready for sale as the plates for printing have yet to be prepared. The postage on circulars, newspapers and other transient printed matter, which under the old law was two cents for four ounces or less, is now one cent for every two ounces or less. Small circulars, which formerly cost two cents to mail, can now be sent for one cent, an important reduction to business men who use the mails largely to advertise their business.

The change is now in force, the law being immediate in its effect. The first assistant postmaster-general refused to recognize the law, however, when an attorney laid the question before him after having been told at the city post-office that his circulars with one-cent stamp could not be sent. The official claimed the right to suspend the operation of the law until it could be promulgated to post-masters throughout the country. This claim is regarded as indefensible. The law is now operative and everybody is entitled to claim its benefits, postmasters being expected to know its provisions as well as other people.

State News.

At the June law term of the supreme Judical court, holden in Manchester, the full bench being present decided that the lawyers against whom indictments were found about a year since, were guilty of no crime in demanding and receiving two dollars for writs settled by the defendants before their cases were entered in court.

A Mrs. Woolford and Miss Annie Therrier of Manchester have been bound over in the sum of $500 each, on a charge of attempting to poison Mr. Daniel Woolford, the husband of the former, with oxalic acid in his medicine. Mr. Woolford is about sixty years of age. Neither of the women deny the charge.

Many of the cranberry meadows in the State were severly injured by the cold of last winter.

Petitions are to be presented to the legislature for the removal of the Sullivan county courts, from Newport to Claremont, on account of the notoriously bad condition of the court and jury rooms at Newport, the fact that Claremont is nearer the centre of population of the county, and that the town has offered to erect handsome and suitable buildings and deed them to the county.

The first annual meeting of the directors of the New Hampshire Orphan's Home was held in Franklin June 11, the chair being occupied by Hon. G. W. Nesmith of Franklin. A long report was presented covering the operations of the home for the year, which shows the institution to be in a flourishing condition. An additional report was made by Superintendent and Financial Agent Mack, after which a board of directors was chosen and the following officers elected: President, Hon. George W. Nesmith of Franklin; vice-president, Hon. J. E. Hall, of Dover; clerk, Rev. C. W. Miller of Dover; treasurer, Hon. John Kimball of Concord.

In answer to Father O'Donnell's anti-secret society lecture, a correspondent asserted in the Nashua Telegraph that the Pope and Archbishop Hughes were Masons. Father O'Donnell now offers the city of Nashua $1000 toward a new school-house if the assertion can be proved.

The centennial anniversary of Francestown was celebrated June 8th, with a procession, a banquet and oration. Over 1500 persons participated in the exercises.

Judge Sargent has dissolved the injunction restraining the directors of the Nashua and Rochester Railroad from transacting business, and the building of the road will be commenced at once.

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly safe in less and far more effective than Pills, Narcotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jal 4w

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vatility into your exhausted and disordered system. ON THE CARPET.—One of the latest topics in the success of the new department just added to the great dry goods house of Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston. The finest Axminsters, Wiltons, Brussels, velvets, and tapestries are offered their patrons; while the needful three plies, Kidderminsters, oil cloths, etc, are shown in large variety, in their best grades.

VEGETINE is nourishing and strengthening; purifies the blood; regulates the bowels; quiets the nervous system; acts directly upon the secretions, and arouses the whole system to action.

NO PILL IN THE WORLD ever had anything like the circulation of Ayer's Pills. Throughout these States, Mexico, and the Central American republic, down the slopes of the Andes across the pampas of South America, in negro villages, amid the fervid wilds of Africa, throughout the jungles of India, and the steppes of interior Asia, over the continent of Australia, and the islands of the Pacific, these pills are known and everywhere used as family remedies for diseases. With distant nations, their wonderful cures attract more attention than they do at home; for the sentiment of wonder takes a far deeper hold on their minds than the results of a higher scientific skill with us. The amount consumed require seventy-five thousand doses a day to supply it. An inspection of the manufactory showed us how this enormous demand is made and sustained. Added to the consummate skill of their composition, is an extreme care in their manufacture, which at once secures the most perfect material and accurate combination. The consequence is a power and certainty in controlling disease which other remedies never attained.—Baltimore Courier.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—The astonishing rapidity with which this preparation extinguishes pain, reduces external inflammation, heals sores, eruptions and tumors, and cures rheumatism, gives it boundless popularity. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price 24 cents per pot. Ask for now style; the old is counterfeited.

LOVELINESS ON THE INCREASE.—An increase of female loveliness is the eye-delighting result of the immense popularity which Hagan's Magnolia Balm has obtained among the ladies of America. Complexions endued with snowy purity and tinged with the roseate hue of health are commonly met with wherever it is used. For the sallow and unwholesome appearance of the face and neck, which utterly counterbalances the effect of any personal attraction the owner may possess, it substitutes that clear, pearl-like complexion which is such a transcendent charm in woman, and renders the roughest skin as soft as Genoa velvet. No one is more astonished than the person using it at the marvellous transformation which it effects in these particulars.

Special Notices.

Causeless Depression.

This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary; if the liver is disordered an alterative is required; if the bowels are constipated or irregular a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes, by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilious complaints and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be overestimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this famous vegetable restorative.

The first Pullman train on the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway Railroad arrived at North Conway on the 11th, by the way of the Eastern Railroad, in five hours from Boston. Representatives of the press from New York, New Haven, Hartford, Providence, Boston and other cities were on the train. The party was in charge of Mr. George F. Field of the Eastern Railroad.

Concerning Mrs. Dr. Dickinson, now practising at the Franklin House, an Ogdensburg (N. Y.) exchange says: "The number of persons afflicted with chronic diseases who have and are applying to the doctor daily for advice and treatment is unprecedented, showing conclusively that her mode of dealing with disease is as popular as her success is great."

Messrs. Peter Pray and Octavius Tarbox raised the first Grant and Wilson flag in this city on the 11th.

Mr. Jenness of Rye has given notice in the State legislature of a bill to incorporate the Rye Beach Railroad.

The Portsmouth Music Society announce a concert at the Temple next Sunday evening, with the assistance of Harlow's fine Orchestra, probably the best organization of the kind we ever had in this city. The programme is selected wholly from the Jubilee book, and the entertainment, both in itself and especially from its object, the encouragement of our home music, is well worthy patronage. See the advertisement.

At a special meeting of the Episcopal church, Monday, June 10th, it was voted to procure a new organ, $2500 and the old organ to be devoted to that purpose. The wardens, Messrs. H. F. Wendell and Moses N. Jenkins, with Mr. Thacher Emery added, compose the committee to carry out the vote of the church.

An alarm of fire, Wednesday afternoon, was occasioned by a barn on Warren street, belonging to the Ball estate and occupied by Mr. Thomas Neil as a stable, taking fire from a firecracker thrown on the roof by a small boy. Damage trifling.

The City Marshal gives notice that the ordinance prohibiting the firing of crackers, torpedoes and other fireworks in the streets will be rigidly enforced. The boys will do well to heed the warning.

A bill amending the charter of the Portsmouth & Dover Railroad has been introduced in the State Senate.

The Board of Trade at their last meeting authorized a committee to confer with the City Councils relative to the employment of Mr. George H. Dorman to make surveys and estimates of the proposed plans of obtaining a better supply of water for the city from the Fountain Head or Raymond Pond.

Aquatics.

A race came off on the Piscataqua River, Tuesday, June 11, which though not so widely heralded as that between the Atalantas and the London Rowing Club, was quite as trying to the pluck and endurance of the parties concerned, —at least on one side. The contest on our river was between two naval officers in a boat, and a bucket of rocks,—and proudly we chronicle the fact that the boys in blue were first to reach the land, winning the race in gallant style by half a boat's length.

The two officers—one of whom is distinguished for the decided resemblance he does not bear to a "lean and slippered pantaloon" and both for their calm and even jovial endurance of life's trials—both being stationed at this Navy Yard, some time since procured a boat, christened it the "Dromedary," and thereafter proceeded to pull themselves across the river to and from the Yard daily, scoffing at the unenterprising individuals who are content to go across by steamer, winning numerous races with rival boats, and generally receiving cheers from the opposing athletes when they were not rendered speechless with admiration at the easy grace with which the officers handled their oars. Not a few boatmen on the river are of opinion that had these two officers occupied the places of two of the Atalanta club in the international boat race on the Thames, the British club would have been distanced.

On Tuesday afternoon, nothing fatigued by the arduous duties pertaining to their positions on the Navy Yard, though said duties would doubtless have completely exhausted men not accustomed to vigorous exercise, the two officers took their places at the oars with the laudable object in view of seeing their families and friends on this side of the river, and incidentally to get some dinner. Having a goodly number of lady passengers on board, our muscular friends determined to show them a specimen of "white ash breeze" which should whisk them across the river in an incredibly short time; but the "Dromedary" behaved more like a donkey or pig than the first named respectable animal, and seriously discomfitted the oarsmen by shooting first up river and then down, and anon by turning completely around, without the least regard to the rudder or the frantic application of the oars.

The mortifying conduct of the boat in presence of ladies was bad enough, but worse yet was the tremendous expenditure of strength required of the oarsmen if they would reach this side the river in season to view their loved ones by daylight and get dinner before it was cold; but American naval officers are not the men to give up for trifles, and though the wake of the boat was as broad as it was long, the "Dromedary" was at last triumphantly bumped against the Navy Yard landing stage, and her passengers disembarked. A consultation of the boat's crew ended in a unanimous vote that she be hauled up, which was done, and the erratic movements of the "Dromedary" were explained; some cruel friend (the wronged officers spell this "friend" without any "r") had attached a huge bucket of rocks, weighing fully ninety pounds, to the boat's keel by a rope just long enough to let it sway about in the strong current of the river. The proximity of the lady passengers exercised a subduing influence upon the remarks made by the officers on discovering the bucket, but the heaviest one of them proposes to sit upon the perpetrator of the outrage for a few minutes, if he can only find out who he is.

A Card.

The statement made in a card in the CHRONICLE of the 7th inst., that the leader of the Marine Band refused to play on Memorial Day after making an express agreement to do so, was incorrect, made in consequence of a misunderstanding, and Storer Encampment hereby retracts the same. Per Order.

Political.

Ten Democratic County Conventions, thus far, have been held in Georgia. Six unequivocally opposed the endorsement of Greeley at Baltimore, and three were non-committal; only one endorsed Greeley.

The "Rogue's March" has been foisted upon the innocent public of Davenport, Ia., under the title of the "Greeley and Brown Polonaise."

Gen. Lloyd Aspinwall resigns his membership on the Greeley general committee. He has written a sharp letter denouncing Greeley's conduct.

It is reported that criminal prosecutions are to be commenced at once against the Brooklyn ring thieves. The Brooklyn Eagle, which is owned by them, will change hands, but whether it will abandon its advocacy of "Greeley, honesty, economy and reform" is not stated.

The Democratic State convention of Iowa endorsed Greeley and Brown.

The News.

The royal mail steamer Kingston was destroyed by fire on the St. Lawrence River, June 11, while making her up trip. All on board were saved except one lady passenger. The cargo was all lost.

The strike of the New York workmen seems to be fizzling out. The Singer sewing-machine men have resumed work.

Hayti threatens to declare war against Baez.

Quesada wants to sell the blockade-runner Virginius to the Venezuelan government.

The Venezuelan revolution is at an end. After his defeat at Tinaquilla Salazar fled, but was pursued and captured by General Colina. He was tried by a court-martial composed of twenty-three officers, and sentenced to be executed on the 7th of June, in the presence of the whole army.

The nomination of Mr. Charles Francis Adams as the Presidential candidate of the anti-secret society party excites a great deal of merriment since it has been announced that he is a Mason of such high standing that there has recently been much talk of making him supreme grand master of the United States.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases. For the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the ounce of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage at which time there is no local cure) relieves the passages, enfeebled by hailing at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs,
Croup,
Diphtheria,
Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "walking in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
— OF —
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices —and many of these are we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.
NB. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

Morning Chronicle.

ALLEGED MURDER.—The New York World publishes the following, which is said to be an extract from a letter written by an officer of the U. S. S. Kansas, dated off Greytown, May 10:

On Saturday evening, the 5th., one of the men attached to the engine department of this vessel, by the name of David Cady, became noisy from the effect of liquor, and was put in double irons by order of the commanding officer, Lieut.-Commander White. Cady continued his noise, as all drunken sailors will; this seemed to annoy the commander of the ship, who ordered him brought aft, which was done; the captain ordered him to stop his noise, which was not of a serious nature, but Cady paid no attention to the order. This so enraged the captain that he ordered one of the large deck-swabs to be placed over his mouth. Mr. Hones, officer of the deck at the time, not liking such a barbarous proceeding as stopping a man's mouth with a swab, particularly in a hot country like this where a man needs all the air he can obtain and more too, did not carry out the order with the requisite brutality to suit Lieutenant-Commander White, so he reprimanded Mr. H. sharply and sent for some of the marine guard, and exclaimed in a very excited tone of voice that he would keep the swab to Cady's mouth and stop his wind, remarking that this was not the first time he had done such a thing; at the same time telling the marines that he was astonished at their not being able to stop Cady's noise. Just at that moment Cady got his mouth clear, and remarked to the captain that he was astonished at Lieutenant-Commander White for trying to smother him to death. This being a little too much insolence for White, he jumped at him with the fury of an enraged lion, and with his own hands attempted to stop Cady's mouth with the swab; the latter being a large and very powerful man made the best effort against it a man could with double irons on his hands and legs, but White tugged for some time, while Cady kicked and thrashed to resist the swab, when White getting tired of the job of keeping the swab to his mouth called out for Cady's hammock to be brought; the order was obeyed; all this time this poor creature in double irons was struggling with all his might to resist his cruel commander, and save his own life from suffocation. The hammock was brought, and Cady was ordered to be lashed up in it like an Egyptian mummy prepared for the Catacombs. But he did not live long enough for his executioner to carry his torture to the extent contemplated, for David H. Cady, a man who had served in the navy for twenty years, and a true-blue American sailor, died from torture and suffocation before he could be imprisoned in a lashed-up hammock—murdered.

The World adds:

The Secretary of the Navy owes it to himself, the navy, and the country to have this matter investigated at once, and Lieutenant-Commander White sent with Lieutenant-Commander Seely, late of the Pawnee, and others who are now suffering punishment and disgrace for cruelty and inhuman treatment to Uncle Sam's sailors.

As Seely is walking about receiving better pay for doing nothing than most mechanics receive for hard work, the proposal to send Lt.-Com. White to keep him company would seem to hint at a light punishment for a great crime. If the story is true White's leave of absence should be unlimited, at the least; and some people think that even a sailor should not be murdered with impunity.

SECOND

Grand Gift Concert

IN AID OF THE

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY,

AT LOUISVILLE KY.

BY authority in the act of the Legislature incorporating the PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY, the Trustees will give their

SECOND GIFT CONCERT

In the great hall of the Public Library building in Louisville, Ky., on Saturday, September 28, '72.

This magnificent hall, known as Weisiger Hall, is the largest, most centrally located, and best arranged for large and fashionable audiences of any in Louisville and of that it up in superb style. The building has a front of 158 feet on Fourth St., by a depth of 220 feet, four stories in height, and was recently occupied as the Public Library at a cost of $210,000. Three large rooms are now fitted up for a library, and contain about 20,000 volumes and a museum of 100,000 specimens, now open and free to the gratuitous use and enjoyment of all citizens of every State in the Union. It is the purpose of the Trustees, by the GRAND GIFT CONCERT now announced, to raise the money with which to pay the balance of the purchase money due upon the Public Library building, to enlarge the library, and to so endow the institution as to make it self sustaining and forever beyond the necessity of calling upon any individual who uses the books for the contribution of a single cent toward its support.

100,000 TICKETS OF ADMISSION

will be issued at $10 each; half tickets $5; quarter tickets $2.50; 11 whole tickets for $100; 28 for $250; 56 for $500; 113 for $1000; 285 for $2,500; 575 for $5,000. No discount on less than $100 worth of tickets at a time.

Tickets will be sent, when requested, by registered letter. The money for them may be sent by Adams' Express Co. and its connections, P. O. money order, registered letter, or bank draft.

The holder of any ticket, or fraction of a ticket (a half or a quarter,) is entitled to admission to the concert and to the gift awarded to it. During the concert the sum of

will be given to the holders of tickets by distribution by lot of ONE THOUSAND GIFTS, as follows:

This Concert, like the first of the 12th of December last, (which was so decidedly successful, and at which the first grand gift was drawn by and paid to Mr. John R. Duff, of Memphis, Tenn.,) is for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky.

The Farmers' and Drovers' Bank is Treasurer, and the corporators and supervisors are all representative men, and are among the most respectable and distinguished citizens of the State. Should any tickets be left unsold on the day of the drawing, they will be destroyed, and the one thousand gifts offered will all be drawn and paid, but diminished in value in proportion to the percentage of unsold tickets. For instance, if only three-fourths of the tickets are sold, the capital gift will be reduced to $75,000, and all the others in proportion.

The Hon. THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, late Governor of Kentucky, has consented to represent the Trustees in the management of the second Grand Gift Concert, and he will personally see that the money from the sale of Tickets is deposited with the Treasurer, that the drawing is fairly conducted, and the gifts justly awarded and promptly paid.

The drawing will take place in public, in full view of the audience, and under the immediate supervision and direction of the officers and Trustees of the Public Library of Kentucky and the following named eminent and disinterested citizens, who have consented to be present and see that all is fairly done:

Hon. M. R. HARDIN, Judge Court Appeals, Ky.
Hon. J. PROCTOR KNOTT, late M.C. Lebanon Dist.
Hon. H. W. BRUCE, Judge Ninth Jud. Dis., Ky.

NO PROFIT IN MILKING TOO LONG.—It is generally thought best, so far as my knowledge extends, to let dairy cows go dry three, or at least two months. My own experience would give three months as about the best average length of time cows should go dry before dropping their calves in spring; and this I find best without regard to the general health of the animal or the amount of milk to be produced the following or after seasons.—Cows that are milked too long, either get thin in flesh, and give but little milk, and that of poor quality, or else require a large amount of nutritious food to keep up a good supply of milk and the animal in good flesh. My rule is to feed liberally as long as I do milk, and when a cow gives less than two quarts of good wholesome milk, dry her off and lessen the feed. A dry cow needs but about two-thirds the amount of fodder required by a cow of the same size which gives milk, so that there is no present profit in milking too long, unless dairy products are very high, to say nothing of the damage by impairing the future usefulness of the cow.

—To discover spurious greenbacks or national bank notes, divide the last two figures of the number of the bill by four and if one remain the letter on the genuine will be A; if two remains it will be B; if three, C; and should there be no remainder, the letter will be D. For example a note is registered 2461; divide sixty-one by four, and you will have one remaining. According to the rule the letter on the note will be A. In case the rule fails be certain that the bill is counterfeit or altered.

—An Evansville youth, on a salary of nine dollars a week, paid fifteen dollars for a bouquet to throw at his lady love at a concert, and she went home with another fellow. His boarding mistress has crape on the kitchen door over the loss of the price of a week's gruel.

—A middle-aged stranger staggered into a prayer meeting in Indianapolis and announced that he would immediately poison himself. The members gathered around him in prayerful solicitude, and tore from his grasp a death-dealing package of flour!

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN

HAIR RENEWER.

ITS EFFECT IS

MIRACULOUS.

It is a perfect and wonderful article. Cures baldness. Makes hair grow. A beautiful dressing than any "oil" or "pomatum." Softens brash, dry and wiry hair into Beautiful Silken Tresses. But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR.

The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter.

The first application will do good; you will see the NATURAL COLOR returning every day, and the old, gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving place to lustrous, shining and beautiful locks.

Ask for Hall's Sicilian Hair Renewer; no other article is at all like it in effect.

See that each bottle has our private Government Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations.

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUGHS, Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREFETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

FRIDAY, JUNE 14, 1872.

Editorial Correspondence.

CONCORD June 13th.

The Rockingham County members of the legislature organized to-day by the choice of William W. Poor, of Derry, Chairman, and John Pender, of Portsmouth, Secretary. The annual report of the County Commissioners was discussed and referred to a committe of five, consisting of Messrs. Emery of Portsmouth, Brown, of Derry, Jenness of Rye, Cilley, of Nottingham, and Carlisle of Exeter, to report in one week. The estimate of County expenses for the ensuing year is $55,000, being considerably reduced from last year's estimate. The Commissioners ask for an appropriation of $2000 for an addition to the county building, for insane.

The Senatorial Caucus.

The News.

Congress has decided to give the grave of every soldier in the various national cemeteries a headstone with the name of the soldier and his State on it.

Madame Arabella Goddard and Madame Radersdorf arrived in New York June 12, on the Java, and left on the afternoon train for Boston. A few friends received them and saw them to the train. They arrived in Boston on the 13th.

The British answer to the American case in the San Juan boundary matter has been submitted to Emperor William of Germany, the arbitrator, and Mr. Bancroft has sent in his replication. A decision will be given as soon as both parties request it.

The late James Gordon Bennett was buried June 13.

A railroad train ran into a party engaged repairing the telegraph line near Bergen N. Y., killing Edward Van Ness and injuring several other persons, June 12.

The Cholera has broken out in Russia.

Details of the floods near Prague, caused by the heavy rains, show that the destruction of life and property was far greater than at first supposed, the number of persons who perished being estimated at seven hundred.

The thunder shower of Wednesday evening was unusually destructive of life in Massachusetts. In Lexington a daughter of Mr. Hugh Graham was killed; in Waltham two Irish women, and in Acton Mr. Lewis F. Ball, were also killed. Many buildings in other towns were struck by lightning and many persons injured, but no others are reported as dead.

Troys 30, Olympics 11.

A bill is being prepared in the federal council of Germany, providing for the expulsion of all the Jesuits from Germany, even though they be natives.

The American fishing schooner Franklin, seized by the Canadian authorities for infraction of the fishery laws last year, and adjudged by the admiralty court to be sold, has been released on payment of fines and expenses, amounting to $1000, by the owners.

In Fall River, Mass., June 10, a young woman named Meloria Prosho drowned herself and her child, two weeks old, in the pond near the Wampanoag mill. Her husband is travelling with a theatrical company, and she was living with her father-in-law. She was a native of Fiskdale, Mass., was about 24 years of age, and leaves a little girl aged between two and three years. Discouragement in her lonely and helpless condition is the supposed cause.

A despatch from London says that the assembling of the Geneva tribunal is the absorbing topic of discussion there. The general feeling in Europe is that England is afraid of the arbitrators. Incendeos insulting to the tribunal are current. It is said in high quarters that Russian money is operating against England; Count Catacazy is mentioned as continuing on that side of the Atlantic the work for which he was expelled from Washington. It is believed that Prince Gortschakoff's diplomacy and purse are opponents too formidable to be safely encountered.

On the trial of the boy Dunn, an inmate of the house of refuge on Randall's Island, New York harbor, for the killing of Samuel Colvert, one of the keepers, in March last, disclosures were made by the witnesses for the prosecution, as well as the defence, showing that cruel treatment of the boys there imprisoned was the usual custom, as has been frequently unofficially reported. On cross-examination the superintendent acknowledged that the boys were sometimes whipped with a small strap, thongs or rattan, on the bare flesh; but in no instance, he was certain, were as many as forty lashes given. During his administration, which began in 1866, seven or eight boys were held up by the thumbs so that their feet could not touch the ground, generally from three to eight minutes. When the grand jury visited the house they were not told of the thumb punishment because it didn't occur to the superintendent to tell them.

Political.

The New York Evening Post says: "Colonel E. M. Yerger, who was notorious a few years ago as a Mississippi rebel, but is now living in Baltimore, has declared for Mr. Greeley. A few months ago Mr. Greeley was calling for Colonel Yerger's imprisonment as a murderer."

The Indiana Democratic State convention has nominated Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks for Governor. Democratic conventions in Vermont and Missouri accepted the Cincinnati platform.

Ex-Mayor Bowen of Washington, D. C., has been elected chairman of the executive committee of the Greeley and Brown club. He failed last winter to receive the appointment he solicited from the President to one of the South American missions.

Delaware stands by her old Democratic record. In her State convention she denounced Gen. Grant, declared the recent amendments to the Constitution frauds upon the American people, and called for a straight Democratic ticket at Baltimore.

The Greeleyites boastfully claimed, a few days since, that nine Republican papers in Illinois (including the Chicago Tribune) supported the pretender. Of these the Bloomington Pantagraph, Rockford Register, Belleville Advocate, Aurora Herald and Sparta Plaindealer deny the soft impeachment.

With the first blush of enthusiasm they started a Greeley and Brown organ at Keokuk, Iowa, but after a spasmodic existence of two weeks the little journal was mournfully laid to rest.

George S. Winans, who sold himself to Tammany a year or two ago, for cash in hand, is now enthusiastically for Greeley and reform—of course.

The New York Tribune, more intent on finding fault with the government than on historical facts, laments that the Income tax was not removed by the Tax and Tariff bill recently passed. Perhaps one reason why Congress neglected to abolish the Income tax is, that it expired by limitation on the 31st of last December.

USE BUCHMAN'S PULMONIC CORDIAL for all throat diseases.

PILES.—The unceasing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using BRIGGS' PILE REMEDIES.

USE BUCHMAN'S PULMONIC CORDIAL for all throat diseases.

CORNS.—Since pride and fashion have had control of mankind, and shoemakers were compelled to make boots and shoes to fit fancy instead of the feet, the suffering from Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Sore Insteps, Blistered Heels, Callosities on the bottom of the feet, &c., cannot be described. But Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies will cure all such torments, and proper fitting boots will prevent their reproduction. Sold by all druggists. a12

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York jal 4w

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vatility into your exhausted and disordered system. ON THE CARPET.—One of the latest topics is the success of the new department just added to the great dry goods house of Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston. The finest Axminsters, Wiltons, Brussels, velvets, and tapestries are offered their patrons; while the neediest three plies, Kidderminsters, oil cloths, etc., are shown in large variety, in their best grades.

VEGETINE is nourishing and strengthening; purifies the blood; regulates the bowels; quiets the nervous system; acts directly upon the secretions, and arouses the whole system to action.

NO PILL IN THE WORLD ever had anything like the circulation of Ayer's Pills. Throughout these States, Mexico, and the Central American republic, down the slopes of the Andes, and across the pampas of South America, in negro villages, amid the fervid wilds of Africa, throughout the jungles of India, and the steppes of interior Asia, over the continent of Australia, and the islands of the Pacific, these pills are known and everywhere used as family remedies for diseases. With distant nations, their wonderful cures attract more attention than they do at home; for the sentiment of wonder takes a far deeper hold on their minds than the results of a higher scientific skill with us. The amount consumed require seventy five thousand doses a day to supply it. An inspection of the manufactory showed us how this enormous demand is made and sustained. Added to the consummate skill of their composition, is an extreme care in their manufacture, which at once secures the most perfect material and accurate combination. The consequence is a power and certainty in controlling disease which other remedies never attained.—Baltimore Courier.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—The astonishing rapidity with which this preparation extinguishes pain, reduces external inflammation, heals sores, eruptions and tumors, and cures rheumatism, gives it boundless popularity. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price 24 cents per pot. Ask for now style; the old is counterfeited.

LOVELINESS ON THE INCREASE. — An increase of female loveliness is the eye-delighting result of the immense popularity which Hagan's Magnolia Balm has obtained among the ladies of America. Complexions radiant with snowy purity and tinged with the rosease hue of health are commonly met with wherever it is used. For the sallow and unwholesome appearance of the face and neck, which utterly counterbalances the effect of any personal attraction the owner may possess, it substitutes that clear, pearl-like complexion which is such a transcendant charm in woman, and renders the roughest skin as soft as Genoa velvet. No one is more astonished than the person using it at the marvellous transformation which it effects in these particulars.

Causeless Depression.

This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary; if the liver is disordered an alterative is required; if the bowels are constipated or irregular a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes, by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilous complaints and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be overestimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this famous vegetable restorative.

ORDINANCE NO. 10.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Portsmouth as follows:

SEC. 1. That it shall be the duty of the City Marshal, Assistant Marshals and Police Officers of this City, under direction of the Mayor, to carry into effect and enforce the provisions of the one hundred and thirteenth Chapter of the Revised Statutes of this State, within the limits of this City; particularly so much of the same as is contained in the following extracts, which the word "Town" is construed to mean City, and the word "Selectmen" is construed to mean Mayor and Aldermen, viz:

SEC. 6. "No person shall, within the compact part of any town, fire or discharge any cannon, gun, pistol, or other firearms, or beat any drum, (except by the command of a military officer having authority therefor,) or fire or discharge any rockets, squibs, crackers or any preparation of gunpowder, (except by permission of a majority of the Police Officers or Selectmen, in writing,) or shall make any bonfire, or improperly use or expose any friction matches, or knowingly raise or report any false cry of fire."

Notice is hereby given that the above ordinance will be rigidly enforced against any person who may violate its provisions.

MRS. JULIA B. DICKINSON,

MAGNETIC & CLAIRVOYANT PHYSICIAN

Is stopping at the Franklin House, Portsmouth, and remains a short time only, where she will be happy to receive calls from all who are suffering from physical ailments.

MRS. DICKINSON examines patients without asking questions, telling them with positive certainty their physical condition, and names their disease, or diseases and attendant symptoms. Knowing their condition, she is able always to prescribe with a degree of correctness and precision that only the Clairvoyant Physician can hope to do. She makes her diagnosis from first seeing and understanding; and therefore never mistakes sympathetic or temporary conditions for actual disease.

MRS. DICKINSON treats acute and chronic diseases, makes a speciality of Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Dysp-pain, Female Weakness, Heart Diseases, St. Vitus' Dance, Paralysis, Consumption, Scrofula, and has had great success with all classes of Fevers.

☞ Ladies and all invalids are invited to call. Terms for treatment reasonable and no charge made for normal examination of cases. Has practiced in the Eastern, Southern and Western States. j11 1w

The mail bag supposed to have been stolen from a train on the Portsmouth, Saco & Portland Railroad at the time of the recent accident has been found, it having been sent west by mistake.

The price of admission to the the Jubilee Concert at the Temple Sunday evening, is put at the low price of 25 cents, that all may feel able to attend. It is belived that the entertainment will be highly creditable and enjoyable.

The mosquito crop of the last two days is the largest and finest ever produced in this vicinity, each mosquito being provided with twice the usual number of bills and each bill being several inches longer than last year's mosquitoes had. Their favorite drink is carbolic acid.

A frieght train on the Concord and Portsmouth Railroad was thrown from the track by a cow which got in the way, June 12th. Several cars were wrecked but no lives were lost except the cow's.

THE APPLEDORE COOK BOOK, by Miss M. Parloa, is the most handsomely printed and bound cook book we ever saw. This is all we can say as to its merits, from our own knowledge; but a lady in whose opinion on such matters we have unbounded faith, tells us that as a practical guide for inexperienced cooks and an assistant for experienced ones, it is the best cook book she ever saw. Miss Parloa has contributed to the gustatory pleasure of thousands of guests at the Rockingham and Appledore Houses in years past, and many will be glad to learn the art she practices so well. We copy the preface, which is as modest and unpretending as the book is handsome and valuable:—

In offering this little book to the public, I am aware that there are many good cook books in the market already. But I trust that this will supply a want which has always been felt by young housekeepers. The great trouble with all the cook books which I have known (and I am constantly hearing the same complaint) is, that they are too expensive, and that they use weight instead of measure, and also that they take for granted that the young housekeeper knows many things which she really does not. This want I have endeavored to supply in this little volume. Having had years of experience as a cook in private families and hotels, I know the wants of the masses, and feel competent to supply them.

I have arranged this book in two parts—one for plain, and one for rich cooking. In the First Part will be found minute directions for cooking everything that is within the reach of an ordinary family. In Part Second will be found directions for richer cooking. There is not one receipt in the book which has not been proved to be good. There are very few which I have not used myself, and of the value of those I am fully assured, having seen nearly all of them tried. The rules for jellies, charlotte russe, and creams will be found to be worth twice the price of the book. Many of the visitors to the Rockingham House, Portsmouth, Pavilion Hotel, Wolfeboro', McMillan House, North Conway and the Appledore House, Isle of Shoals, will find many dishes with which they expressed themselves pleased while the writer was pastry cook at those houses.

State News.

Concord had four thousand visitors on election day.

The only New Hampshire patent for the month ending June 4 is of Nathan Young, Sunapee, for a washing machine.

Mr. P. S. Smith has tendered his resignation as cashier of the State Capital Bank of Concord, to take effect the 1st of September next.

Rockingham county expended $147,895 last year. The county debt is now $135,000, a reduction during the year of $17,528.

When the clouds broke away after the recent rain storm, the tops of Mts. Washington, Jefferson, Adams and other peaks in that vicinity were as white as mid winter. The snow line appeared about a thousand feet below the highest summit.

The town bridge across the Merrimack at Franklin, between West and East Franklin villages, has been rendered impassable by logs coming against it. There is said to be a hundred acres of timber, piled 20 feet deep, lying just above the bridge, probably the whole fourteen million feet of the drive coming down from the Franconia mountains.

The Claremont Advocate states that while workmen were engaged in repairing the highway near the old Episcopal church in Cornish, one of them found a perfect human skull in the pine woods a little west of the church. On picking it up a quantity of long braided hair dropped from it, evidently showing that it was the skull of a female. It was deposited in the hearse house and the discovery has created considerable excitement and some conjectures among the people of the neighborhood.

The town of Rye, at a recent town meeting, voted to lay out $500 to build a permanent stone bridge to the bathing beach.

Deacon James Francis of Pittsfield has deposited in the Berkshire Athenæum the whole front of Governor Winslow's chest, brought over in the Mayflower and preserved by Captain John Churchill, and now presented to the Athenæum in behalf of his family.

The New Hampshire Medical Society has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, David T. Tasker of Farmington; vice-president, John L. Swett of Newport; secretary, G. P. Caun of Concord; treasurer, Thomas Wheat of Manchester. It will hold semi-annual meetings hereafter.

The barns and out-buildings of Mr. Drury Holmes, in Plymouth, were set on fire at about three o'clock on the morning of June 12, and totally consumed. There were five buildings and valued at about $1500; no insurance.

Fifty-four persons, some from out of town, have been buried in Rochester for the year ending May 1. Thirty-three of these were males, and of the whole, four were over eighty and two over ninety. Mrs. Mary Ham, who was two years over the latter age, was the oldest.

Newmarket has four veterans of the war of 1812, one of them, Mr. Augustus Bradford, aged eighty-seven, serving in the army from 1808 to 1815, being in the battle of Tippecanoe.

Jubilee Notes.

No one should fail to attend the Boston Jubilee who can make it possible to do so. We have not said much about it heretofore in our editorial columns. But now as the time approaches, we say to all, go without fail. Go and hear the magnificent choruses; go and see, and make one of the surging tide of humanity, which is after all, one of the grandest elements of the whole affair. It seems a pity to allow such an occasion to pass without being thrilled with the new sensation it is sure to give.

The whole number of Jubilee associations is 155. New Hampshire has eighteen.

THE GOOD TEMPLARS.—The Right Worthy Grand Lodge of Good Templars has lately completed its eighteenth annual session at Madison, Wis. The reports show, among other things, that the order numbers over 15,000 in Ireland. Three lodges have been organized in Australia. The membership in the United States is 450,000, divided among 8000 lodges. The tone of the Grand Templar's report was for uncompromising prohibition, both State and National.

MUSIC, whether in the church or out of the church, must be treated with the respect due to it. It must be dealt with as principal, and not as subordinate to some other language; not as a mere vehicle for sacred words, but as a thing sacred in itself; for there is religion in all real and high music, and it has a meaning as deep and true as any words. Who can listen to the compositions of the old masters, and not be religious while hearing them well performed? N. H. Jour. of Music.

Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases. For the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the choice of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents losing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage, at which time there is no local cure) relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs, Croup, Diphtheria, Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "walking in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
—OF—
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or sewing or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the world-to-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.
N. B. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

Morning Chronicle.

Political.

Brooklyn enjoys the expensive luxury of a ring as rapacious comparatively as the Tammany ring was. There is a vulgar sameness in their operations, both being characterized by cold blooded ruthlessness in appropriating the public funds and disregard of even the semblance of decency in the process. The report of the committee of fifty shows that from July, 1869, to April, 1872, over one and three-quarters millions of dollars were expended for patent street pavements alone. The owners of property in most instances were not even notified of the intention to pave until the contracts were advertised. The prices paid for the pavements a yard may be understood when the patent owners offered to lay the same patent pavement in Chicago and other cities at half, one-third, and in some instances at one-fourth the price charged in Brooklyn, and one pavement company informed the committee that they could lay their best pavement for $3.50, if there was no "divide." These expenditures were made under the water board, who also had control of the streets, and a prominent man in this board was Mr. Kinsella, who was to have made a Greeley speech in the democratic State convention, but it was thought "wiser" not to do so. Mr Kinsella's paper, the Brooklyn Eagle, goes in "red hot" for Greeley and "reform in national affairs"—just as Ben Wood and Isaiah Rynders do.

—An Amherst professor who exclaimed in the midst of his sermon, "Wake up that young man," caused a score or more of students and members of the faculty to be roused from their slumbers. He has been requested to be more specific in his remarks hereafter.

—The Spencer Grays, a negro military company in New York, have offered to make Tennie Claflin their captain. And yet, they tell us that the negro has more respect for himself now than he had before the war!—Courier-Journal.

—Patrick O'Laughlin, a pauper for whose support Springfield was responsible, died at Holyoke, Mass., and a bill for pipes, snuff, tobacco and candles used at the wake has been sent in for payment.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS, For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs, NO. 78 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON, After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOSH TAGGART."

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Family Physic,

CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood,

Are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organ into action, and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most eminent clergymen, most skillful physicians, and our own citizens, testify to certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits they have derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA'

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful tonic and alterative effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

$1000 REWARD.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish impulse, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, strengthens exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUGHS, and Much has been said and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from growing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Bunion Healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

Rotation Wins!

The result of the balloting at Concord is in unison with our professed wishes. We have favored rotation, because we believe it necessary for the health of the Republican party of the State. A majority of the Republican newspapers urged rotation on the party and the result shows that their advice has been heeded. We believe that great good will come to the party from the triumph of rotation after a reasonable amount of Congressional service has been allowed deserving persons.

Editorial Correspondence.

CONCORD, June 14th.

Last night's caucus will long be remembered by the participants therein as the scene of one of the best contested struggles between the rotationists and anti-rotationists even witnessed in this State. Both sides meant business and though it was expected that Senator Patterson would gain the necessary eight votes to nominate him on the second ballot, the divided rotationists were not dismayed, and still insisted in voting for the men of their preference. To the surprise of all, Mr. Patterson gained but one vote on the second ballot and barely held his own on the third, when it became evident that he had "reached the end of his rope."

The hopes of the Rollins men centered on the possibility of breaking the Patterson force after the first ballot, which would have given their favorite the best chance afterwards. As it was, the Patterson vote was too heavy and the Rollins men were the first to give way. The rotationists straggled on the second ballot, and lost but one man. On the third they began to concentrate on Messrs. Stearns and Wadleigh, the Rollins men who left their first choice going to the support of one of their number, Mr. Wadleigh.

For once the veterans of the caucus lost their wits, and the young men of the party, determined to avenge the defeat of their favorite by "laying out" Senator Patterson, skillfully planned a combined onslaught on the unbroken ranks of his supporters, which the fourth ballot revealed. Resolved on rotation, they chose a most unexceptionable man, against whom no objection could be raised, and to whose support nearly half of the Rollins strength had instinctively rallied. The loss of five votes on that ballot sealed the fate of the present Senator, but it was too late to secure the nomination of Mr. Rollins. Among the most effective workers for Mr. Wadleigh, were Messrs. Pender, of Portsmouth, (other members from this city being opposed to him,) Jones, of Farmington, Benton, of Lancaster, Wiggin, of Dover, and Gilmore, of Milford. Exactly in the nick of time, Mr. Josiah Benton withdrew the name of Ex-Gov. Stearns from the candidacy, as Mr. Wadleigh had received a support showing already that he was rapidly gaining. Had the astounded Pattersonians been equal to the emergency, recognized the fact that the rotationists were the stronger, withdrawn Mr. Patterson and proposed the name of Gen. Harriman, they might possibly have named the nominee and wrested the trophies of the night from the combination of the Rollins and Stearns men. This, however, they neglected to do, as if partially paralyzed by the audacity of the rotationists. Rockingham voted without much change, Strafford transferred nearly its entire vote to Wadleigh; Belknap, Carroll and Hillsborough followed, and with a rush the Patterson men, finding themselves beaten at every point, abandoned their candidate and went pell mell for the winning man—which Bainbridge Wadleigh was his name. The scene that ensued beggars description. The rotationists were wild with delight and the Patterson men vied with them in cheering the fortunate nominee. Had a clap of thunder burst upon his astonished ears, the jolly member from Milford could hardly have been more completely surprised. His nomination was carried by storm, and such a shout went up when his nomination was made unanimous, as none but such an assemblage can bring forth under similar circumstances.

And so Bainbridge Wadleigh, Esq., the most popular member of the Legislature, a whole-souled man whose geniality binds strong friends to his cause, an able advocate, and a true Republican, of firmness and discretion, became the nominee for U. S. Senator when he had only been ambitious to aspire to a seat in the lower House of the next Congress. We trust every Republican member of the legislature will give him their support next Tuesday.

We think the result of the caucus is more favorable to future success in New Hampshire than had rotation not prevailed. We regret, in common with his supporters, the defeat of Hon. E. H. Rollins, who deserved better recompense at the hands of his associates. Ingratitude, however, is not confined to Republicans or republics. Those who accomplish the most for others in the business and social relations of life, are not generally the recipients of corresponding compensation—and the same can be said of dealings political.

Mr. Wadleigh is a man of much strength of character and will not be guided by any clique or pay heed to the demands of time serving politicians. He goes to the Senate, unfettered and untrammeled, and that his service in his new capacity will be alike honorable to the State and to himself we do not doubt.

Legislature.

The bill amending the act incorporating the P. & D. R. R. has passed the House and is referred in the Senate to the Railroad Committee.

State officers were chosen in joint convention, on Thursday, as follows:—

For Secretary of State—

Whole number of votes	337
Necessary for choice	169
John H. Goodale	121
Benj. F. Prescott	216

and Benj. F. Prescott was elected.

For State Treasurer—

Whole number of votes	333
Necessary for choice	167
Horace Greeley	1
Leander W. Cogswell	1
Geo. B. Chandler of Manchester	125
Solon A. Carter, of Keene	206

and Solon A. Carter was elected.

For State Printer—

Whole number of votes	319
Necessary for a choice	160
Orrin C. Moore, of Nashua	195
Jas. M. Campbell of Manchester	119
Edward A. Jenks	1
Professor Green	1
Gratz Brown	1
Victoria C. Woodhull	1
Orator Green	1

and Orrin C. Moore was elected.

Only eleven votes were cast for Commissary General, all of which were for Charles F. Montgomery, and he was elected.

THE HOUSE.

Mr. Brackett of Pliastow moved the adoption of an address to the Governor asking for the removal of Samuel Rowe, from the office of sheriff of Rockingham county for cause. The yeas and nays being demanded, the house adjourned.

The News.

The world's fair at Copenhagen has opened.

The will of the late Samuel A. Way leaves the bulk of his property for the benefit of poor sewing-women.

The Republicans of Maine have unanimously renominated Gov. Perham.

The International Telegraph Company have sold out all the right, title and interest in their line to the Western Union Company.

CHURCH CHOIRS.—Those of us who have experience in such matters know that the getting of a choir together is no easy matter, and that the keeping a choir together requires the patience of a Job and the diplomacy of a Tallyrand. Of all the elements of a church congregation, the choir is as once the most indispensable and the most embarrassing. Few persons will consent to do without it, and still fewer can get along with it comfortably. Music is the predominant taste of the day, and every person in the congregation feels competent to criticise the singing if not preaching. The musical temper is one of extreme sensitiveness, and the choir sometimes becomes a hotbed of petty jealousies and misunderstandings. Good music cannot proceed from such a state of things. Choirs should adopt Gen. Grant's maxim, "Let us have peace." Our experience teaches that in forming a choir, basses are pretty easy to get, and for the most part comfortable and regular when obtained. Tenors are scarcer in the market and proportionably coy. They generally desire to make conditions about attending choir meetings, refer to the delicacy of their throats, and wish to be excused from turning out in an east wind. Altos are found by rigorous investigation, but generally consider themselves capable of singing first treble,—this makes them as scarce as they are indispensable. Only sopranos are plenty, and there are always to be found in numbers, and perhaps out of every ten one may be found qualified to sing soprano.—N. H. Jour. of Music.

—A story is told of an editor who died and went to heaven, but was denied admittance, lest he should meet some delinquent subscribers and bad feelings be engendered in that peaceful clime. Having to go somewhere, the editor next appeared in the regions of darkness, but was positively refused admittance, as the place was full of delinquent subscribers. Wearily the editor turned to the celestial city, and was met by the watchman at the portals with a smile, who said: "I was mistaken; you can enter—there is not a delinquent subscriber in heaven."

—The Danbury News says: "A dying Bridgeport woman wanted to be buried in a Dolly Varden." A nice spectacle she would present on resurrection morning.

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jel 4w

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vatility into your exhausted and disordered system. HOUSEKEEPERS will appreciate the change made for their benefit by Jordan, Marsh & Co., Boston. Their light and spacious front basement is now entirely devoted to Housekeeping Goods, including full lines of Cottons, Linens, Blankets, Quilts, Curtains, Prints, etc., affording every convenience for elaborate furnishing or for trifling purchases.

VEGETINE is not a stimulating bitter which creates a fictitious appetite, but a gentle tonic which assists nature to restore the stomach to a healthy action.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT are the only medicinal preparations necessary in families. The Pills regulate all the internal organs with unerring certainty; the ointment is a positive antidote to all external diseases. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per box or pot. Ask for new style; the old is counterfeited.

LOVELINESS ON THE INCREASE.—An increase of female loveliness is the eye-delighting result of the immense popularity which Hagan's Magnolia Balm has obtained among the ladies of America. Complexions radiant with snowy purity and tinged with the rosate hue of health are commonly met with wherever it is used. For the sallow and unwholesome appearance of the face and neck, which utterly counterbalances the effect of any personal attraction the owner may possess, it substitutes that clear, pearl-like complexion which is such a transcendant charm in woman, and renders the roughest skin as soft as Genoa velvet. No one is more satisfied than the person using it at the marvellous transformation which it effects in these particulars.

Causeless Depression.

This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary; if the liver is disordered an alterative is required; if the bowels are constipated or irregular a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes, by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilous complaints and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be overestimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this famous vegetable restorative.

Peace Jubilee.

Laconics.

Joseph Jefferson, so long identified with the character of "Rip Van Wrinkle," and who has been announced to play in this city in October, is threatened with partial and perhaps total loss of sight.

Rev. William C. Finney, formerly pastor of the Court Street Christian Church in this city, will supply its pulpit on the coming Sabbath.

A Director of the Portsmouth & Dover Railroad informs us that the contract for the lease of the proposed Road by the Eastern Railroad was signed on the 10th inst. as we have heretofore stated, and that all reports to the contrary from irresponsible sources are untrue. There may have been some modifications in the contract first offered, but that the matter is settled is beyond cavil.

Only sixty cents a box for strawberries.

The public rehearsal of the Jubilee music by the Portsmouth chorus to-morrow evening at the Temple will be well worth hearing. Harlow's orchestra will appear. Tickets only 25 cents.

Jubilee Chorus Rehearsal at Mr. Tilton's room this Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Municipal Election.

The main features of the bill changing the time of holding the municipal election in this city, as introduced in the Legislature by Representative Pendexter, are as follows:

SEC. 1. That the annual meeting of the inhabitants of the City of Portsmouth for the choice of city and town officers shall be holden on the second Tuesday of March in each year; and all city, ward and town officers who are chosen by the people, shall be chosen by ballot and shall hold their respective offices for one year from and including said second Tuesday of March, and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead; and the term of office of the present incumbents or of any person who may be chosen to fill any existing vacancy, or any vacancy which may hereafter occur, shall expire on the second Tuesday of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and seventy-three, or as soon thereafter as other officers chosen in their stead shall be qualified according to law.

SEC. 2. The Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council shall meet in convention for the purpose of being qualified by law, on the first Tuesday of April in each year.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Aldermen.

On Thursday evening, a petition of E. H. Balch, for an appropriation for sprinkling the public squares, &c., was laid on the table.

Patrick Morrison was appointed Special Police without pay.

Voted, That the Mayor be authorized to let Pest Island or any part thereof on such terms as he may think expedient.

Voted, That the Mayor or Acting Mayor be empowered to withdraw the State Bonds due this City whenever he shall think it expedient.

Voted, That the City Solicitor be requested to inform the Board whether the widening of the highway in 1814 at the house occupied by Samuel Adams on Pleasant Street is valid at the present time.

Voted, That the Committee on Streets be requested to report whether it is expedient to widen and straighten Newington Road at land of C. Lamprey.

HOW COAL WAS DISCOVERED IN PENNSYLVANIA.—It chanced one day that in constructing a lime kiln, Col. Geo. Shoemaker, who lives on the Schuylkill river, used some of the black stones lying about the place. "Mine Got! mine Got! der stones be all on fire!" exclaimed the astonished Dutchman, when the rich glow of the anthracite met his gaze. The neighbors, who of course were few and far between, were after much ado assembled to witness the wonder. This happened in 1812. Shortly after, mine host loaded a Pennsylvania team with the black stones and journeyed slowly to Philadelphia, a great distance of ninety-three miles. The grates and stoves then in use were not constructed to facilitate the combustion of the anthracite, and burn it would not. After many ineffectual attempts to ignite it, the product was thrown aside as worthless, and our discomfitted German, who had beguiled his toilsome way to the metropolis with dreams of ingots, returned to digest his disappointment in his mountain solitude.

The Japanese girls at Washington are getting along finely in their English. They have already mastered "Dolly Varden" and "How is that for high?"

—Mr. Sumner's speech can be bought for a penny at the Tribune office, which is a great deal more than it is worth.

—The vigilance committees in Iowa have been holding a convention.

—A desirable second-hand article—a young, rich, amiable widow.

Clippings.

The best feature of the Journal is its local digest of weekly news, from which we glean the following:—

—The Portsmouth Music Society are to give a concert of the jubilee music Sunday evening, at the Temple, with Harlow's orchestra.

—The brick makers on the banks of the upper Piscataqua are doing an unusually lively business just now. The present demand for bricks is large. They are sold at about $10 to $12 per 1000 at the yards.

—The right, title and interest in the Mutual Benefit Account Book prepared by Mr. Martin V. Stimson, of Kittery, has been disposed of to a Portland party, who intends to speedily put copies into the market for the benefit of traders and customers.

—John S. Rand, Treasurer of the Portsmouth City Mission Society, takes pleasure in acknowledging the receipt from C. W. Goddard, Esq. Executor, of One Thousand Dollars ($1000,) being a bequest given by the late Henry Goddard of Portland, to that Society, as a substantial token of his remembrance and regard for his native place. Said sum to be invested and the increase thereof annually applied to the charitable uses and purposes of said Society without encroaching on the principal.

Jubilee Notes.

Hon. N. P. Banks will act as the orator of the day on the opening occasion of the Jubilee, the 17th of June, when a brief oration will be delivered.

The great organ will be supplied with wind by means of eight air pumps propelled by a newly invented gas engine, which will be placed under the gallery.

It will take one hundred artillerymen each day during the Jubilee to manage the cannon accompaniments.

The firemen constituting the anvil chorus will be dressed in firemen's uniforms.

The most complete telegraph and postal facilities will be afforded in the press headquarters. All mail matter for the representatives of the press, marked "Coliseum, Boston," will be delivered every hour during the day. The mails will also be collected every hour. The telegraph company have put in twelve wires, and the same number of operators, and the wires will make direct connection with all parts of the United States and Canada, the French and Atlantic cables.

We are told that the decoration of the ball room with natural flowers will cost nearly six thousand dollars.

The Japanese Embassy will arrive in Boston on Monday and attend the Jubilee on Tuesday and Wednesday.

All the artists, including the foreign bands engaged for the international Musical Festival, are under express contract with the executive Committee to perform in no other place in this country than in the Coliseum at Boston.

OFFICIAL PROGRAMME OF THE OPENING DAY.

The following is the programme of the opening day of the World's Peace Jubilee and International Musical Festival, Monday, June 17, commencing at three o'clock P. M.:

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases. For the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the ounce of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage at which time there is no local cure) relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY REMEDY he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs,
Croup,
Diphtheria,
Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered by Wandering in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the Ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the possession and use of the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
— OF —
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running on needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
SINGER
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

The Rival Sisters.

CHAPTER I.

A BEAUTIFUL BUT DANGEROUS HEROINE.

Miss Cranston, a very accomplished woman, kept a female school near Blanton, a quiet town in New Jersey. This place had been selected by Mrs. Blake the mother of one of the Rival Sisters, as her home, on account of the reputation of the school. Mrs. Blake made her advent in Blanton in the character of a widow who had recently lost her husband, and she brought with her a daughter ten years of age, named Hester, who was placed with Miss Cranston as a pupil.

Hester Blake was a remarkable child.

Miss Cranton found her a curious study.

"If she is not tempted, all may go well with her," thought the old lady; "but if she is—" and the ominous shake of the head expressed more than words.

Mrs. Blake had fifteen hundred dollars a year, which she stated was derived from property in the South; but where it was situated, and in what place she had lived before she made her advent in Blanton, was a matter of conjecture. No amount of pumping had been successful in extracting such information from either mother or daughter.

For a few years the stranger lived almost alone, for her friendless advent among them had not inspired her neighbors with much confidence in her antecedents; but as time went on she won upon the good opinion of those around her, and at the time my story opens, Mrs Blake was received as a guest of the best families in the village.

People did not treat her, but they admired and pitied her; for they said "she is goodly to look at, and she has evidently been a sufferer in the battle of life." Ah! if they had known how, and under what circumstances that battle had been waged, I am inclined to think that the reputed widow would have found few friends or defenders in that straitlaced neighborhood.

The cottage occupied by Mrs. Blake stood about a mile from the town. It was a comfortable house, with a veranda in front, over which flowering vines were trained, and the large yard that surrounded it was shaded by elm trees.

She was now dreamily regarding her daughter, who stood in front of a mirror combing out a mass of black glistening hair.

The figure of the girl was modelled after that of her mother: there was the same perfection of outline; the same sinuous, elastic movement; but the faces were not alike.

She suddenly turned, and facing her mother, said:

"The dull monotony of this place is becoming unendurable to me. I wish to see something of the world—I must see it, mother."

With a sigh, Mrs. Blake said:

"Sit down on that low chair, and try to be quiet while I speak of things I had almost determined never to reveal to you."

Hester sat down, and prepared to listen to what she had so long desired to know.

Mrs. Blake at length spoke.

"You ask me how it happened that I was cast off by the man I adored?—why he was permitted to wrong me so bitterly as to bring to his home another wife while I yet lived and suffered.

"I must go back to my early life, and tell you of myself before I became the wife of Armand Landry. My father was a dissipated, reckless man, who owned a small place near Le Bocage, as the Landry plantation was called. I was his only child. I was educated in a convent school in France, till I was nearly eighteen years old. Then my aunt took me home, having already arranged a marriage for me. I was not consulted but I did not rebel against it, for Claude Beltot was young and good looking, and I preferred remaining in France as his wife, to returning to the dullness of plantation life.

My father gave me twenty thousand francs as my dower, and Beltot expected to get much more from him. I think that prospect induced him to marry me, for I soon found that he was as indifferent to me as I was to him.

Indifference soon merged into contempt on my side, and something like aversion on his. We had evidently made a wretched mistake, and we were glad to separate by mutual consent. I returned to Louisiana, and Beltot went to Algeria.

When I came back to my early home I found my father living as recklessly as ever.

Among the young men who came to his house was Armand Landry. He was two years younger than I, for he had not completed his twentieth year when I first met him. He soon forsook the gaming table to linger near me, and I—well—I was mad enough to give him the heart my husband had never tried to win. I loved him to that degree that I thought life would be worthless unless it was shared with him.

Armand seemed devoted to me, but he never asked me to marry him. He knew that his proud old father would look with scorn on the daughter of such a man as my father was.

"My father swore that Armand should yet be my husband, and for that purpose he obtained a divorce for me from Beltot. I was so infatuated that I cared little by what means Armand was to be ensnared, provided I became his wife. I entered into his plans, shameful as they were, and allowed myself to be united to a man who had been lured again to our house, and when incapable of acting for himself, was pronounced my husband by a missionary who had been a short time in the country that he knew nothing of the wrong he was helping to carry into effect. He was brought to the house a few moments before the ceremony was performed, and left immediately afterward.

A time had been chosen when the elder Landry was absent from home. I believed that Armand loved me as truly as I did him.

It was several weeks before he recovered all the natural energy of his mind, and I began once to fear that he would be permanently injured by the drug I had permitted to be administered to him. But the time came when he fully understood the position in which he was placed, and then—such scenes as passed between us I cannot describe. He fiercely resented the part I had taken in entrapping him into a marriage that would be odious to his proud father, and declared that he could never forgive me.

Vainly I tried all my powers of fascination to enthrall him, and win forgiveness from him.

As soon as he was well enough to leave the house, he went off in search of his father, in spite of all I could do to detain him. His father instituted a divorce, after sending Armand to Europe to make a tour in company with Mr. Russell and his two daughters.

"When I heard that, I was devoured with jealousy; for Ellinor Russel was the young lady who had been chosen by Mr. Landry for his son's wife, and report said that she was both rich and charming. Afterward I learned he was betrothed to Miss Russell.

When this happened, you were but a few weeks old, and I was left with you to take care of, and little enough to do it with.

Ah! how I hated that fair beauty who had caused me so much woe! Many a night, after you were asleep, have I stolen from my cottage, and made my way to the stately home in which that woman dwelt, surrounded by loving care that of right belonged to me. Concealed in the shrubbery, I have listened to his voice speaking to her in accents of deeper tenderness than he had ever used to me, and I vowed within my soul that I would find means to blight the happiness they seemed to find in each other. They were married.

My hate culminated when a daughter was born who was destined to fill the place in your father's house of which you had been defrauded.

Your half-sister is two years younger than you and in your childhood you were so much alike that but for the difference in size you might have been taken for twins.

Armand's joy in his new treasure was soon turned to sadness, for the health of his wife began to fail. She faded slowly away with a mysterious disease. Everything was tried that promised relief, but the spell of an evil eye was upon her, and there was no help for her.

The doctor said it was the climate that did not suit her, but I knew better than that.

She was taken away for change of air, but Zelma, the woman that went with her as nurse was one of the slaves that had belonged to my father, and was devoted to me.

Mrs. Landry lingered for many months, but she at last died, when you were five years old.

The years passed on, and Armand was travelling in Europe, rarely writing home and never send me a line.

You were ten years old when he came back. Zelma was dead, and I felt safe now that the only one who could accuse me of instigating the death of Ellinor Russell was gone.

But all my hopes were fearfully dashed to the earth; for he brought with him a young wife, a cousin of Ellinor's, and also an heiress. They stopped in New Orleans, and there Armand wrote to me the following lines:

"NEW ORLEANS, October 30th, 18—

I write to you, Hagar, to say that no option will be allowed you as to your removal from the vicinity of me and mine.

I came back to my native land, bringing with me a cousin of my lost one as my wife, the resemblance in person and character between the two attracting me irresistibly to Helen.

I might have taken her to Le Bocage to meet the same terrible fate, had I not here encountered the priest who attended Zulma in her last illness, and received her confession.

Ah, my heart—I cannot write it!

Go far away—take your daughter.

I am not rich in my own right, but when she is old enough to marry, I will give her a suitable dower. This is all I can, and will do.

ARMAND LANDRY.

I had nothing to do but obey Armand's command," continued Mrs. Blake, "and so I came hither with you, where we have lived till now. This is my history."

CHAPTER II.

A PHYSICIAN IN LOVE WITH THE DAUGHTER—A FIENDISH PLOT.

There was residing in the same village with Mrs. Blake and her daughter a physician, twenty-eight or thirty years of age—Dr. Macon—who for two years had been madenly in love with the daughter. She had toyed and trifled with him during all that time; but he had finally insisted upon a decided answer to his suit, and on that very evening he was coming to learn his fate. As he approached the house he overheard the voices of mother and daughter engaged in close conversation, and drawing near to the window and meanly listening, he had obtained full possession of the terrible secret of Mrs. Blake's life. Madly in love, and utterly unscrupulous, he at once determined to make any use which might be necessary of his newly acquired advantage to secure the hand of Hester.

On that very evening Dr. Macon was engaged to take tea with Mrs. Blake and her daughter; but their old housekeeper returned from the village with the intelligence that a shocking railroad accident had occurred in the vicinity, and the doctor had hastened off to the assistance of the wounded.

On the return of Dr. Macon he called upon Mrs. Blake and surprised her with the information that among the hurt was Armand Landry, mortally injured! He was accompanied by his daughter, the half sister of Hester, and she had been stunned by a blow on the head. They were both lying at a farmhouse near by, and Mr. Landry, knowing that he must die, had requested that Hester should visit him the next morning, that he might inform her of the pecuniary provision which he had made for her support.

And now was concocted one of the most fiendish plots ever devised by the human mind. It was suggested by Mrs. Blake, and acquiesced in by Dr. Macon and Hester, that the half-sister, who was still unconscious, should be kept in a state of imbecility by drugs which the Doctor should skillfully administer to her for that purpose, and Hester—whose resemblance to her was so close as to defy detection—should usurp her place as heiress of the immense estates entitled upon the half-sister through her mother.

The inducement to Dr. Macon was Hester's promise, on the accomplishment of the scheme, to become his wife.

But when Hester came to read over the letters which lay concealed in the bottom of her half-sister's trunk, she found among them several from Raymond De Lorme, a handsome young man whom she remembered as her own first lover at the South, when she was little more than a mere child. These letters were written in a most impassioned strain, and showed that between him and his fair correspondent—Estelle Landry, Hester's now stricken half-sister—a marriage engagement existed.

No sooner had Hester discovered this fact than her old love for DeLorme was rekindled, and she resolved at once to have him also, as well as Estelle's fortune, let whatever obstacles might be in the way. He was now absent in Europe, to remain a year or two, and her purpose must be most carefully concealed from Dr. Macon; but, come what would, the young man should yet be hers!

Mrs. Blake's housekeeper, Mrs. Muller, a German woman with an American education, was a great gossip, and a cunning, selfish, evil-minded woman. Hester, at her mother's suggestion, had turned the key on the outside of Mrs. Muller's sleeping room, while their infernal plot had been planned; but the suspicious woman happened to be awake, and she had risen, and emerging through a window, crept around where she could listen to all they said. She too, now, meant to have her profit out of the scheme, the secret of which she had obtained unknown to them.

On the following day Mr. Landry felt his end rapidly approaching. He had forbidden a premature Mrs. Blake should be admitted to his presence; but Mrs. Blake had determined to see him before he died. He was very anxious for a confessor; and was finally told that although there was no priest accessible, a Sister of Charity might be obtained. This assurance afforded him great relief, and he desired that no time might be lost in sending for her.

Mrs. Blake determined to improve this opportunity to see him, without his recognizing her, and to visit him in the disguise of a Sister.

It was arranged that after night, when the room was dimly lighted by a single candle, she should go in and listen to such confessions as he wished to make. In them, if he spoke of her tenderly, compassionately, she was to forego the dire vengeance she had planned to inflict on him when he lay helpless before her, breathing his soul away in doubt and dread of what the future life might bring to him. If he judged her hardly and cruelly at the last, she would have no mercy on him

When Eunice, a deaf and dumb servant girl at the farm-house, was safely asleep, Mrs. Blake made such alteration in her dress as was necessary. A white handkerchief was drawn low down on her forehead, and folded over her face in such a manner as to conceal the greater portion of it, and Macon's black silk cravat was smoothed out and tied over that, in the form of the hoods worn by Catholic nuns when walking abroad. She then entered the lighted room, and sat down in the chair which Hester resigned at her approach. At the movement, the dying man unclosed his eyes, and in a faint voice, said:

"How good you were to come to me in this extremity. This young girl has explained to me that you consented to do so soon as you heard that a son of Mother Church needed your help." By some subtle power must have conveyed to him the knowledge that something inimical had approached him, for he suddenly seemed to struggle with some deadly oppression, and sinking back, he murmured:

"Too late! I fear that I shall die before I can say what I wished. I must confess—must have absolution, for I have sinned. But I have suffered—bitter—bitter as I have drained in atonement of the one act of my life which brought unhappiness to one who thought she had the right to avenge herself upon me."

In a voice scarcely above a whisper, Mrs. Blake said:

"My son, forgive as you hope to be forgiven, and all will be well with you."

"Ah! that is what I cannot do; for there is one sin and one sinner that I have not forgiven. But for that I could die in peace."

"Was the wrong against you so unmerited, that you feel thus bitterly?"

"Unmerited! Yes; I assert that, and I believe it. She who committed it was one I did not love, though I was tricked into a marriage with her."

In a faltering voice Mrs. Blake said:

"You did not love her! Are you quite sure of that?"

Landry was too deeply absorbed in his own thoughts to notice the menacing tone that thrilled through the mulled voice of the speaker.

"Yes, I never loved her."

"Is it just to lay all the blame upon the woman who risked so much to gain a legal claim upon you? To those who have loved truly, much should be forgiven, and she, you say loved you."

"I gave her all that she had a right to claim at my hands—and had she so willed it, I would have made her as free from reproach as in the hour of our first unfortunate meeting. But she would not go. I was very young. I loved the child she gave me, and through her the mother hoped, if I were free again, to win me back, and—and—I cannot tell you what she did in return for the forbearance I had shown toward her. It is her secret, and I will not reveal it even in this hour, but it is that which I now find it impossible to forgive. If you can give me absolution, knowing that, I will accept it gladly at your hands, although you are not one of the accredited ministers of our Holy Church."

The heart of Mrs. Blake hardened as she listened. She felt the blood surging through her veins with fiery swiftness, and all the passion of her tropical nature burst forth.

She tore the shrouding folds from her head and face, and started to her feet, standing over him as a menacing fate, as she mockingly said:

"Such consolation as I can give, you are welcome to, Armand Landry. Whether it will facilitate your entrance to the Paradise in which your lost Ellinor dwells, or into the Hades in which I shall hereafter claim you, I leave you to imagine. Look at the woman you cast off so slightly—the woman who believed that you loved her—and cower before her glance as you soon will shrink before that of the Omnipotent Being who judge between us."

"You—you here!" he exclaimed, in a loud, harsh voice. "How dare you approach me? How dare you profane the sacred character you have assumed for the purpose of intruding upon a presence that was forbidden you? Hagar Blake, you have been the curse of my life, and in death you persecute me still. Go! I command you to leave this room unpollutted by the presence of a murderess."

Hagar's eyes blazed back defiance, and she tauntingly said:

"You are in no position now to enforce your will. You are in my power, not I in yours, and I intend to pay you back drop to drop, for all the bitterness you have poured into my cup and forced me to drink."

The features of Landry were blanched to the hue of death, and his black eyes gleamed fiercely from their pallid setting, as he hoarsely asked:

"By whose connivance were you permitted to enter here? If Hester or her betrothed husband aided you, it will be the worse for them, for in that case I will give her nothing. The paper I caused her to write this morning will be valueless unless it is signed and witnessed, and now I will do neither."

"Oh you threaten me with consequences, do you?" she mockingly asked; "but let me assure you that it is a matter of indifference to me, and also to my daughter, whether that paper is valueless or not. We have settled our plans, and rave against them as you may, you will be powerless to prevent them from being carried into effect. Hester will not accept the paltry provision you have so magnanimously made for her; she will claim what is hers, in justice at least—the half of the estate which is now held by your other children."

"Woman! what do you mean by that? Ah! my God! have I fallen into a den of thieves! Is there no one to help me?"

His voice broke suddenly, and he fell back upon his pillows gasping for breath.

"No one!" repeated Mrs. Blake, with stern emphasis. "You are in this solitary country house, entirely at my mercy, and that of those who are willing to do all that I wish. The darling daughter on whom you have lavished so much indulgence lies stricken into idiocy by your injuries, her head has received. She will never more walk the earth in pride, looking down in scorn upon the sister whom you have bequeathed to her compassion. In place of that, I have decreed that the two shall change places, and the child of your adored Ellinor shall stay with me, while my daughter assumes the station of the heiress, and wears the honors of her father's house. The two sisters are so much alike that no one will ever be able to distinguish the true one from her counterfeit."

The listener felt that the shock of this announcement had shortened his brief span of life; he knew that the death clutch was already on his vitals; but he rallied his last remaining strength, and said, with solemn emphasis:

"If you consummate this wickedness, I leave to you, and to the impostor who will take the place of my darling, my undying malediction. God is over all, and he will not permit such villainy to go unpunished, even in this world."

Mrs. Blake unclosed her lips to reply, but Landry raised his hand appealingly, a change passed over his sunken face, and with a prayer on his lips in behalf of his favorite child he passed away.

Hester arrayed herself in a black dress which she found in Estelle's trunk, and assuming the name and character of her half-sister, prepared, on the following day, to accompany the remains of her father to New Orleans, for burial, in company with Herbert Spencer, a young man from Boston, a cousin of Raymond De Lorme's, who had been sent on by the family relations for that purpose. What happened there, and indeed the whole of the thrilling story of the rival half-sisters, Hester and Estelle, will be found in the New York Ledger, which is now ready and can be had at all the book-stores and news depots. Ask for the number dated June 22, and in it you will get the continuation of the story from where it leaves off here.

JURUBEBA THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LABOURD and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

$1000 REWARD. BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, lays rates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS, Much has been said and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, but knowing there is a cure, Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Fungoid Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

Portsmouth, N.C.

MONDAY, JUNE 17, 1872.

Political.

The election of a Republican Senator from Oregon is assured.

Hendricks consents to run as Democratic candidate for governor of Indiana.

The Republican majority in Oregon foots up 1000.

The Jefferson Democratic general committee of Brooklyn has passed resolutions favoring a straight Democratic ticket at Baltimore.

The New York Nation, which detests Grant, still prefers him to Greeley. It says: "What are honest men to do now? Well, if there is nothing else offered, if the Democratic convention commits the absurdity of raising 'the old white hat' as its standard at Baltimore, the only thing for Republicans of our way of thinking to do is to choose the least of the two evils, and vote for General Grant. We expect no improvement in the administration from him; we do not look at his hands for the removal of any of the existing abuses; we know of no answer to any of the weighty and reasonable objections made to his administration; but we do know, as near as may be, what he will do; we know, at least, the worst he will do. The probabilities are that, the temptations connected with renomination over, he will on many points change for the better. Moreover—and this is the most important point of all—if he is re-elected, there will be no general redistribution of offices and no financial disturbance. What Greeley will do, and what the motley crew whom he would lead to Washington would do, nobody knows."

Carl Schurz, Jacob D. Cox, Wm. Cullen Bryant, Oswald Ottendorfer, David A. Walls and Jacob Brinkerhoff have issued a circular inviting about two hundred prominent men who favored the original Cincinnati chowder-party to meet in New York and try to devise some means of uniting the opposition to the administration. The Boston Advertiser comments upon this new movement as follows: "Mr. Greeley having been nominated at Cincinnati according to rule, his friends claim with good reason, that Schurz, Cox, Ottendorfer, Bryant and the rest who took part in the convention ought to submit. Carl Schurz presided and made no protest at the time or afterward; what right has he, Mr. Greeley's friends inquire, to call a conference of those who are opposed to the administration, while the Greeley banner is on the outer wall? and everybody who chooses can fight the administration to their utmost under that flag? There is need enough of conference, but so long as there is a decent chance for Mr. Greeley at Baltimore, the free traders will confer in vain. In that event there may be a third candidate; but the real contest will be between the Republican and the Democratic parties, and Schurz, Bryant, Sumner, Trumbull and the less distinguished public men who have been silent up to this time will be compelled to choose between them."

The News.

By the falling of the stack of the furnace at West Conshocken, Penn., June 13, fourteen men were buried. Six were killed. The fall was occasioned by a pressure of cinders on one side of the arch.

The steamship Rhein, with Strauss, the German bands and other foreign artists on their way to the Jubilee, arrived in New York, Saturday.

Mr. Washburne, the American minister, has invited France to join the immigration congress, to be held at Washington.

It is reported that Cape Haytien has been captured by and is in possession of a party of Salnavists.

The French government has completed the draft of the postal convention with the United States.

In a distillery case at Cincinnati, involving claims on the part of the government for $300,000, it was shown in the testimony that one of the defendants, since the first internal law went into operation, had paid the government $22,000,000 taxes.

A terrible storm of wind, rain and hail passed over eastern Connecticut, just north of Norwich, Friday afternoon. The storm covered a belt twenty miles wide, and did great damage in Willimantic, Plainfield and surrounding country. Hailstones as large as eggs fell, large trees were uprooted, windows broken, and several new buildings much injured. New York city also had a tornado Friday afternoon, which tore up trees, blew down houses and killed several persons.

A sulphur shower prevailed in Saratoga on Thursday night. It rained very hard and next morning in many places the ground was covered with a deposit of yellow sulphur.

There were six cases of sunstroke in New York city on Thursday.

The Pennsylvania temperance State convention has nominated S. B. Chase for governor.

The above-ground works and much of the under ground timbering and machinery of the Amador mine, at Sutters Creek, Cal., were burned on Thursday night, the miners narrowly escaping with their lives. Loss very heavy.

A despatch from Bagdad says the royal mail steamship Cashmere was attacked at Bassora (a frontier city and river port of Asiatic Turkey) by pirates, who killed and wounded several persons on board and carried off 43,000 rupees.

An eastern-bound passenger train on the Central Pacific Railroad was thrown off the track near Wadsworth, June 13. William Rosche of Switzerland had his skull broken. About twenty others, all residents of the Pacific coast of Mexico, were injured, but none fatally.

Bradford, Mass., wants to be annexed to Haverhill, 183 to 123.

Monday will be a grand holiday in Boston.

The terms on which the International Telegraph Company have disposed of their right and interest in their line to the Western Union Company are as follows: the latter company have leased their line to the former company for a period of ninety-nine years with the proviso that the rates shall not be increased from their present tariff. The contracts have been signed by both parties and the stockholders of the International receive from the Western Union a certain per centage on their stock.

State News.

The New Hampshire Bible Society held its 61st annual meeting June 13, and elected its officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Dr. Edward Spalding; vice-presidents, Rev. N. Benton, Elder James Pike, Rev. E. E. Cummings; secretary, Rev. Isaac Willey; treasurer, Hon. John Kimball.

At Claremont, the house and buildings on the Pettigrew place, about two miles from the village, were consumed by fire at about three o'clock on Thursday morning. A portion of the furniture was saved. Loss, about $1800—partially insured.

At the annual meeting of the State Prisoners' Aid Association at Concord, Hon. Walter Harriman was chosen its president.

Whitefield suffered over $100,000 damage by the recent freshet.

Parker Cushman, Esq., the oldest citizen of Littleton, died recently, aged 100 years and 5 months.

It will cost over $2000 to free the jam of logs at Berlin Falls.

Nearly all the Free Will Baptist churches in the State were represented at the yearly convention of that denomination at Manchester.

It wasn't fair to do so, we know, but the Rochester Courier office was visited by a burglar or burglars recently and three shirts belonging to a printer are missing. Says editor Folsom:—"A person who steals a printer's shirt is a scallawag of the deepest dye, who ought to die." That thief will just go and hang himself if he has any regard for the proprieties of life.

Thirty-six convicts at the State prison have during the past year died, been discharged or pardoned. The whole number of prisoners now is 80, 76 males and 4 females,—the smallest number for many years.

Miss Tennie C. Claflin has been elected Colonel of the 85th N. Y. (colored) regiment.

Hon. Oliver Dyer, Ex-Mayor of Saco, Me., died on the 13th.

A CORRESPONDENT of the New-York Tribune, apropos of Col. Lamon's new life of Abraham Lincoln, reveals the complicated story of the late President's love affairs, from which it appears that Mr. Lincoln's youth was beset with tender anxieties as his riper years were burdened with political and military contests. It was in 1832 that he met his first love, Ann Rutledge, a young and modest girl of nineteen, whom all unite in praising. She was, however, engaged to another and refused Lincoln, only to be fated to pine away and die because of her apparent desertion by her lover. This affected Lincoln so acutely that he became insane, and was held in careful custody for a long time; and he was never precisely the same man afterward. In 1836 he met and admired Miss Mary Owens, a proud, handsome woman, to whom he offered himself, and after being accepted conditionally was soon refused in the most approved style. The future President now brought his broken heart and wounded pride to the feet of Miss Mary Todd, whom Stephen A. Douglas was "courting" at the same time, and she accepted Lincoln as being the most likely to become President—that being the measure of her ambition. Before the marriage, however, Lincoln managed to fall in love again with Miss Matilda Edwards, and offered to release Miss Todd from her engagement; but a reconciliation was effected, and in the course of twenty years Mary Lincoln realized the dream of her life.

CORNS.—Since pride and fashion have had control of mankind, and shoemakers were compelled to make boots and shoes to fit fancy instead of the feet, the suffering from Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Sore Insteps, Blistered Heels, Callosities on the bottom of the feet, &c., cannot be described. CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Achs, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jul 4w

PILES.—The unceasing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using BRIGGS' PILE REMEDIES.

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of RUM Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vitility into your exhausted and disordered system. m29 4w

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT are the only medicinal preparations necessary in families. The Pills regulate all the internal organs with unerring certainty; the ointment is a positive antidote to all external diseases. Sold by Druggists, Canal St., N. Y. Price, 25 cents per box or pot. Ask for new style; the old is counterfeited.

A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a Standard Restorative an article that it has had that article tested in every clime during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? Plantation Bitters has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific, or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for, diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism, and all nervous and bilious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alterative of the Western Hemisphere.

GENTS' CASTOR GLOVES,

BEST QUALITY, at J. E. BAM & CO'S.

Special Notices.

Causeless Depression.

This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary; if the liver is disordered an alterative is required; if the bowels are constipated or irregular a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes, by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilous complaints and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be overestimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this famous vegetable restorative.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Portsmouth as follows:

SEC. 1. That it shall be the duty of the City Marshal, Assistant Marshals and Police Officers of the City, under direction of the Mayor, to carry into effect and enforce the provisions of the one hundred and thirteenth Chapter of the Revised Statutes of this State, within the limits of this City; particularly so much of the same as is contained in the following extracts—in which the word "Town" is construed to mean City, and the word "Selectmen" is construed to mean Mayor and Aldermen, viz:

SEC. 6. "No person shall, within the compact part of any town, fire or discharge any cannon, gun, pistol, or other firearms, or beat any drum, (except by the command of a military officer having authority therefor,) or fire or discharge any rockets, squibs, crackers or any preparation of gunpowder, (except by permission of a majority of the Police Officers or Selectmen, in writing,) or shall make any bonfire, or improperly use or expose any friction matches, or knowingly raise or repeat any false cry of fire."

Notice is hereby given that the above ordinance will be rigidly enforced against any person who may violate its provisions.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Laconics.

A hasty glance at the Steamer Appledore on Saturday morning last convinced us that all the requisites necessary to the comfort and safety of passengers have here been provided. She is not only elegantly furnished and equipped, but better still, necessities are everywhere substituted for luxuries, and with a Captain who understands every department of his business we can cheerfully recommend the Appledore to all our pleasure-seeking friends. Capt. Baker made his first season trip to the Shoals on Saturday, having his boat gaily decked with flags and streamers as she glided down the river. Mr. Frank Davis of Portland, a competent engineer, has charge of the mechanical department this season.

In consequence of a disarrangement of her donkey pump the Appledore was somewhat behind time in starting, but the delay was wholly unavoidable, being caused by a kind of accident that cannot be anticipated and provided for at a moment's notice.

The heavy rains and the warm weather of late have caused the grass to grow with a wonderful rapidity, and it would seem that a large hay crop is fully insured. This is encouraging to farmers, as the yield of hay during the past two or three seasons has been extremely light, and there is hardly any old hay on hand. The contractor for hay at the Navy Yard last year lost five dollars on every ton furnished.

The Jubilee singers on Friday evening passed a vote of thanks to Superintendents Merritt of the B. & M. R. R. and Chamberlain of the C. & P. R. R., for courtesy extended to the society, in allowing them when visiting other places for rehearsal, to travel over these roads at half fare.

The probable construction of the Portsmouth and Dover Railroad brings out the following communication in the Portland Argus:—

So Portland is in danger of an unexpected competition for western trade—a sea-port 50 miles nearer Ogdensburg than Portland! With a harbor that rides upon its deep waters the Navy of Nation! And with 12 miles only of new railroad, its connection nearly completed with Ogdensburgh, and the Eastern railroad ready to guarantee a lease of the 12 miles as soon as built.

OLD TIME CHRONICLES, No. 53.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

BENNING WENTWORTH, PROVINCIAL GOVERNOR OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.—For some years Samuel Shute was Governor of Massachusetts and New Hampshire, residing in Massachusetts. In 1717 John Wentworth was appointed Lieutenant Governor of New Hampshire and held that office till his death in 1730. He was descended from a Wentworth of distinction in Dover, resided in Portsmouth, had followed the sea, was a merchant and a man of strict integrity. He had sixteen children, and Benning, who became Provincial Governor, was one.

The father of Benning Wentworth had ample means to provide for his education, and he was graduated at Harvard College in 1715, when about twenty years of age. Then he engaged in mercantile business, was honest and enterprising, but unfortunate and soon retired. He was Representative in the Assembly several years, and also one of the Council.

Mr. Wentworth was popular with the people, but it was owing much to his misfortunes that he was appointed Governor when he was. By contract he sent oak timber to Spain, to the amount of more than $50,000. He failed to get pay and became a bankrupt. On his way back he was shipwrecked. Applying to the Spanish government for redress he failed. Next he laid before the British ministry his wrongs, obtained sympathy, and by the aid of others, interested in having a Governor in New Hampshire separate from Massachusetts, he was appointed in 1741 to that office. He arrived at Portsmouth from England near the close of the year, and was received with great respect. The Assembly fixed his salary at about £600. Soon he was appointed Surveyor of the Woods for the King, with a like salary, the whole amounting to about $6000 yearly. Fortune now favored him again, and not long after he built for his residence the house now standing at Little Harbor, long called the "Wentworth House."

Gov. Wentworth held the office 25 years, being longer than any one in the same office in the State. Next to him in this regard was Gov. Gilman, under the Constitution, 19 years. Gov. Wentworth's administration as a whole was popular. He was warmly devoted to the home government in England, but was the friend of education and of the enterprise and welfare of the people of the Province. The principal complaint in the first year was that he filled all important offices with his own immediate relatives and friends, and near the close, when over seventy years of age, there were some other slight complaints and he was induced to resign.

Gen. Wentworth's first wife died while he was in office. He lived several years a widower. At the age of sixty, on his birthday, at a gathering of his friends and some of the most notable men of Portsmouth at his mansion at Little Harbor, he was married to Martha Hilton, for some time a servant girl in his family. She was born in Newmarket, (that part now South Newmarket,) and was a descendant of Edward Hilton, first proprietor of a large section there. When she first went to Portsmouth she was in low worldly circumstances. She was much younger than the Governor but so far as we know the marriage was a happy one. The account of the celebration of the nuptials is given in a very interesting poem by Longfellow in the January number of the Atlantic Monthly.

The fruit of this marriage was two children, but they died young. After the death of the Governor, Lady Wentworth married a second time, and the second husband dying, she married a third. When President Washington visited New England she was honored by a call from that distinguished man. She finally died in London.

While Gov. Wentworth was in office many towns were granted, and in due time incorporated. Wentworth, in Grafton County, was named in honor of him. Candia, in this County, was incorporated in 1763. In the N. H. Gazetteer, published in 1823, John Farmer says Gov. Wentworth named it for Candia, (the ancient Crete) in the Mediterranean Sea, where he was a prisoner. This is all the account of his imprisonment we have. Mr. Farmer was a great antiquarian, and is good authority.

In 1762 Gen. Jonathan Moulton of Hampton drove an ox, weighing 1400 pounds, with a flag on his horns, to Portsmouth, and presented it to the Governor. In return the Governor presented him a tract of land, which is now the town of New Hampton.

Gov. Wentworth went out of office in 1767. Oct. 14, 1770, he died, aged 74. A regiment of militia under arms did escort duty at his funeral, and St. John's Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons performed the honors on the occasion. The services were in Queen's Chapel. Rev. Arthur Brown, the rector, officiated. The Governor's remains were deposited in the family tomb.

DEATHS.

In Cape Neddick, York Co., Me., June 16, Mrs. CAROLINE H. ADAMS, aged 68 years, wife of Samuel Adams. Her death was very sudden. She had spent a few minutes in looking at her plants on the piazza, walked into the house and seated herself, and died in a few moments, of heart disease. She was in all things a beautiful and lovely woman.

In this city, June 15, FRANK WARREN PICKERING, infant son of John W. and Lucy A. Pickering, aged 4 months, 3 days.

☞ Funeral from No. 8 Jefferson Street, this (Monday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!

Relieve Your Lungs.

For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,

DR. BUCHMAN'S

Pulmocine Cordial

Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases. For the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the choice of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage at which time there is no local cure) relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.

Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial

is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.

BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL

Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.

Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.

For Coughs, Croup, Diphtheria, Asthma, &c.

USE BUCHMAN'S

PULMOCINE CORDIAL.

The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "wandering in pastures" in South America or anywhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the compounds specified, in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

The Singer

SEWING MACHINE

STILL LEADS THE MARKET.

The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the

Daily Manufacture

—OF—

400 OF THE SINGERS

Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.

All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running on needles or feed or price—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the

seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.

THE SINGER

IS THE

OLDEST

SEWING MACHINE

IN THE MARKET,

All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.

It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the variation of work known to the art.

N. B. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

AYER'S

SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

A medicine that cures is a real public blessing. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA makes positive cure of a series of complaints, which are always afflicting and too often fatal. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humor in the system, which undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When these are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS, For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs, No. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON, After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with despatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray; either of them disposes it to fall off prematurely, and either effect is unsightly and unpleasant to behold. DR. AYER'S consummate skill has produced an antidote for these deformities, which has won gratitude for him from multitudes of men and women. HAIR VIGOR sometimes reproduces lost hair; and always restores to faded and gray hair its natural color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The comparatively few bald and gray heads, that we now see, are those who have not yet discovered the virtues of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR for renewing the hair. The fresh and youthful hair we see on older heads is often the product of this art. If you are disfigured, or made old, austere and ugly, by gray hair, restore its youthful color, and with it your features to their original softness and agreeable expression.

As an elegant dressing for beautifying the Hair, it has no superior.

—Mary had a little lamb,
She kept it in the garden;
Every time it wagged its tail
It soiled her Dolly Varden.

—Michelet, the brilliant French writer, dwelt so eloquently on the sanitary and healing virtues of mud-baths that for a half-dozen years his writings were literally of the earth earthy, and it almost seemed that some of his mother dust had found its lodgment in his brain. Now Grace Greenwood has become a convert to mud-baths, and chants the praises of the Indian baths at the Geyser Springs, a California retreat, at the respectable altitude of 1690 feet above the sea. It is said that Edwin Forrest, while suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism some years ago, went into the Indian mud-bath, one day, and came out all ready to play Othello or Metamora. But Grace does not confess to making a personal trial of these famous baths, which is the more to be regretted as her experience of their benefit would send half our ladies across the continent to be healed. We would not intimate that this charming writer has anything to be cured of; but then these baths have such miraculous properties, that there is no telling but they will keep one young and beautiful forever, and there is no one whose youth and beauty we should sooner rejoice to have preserved than hers. And we would cross the country at any time to see our dear Grace in a mud-pickle.—Golden Age.

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, and cheerfulness to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a specific in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupulina, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS, Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung disease; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, sale and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREPETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

CORNS, Bunions, Bad Nails, and other diseases of the feet, Scrofulous and Cancerous Humors, Piles, etc., skillfully treated at the great central Chiropodical and Healing Institute, No. 766 Broadway, New York. DR. J. BRIGGS, President; DR. ALEXANDER WEBBER, Secretary. sp9

TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1872.

The Jubilee

Opened on Monday, with a great crowd of singers and listeners in attendance. Societies from the following places in New Hampshire were present, viz: Dover, Suncook, Rindge, Nashua, Concord, Exeter, Manchester, Laconia, Keene, Portsmouth, Franklin, Farmington, Francestown, Wolfeborough, Strafham, New Ipswich and Mason. Boston is overflowing with strangers.

The News.

The recent freshets have brought down about 15,000,000 feet of lumber on the Connecticut river. The flood caused the boom at Holyoke to give way, creating a jam a short distance below.

By the explosion of the boiler of a steamboat on the Mississippi River on Saturday five or more persons were killed and several were injured.

There was a serious riot of strikers in Jersey City on Saturday. In New York the outs are talking of desperate measures, and trouble is expected this week.

The Geneva board of arbitration in the matter of the Alabama claims met on Saturday. Summaries of the proofs and arguments on both sides were presented. The proceedings were conducted secretly.

Fifty-five persons were killed and a large number injured by the explosion of the boiler of the Spanish steamship Guadayea, while lying at a dock in Marseilles, Sunday. The steamer and the wharf took fire, and further damage to a considerable amount ensued.

An Oswego special states that a phenomenon occurred in the lake there Thursday. The water rose two feet, and then fell, continuing this movement for some time; fishes came to the surface, and there were other indications of an earthquake.

The east end of the city of Louisville was thrown into a terrible state of excitement on Saturday night by a mad dog, which ran through the streets, biting ten or twelve persons, including several little children. Some of the persons were badly torn by the beast.

Mrs. Bridget A. Wyatt, of Newburyport, was burned to death by kerosene, Saturday evening.

State News.

Keene again wants to be a city.

Hill has voted to exempt manufacturing establishments which may be erected in the future from taxation for ten years.

A Stratham marksman shot from the roof of his house what he supposed was an owl. He had turkey for dinner next day.

Two lines of daily stages are to be run from Centre Harbor to West Ossipee, connecting with the railroad. One stage will probably be kept to go over the old route to North Conway.

Mr. Alex. Keeler of Dover heroically saved a boy eight years old, named Thomas Scanlon, from drowning in the Cocheco River on the 9th, at the expense of his own life, almost. The boy tumbled from a bridge.

On the 14th, in Nashua, Mr. J. C. Bickford made a mistep on the roof of the Nashua Iron Company's works, falling twenty-five feet and striking on a timber. His back was broken and he cannot live.

On the 10th, in Whitefield, a daughter of Mrs. Lovina Whitcomb, aged ten, tried to cross a brook on a log, but fell in and was drowned.

At a recent caucus of republican members of the legislature a candidate for a State office lost the nomination from the error of voting for the democratic candidate for Congress in the second district last year. In a State where the margin is as small as it is in New Hampshire these little departures frequently return to plague their authors at a most inconvenient season.

Rockingham county is the most Biblically inclined of the ten. It has donated the past year to the Bible society, the sum of $700.25. Other amounts received from the various counties are as follows:—Strafford, $365.41; Belknap, $75; Carroll, $85.11; Merrimack, $569.34; Hillsborough, $617.74; Cheshire, $267.64; Sullivan, $140.54; and Grafton, $262,20. Total, $3,074.23.

The Laconia Democrat says there were delivered on the railroad track in that place, on a recent Saturday, six freight cars ready for use, the sills for which were on the preceding Saturday sawed at South Boston, and other parts of the timber for the cars were, the Monday before, floating in the log on the Lake.

On the 12th, in Franklin, says the Journal, Mr. William Locke was savagely attacked by a stallion, while caring for him in the stall. He was knocked down, bitten, his head gashed, &c., but luckily escaped alive.

On May 21st, at Vallafranca, France, Patrick Cassily of Dover, seaman on the U. S. steamer Plymouth, fell over a bank and was killed.

Five of the seven miles of track of the Wolfeborough Branch of the Eastern Railroad were completed and rails laid up to Saturday night; 700 men are employed on the work day and night. The road is expected to be ready on the 4th day of July for business.

During a drunken fight Saturday night at the house of Michael Ahern, near the crossing of the Claremont Railroad, near Concord, John Mann was shot and almost instantly killed.

A law term of the supreme judicial court is in session at Exeter, at which a hearing will be held on the petition of the parties who claim to have been legally elected directors of the Rochester and Nashua Railroad, for a mandamus to compel the board declared elected to surrender to them the books, papers, surveys, &c. This appears to be a contest between the advocates of the two routes—termed the upper route, running through Fremont, Chester, Derry, &c., and the lower route, through Sandown, Hampstead, &c.

Base Ball.

Athletics 11, Atlantics 1.
Bostons 24, Mansfields 3.
Clevelands 11, Mutuals 4.

Jubilee week brings a large number of games of base-ball with it, and the list is as follows: Monday and Tuesday, Boston and Atlantic; Wednesday, Boston and Harvard; Thursday, Boston and Eckford; Friday, Baltimore and King Philip; Saturday, Boston and Baltimore;—all to be played on the Union Grounds, a half-mile beyond the Coliseum, at Boston.

THE NEW SENATOR.—The Springfield Republican has the following;—

Bainbridge Wadleigh, the Republican candidate, who is certain of his election, belongs to the better element of the party. He was educated in the period when the Anti-slavery men of the State, under John P. Hale and his companions, were making their successful fight against the hard-shell Democracy; was an original Free Soiler, and has been a steady and honorable friend of good government ever since.

Without a college education, he early acquired a thorough knowledge of his profession, and has been for years one of the best lawyers of the State, learned, honest, intelligent and apt to win his cases before a jury. He has represented Milford eight years in the Legislature, and might this year have been speaker, had he not declined the office. He gives himself to the public business closely, and during the session has no time to go to book auctions in Boston, where he has for years been adding to his law library by frequent purchases. The other day, since the present session began, a well-known Boston auctioneer, offering a choice book, which did not at first find a bidder, cried out, "Where is Mr. Wadleigh of New Hampshire? if he was here my books would not wait for a bid."

In personal appearance he resembles Vice-President Colfax,—being rather stouter, younger, and some say, handsomer,—but wearing the same open and cheerful countenance. Though faithful to his party, he is not a violent partisan; he did not electioneer for himself or lay himself under obligations to anybody in New Hampshire or in Washington; and will be at liberty to treat the next Administration with that fairness and respect that every Senator owes to the choice of the nation.

THE REFORM SCHOOL REPORT says that the health of all connected with the institution has been next to perfect. The statistics of the institution are as follows:—

The whole number in the school during the year has been 143; the number received, 49; of those, 19 have been discharged at the expiration of sentence; 16 have been honorably discharged by the Trustees, for meritorious conduct; 5 have had homes found them by the Superintendent; 1 discharged to care of County Commissioners; 2 discharged to care of parents, and 1 to a home out of the State. Ten have escaped, leaving 89 in the school. Average time of detention of the children discharged, 1 year and 8 months.

Of the whole number 53 are Americans, 72 Irish, 9 French, 6 African, 1 English, 1 German. Committed by supreme Judical Court 35; Concord Police Court, 9; Nashua Police Court, 4; Manchester Police Court 42; Portsmouth Police Court, 6; Dover Police Court, 9; Justices of Peace, 29.

For term of minority, 45; 11 years, 1; 8 years, 1; 7 years, 6; 6 years, 3; 5 years, 14; 4 years, 14; 3 years, 16; 2 years, 18; 1 year, 27.

For the offence of stealing, 76; firing buildings, 4; house breaking, 21; assault, 1; lewdness, 1; night walking, 1; stubbornness, 17; idleness or vagrancy, 13; truancy, 7; forgery, 1.

At the age of 7 years, 2; 8 years, 4; 9 years, 7; 10 years, 13; 11 years, 15; 12 years, 20; 13 years, 18; 14 years, 19; 15 years, 22; 16 years, 19; 17 years, 3.

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Necotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jul 4w

MRS. JULIA B. DICKINSON,
MAGNETIC & CLAIRVOYANT PHYSICIAN

Is stopping at the Franklin House, Portsmouth, and remains a short time only, where she will be happy to receive calls from all who are suffering from physical ailments.

MRS. DICKINSON examines patients without asking questions, telling them with positive certainty their physical condition, and names their disease or disease and attendant symptoms. Knowing their condition, she is able always to prescribe with a degree of correctness and precision that only the Clairvoyant Physician can hope to do. She makes her diagnosis from first seeing and understanding, and therefore never mistakes sympathetic or temporary conditions for actual disease.

MRS. DICKINSON treats acute and chronic diseases, makes a specialty of Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Female Weakness, Heart Diseases, St. Vitus' Dance, Paralysis, Consumption, Scrofula, and has had great success with all classes of Fevers.

☞ Ladies and all invalids are invited to call. Terms for treatment reasonable and no charge made for normal examination of cases. Has practiced in the Eastern, Southern and Western States. j11lw*

What the Weak Need.

Why do the debilitated and feeble dread the summer? It is because heat is an exhausting element, and they are not in a condition to bear the new drain upon their languid systems, which they think must necessarily commence with the warm weather. But cannot this evil be obviated? Most indubitably it can. What these weaklings need—in fact, what nine-tenths of us need at this season—is an accession of physical vigor, and this desideratum can be secured, with absolute certainty, by a course of the mightiest, yet mildest, of all vegetable tonics, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Thousands of men of business, mechanics and professional men, break down, partially or wholly, under their summer labors, simply because they have neglected to reinforce the powers of nature in this way. To persons who use the celebrated invigorant and corrective regularly in hot weather, the exhaustion which excessive heat is apt to produce under other circumstances is unknown. They are not troubled with nausea, their appetites are good, their digestion excellent and their habit of body all that can be desired. This for twenty years has been the uniform testimony of all who have taken the Bitters as a summer tonic and alterative. Its efficacy is due to the care and scrupulous fidelity to the teachings of experimental science, with which its medicinal ingredients have been culled from the vegetable kingdom, the admirable proportions in which they are combined and the unequalled purity of the stimulative basis.

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

"MR. E. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. SPLENDID COUNTRY REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

The beautiful property known as the "DR. STEVENS' PLACE," situated in Greenland, N. H., in close proximity to the Railroad station, on the old stage route from Portsmouth to Exeter, and four miles from the first named place. The property consists of 95 Acres most excellent Land, all to grass or tillage, and in a high state of cultivation, upon which are some fifty Apple Trees, all in bearing, and some 60 Pear, Cherry and Peach Trees, a large Asparagus Bed, (will cut 300 bunches next season), Gooseberry Bushes in great profusion, Currant Bushes, a large bed of Rhubarb plant and Strawberry beds.

The buildings consist of a handsome new Cattle Barn (the dwelling house having been burned last November), 40 feet square with a splendid cellar beneath for storing fruit and vegetables, making manure and keeping hens in winter; a fine, well appointed Stable for three horses with spacious Carriage room; a large and well made Tool House and Workshop with Piggery attached; also a fine Summer House with splendid run and appointments. All the above buildings are in perfect order and are well painted. The site for the house is all that could be desired, being well elevated, and commanding, and having a large and beautiful lawn in front, well fenced and splendidly embellished with Hedges, Bushes, Spruce, Maple and Elm trees.

To any one wishing a beautiful Farm for the sake of the health and pleasure of a farm life, or to any one desiring a Country estate for a Summer Residence, with the prospect of erecting a house to unite their means and conveniences; this offers a rare and inviting opportunity. The subscriber will hold this offer of sale open only for a limited time, to JULY 23d. If not disposed of previous to that time, it will be withdrawn.

Should a purchaser present, possession will be given immediately with the Crops, or later with the crops removed, as may be agreed upon.

☞ Terms $2000 down, the balance to suit the convenience of purchaser. Apply to DR. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H., or to JOHN B. STEVENS, Esq., on the premises. j18

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray; either of them disposes to fall off prematurely, and either effect is unsightly and unpleasant to behold. DR. AYER'S consummate skill has produced an antidote for these deformities, which has won gratitude for it from multitudes of men and women. His HAIR VIGOR sometimes reproduces lost hair; and always restores to faded and gray hair its natural color, with the glose and freshness of youth. The comparatively few bald and gray heads, that we now see, are those who have not yet discovered the virtues of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR for renewing the hair. The fresh and youthful hair we see on older heads is often the product of his art. If you are disfigured, or made old, austere and ugly, by gray hair, restore its youthful color, and with it your features to their original softness and agreeable expression.

As an elegant dressing for beautifying the Hair, it has no superior.

Jubilee Ball.
Auction—H. F. Wendell.
For Sale—A Country Residence.
Boys wanted—Rockingham House.

Laconics.

Now come the summer visitors.

A contemporary speaks of "boys who swim in the day time." They take air baths, we presume.

A deserter from the U. S. S. Tuscarora, named Blaisdell, was arrested in Newburyport and returned to the ship, on Saturday.

They have a bob-tail kitten, ten inches long, in the Post Office, yclept "Mephistophiles." The clerks call him "Mephie" for short.

We are desired by the Secretary of the Board of Trade to announce that a meeting will take place this (Tuesday) evening at the Common Council Room, and a full attendance is requested.

The Eastern Railroad is taxed to its utmost capacity, transporting people to the Jubilee. The evening trains of Monday were long and crowded, the up trains being necessarily behind time. It is estimated that 2500 people passed through this city during the day.

Nathan F. Mathes, Esq., one of our staunchest and most successful merchants and a most reliable business man, left for San Francisco on Monday, where he will be detained on government business for a time. Mr. Mathes and Mr. John Gilbert, of Boston, have obtained the marine contract for the ensuing fiscal year for all the navy yards but one. Success to them.

The Portsmouth Chorus has gone to the Jubilee, the advance guard leading in the first train Monday morning. Several of the singers, who intended to go in that train, were left behind, as the ticket agent could not sell them tickets with sufficient alacrity. Perhaps there was Jubilee singing in that crowd of mourners as they saw the train go out of sight—and perhaps there wasn't!

Rear Admiral Joseph Lanman, U. S. N., will be placed on the retired list, July 16. Commodore A. M. Pennock, now in command at the Navy Yard, will be promoted to Rear Admiral, and Capt. John Guest, now executive officer at the Philadelphia Yard, will be promoted to Commodore, and, it is understood, will succeed Commodore Pennock as commandant at this Naval Station.

About twenty fine looking men came marching up Daniel Street and across Market Square at noon of Monday, playing the nicest kind of music. They looked like a Jubilee crowd and drew a crowd of spectators, who soon ascertained that the Marine Band had an elegant new uniform of navy blue and brass, with epaulettes of white, and red trimmings, and plumes of red and white. Mr. H. L. Harlow, their leader, being designated by a plume of purple and white.

The latch string of the back doors of some of Portsmouth's groggeries are said to be out every Sunday, and the spectacle of a number of individuals reeling through Water Street before 10 o'clock on a late Sabbath morning would seem to confirm it. The intoxication of these men at so early an hour of the day would also seem to establish the fact that it was forty-rod whiskey which did the work. In this connection we are glad to be assured that none but the lowest gin mills carry on the game of selling liquor Sundays, all the other bars being closed on the sacred day!

Such a hullabaloo as that of Saturday night was too much for quiet people to enjoy. Eugene McGrath, James McDonald, George Gilbert and John Teague, benzinists, felt too happy to sleep and didn't want to go home till morning; so they rang door-bells and smashed windows, in the moonlight, and of their vocal performances it is safe to say such chorus singing will not be heard at the Jubilee this week. That sterling Judge, C. Page, gave them an inkling of his appreciation of their music, after they had plead guilty of brawl, tumult and drunkenness, Monday morning, by imposing a sentence of about $13.50 on each of the jubilant individuals; so some $54 goes to decrease the city's indebtedness.

We find the following extract regarding the proposed purchase of Jaffrey's Point, in the Boston Advertiser:—"The War department desires to purchase a spot of land called Jerry's Fort, in Newcastle, occupied for the defence of Portsmouth harbor in the war of 1812 by a guard of soldiers. It is proposed to build an earthwork fort here, to protect the harbor while the condition of Forts Constitution and McClary is being considered. As is usual in such cases, the ideas of the owner of the land and those of the government officials differ as to its value, and it is thought that, as in Maine, some legislation may be required to enable the government to take it and have its value fixed by an arbitration. While appropriations have been made for the completion of forts in Portland and Boston harbors, the forts at Portsmouth are suffered to remain in a worthless condition and the navy yard is without means of defence except from its own batteries."

THE ALBERT-TYPE.—All photographers who feel an interest in the rapid progress their art is making have doubtless heard within the last two years of the "gelatine process," by which photograph-printing is rendered independent of the sun's direct assistance, a thousand copies being struck off by means of ordinary printer's ink in the time occupied in printing a few dozen by means of sun-printing. The new method has been brought to a state of great perfection by Mr. Joseph Albert of Munich, Bavaria, who has made it possible to print several thousand impressions from the same plate. The inventor has already realized a fortune of two million dollars. During the Franco-German war he printed by contract 400,000 copies of war-maps, and in acknowledgment of his services he received from Emperor William the decoration of the red eagle. Much has been said of the new process in the public prints, and a description at the present time would occupy too much space; but the minimum to which the expense of photographing is brought by the new method can readily be understood when it is said that from the cheaply-produced gelantine plates pictures can be printed as cheaply as an ordinary lithograph. In printing, a common lithographic press is used, and the process is the same as in the production of lithographs. The pictures seem to combine the qualities of the lithograph with the delicacy of the steel engraving and the accuracy of the photograph. Mr. Edward Bierstadt, while on a visitto Europe, became interested in the invention of Mr. Albert, and secured the control of the patent in this country. On his return he established a place in New York city, christening the new pictures Albertypes in honor of the inventor, and since then has been crowded with work. For illustrating books and many other purposes, the new process will prove invaluable, and bids fair to supersede lithography and in many cases steel engravings.

GUM ARABIC.—The useful little mucilage bottle which has come to be so useful upon every editorial table is filled with this adhesive article dissolved in water, and combined oftentimes with other ingredients which are generally mere adulterations. The most familiar objects around us are oftentimes least understood, and probably few can pause to ask the question what is gum Arabic and whence does it come from? In Morocco, about the middle of November, that is, after a rainy season, a gummy juice exudes spontaneously from the trunks and branches of the acacia tree. It gradually thickens in the furrows down which it runs, and assumes the form of oval and round drops, about the size of a pigeons egg, of different colors as it comes from the red or white gum trees. About the middle of December the Moors encamp on the borders of the forest, and the harvest lasts a full month. The gum is packed in large leathern sacks, and transported on the backs of bullocks and camels to the seaport for shipment. The harvest occasion is made one of great rejoicing, and the people for the time being almost live on the gum which is very nutritious and fattening. Such is the commercial story of this very simple but useful article, which is next in importance on an editor's table to the all potent and indispensible scissors.—Globe.

CLEAR YOUR THROAT!
Relieve Your Lungs.
For the terrible diseases engendered by the lung-trying climate of New England,
DR. BUCHMAN'S
Pulmocine Cordial
Is a speedy and reliable Preventive and Remedy. EVERY FAMILY should have a bottle at hand to check the sudden growth of all Pulmonary Diseases. For the Asthma, Coughs, Croups, Laryngitis, or inflammation of the larynx, Diphtheria, and all kindred THROAT DISEASES at all times prevalent, it is the ounce of PREVENTION. Children attacked with Whooping Cough or Croup should be immediately cared for. These painful attacks come with scarcely a moment's warning, when a physician may be out of immediate reach. A dose of PULMOCINE CORDIAL gives speedy relief, and the little ones are spared hours of pain and agony. As "a stitch in time saves nine," so does the possession of this FAMILY MEDICINE prevent the spread of disease. Parents seeing their children gasping with pain, friends and relatives beholding each other in peril from suffocation by the choking pain in the throat, paralyzed with fear and not knowing the best course to pursue, are liable to apply the wrong remedial agents. There is no safety in delay, no time to waste in such cases. CONSUMPTION, that fearful scourge of the human race, lies at the door of all thus afflicted. BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL arrests it (unless in its advanced stage at which time there is no local cure) relieves the pressing, suffocating feeling at the lungs, and the patient's danger is past.
Buchman's Pulmocine Cordial
is no new discovery. Twenty-three years ago it was used by one of New England's most famous physicians as the best PULMONARY CURATIVE he could prescribe, after a dozen years spent in experimenting with it before he was satisfied that the Materia Medica could add nothing in its favor.
BUCHMAN'S PULMOCINE CORDIAL
Is the ultima thule of Medical Discovery.
Among its many ingredients are WILD CHERRY BARK, SQUILL ROOT, LIQUORICE ROOT, BLOOD ROOT, &c. It is a BLOOD PURIFIER, gently stimulating. It increases expectoration and is diuretic. It is sudorific and alterative. It is a necessary family medicine. It is a Tonic, and a powerful aid to the digestive organs. It is a gentle sedative, and relieves nervousness. It is aromatic and agreeable to the taste.
For Coughs, Croup, Diphtheria, Asthma, &c.
USE BUCHMAN'S
PULMOCINE CORDIAL.
The Pulmocine Cordial is not a quack medicine, is not an experiment, is not composed of any ingredients "discovered" by "walking in pasture" in South America or somewhere else, nor by one who discovered a weed and thereby cured himself. Most of the ingredients are such as our best educated physicians daily use for the complaints specified in some form or other. The recipe is that perfected by one of New England's most learned and famous physicians, who used it entirely in his daily practice until his death. It is offered to the profession and to the public, absolutely pure and unadulterated.

SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
—OF—
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices—and many of these are so we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all other combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

MARK TWAIN'S FIRST LECTURE.

I was home again, in San Francisco, without means and without employ. I tortured my brain for a saving scheme of some kind, and at last a public lecture occurred to me! I sat down and wrote one in a fever of anticipation. I showed it to several friends but they all shook their heads. They said nobody would come to hear me, and I would make a humiliating failure of it. They said that as I had never spoken in public, I would break down in the delivery anyhow. I was disconsolate now. But at last an editor slapped me on the back telling me to 'go ahead.' He said, 'Take the largest house in town and charge a dollar a ticket.' The audacity of the proposition was charming; seemed fraught with practical and worldly wisdom, however. The proprietor of the several theatres indorsed the advice, and said that I might have his handsome new opera house at half price—fifty dollars. In sheer desperation I took it—on credit, for sufficient reasons. In three days I did a hundred and fifty dollars' worth of printing and advertising, and was the most distressed and frightened creature on the Pacific coast. I could not sleep—who could under such circumstances? For other people there was facetiousness in the line of my posters, but to me it was plaintive with a pang when I wrote it: 'Doors open at 7 1-2 o'clock. The trouble will begin at 8.'

That line has done good service since. I have seen it appended to a newspaper advertisement, reminding school pupils in vacation what time next term would begin. As those three days of suspense dragged by I grew more unhappy. I had sold two hundred tickets among my personal friends, but I feared they might not come. My lecture, which had seemed humorous to me at first, grew steadily more and more dreary, until not a vestige of fun seemed left, and I grieved that I could not bring a coffin on the stage and turn the thing into a funeral. I was so panic-stricken at last that I wept to three old friends, gigantic in stature, cordial by nature, and stormy voiced, and said: 'This thing is going to be a failure; the jokes in it are so dim that nobody will ever see them. I would like to have you sit in the parquette and help me through.'

They said they would. Then I went to the wife of a popular citizen, and I said that it she was willing to do me a very great kindness I would be glad if she and her husband would sit promiscuously in the left hand stage-box, where the whole house could see them. I explained that I should need help, and would turn toward her and smile, as a signal, when I had been delivered of an obscure joke—'and then,' I answered, 'don't wait to investigate, but respond.'

She promised. Down the street I met a man I had never seen before. He had been drinking, and was beaming with smiles and good nature. He said:

'My name is Sawyer. You don't know me, but that don't matter. I haven't got a cent, but if you knew how bad I wanted to laugh you'd give me a ticket. Come, now what do you say.'

'Is your laugh hung on a hair-trigger? that is, is it critical, or can it get off easy?'

My drawling infirmity of speech so affected him that he laughed a specimen or two, that struck me as being about the article I wanted, and I gave him a ticket, and appointed him to sit in the second circle in the centre and be responsible for that division of the house. I gave him minute instructions about how to detect indistinct jokes, and then went away and left him chuckling placidly over the novelty of the idea.

I ate nothing on the last three eventful days.

I only suffered. I had advertised that on the third day the office would be opened for the sale of reserved seats. I crept down to the theatre at four in the afternoon to see if any sales had been made. The ticket seller was gone, the box office was locked up. I had to swallow suddenly, or my heart would have gone out. 'No sales,' I said to myself. I might have known it. I thought of suicide, pretended illness, flight. I thought of these things in earnest, for I was very miserable and scared. But of course I had to drive them away, and prepare to meet my fate. I could not wait for half-past seven; I wanted to face the horror and end it—the feeling of many a man doomed to be hung, no doubt. I went down a back street at six o'clock, and entered the theatre by a back door. I stumbled my way in the dark among the ranks of canvass scenery, and stood on the stage. The house was gloomy and silent, and its emptiness distressing. I went into the dark among the scenes again, and for an hour and a half gave myself up to the horrors, wholly unconscious of everything else. Then I heard a murmur; it rose higher and higher, and ended in a crash mingled with cheers. It made my hair rise it was so close to me and so loud. There was a pause, then another; presently came a third, and before I well knew what I was about I was in the middle of the stage, staring at a sea of faces, bewildered by the fierce glare of lights, and quaking in every limb with a terror that seemed like to take my life away. The house was full—aisle and all.

The tumult in my heart and brain and legs continued a full minute before I could gain command over myself. Then I recognized the charity and the friendliness in the faces before me, and little by little my fright melted away, and I began to talk. Within three or four minutes I was comfortable and even content. My three chief allies, with three auxiliaries, were on hand in the parquette, all sitting together, all armed with bludgeons, and all ready to make an onslaught upon the feeblest joke that might show its head. And whenever a joke did fall, their bludgeons came down and their faces seemed to split from ear to ear. Sawyer, whose hearty countenance was seen looming redly in the centre of the second circle, took it up, and the house was carried handsomely. Inferior jokes never fared so royally before.

Presently I delivered a bit of serious matter with impressive unction (it was my pet,) and the audience listened with an absorbed hush that gratified me more than any applause; and as I dropped the last word of the clause I happened to turn and catch Mrs.—s' intent and watching eye—my conversation with her flashed upon me, and in spite of all I could do I smiled. She took it for the signal, and promptly delivered a mellow laugh that touched off the whole audience, and the explosion that followed was the triumph of the evening! I thought that honest man Sawyer would choke himself; and as for the bludgeons they performed like pile-drivers. But my poor little morsel of pathos was ruined. It was taken as an intentional joke, and the prize one of the entertainment, and I wisely let it go at that.

All the papers were kind in the morning; my appetite returned; I had an abundance of money. "All's well that ends well."

SECOND

Grand Gift Concert

IN AID OF THE

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY,

AT LOUISVILLE KY.

BY authority in the act of the Legislature incorporating the PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY, the Trustees will give their

SECOND GIFT CONCERT

In the great hall of the Public Library building in Louisville, Ky., on Saturday, September 28, '72.

This manificent hall, known as Weisiger Hall, is the largest, most centrally located, and best arranged for large and fashionable audiences of any in Louisville and is fitted up in superb style. The building has a front of 168 feet on Fourth St., by a depth of 200 feet, four stories in height, and was recently purchased for the Public Library at a cost of $210,000. Three large rooms are now fitted up for a library, and contain about 20,000 volumes and a museum of 100,000 specimens, now open and free to the gratuitous use and enjoyment of all citizens of every State in the Union. It is the purpose of the Trustees, by the GRAND GIFT CONCERT now announced, to raise the money with which to pay the balance of the purchase money due upon the Public Library building, to enlarge the library, and to so endow the institution as to make it self sustaining and forever beyond the necessity of calling upon any individual who uses the books for the contribution of a single cent toward its support.

100,000 TICKETS OF ADMISSION

will be issued at $10 each; half tickets $5; quarter tickets $2.50; 11 whole tickets for $100; 28 for $200; 56 for $500; 113 for $1000; 285 for $2000; 575 for $5,000. No discount on less than $100 worth of tickets at a time.

Tickets will be sent, when requested, by registered letter. The money for them may be sent by Adams' Express Co. and its connections, P. O. money order, registered letter, or bank draft.

The holder of each ticket, or fraction of a ticket (a half or a quarter,) is entitled to admission to the concert and to the gift awarded to it. During the concert the sum of $500,000 in Currency

will be given to the holders of tickets by distribution by lot of ONE THOUSAND GIFTS, as follows:

Total 1,000 Gifts, all Cash,			$500,000

This Concert, like the first of the 16th of December last, (which was so decidedly successful, and at which the first grand gift was drawn by and paid to Mr. John R. Duff, of Memphis, Tenn.,) is for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky.

The Farmers' and Drovers' Bank is Treasurer, and the corporators and supervisors are all representative men, and are among the most respectable and distinguished citizens of the State. Should any tickets be left unsold on the day of the drawing, they will be destroyed, and the one thousand gifts offered will all be drawn and paid, but diminished in value in proportion to the percentage of unsold tickets. For instance, if only three-fourths of the tickets are sold, the capital gift will be reduced to $75,000, and all the others in proportion.

The Hon. THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, late Governor of Kentucky, has consented to represent the Trustees in the management of the second Grand Gift Concert, and he will personally see that the money from the sale of Tickets is deposited with the Treasurer, that the drawing is fairly conducted, and the gifts justly awarded and promptly paid.

The drawing will take place in public, in full view of the audience, and under the immediate supervision and direction of the officers and Trustees of the Public Library of Kentucky and the following named eminent and disinterested citizens, who have consented to be present and see that all is fairly done:

Hon. R. HARDIN, Judge Court Appeals, Ky.

ANCESTORS OF DANIEL WEBSTER.—On his paternal side, as is given in full in his Life, by Curtis, he came from the Websters of Hampton, among the earliest settlers of that town. Of his maternal ancestry less is said. We are told that his mother's maiden name was Abigail Eastman, a tailoress of Salisbury. But whence came she? The late Dr. Nye of Salisbury was much interested in the history of that town, and has left papers detailing the genealogy of some of the families. From one of these papers we quote:—"A Miss Eastman, a young lady of Welsh descent living in Salisbury, was courted and had a natural son by a mulatto man, who ran off, or died, before the birth of her child, who bore the name of his mother. The boy grew up and married a half Indian girl, whose father was a white man, and reared up a family of Eastmans, from whom Miss Abigail Eastman, the mother of Daniel and Ezekiel Webster, and all the Eastmans of Salisbury had their origin. It was very common in the early settlement of Salisbury and Amesbury, for the inhabitants to marry Indians girls. The characteristics are very visible to this day among their decendants." We supply this omission to keep history good. It is in favor of miscegenation more than any other fact within our knowledge. Dr. Nye will be remembered by some of the elder people, and nobody will doubt his authority, which, possibly even now would be capable of proof from the old records. It will account for the complexion of "Black Dan." — Merrimack Journal, Amesbury, Mass.

A FOWL OBSTRUCTION.—A singular case of railroad obstruction, and one for which no remedy is provided by the statutes, occurred a few evenings since on the valley road in Greene county. Conductor Livingston's train when about three miles this side of Grand Junction, in passing through some low country and near a pond, ran into an immense flock of swan, brandt, geese and other wild fowl. The birds were just about to alight on the track as the train drew near. Their number was so great that the sky was filled with them, and those above pressing down on the lower strata forced them to alight on the car tops. The engine, tender and cars were covered with the fowls, and some even clung to the bars of the cow-catcher. One stately swan had a wing injured in the crush, and found a resting-place in the headlight, from whence he was taken by the engineer. The bird, however, managed to escape from custody near Perry, and jumping from the tender where he had been tied, disappeared in the grass. The raid continued several minutes, quite a number of the aerial army being run over by the train, and some half dozen being captured by passengers and train men. As soon as the birds on top of the flock began to understand the situation they soared away, followed by the entire covey. Livingston says it was the biggest crowd of dead-heads that ever tried to board his train.—Des Moines (Iowa) Register.

—The Colorado desert, across which the Southern Pacific Railroad will run, is three hundred feet below the level of the sea.

—They said the Lord's Prayer in this wise in 1250: Fader ure in heune, halewede beoth thi nenne, comen thi kuneriche, thi wole beon idon inn heune and in erthe. Ure euerych dawe breid gef us thilk dawe. And vorzef ure dettoures and lede vus nouzt into temptation, bote delieuri vus of uvel, Amen.

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, life to the languishing, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a specific in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lopulins, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c., it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS, Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the sole or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREPETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19, 1872.

[By Western Union Line.]

Bainbridge Wadleigh,

Of Milford, was chosen U. S. Senator for six years from the 4th of March next, on Tuesday, by concurrent vote of both branches of the Legislature. The vote was as follows:—

House, Wadleigh, Republican, 204; Bingham, Democrat, 136; Patterson 1. Senate, Wadleigh 8, Bingham 3.

The Jubilee

Is in full blast. The opening concert, Monday afternoon, was attended by about 12,000 spectators, there being 50,000 listeners outside. The chorus numbered about 15,000. The singing commenced with "Old Hundred," which was grandly rendered. Other selections which followed were found more difficult and lacked precision and proper rendering, which we trust will be remedied after the members of the chorus and Carl Zerrahn get more in unison with each other. The magnificent playing of the U. S. Marine Band, from Washington, was applauded to the echo, and an encore was insisted on. This was the case also with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the "Anvil Chorus," the rendering of which thrilled the multitude to a high degree of enthusiasm. The acoustic properties of the vast building are not sufficiently satisfactory for listeners to appreciate solo performances, instrumental or otherwise.

The Advertiser says:—"The chorus is a triumph of skill in organization; it was placed yesterday in a position calculated to develop all its latent nervousness and unsteadiness; and yet, thanks to the skill of its leaders and its own good material, nothing approaching to a fiasco took place. To-day and later in the week it will go forward to even better results; and what it is capable of in its best moments appears from its rendering of the four-part song of Mendelssohn yesterday. The general impression among all who were interested in the performance of yesterday seems to be that it was a decided success. The executive committee, while desiring and hoping for a larger attendance than appeared at the Coliseum, yet feel extremely gratified at the manner in which the pieces were received and the enthusiasm that was manifested throughout the entire proceeding."

Ample accommodations were afforded for the press, S. R. Niles, Esq., known to the world as one of the most successful of advertising agents, having charge of the knights of the quill inside of the Coliseum. His arrangements for the comforts of the publishers, editors and reporters are thorough in detail, and evoked the plaudits of the representatives of "the art preservative of all arts," who are in attendance from all portions of the United States.

A larger audience was in attendance on Tuesday, and the choruses and orchestral accompaniments shew great improvement, having the advantage of a second rehearsal. To-day is the German Day.

The News.

A construction train on the Lafayette, Bloomington and Mississippi Railroad, when about six miles east of Paxton, was wrecked and seven men killed and about twenty-five injured.

The strike of the New York carriage makers has ended in complete surrender, nearly seven thousand having resumed work on the ten hour system and at the old wages. More than two-thirds of the piano makers are also at work, none of them having obtained any advantage by their strike, except those employed by Steinway, who receive ten per cent. advance in wages. The iron and metal workmen are meeting with rather better success, and thirty-five shops have acceded to eight hours, thus furnishing employment to 2500 men. Nearly 11,000, however, of this trade still remain on strike.

The British request for a postponement of arbitration has been granted.

Rev. J. J. Thompson of Leavenworth, Kansas, called at the house of a man named Baum, at Cincinnati, on Monday, and when he left kissed a young lady, with whom Baum was in love. Then Baum rebuked the indiscreet preacher with a hatchet which he drove into the preacher's skull. Rev. Mr. Thompson will hardly survive.

A fast freight train on the Pennsylvania Central railroad which left Jersey City about 9 o'clock on Saturday night, was wrecked at Rahway, in consequence of the misplacement of a switch. Eleven out of thirty cars jumped the track and were piled up in a space of fifty feet. Two men were killed, and $25,000 worth of freight destroyed.

A despatch from Obokus, N. J., states that a very successful surgical operation has been performed upon Mr. Joe Jefferson's eyes, and it is the surgeon's belief that the crisis has passed and that cure will become speedily.

Two trains of cars, one a special, endeavored to pass each other on the same track, at Elizabethtown, Ohio, 20 miles from Cincinnati, on Monday. One of the excursionists named Zenter, of Cincinnati, was killed, and several passengers on the special train were injured.

The water in White Lake, N. Y., has receded several feet in the past three days and is still rapidly sinking. The lake is on a mountain top and has probably found a subterranean outlet.

Both the Maryland Senators express the opinion that in case Greeley is nominated at Baltimore, Maryland will go for Grant. Among the Democrats of Baltimore there is much bitter talk against Greeley, and this is especially true among the moneyed classes.

State News.

Mr. Francis Grines of Hillsborough has a Jersey heifer little over thirteen months old which has given birth to a forty-six pound calf.

Dr. Chas. M. Murphy of Dover is appointed a member of Governor Straw's staff, ranking as Colonel. A fine looking military man is the Dr. Col., with the bearing of a veteran. Should the Governor be as fortunate in surrounding himself with gentlemen of culture, experience and suavity by his other appointments, the State will be as well honored in the selections as it is in having such a capable and efficient Chief Magistrate.

Massachusetts.

The Boston correspondent of the Hartford Courant has the following review of the coming struggle for the Senatorial seat to be made vacant next March by the elevation of Senator Wilson to the Vice Presidency:—

The term for which he is elected to the senate will not expire till the fourth of March, 1877, and there are quite a number of aspirants for the place already. Secretary Boutwell would like it, and, all things considered, is the fittest man to fill it. If he obtains the support of the administration, his prospects may be good. As regards the locality of his residence, however, Mr. Dawes has the advantage. The western part of the State, in which he lives, has not had a senator for nearly twenty years. As long ago as then, Julius Rockwell, who lives in the same town with Mr. Dawes, held the office for a brief season under the governor's appointment, and was succeeded in it by General Wilson. Mr. Dawes will have a strong support. Opposed to him will be General Butler, who would prefer that almost anybody else should be chosen, and the friends of several candidates from the eastern portion of the State. There are three or four candidates who may be classed perhaps as ornamental rather than seriously thought of, such as Dr. Loring, Alex. H. Rice, ex-Governor Bullock, and even ex-Governor Claflin. Ex-Attorney General Hoar has more friends. He would reflect much honor upon the State in the position, and some of our best people would like to see him occupy it. His disadvantages are, his own indisposition to urge his claims, and the lack of that popularity that comes from a general mixing in with the politicians of the State. My own belief is that General Butler will make most of the campaign music for us on the senatorial question. His ambition is, I think, more to be senator than governor just now, and he is likely to bend all his energies for the coveted prize. A year ago, I should have thought it altogether impossible for him to attain it; but, with the recollection of the large following that he had in his gubernatorial canvass, and bearing in mind the activity of his friends in this presidential campaign and the lukewarmness of some of those who opposed him most strongly last year, it will not do to be sanguine that he will not succeed now. There are those who think he may form a combination with Dr. Loring, by which the doctor shall go to Congress from the Essex district, as he has long desired to do, on Butler's promotion to the upper house. This is a programme that it will be difficult to carry out in the present relations of the parties to it. Butler showed last year that he could go into the western part of the State and take towns away from Mr. Dawes. He displayed incomparably more aggressive force and power than did the latter in the State convention. The fact that both the governor and the lieutenant governor are from the western part of State will somewhat offset the considerations of locality that are in Mr. Dawes' favor. Taking this view, it looks as if Butler, if he cannot carry away the prize himself, may name the man who shall have it. This would be likely to make either Butler or Boutwell senator, for Butler would very much prefer Boutwell to any candidate, besides himself, on the list I have mentioned. Perhaps I do wrong, however, to leave Gen. Banks out, in this connection. He has his friends in the State still, and more of them are likely to be at the front in this canvass than at any time since John A. Andrew succeeded him. I think he would answer Butler's purposes better than Boutwell, also.

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Narcotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jul 4w

PILES.—The unceasing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using BRIGGS' PILE REMEDIES.

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents' with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC. CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vitility into your exhausted and disordered system. m29 4w

A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a Standard Restorative an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? Plantation Bitters has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific, or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for, diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism, and all nervous and bilious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Invigorating Household Tonic and Alterative of the Western Hemisphere.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT are the only medicinal preparations necessary in families. The Pills regulate all the internal organs with unerring certainty; the ointment is a positive antidote to all external diseases. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per box or pot. Ask for new style; the old is counterfeited.

What the Weak Need.

Why do the debilitated and feeble dread the summer? It is because heat is an exhausting element, and they are not in a condition to bear the new drain upon their languid systems, which they think must necessarily commence with the warm weather. But cannot this evil be obviated? Most indubitably it can. What these weaklings need—in fact, what nine-tenths of us need at this season—is an accession of physical vigor, and this desideratum can be secured, with absolute certainty, by a course of the mightiest, yet mildest, of all vegetable tonics, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Thousands of men of business, mechanics and professional men, break down, partially or wholly, under their summer labors, simply because they have neglected to reinforce the powers of nature in this way. To persons who use the celebrated invigorant and corrective regularly in hot weather, the exhaustion which excessive heat is apt to produce under other circumstances is unknown. They are not troubled with nausea, their appetites are good, their digestion excellent and their habit of body all that can be desired. This for twenty years has been the uniform testimony of all who have taken the Bitters as a summer tonic and alterative. Its efficacy is due to the care and scrupulous fidelity to the teachings of experimental science, with which its medicinal ingredients have been culled from the vegetable kingdom, the admirable proportions in which they are combined and the unequalled purity of the stimulative basis.

ORDINANCE NO. 10.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Portsmouth as follows:

SEC. 1. That it shall be the duty of the City Marshal, Assistant Marshals and Police Officers of this City, under direction of the Mayor, to carry into effect and enforce the provisions of the one hundred and thirteenth Chapter of the Revised Statutes of this State, within the limits of this City; particularly so much of the same as is contained in the following extracts—in which the word "Town" is construed to mean City, and the word "Selectmen" is construed to mean Mayor and Aldermen, viz:

SEC. 6. "No person shall, within the compact part of any town, fire or discharge any cannon, gun, pistol, or other firearms, or beat any drum, (except by the command of a military officer having authority thereto,) or fire or discharge any rockets, squibs, crackers or any preparation of gunpowder, (except by permission of a majority of the Police Officers or Selectmen, in writing,) or shall make any bonfire, or improperly use or expose any friction matches, or knowingly raise or repeat any false cry of fire."

Notice is hereby given that the above ordinance will be rigidly enforced against any person who may violate its provisions.

A Democrat Speaks.

Messrs. Editors:—The Daily Evening Hash states that two Republicans have come out for Greeley and Brown, and a citizen can name fifty more Republicans who will vote the same way.

Many citizens can name scores of Democrats who will not vote for Greeley and Brown, and inform him of the fact, but he will not publish such statements, but calls them the rule-or-ruin men of the party, and endeavors to stigmatize them and men like Voorhees. He goes for the choking down process, which he says was used with the "factious delegates" at the Philadelphia Convention, towards those Democrats who are opposed to selling out the party. DEMOCRATIC ALWAYS.

Laconics.

Muffin base ball match at the Plains this afternoon.

Mr. Geo. W. Prescott, of Boston, is appointed Captain's clerk of U. S. S. Tuscarora.

Rev. James DeNormandie desires us to contradict the statement that he has received an $8000 call from St. Louis.

Five women from the House of Blazes on Hanover Street, were brought before Judge Page on Tuesday, convicted of brawl, tumult and drunkenness, and of being nuisances generally, to themselves and the city, and were sent to the House of Correction for two months each.

Mrs. Ann Kennard Hooper, a native of Portsmouth, but long resident near Boston, completed her eightieth year on the 14th inst. She is the widow of Capt. Eleazer Hooper, who died here more than forty years ago; and is a very pleasant, intelligent and companionable old lady, bearing her heavy burden of four score years with comparative ease. Her only living child is George K. Hooper, Esq., of the firm of Beal & Hooper, of Boston, widely and favorably known as largely engaged in the furniture business.

Dr. A. P. Stevens advertises for sale his farm,—one of the most attractive places in the beautiful town of Greenland, well stocked with fruit trees, berry bushes, etc., and provided with all the buildings necessary on a farm of twenty-five acres, excepting a house. Dr. Stevens' place is acknowledged to be one of the most beautiful country estates in Rockingham County, and we hope some gentleman of means will purchase it and erect a fine residence upon it, thus restoring one of the prominent landmarks between this city and Exeter. The advertisement, giving full particulars, can be found in another column.

We take from the Maryland Republican of June 15, the following notice in regard to Major Philip R. Fendall, detached from Annapolis, and ordered to command the Marines at this Navy Yard: "Major P. R. Fendall, for the last two years or more commandant of the marine barracks at this place, has been detached, and ordered to the command at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, for which post he leaves on Monday next. The Major has made many friends during his stay in Annapolis, and we regret exceedingly the removal of so urbane and efficient an officer; for none will gainsay that the marines at this post since the Major's administration, were never known to be under better discipline. He carries with him, doubtless, to his new field of labor the best wishes of both citizens and soldiers of this place."

Mr. Edward J. Morrill, who has won the esteem and friendship of thousands of travellers and of all our citizens with whom he has come in contact, by his unvarying courtesy and gentlemanly dealing during the two years he has been clerk at the Rockingham House, has resigned that position to enter upon the management of the Atlantic House at Salisbury Beach, in company with his brother, Mr. J. F. Morrill, who will be remembered by many as the former clerk of the Sagamore House at Frost's Point. Both members of the new firm of J. F. & E. J. Morrill have given entire satisfaction to landlords and patrons of the hotels in which they have filled the arduous positions of clerks, and it is safe to predict that as landlords they will leave nothing undone to secure the popularity of their own house, and that it will be thoroughly well managed. Mr. Charles Mack of Boston takes Mr. Morrill's place at the Rockingham House, Mr. Edward H. Dane of Boston having charge of the billiard-room department.

The Eastern Railroad Company have added twenty-four new cars to their rolling stock since December, and have applied the Westinghaus brake to fifty others.

The trio of politicians who went to Concord to endeavor to secure a coalition with the Democrats for the purpose of re-electing Senator Patterson, came home with a flea in each ear.

A gentleman of this city wrote to a friend in San Francisco and mailed the letter June 1st. It was returned to New York, where the person to whom it was addressed, being temporarily away from home answered it, the answer reaching here June 17th.

Rev. J. Foote Bingham, D. D., late pastor of the Congregational Church, at Augusta, Maine, has become rector of the St. Johns Church at Portsmouth.—Boston Advertiser.

Now will the Advertiser please inform the public that Gen. U. S. Grant has become President of the United States!

JULY 4TH, 1873.—By reference to the action of the Board of Aldermen published elsewhere, it will be seen that preliminary arrangements have commenced for observing on that jubilee day the 250th anniversary of our settlement, and the 20th anniversary of the return of the "Sons." The action of the Board last week, in response to a communication of Mr. Wm. H. Sise, a prime mover in the matter, to provide a book for the registering of the names of natives of our city, resident abroad, is a right move. This book is to be kept at the City Clerk's office, and it is urged upon all those persons who claim this goodly city of Portsmouth as the "land they first stirred in terrestrial pies," to call at that place when in the city, and leave their names, while any name or names or information by mail addressed to the above, will be gratefully received. This matter of registering is all important, and will, beside lessening their labor, prove of great benefit and convenience to the committee who will be in charge of this part of the programme. Let the responses to this early and first call be generous, and let each one feel a personal interest in the proposed reunion. Many, far and near, have already signified their readiness to co-operate by their presence and means in the anniversary, and make it if possible a more glorious welcome than that of '53. Whatever of interest shall transpire in reference to this matter will be found in these columns.—Journal.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
—OF—
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.
N. B. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

"BUSINESS." — Business, business, business. One hears of nothing else in San Francisco. There are men who do more business than those of San Francisco, but surely none who do more talking about it. In older communities a man leaves his business in his store or office and has done with it after six o'clock. Here a man is not ashamed to take it home to frighten a pretty little wife who wants to talk to him about the baby, about the opera, the theatres, her new bonnet or some other unbusiness-like topic. A man invites a friend to dinner, and instead of talking on some subject without wearying him, he drones on something in this style: "I own two lots on Market Street, between Second and Third; then I own some land over at the Potrero, and I have some outside lands—No, I don't own any mining stock and I don't want to—and I've got a lot on Polk Street, and I'm thinking of buying a lot on Devisiadero Street," and so on ad nauseam. Then his friend tells him how his money is invested, and they bolt their food and gulp down their wine without tasting it, and die of indigestion, and leave all their lands and money to some one else who will perhaps brag of it in the same way, or will, let us hope on the other hand, get some enjoyment out of it. Dollars, dollars! we are sick of the sound. At parties, at the theatre, at the opera, and even at picnics. Do these idiots think they are going to live forever? Single men without chick or child to care for are as bad as the rest. They are anxious to make money, and they do not lay plans for spending it until they have accumulated a large sum. Fools! Before you can get that sum perhaps your faculty of enjoying life may be gone. Live a day at a time. Be able to say when you go to bed, "Well I have enjoyed myself to-day, have done no one any harm, and have the prospect of a pleasant day to-morrow." Don't toil and moil until you become hard and unsympathetic and a mere money making machine. Go to Calistoga and leave your business behind; go fishing and give all your energies for a week or two to capturing trout instead of dollars; go to picnics. Try to get ahead in the way of enjoyment as well as in the way of money, so that when you die you may be able to reflect comfortably that if you do not leave so much money behind you as you might have done had you made a slave of yourself, you have enjoyed life a day at a time, and have not let "business" rob you of a hundred pleasures. —Figaro.

—A San Francisco paper says: Two Chinamen collided with knives on Eagle Creek a few days ago. One of them has quit mining. His friends "sunk a shaft" and put him in it.

—It has been discovered that nearly nine out of every ten cases of marital infelicity are between couples who have traveled extensively. This may be used as an argument for short wedding tours.

—A man in Wilmington, Delaware, whose feelings have been disturbed by the impertinences of the local press, writes to the Commercial of that city to know if he has a right to whitewash his chicken-coop.

—A euphemism for saying that you are not invited to a party, &c., is as follows: First gent:—Are you going to Mrs. Bangup's party to morrow night? Second gent:—No. They'd be very much surprised to see me there.

—Thibadoux, La., has a curious system of water works. The town lies below the level of the sea, and is protected by a dyke. Over this embankment water is introduced through large syphons, by means of which the streets are sprinkled, the ditches kept clean, and the atmosphere cooled.

AYER'S
SARSAPARILLA,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

A medicine that cures is a real public blessing. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA makes positive cure of a series of complaints, which are always afflicting and too often fatal. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Impurities Diseases of the skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side, and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

The Chronicle.

HOW TO PUT ON A CORSET.—The San Francisco Chronicle relates the following amusing episode which occurred during the recent Burkhart murder trial in that city:

At this juncture the coroner desired to show the jury the course taken by the ball, and for this purpose produced the corset wore by Mrs. Burkhart at the time of the tragedy. 'You see,' said he—and here drew the corset around his waist with the laces in front!—'the ball must have gone in here from behind. No that cant be, either, for the doctor says the ball went in front. Confound it, I've got it all wrong. Ah! this way.' (Here the coroner put the corset on upside down.) 'Now you see,' pointing to the hole in the garment, which rested directly over his hip; 'the ball must have gone in here. No, that can't be, either, for ——'

Here Mr. Mather, the handsomest man on the jury, broke in. 'Dr. Stillman,' said he, 'you've got that corset on wrong.' Here Dr. Stillman blushed like a poppy. 'Well,' he said, 'I've been married twice, and I ought to know how to rig a corset.' 'Yes,' said Mr. Mather, 'but you don't. You had it right in the first place. The strings go in front, and the ladies clasp them together in the back. Don't I know? I think I ought to; I've been married. If you doubt it, look here (pointing to the fullness at the top). How do you suppose that's going to be filled up unless you put it on as I suggest?' 'That,' said Dr. Stillman, 'why that goes over the hips.' 'No, it don't,' said Mr. Marther; 'that fulness goes somewhere else—this way,' and here Mr. Marther indicated where he thought the fullness ought to go.

At this a pale-faced young man with a voice like a robin, and a note-book under his arms, said he thought the ladies always clapsed their corsets on the side. The pale-faced young man said this very innocently, as if he wished to convey the impression that he knew nothing whatever of the matter. The jury laughed the pale faced young man to scorn, and one of them intimated that he thought the young man was not so green about woman's dress as he tried to appear. The young man was a reporter, and it is therefore exceedingly probable that his knowledge was fully as limited as was apparent from his suggestion, the jurymen to the contrary notwithstanding.

Here another juryman discovered that Dr. Stillman had the corset on bottom side up.

'Doctor,' said he, 'put it on the other way.'

Then the doctor put it on in reverse order, with the laces in front. This brought the bullet holes directly over the tails of his coat.

'I don't think,' said Mr. Mather 'that the bullet went in there, doctor.'

'No, I don't think it did,' was the reply. 'Confound it, it's mighty funny—six married men in this room, and not one that knows how to put on a woman's corset.'

Here the Chronicle reporter, who has several sisters and always keeps his eyes open, advanced and convinced Dr. Stillman and Mr. Mather, after much argument, that the laces of a corset go behind. After this explanation the course of the bullet was readily traced, and found to bear out the explanation afforded by two physicians.

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a specific in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupulina, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS. Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain likely to be produced by corns, the incessant twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREPETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

The Daily Chronicle,

THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1872.

Correspondence.

BOSTON, June 17.

Editors Chronicle:—Your reporter, being but a tyro in the business, is not yet qualified to write an accurate account of any event previous to its occurrence. This defect, time and experience will remedy. Meanwhile "slow but sure" is the reportorial motto.

The first concert of the World's Peace Jubilee has just ended—a brilliant success in all respects but one, the size of the audience. The immense hall was far from full, the floor but thinly peopled, the galleries nearly bare. Yet the multitude was rash enough to raise a roar of applause as wonderful as the full chorus itself.

Soon after 3 o'clock, the audience, who sat studying the gay and tasteful decorations, the movements of apparently insane ushers, press committee men and police officers, the arrangement of the stupendous choir, receding tier beyond tier, into dim distance, and anything else of interest that offered,—suddenly rose, without knowing why, after the manner of great assemblies, and stood looking anxiously and seeing nothing, until gracefully waved into their seats again by the police. Then the cause of the disturbance appeared, the commanding figure of Rev. Phillips Brooks, whose long prayer was only a pantomime to nearly the entire audience. An invocation by the whole musical force would have been more appropriate and more impressive. Then followed a short address from Mayor Gaston and one of almost unendurable length from Gen. Banks, not one word of either being audible a few feet from the speakers. The lacerated feelings of the impatient listeners found vent in prolonged and uproarous applause when the General's speech ended, just as everybody had concluded that it never would.

Presently the audience rose again, by faith, on subsiding discovered Mr. Gilmore ascending the platform, and burst forth into new and louder cheers. After the storm of welcome had spent itself and the great organ and orchestra had been brought into unison with one another, the baton rose and with it a mighty surge of sound, rich, mellow and subdued, the first billow of that great ocean of song which burst upon and overwhelmed us in the second verse, and lifted us upon its mighty swell into the "innumerable company of angels from all people and nations and kindreds and tongues," who had sung "Old Hundred," generation after generation on their pilgrimage, and passed away to the Great Jubilee of God's own gathering, leaving us to sustain the mighty song and pass it on to generations to come, "Till suns shall rise and set no more."

Such majesty of sound sets us in the presence of the assembled ages; time is no more, we feel at once with the eternity that is past and that which is to come. It is a good thing to stand thus in spirit, with all who have lived and who are to live. The dead rise again, the living have overcome the world, "the former things have passed away," and "the glory of the Lord is risen upon us." Lifted by the power of music into such a region of immortal life, cold criticism is impossible; one cannot discuss the merits of the angels of God; we veil our faces before them. Let those point out their weaknesses who do not feel their divinity.

From the heights to which "Old Hundred" had lifted us, we were led gently down through the mazy windings of Wagner's Overture to Rienzi, (guided by the graceful baton of Carl Zerrahn) and the stately measures of the Triumphal March from Costa's Oratorio of Naaman, the brilliant pianoforte solo of Herr Bendell, (which, to the surprise of most listeners, was distinctly audible throughout the hall,) through the fine rendering of the "Farewell to the Forest" and Rossini's magnificent Inflammatus, (in which Madame Rudersdorff covered herself with glory,) to the delicious sextette from Lucia Di Lammermoor, performed by the bouquet of artists, which was vociferously encored. The ladies represented the flowers of the bouquet, and the gentlemen of course constituted the green—cypress probably, judging from its sombre hue.

Then followed the inspiriting music of the Marine Band, eliciting frequent applause, and raising a tempest of cheers and shouts, accompanied with waving of handkerchiefs, hats, hands and other movables, as they dashed into the defiant strains of Yankee Doodle,—audacity set to music.

Then came the glories of the Star Spangled Banner, performed as it was by thunder and lightning, doing their utmost. The effect of course was electrical. The performance had to be repeated, and Mrs. West's high C in the second rendering, was even more powerful and stirring than in the first, and brought down a fury of applause that was only drowned by the thunders of the full chorus and the heavy booming of the cannon, obedient, like all the other performers, to the magic wand of the Conductor.

Time and space fail even to dwell on the appearance and reception of Johann Strauss and his "Beautiful Blue Danube Waltzes," encored imperiously, the Anvil Chorus and the rest. The closing hymn, "Nearer to Thee" was sung with fervor by the entire audience with the full chorus, and the assembly dispersed at 6.40 P. M., worn out with their three hours' bombardment by Gilmore's musical battery, and hoping to be refreshed to meet the next day's volley.

COLISEUM, Tuesday, June 18.

I am very sorry for you and the few other stragglers yet remaining outside the Coliseum walls, for the scene within is such as no words can do justice to. The audience and the enthusiasm today are far in advance of yesterday's. The two great features of the day thus far, are the debut of Madame Peschka-Leutner, and the ovation to the Band of the Grenadier Guards. As Madame Leutner, a large and fine-looking woman, in a superb dress of crimson and black lace, advanced down the centre of the chorus to her elevated station on the platform, in full view of the entire audience, the hall resounded with cheers, which was repeated with increased enthusiasm, at the first pause in her solo, but which reached a pitch of the wildest excitement as soon as she fairly soared away into the higher realms of sound, where the ear could scarcely follow, and "singing ever great and soaring ever sang." It was something never to be forgotten, the afternoon light pouring brightly through the hundreds of windows in the roof, illuminating the vast auditorium, lighting up the gay colors of flags and streamers, and in the centre of this kaleidoscopic splendor, the single graceful singer, pouring through the immense space a flood of full, delicious warblings, which proved her indeed, what she is called, the Nightingale of Bavaria. In answer to a persistent encore, she repeated the last few phases of her song. The selection that followed, 3d act of Ernani, by the bouquet of artists, full chorus and orchestra, was finely performed and received an encore. After a brief intermission during which many of the audience circulated about the building, in quest of friends, to exchange comments and congratulations,—during which peregrinations I had the pleasure of elbowing H. W. Beecher in the central aisle, getting a full look at his fine face,—order was restored, and soon appeared the black caps of the Grenadier Band advancing down the middle of the chorus, 30 or 40 strong, while the organ played "God Save the Queen," and everybody in the Coliseum was standing upon seats to see them and shouting to everybody else to sit down. They were greeted with thunderous applause, which was renewed with interest when Mr. Godfrey, the leader, took his post in the midst of them. Their playing was the perfection of military music; the second encore brought out "The Mabel Waltz," composed by Mr. Godfrey, which was played with wonderful beauty and spirit,—the rallentando just before the close, followed and finished by a presto movement, being particularly fine. The national air of England was then taken up by Organ, Chorus, Orchestra and the Grenadier Band, cannon and bells, Mr. Gilmore wielding the baton, Madame Rudersdorff singing the solo in the 3d verse. The audience, still unsatisfied, called for a repetition, and the excitement knew no bounds when Mr. Godfrey took the stand and the stick; then indeed all did their best and thundered out the grand old anthem as perhaps it never was heard before. The still insatiable multitude, like Oliver Twist, demanded more, when the Band struck into the "Star Spangled Banner," amidst a deafening burst of cheers and shouts that for a few seconds drowned all other sounds. Again and yet again they played it, the cannon boomed, the people shouted, the Alabama Claims were ignored and the two nations shook hands with a will.

At last they were permitted to retire, with a farewell verse of "God Save the Queen" from the organ. All beside has passed off well,—with the few hitches unavoidable now and then in the management of such multitudes. To-morrow will see the coliseum filled, no doubt, to its utmost capacity. Madame Leutner sings again, and all who have heard her to-day will hear her to-morrow also, if possible. She is the greatest singer who has ever visited our shores,—in the estimation of competent judges. The foreign press is represented here by two correspondents from Honolulu, one from "The Figaro," Paris, one from "The Dresden," Saxony, two from the "London Telegraph," and several from the Canadas and the British Provinces. CORNS.—Since pride and fashion have had control of mankind, and shoemakers were compelled to make boots and shoes to fit fancy instead of the feet, the suffering from Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Sore Insteps, Blistered Heels, Callosities on the bottom of the feet, &c., cannot be described. But Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies will cure all such torments, and proper fitting boots will prevent their reproduction. Sold by all druggists. a12

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jul 4w

PILES.—The unceasing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using BRIGGS' PILE REMEDIES.

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vitility into your exhausted and disordered system. M29 4w

A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a Standard Restorative an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? Plantation Bitters has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific, or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stimulant and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for, diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism, and all nervous and bilious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alterative of the Western Hemisphere.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT are the only medicinal preparations necessary in families. The Pills regulate all the internal organs with unerring certainty; the ointment is a positive antidote to all external diseases. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per box or pot. Ask for new style; the old is counterfeited.

What the Weak Need.

Why do the debilitated and feeble dread the summer? It is because heat is an exhausting element, and they are not in a condition to bear the new drain upon their languid systems, which they think must necessarily commence with the warm weather. But cannot this evil be obviated? Most indubitably it can. What these weaklings need—in fact, what nine-tenths of us need at this season—is an accession of physical vigor, and this desideratum can be secured, with absolute certainty, by a course of the mightiest, yet mildest, of all vegetable tonics, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Thousands of men of business, mechanics and professional men, break down, partially or wholly, under their summer labors, simply because they have neglected to reinforce the powers of nature in this way. To persons who use the celebrated invigorant and corrective regularly in hot weather, the exhaustion which excessive heat is apt to produce under other circumstances is unknown. They are not troubled with nausea, their appetites are good, their digestion excellent and their habit of body all that can be desired. This for twenty years has been the uniform testimony of all who have taken the Bitters as a summer tonic and alterative. Its efficacy is due to the care and scrupulous fidelity to the teachings of experimental science, with which its medicinal ingredients have been culled from the vegetable kingdom, the admirable proportions in which they are combined and the unequalled purity of the stimulative basis.

Laconics.

Chief Constructor Isaiah Hanscom, U. S. N., was in this city on Wednesday.

Schooner Light of Home, Nicholson, has arrived at Harding & Doane's from the Western Banks, with a full fare of fish.

Schooner Leucadia, Deland, which started for sea on Tuesday, missed stays at the Narrows and went ashore, where she laid all night, and was towed off on Wednesday by steam tug Clara Bateman. She lost her rudder and had stern post split, and will go on the railway for repairs.

The local ex-organ of the pro-slavery Democracy, which now "blows" for Greeley and abolitionism, don't believe the man who signs himself "Democratic Always" is a Democrat, and intimates that he is a liar. We do not believe he is the latter, but we do believe he was a Democrat before Willie was born, and know he is one now; but his Democracy is not for sale like the ex-office-holding editor's.

The International Jubilee Ball, which is to take place in the Coliseum at Boston on Wednesday evening, June 26, will be the greatest affair of the kind ever got up in this country. Music will be a grand orchestra, led by Johann Strauss, of Vienna, the celebrated writer of waltzes. The building will be elegantly decorated for the occasion, and a sight alone of the brillant scene will be worth the price of a ticket—$5 admitting a gentleman and lady. See advertisement.

At last the local ex-Democratic organ has captured a real communication "denouncing the CHRONICLE," and prints it! The correspondent feels aggrieved that at some time in the long distant past we published a report of an Odd Fellow's excursion, "but not a word was said in regard to the splendid music furnished by the Portsmouth Cornet Band." That was a grave offence, surely, and we regret that Willie's friend—whose ears are as long as his memory, judging from the way he baits his hook for a newspaper "puff"—didn't say something about it sooner. We had forgotten all about the excursion, and never heard of the Cornet Band's part in it before, that we know of. By the way, will the irate bandman tell us what part of the "splendid music" was furnished by him? It is possible that we should be more afraid of his "music" than we are of his pen.

State News.

The annual reunion of the alumni of the Nashua High School occurs on Friday, the 28th inst.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Suffrage Association of New Hampshire began at Eagle Hall, Concord, Tuesday evening, and continued through Wednesday. President Mrs. Armenia T. White presided, with Mrs. J. F. Lovering, Secretary. Among the speakers were Stephen S. Foster of Worcester, Mass., Mrs. Ada C. Bowles of Cambridge, Mrs. Livermore and Mrs. Churchill.

The third annual commencement of the Robinson Female Seminary, in Exeter, took place Tuesday, June 18. The institution was established in 1867 by a liberal bequest of William Robinson, a former citizen of the town, to found a seminary of the highest order, in which "the course of instruction should be such as will tend to make female scholars equal to all the practical duties of life." The exercises were held in the Town Hall, which was tastefully decorated with flags and flowers. The procession of two hundred and fifty students dressed in white, and headed by the Exeter Cornet Band, made a splendid display marching from the Seminary to the Hall, where the usual essays were read in the presence of a large gathering of people.

The News.

Johann Strauss has announced his intention of going to New York after the Jubilee and forming there an orchestra of sixty or seventy of his best performers. This will be a powerful rival of the Thomas orchestra. Strauss will give concerts in the larger cities throughout the country.

The Maine State democratic convention nominated Hon. Charles P. Kimball of Portland for governor, and passed resolutions indorsing the Greeley platform.

Exit Boss Tweed & Co. The Americus Club's sumptuous palace in Greenwich, Conn., has been sold out by a sheriff.

At an adjourned meeting of the International Telegraph Company at Portland, Edwin C. Bailey of Boston was chosen President, Wm. E. Gould Secretary and Treasurer, and Frank Jones, Wm. McGilvery, Samuel F. Hersey, A. D. Brown, T. T. Snow and Isreal Washburne, Jr., Directors. At a special meeting of stockholders the lease of the line to the Western Union Company was ratified.

Bostons 20, Atlantics 6.

A severe hail storm, accompanied by vivid lightning, visited Halifax June 18. One church was injured and a mission house destroyed by the lightning.

The master of the Orangemen denies the rumor that they will parade with revolvers in New York this year, and says they mean to be peacable and law-abiding citizens.

The Board of Alderman of Portland have consented to call ward meetings on Saturday, the 29th inst., to allow the people to vote on a proposition to loan the credit of the city to the Portland & Rochester Railroad to the amount of $450,000.

The seaport of Hamida, Japan, has had an earthquake which destroyed 500 lives.

Steamers Rona and Ava collided near Shanghai, China; the Rona sank, and five white men and 55 Chinese were drowned.

Phillips Academy.

The new edifice for Phillips Exeter Academy was formally dedicated by the Trustees and Alumni, Wednesday, June 19. It is substantially built of brick, after a very unique but pleasing design. It stands in an exact line with the rear of the former edifice, but removed twenty feet eastward in order to afford room for the erection of a new dormitory on the west when the future shall demand it.

The body of the building covers an area of about seventy by sixty feet, and on either side there are projecting wings extending backward beyond the rear of the main building, each forty by seventy feet.

The dedicatory exercises—which were also commenorative of a half century's service of the Principal, Gideon L. Soule, L. L. D., now in his seventy-seventh year—commenced at eleven o'clock in the new hall. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Morrison of Milton, and an oration delivered by Rev. C. P. Peabody, D. D., President of the Board of Trustees. The Portsmouth Marine Band furnished the music and escorted the procession of the alumni to the Town Hall, where a dinner was served for about four hundred and fifty.

COWS THAT KICK.—Many of our best cows dislike to be milked, and are fussy and uneasy when you set a pail under them. This is particularly the case with the Jersey grades. Instances of this kind seem to be more numerous than formerly, and are most common in dairies kept under the forcing system adopted by those who supply milk for a market or cheese factory.

In many or perhaps most cases, cows become addicted to it after having been milked a few years; though quiet and gentle the first year of their milking.

There is no doubt that the production of a large quantity of milk is often attended with a sensation of soreness, and exhaustion in the lacteal parts, which induce a sensation of dread and dislike to be milked by the animal. In a case like this,—and I think they comprise fully nine-tenths of the troublesome milkers,—it is the worst kind of folly to abuse a cow for kicking.

When a cow becomes troublesome about milking, the best thing that can be done is to fasten the foot with a rope. Make the end of the rope fast behind her, take a wind and draw the foot a little back and tie with a half hitch. Put a measure of shorts or some other provender before her, and then proceed carefully to milk, favoring her as she shows cringing or uneasiness.

I know of something like a dozen cows in the neighborhood in this condition. Nearly all of them are superior milkers. The extraction of a painful twice a day, of a rich, highly vitalized fluid, like milk, can exert no other than an exhausting and debilitating influence on the animal. This on a nervous animal soon induces irritability and what we call vicious conduct. In old times our cows used to go dry three or four months, and with most of our old stock it was difficult to get much milk more than eight or nine months in a year,—the tendency to beef predominating over that to milk in four or five months after calving. Such cows were quiet, and seldom was it that any of them made objection to being milked in the yard or pasture. In our herds of large milkers, that are milked right up to calving time, not more than one out of four or five can be induced to stand willingly, and give her milk when loose in the yard or field. No animal needs kind and careful treatment more than cows giving a large quantity of milk.—Cor. N. E. Farmer.

The Singer

SEWING MACHINE

STILL LEADS THE MARKET.

The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the

Daily Manufacture

— OF —

400 OF THE SINGERS

Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.

All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the

seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.

THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,

All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.

It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

N. B. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

SPLENDID COUNTRY REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

The beautiful property known as the

"Dr. Stevens' Place."

Situated in Greenland, N. H., in close proximity to the Railroad station, on the old stage route from Portsmouth to Exeter, and four miles from the first named place.

The property consists of 25 Acres most excellent Land, all to grass or tillage, and in a high state of cultivation, upon which are some fifty lofty and beautiful Shade Trees, 240 thrifty Apple Trees, all in bearing, and some 90 Pear, Cherry and Peach Trees, a large Asparagus Bed (will cut 300 bunches next season) Gooseberry Bushes in great profusion, Currant Bushes, a large bed of Rhubarb plant and Strawberry beds.

The buildings consist of a handsome Cattle Barn (the dwelling house having been burned last November), 40 feet square, with a splendid cellar beneath for storing fruit and vegetables, making manure and keeping hens in winter; a fine, well appointed Stable for three horses with spacious Carriage room; a large and well made Tool House and Workshop with Piggery attached; also a fine summer Hen House with splendid run and appointments. All the above buildings are in perfect order and are well painted.

The site for the house is all that could be desired, being well elevated and commanding, and having a large and beautiful lawn in front, well secured and splendidly embellished with Hedges, Bushes, Shrubs, Apple and Elm trees.

To any one wishing a beautiful Farm for the sake of the health and pleasure of a farm life, or to any one desiring a Country estate for a Summer Residence with the privilege of erecting a house to unite their means and convenience, this offers a rare and inviting opportunity.

The subscriber will hold this offer of sale open only for a limited time,—to July 23d. If not disposed of previous to that time, it will be withdrawn.

Should a purchaser present, possession will be given immediately with the Crops, or later with the crops removed, as may be agreed upon.

Terms $2000 down, the balance to suit the convenience of purchaser. Apply to DR. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H., or to JOHN B. STEVENS, Esq., on the premises. j18

Morning Chronicle.

IN PHILADELPHIA — WHAT THE WOMEN WERE DOING.

Convention Day opened with clouds. The Probability man had promised good administration weather, but the clouds refused us this civil service; and it rained and blew in gusts of wind throughout the day.

The Academy was a wonder; it always is so on a gala-day, even to the Philadelphians themselves. But the flags and the flowers and the superb auditorium packed to the dome,—we will not stop to note them now, for Philadelphia "saw another sight," better worth telling.

Whatever of triumph the Convention brought, one thing at least is sure, it was the black man's hour! It was the day that made all things even,—for him. From the stage of the aristocratic Academy where, late, a United States Senator might not have leave to speak, the colored delegates swayed the hour. The Academy rocked and surged to the John Brown hymn. Gerrit Smith rose up like a tower; and again the soul of the old martyr seemed to live and move.

We lived again the years of war. The reconstructed Southerners (white) had to bear once more with Sherman's "Marching through Georgia," and the "Tramp, Tramp!"

"It was hardly generous," said a critical Philadelphian, "with Governor Orr and all those fellows round."

Generous, ye Heavens! with all those black men there! There are claims earlier than Governor Orr's; chords deeper than generosity.

So we women sat very patient, scribbling away at our notes for the papers; or fanning ourselves, and feeling our own insignificance in that mighty mass of men. Would our time come too?

We had heard that Miss Anthony was besieging the front door of the Academy, and threatening to go over bodily to the Democrats, if the convention refused her a hearing.

Well, we didn't threaten; we didn't conceive that we had any business to ask to come in as delegates when nobody had delegated us. We don't trust Democrats dona ferentes!

Yet we had a consistency behind us; the women of the Sanitary Commission; the women of the army hospitals; and the phalanx of little teachers who had carried the copy-book in the very dust of the cannon, and while armies deployed around them, taught the peaceful A, B, C.

It was the left wing of the Republican party. Did they know it? Would they remember it in the roll of honor?

Through all the conventional platitudes of the first day, we sat and waited while the rain poured down.

Nomination Day shone out bright and clear, giving glorious promise in its sunshine and sweet air. And again to the Academy came the women, more of them, on the stage in modest reticence; on the reporters' stand; and in full front in the balcony, eager, intent and sympathetic.

Was it their presence that struck an answering chord, or was it the quiet work on the conscience of the committee on Resolutions? With no angry words or threatening denunciations, a quiet pressure from Massachusetts and Pennsylvania was at work in that Committee Room. To the pressure, New York added a shaping hand.

The Presidency was of course. With all those war-echoes rolling through the Academy, there could be none other than the Captain's name. The Republican party is an army, still, till the last shred of conquered prejudice is won.

But there were other questions, and they were well, and forcibly, and gracefully put by the chairman of the Pennsylvania delegation.

"Pennsylvania," say her rivals, "is always grasping, always complaining. She wants Post Offices and Naval Stations, and a Tariff to her mind. She is sulky if she cannot rule."

Pennsylvania's answer is her nomination for the Vice-Presidency of the man whose name stands for labor the country over, the Massachusetts Henry Wilson.

His return-shot for Cincinnati and Columbus; the re-affirming in high places, of the rights of the laboring man.

Then came the platform; how reverently and anxiously we listened! One by one the account was rendered of service done. First the confession of Faith in the Amendments; the record of the past is the future's surest pledge. Revenue and public lands; civil service and home industry, Labor Rights and Ku-Klux laws.

Then, thank Heaven! before the Rebels, came the recognition of the loyal women of America! Amnesty waited till their deeds were told! Shall we quarrel with Plank 14, because it is rough and in the grain? It is a firm, honest plank; although the hands that laid it trembled a little.

In that one recognition of service done, the Republican party has gathered to it an unfold element of strength. Every woman who ever knit a stocking, or baked a pie for "the boys," stands pledged to it, to-day. The left wing is to be left out in the cold no longer.

Great words go out from Philadelphia. It has had the oracles of old.—'76—'56—and again the words are spoken which shape destiny.

What more? Out in the streets, Convention Day, women were shopping, shopping,—for jewels and ribbins, and lace, the woman's kingdom as defined of old. Condemned to silken fetters, with all their bravery on, they justified the wisdom of the old regime by their devotion to these feathers and straws.

"I have been all the morning hunting for a gauk wing for my hat!" said one.

What else should she hunt for on the old order of things? What should she desire, but to look pretty, and shine resplendent in clothes, the woman's kingdom?

Out in the streets, Convention night, other women were roaming, birds of prey! Whatever of want or desertion had brought them to these bleak shores, they were casting their nets for men. Voiceless for good; but all-powerful for evil; the old order again.

But the 6th of June struck another hour, the responsibility of women. Be it hers, hereafter, to repress the evil and the folly, the waste and the crime, she has had only the right to foster, hitherto.

Power is Education. Duty deepens a life. For American Women, and the great party they believe in, a New Era opens to-day.—S. C. H., in Woman's Journal.

AYER'S

SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

A medicine that cures is a real public blessing. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA makes positive cure of a series of complaints, which are always afflicting and too often fatal. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, which undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side, and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from uterine ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HOEING AND WEEDING.—We think many farmers fail to recognize the importance of clean culture for their field crops, and often neglect to hoe and weed as they should. If they do the work at all, it is not done in season, and so the crop suffers injury. We have seen fields where the weeds were allowed to grow until the crop could hardly be seen, and then the attempt would be made to hoe or weed it out. Such a course must be injurious. In the first place, the weeds exhaust the manure intended alone for the crop; they get a start, and in removing them the crop is often injured; it costs a great deal for labor to accomplish the work. Then the crop is often greatly benefited by a hoeing. Now, the only way is for the farmer to plant or sow only so much as can be properly cared for, and then attend to the hoeing and the weeding in season. Weeds should never be allowed to get more than an inch high. We remember some years ago being in Rochester, N. Y., and going over acres of ground belonging to the highest commercial nursery in that place, and on all those acres we did not see as many weeds as it would take to fill a bushel basket. The rule then was to run the plow and cultivator, and keep the hoe going constantly, so that the weeds should not be allowed to make any headway. Remember that if a single crop of weed seed be deposited in the soil, it may take years to recover from the effects. "What is worth doing, is worth doing well," and this should be the motto of every farmer. Never let the crops suffer because of weeds. Only the slovenly farmer will do it unless under peculiar circumstances that can not be avoided.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray; either of them disposes to fall off prematurely, and either effect unsightly and unpleasant to behold. DR. AYER'S consummate skill has produced an antidote for these deformities, which has won gratitude for him from multitudes of men and women. His HAIR VIGOR sometimes reproduces lost hair; and always restores to faded and gray hair its natural color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The comparatively few bald and gray heads, that we now see, are those who have not yet discovered the virtues of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR for renewing the hair. The fresh and youthful hair we see on older heads is often the product of his art. If you are disfigured, or made old, austere and ugly, by gray hair, restore its youthful color, and with it your features to their original softness and agreeable expression.

As an elegant dressing for beautifying the Hair, it has no superior.

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS, Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREFETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

Correspondence.

The Jubilee

BOSTON, June 19, 2 o'clock, P. M.

Editors Chronicle:—We are just in the midst of the pleasant confusion of sounds that precedes and announces each day's performance. The chorus and orchestra are assembling and the audience also, although more than an hour will pass before the Concert begins. The press-room is delightfully cool, and very cheerful. It is hung with the festoons of Prang & Co., numerous and elegant chromos, in ornamental frames. Each member of the press is furnished by Prang with his new lithographic pocket map of Boston, and by James R. Osgood & Co., with a copy of "Boston Illustrated," a book of much interest and value to any one not thoroughly acquainted with the labyrinthine city. The manager of the Boston Museum has generously furnished 500 tickets for the press, good for the entire duration of the Jubilee. The Pennsylvania Railroad has been lavish in furnishing passes, and has joined with Prang, in adorning the room with pictures. There are several lady reporters; one, who sits beside me as I write, has a very sweet and noble face. The tramp of feet in all parts of the building sounds like an army,—but not of regulars. It seems to have a soothing effect upon a man of genius and sombre countenance, who with his chair tilted back, his feet crossed, his arms folded, and his eyes (which must be black like the rest of him,) closed, is sleeping peacefully in the midst of the increasing din. His account of to-day's concert is probably safe in the letter box, and he has nothing to do now but to enjoy himself.

The News.

At the recent convention of the railway managers of the New York Central, Erie and Pennsylvania Central Railway lines, an agreement was made to sell hereafter no passenger tickets for political meetings or State fairs at reduced rates.

The grand jury of the court of general sessions of New York calls attention to the increasing number of beggars, and says that the growing evil of the exhibition of disgusting deformities ought to be suppressed.

The United States court in Cincinnati, in the case of the government against Fowler, Hill & Williams, gave a verdict for the plaintiff for $300,000, being the amount of the tax and penalty sued for as fraudulently withheld from the government by the defendants when distilling spirits.

Dr. Dio Lewis, who for the past twelve years has been connected with various educational and hygienic institutions in and near Boston, has gone to Europe, where he will remain for a year.

The London and Atalanta crews have received a challenge from the Paris boat crew.

The New York Orangemen expect, with police protection, to parade 5000 men on the 12th of July.

The Alabama-claims-arbitration is as tenacious of life as Dr. Livingstone; after being hopelessly dead time and time again they both come to life all right. The latest report is that "appearances are now favorable" for saving the treaty.

Phebe Campbell was hung in Toronto, Canada, June 20, for the murder of her husband. She met her fate with calmness and composure, evincing no emotion. Her paramour and supposed accomplice, Coyle, is in prison, awaiting trial. In her confession she accused him of committing the murder, but admitted that she was his accomplice.

The yacht Dauntless, of the New York yacht club, sailed on the 13th from Cowes, for New York.

An official dispatch from Port au Prince, received in Berlin, reports that on the 11th instant the German men-of-war Vineta and Gazelle took forcible possession of two Haytien corvettes, and held them until the Haytiens paid the indemnity demanded by the German merchants.

It is said that Count Valmaseda, captain-general of Cuba, has resigned.

The national division Sons of Temperance is in session in Chicago. Delegates are present from every State and Territory and from the British provinces.

In the United States district court at Baltimore, in the case of Josephine Carr, colored, against the master of the steamer Chester, for ejecting the plaintiff from the after cabin of the steamer, the court allowed $25 damages and costs. In giving his dicision, Judge Giles remarked it was not in the power of common carriers, transporting passengers, to make discrimination as to color.

Dexter is beaten—beyond a cavil, this time,—by Goldsmith Maid. The latter, in a race with Lucy at Mystic Park, June 19, won in three straight heats; time, 2:21, 216 3-4, 2:19 3-4. The Mystic Park track is a full mile in length, and four of the five judges made the time of the second heat 2:16 3-4, the fifth one making it 2:17. This goes to show that Goldsmith Maid's great time at Milwaukee was fairly made, and beats Dexter's best.

By a fire in East Bridgewater, Conn., June 19, 100 men are thrown out of employment. The loss is reported at $200,000.

Major F. R. Firth, superintendent of the Atchinson and Nebraska Railroad, who was seriously injured by an accident on that road on the 8th instant, died of his injuries. He was formerly from Boston, and was considered one of the best railroad managers in the West.

E. P. Morse, a young man of 22, belonging to Methuen, Mass., has just failed for $250,000. Assets about $90,000.

—In The Galaxy for July, Anecdotes of Public Men, probably from the pen of Thurlow Weed, are very entertaining. Here is a little story of Dean Richmond, the celebrated Democratic politician:—

Richmond was a man of quick perception, happy in retort, with a sententious, epigrammatic mode of saying things, which gave them great force. When Mr. Lincoln passed through the State on his way to Washington, in the winter of 1861, Mr. Richmond provided a special train for him at Buffalo and accompanied the party to Albany. At Syracuse Mr. Greeley joined the company. Mr. Lincoln, who had a keen appreciation of original and peculiar men, was much amused by the occasional pleasant passages between Richmond and Greeley.

A new sleeping-coach of elegant appointments and high finish was placed at the disposal of the President-elect The superb palace cars of the present day had not been invented, but this comfortable coach, with its elevated roof, spacious and complete accommodations, and perfect ventilation, was a great improvement upon the close, low-roofed, cheaply furnished, and dingy cars that were in general use at that time. Lincoln, Greeley and Richmond were seated in this handsome coach chatting in a free and easy manner.

"This is something like, Dean," said Greeley, "but why don't you have all your cars made in this way? The common miserable old things are nothing but a nuisance." "We adopt improvements as they are invented," was the reply, "but the changes have to be gradual; we cannot afford to throw aside substantial cars that have cost a great deal of money, and stock the road with those that are more expensive merely for the comfort of passengers. Whenever we build new ones, we incorporate all available improvements."

"Oh, that's no excuse," was Greeley's rejoinder. "The people confer upon you corporations special and extraordinary privileges, and I tell you they will not be content unless you give them the best accommodations to be had. Why don't you put on this kind of car at once?"

"Why don't we, sure enough? Why didn't you start your infernal old Tribune with three hundred thousand subscribers?"

"Horace, I rather think Richmond has got you there," quietly remarked Mr. Lincoln.

GREELEY AND THE REPORTER.—There is a newspaper reporter out West who received his first lessons in journalism on the New York Tribune. He possessed good talent, but knew nothing about newspaper work, and was somewhat conceited. He was taken on trial by the city editor of the Tribune, his first work being to make a short report of a meeting of the Quarantine board His report was accepted, and sent up to the composing room by an elevator. He considered this a great success and felt elated. The next morning he was sent to report the proceedings of a meeting at the Cooper Institute. He did not like the appearance of the men at that meeting, and, instead of reporting the proceedings as they occurred, he penned a burlesque of the business they transacted. Returning to the room of the city editor he found that gentleman absent, and taking it for granted that his report was all right, he marked it "Local" as he had seen done with his report the day previous, and sent it up by the elevator. The next morning he was called into Mr. Greeley's room. On his way thither he flattered himself that he was about to be complimented for his work, and probably promoted. On entering the room the old philosopher saluted him with. "Are you the ——fool who sent up that report, yesterday, of the meeting at Cooper's Institute?" The abashed reporter dragged out an affirmative answer. "Did the city editor examine your copy before it was sent to the composing room?" inquired Mr. Greeley. "No," responded the reporter, "he was not in his room when I come in, so I just chucked it into a little box where I had seen him put my report the day before, sent it up, and supposed it would be all right." "What business had you to burlesque those who were present at the meeting?" said Mr. Greeley. "Well, I considered them a set of wooden heads, and I thought it wouldn't do any harm to say so," replied the reporter meekly. "H—! man," exclaimed the exasperated philosopher, "I am president of that organization. That's all, young man; you can go."

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and be will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jal 4w

PILES.—The nucessing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using BRIGGS' PILE REMEDIES.

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vatility into your exhausted and disordered system. M29 4w

A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a Standard Restorative an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? Plantation Bitters has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific, or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for, diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism, and all nervous and bilious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alterative of the Western Hemisphere.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT are the only medicinal preparations necessary in families. The Pills regulate all the internal organs with unerring certainty; the ointment is a positive antidote to all external diseases. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per box or pot. Ask for new style; the old is counterfeited.

What the Weak Need.

Why do the debilitated and feeble dread the summer? It is because heat is an exhausting element, and they are not in a condition to bear the new drain upon their languid systems, which they think must necessarily commence with the warm weather. But cannot this evil be obviated? Most indubitably it can. What these weaklings need—in fact, what nine-tenths of us need at this season—is an accession of physical vigor, and this desideratum can be secured, with absolute certainty, by a course of the mightiest, yet mildest, of all vegetable tonics, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Thousands of men of business, mechanics and professional men, break down, partially or wholly, under their summer labors, simply because they have neglected to reinforce the powers of nature in this way. To persons who use the celebrated invigorant and corrective regularly in hot weather, the exhaustion which excessive heat is apt to produce under other circumstances is unknown. They are not troubled with nausea, their appetites are good, their digestion excellent and their habit of body all that can be desired. This for twenty years has been the uniform testimony of all who have taken the Bitters as a summer tonic and alterative. Its efficacy in the care and scrupulous fidelity to the teachings of experimental science, with which its medicinal ingredients have been culled from the vegetable kingdom, the admirable proportions in which they are combined and the unequalled purity of the stimulative basis.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Laconics.

Secretary Robeson and wife will summer at Rye Beach.

Ship Anna Decatur, Capt. Patterson, from Boston March 24, for Callao and Valencia, put into Rio Janeiro May 22, with rudder damaged.

In the State legislature, Mr. Emery of this city has introduced a new draft of the bill incorporating the Rye Beach Railroad, which passed to a third reading.

Commander E. O. Matthews, in charge of Torpedo Station at Newport, visited this Navy Yard Thursday and tested the torpedo apparatus of the steamer Tuscarora, now lying in our lower harbor. Quite a large party of ladies and gentlemen witnessed the experiment, which is reported as being very satisfactory and favorable to more extended use of these attachments to vessels of war.

At the law term of the supreme judicial court for Rockingham county, at Exeter, on Wednesday, the court decided, in the suit brought by the Rockingham Ten Cents Savings Bank against the City of Portsmouth, (to relieve the bank of an assessment for taxes on their banking house, part of which was rented by the bank, the bank claiming that all their assets were taxed by the State tax on their deposits,) that the suit, as brought, could not be maintained.

State News.

John Madigan, an employee in G. Soule & Co.'s lumber mill, while shackling cars June 19th, received fatal injuries by having his head caught between the bunters, in Northumberland.

Five thousand young salmon have been put into the Pemigewasset, and twice as many more are to be put in.

Warren Ricker, employed at Messrs. Thurston, Twombly & Co.'s bobbin and spool factory at Alton, was instantly killed by a circular saw, June 19.

The twentieth annual meeting of the New Hampshire Homœopathic Medical Society was held at Phenix Hall, Concord, June 19.

Mr. Levi Dodge of Lempster, 55 years of age, was thrown from a wagon and instantly killed on the 19th.

The New Hampshire Eclectic Medical Society held its annual meeting at Concord, June 19, and elected the following officers: President, J. M. Bishop of Bristol; vice-president, F. L. Gerald of Nashua; recording secretary, W. K. Ripley of Great Falls; corresponding secretary, W. E. Cole of Keene; treasurer, J. M. Bishop of Hill; censors, W. W. Sleeper of Salisbury, Dr. Ripley and N. P. Japlin of Fisherville.

The rails of the White Mountain Railroad are now laid to Groveton, and it is expected that the track will be ready for use next week.

A mass State temperance convention was held at Concord Wednesday. The attendance was not large, but included several of the most distinguished prohibitionists in the State. Brief and spirited remarks were made by Mr. Scott of Dover, Rev. Mr. Adams of Concord, Mr. Bragman of Newport, Rev. Mr. Stewart, Rev. Mr. Miller and Walcott Hamlin of Dover, Rev. Mr. Deering of Pittsfield, Col. Pierce of Hillsboro, Mr. Courtland of Lee, and B. F. Thorndike of Portsmouth, and Mr. J. K. Osgood of Maine.

A child of M. G. Shaw of Concord, two years old, while playing in a boat at Horseshoe pond, fell overboard and was drowned, June 19.

Thomas Iredale, employed in the woolen mill in Great Falls, came near getting killed Tuesday by being caught in the main belt, which he was adjusting. He escaped with severe bruises on his head and face, and a compound fracture of his left forearm. He will probably recover.

Political.

The Washington Patriot, the Democratic organ of the national capital, which has heretofore bitterly opposed Greeley, shows signs of backing down. It says: "Nothing but wilful blindness can refuse to recognize signs which are too manifest to be mistaken. For the first time in the history of the party a candidate for the Presidency is urged whose career has been signalized by intense hostility to its principles, its distinctive ideas and its success. To those who cherish the very name of Democracy as the symbol of the great popular cause, and who have been educated to honor traditions associated with Jefferson and Jackson, the first suggestion of such a departure startles the mind and is repelled as a thought of treachery or infidelity; but when the abnormal situation is calmly considered and men reflect how such a possibility came to be presented, reason resumes its sway and this instructive repugnance is soothed by patriotic persuasion."

The New York World also gets weak-kneed concerning Greeley and his adoption at Baltimore. And it may as well, for the only hope of saving the Democratic organization rests in abandoning and acknowledging as pernicious the ancient "principles" of the party, and Baltimore seems certain to take this last chance. Greeley and abolitionism may be a hard dose for the old hunkers to swallow, but they've got to take it to save their political lives—and then it won't do it.

The Maryland Democratic State convention has elected Greeley delegates to the Baltimore convention.

The democratic State convention of Taxes by a large majority tabled a resolution endorsing Greeley and Brown.

CARELESSNESS OF LETTER WRITERS. The records of the Dead Letter Office at Washington show great carelessness on the part of letter writers. It appears that during last year nearly three millions of letters were received at that office, of which sixty-eight thousand could not be forwarded, for the reason that the name of the County and State were left out of the direction; four hundred thousand were unstamped, and more than three thousand were mailed with no direction at all. What is quite as remarkable, there were found in these letters money orders to the amount of two million dollars.

A NEW USE FOR CATS.—A correspondent of Land and Water writes:—"It often appears to me that people for the most part are not aware of the great use cats are to us. Of course, we know of their use with respect to mice and rats, but do we generally know of the invaluable help they can give us in protecting from birds our garden fruit and flowers? The late heavy rains this spring have given us the promise of abundance of strawberries, and in the south, at least, the bloom is magnificent. To keep off the birds how simple, how certain, how small is the cost of a cat on a small chain on a wire, and giving the animal the walk up and down the whole length of the strawberry beds. A knot at each end of the wire readily prevents the cat from twisting round the post which supports the wire, and a small kennel placed in the middle of the walk affords her shelter and a home for her kittens. In large gardens a second cat is required, and the young ones in their frequent visits to each other greatly assist in scaring away the birds. I have for more than 30 years used, and seen used with perfect success, this easy method of protecting fruit, and the very same plan is equally good in keeping hares and rabbits off flower beds. After the first few days cats in no way dislike this partial restraint, and when set free, after a few week's watching, they will of their own accord continue on guard. The kittens, more especially, attach themselves to this garden occupation, and of their own accord become the gardener's best allies."

A NEW CURE FOR BLINDNESS.—About a year ago Professor, Nagal, of Tubingen, published reports of cases in which he had, by the use of strychnia, restored patients suffering from decay of vision or from blindness. Strychnia, as is well known, is a deadly poison, but it has a wondrous effectin stimulating the nerves; and Professor Nagal found that in diseases of the optic nerve, whether functional or organic, its operation was alike speedy and efficacious. The quantity used is of course exceedingly small, one-fortieth of a grain, mixed with water; the solution is not to be swallowed, but injected under the skin of one of the arms, which seemed to render the result all the more remarkable. This remedy has been tried elsewhere with marked success; and among recent instances occurs a naval captain, aged fifty-two, whose sight was so much impaired that he required to be led about. Within a few minutes after the injection, as above described, the fog which darkened his eyes became less dense, and an impression of light was perceptible. After three days' use of the remedy, (an injection night and morning,) he could make out the furniture of the ward with sufficient clearness to guide himself about without feeling; "and, on the fourth day of treatment, without help, he succeeded at midday in walking alone through the thoroughfares of the city to the home of his family, a mile from the infirmary." May we not hope from this experience that henceforth the number of cases of blindness will be largely diminished.—Chamber's Journal.

—Caterpillars are reported to be swarming in the low lands of Mississippi. What with cut-worms, potato-bugs, army-worms and such things, if they are not happy yet out West, they must be hard to please.

—Anxious to show that he was born free and equal a negro man and brother killed himself playing base ball in Florida the other day.

The Singer
SEWING MACHINE
STILL LEADS THE MARKET.
The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the Daily Manufacture
— OF —
400 OF THE SINGERS
Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.
All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the
seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.
THE SINGER
IS THE
OLDEST
SEWING MACHINE
IN THE MARKET,
All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.
It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

Morning Chronicle.

CHINEE—IRISH—GERMAN.

The men who are fighting against the immigration of Mongolians to this country are fighting against a law of nature, and therefore legislators may be useful in providing "buffers" to prevent these lunatics from butting out their brains, or at least battering their skulls, against one of the great laws of social progress.

It is time for our free schools and colleges to produce so much of common sense and the art of looking-at-things-as-they-are, as to enable ordinary men to see that opposition to cheap labor, whether it comes from Caucasian or Mongolian countries, is due to an unreasoning prejudice and a criminal selfishness which is the offspring of ignorance and narrowness. Years ago some of the Australian colonies drove out by mob violence the Chinese; they now regret the act as an industrial mistake. The Central Pacific railroad could not have been built in the required time without Chinese labor, and we think it would not be a difficult matter to demonstrate that California would not [illegible] prosperous State she is but now be [illegible] the "heathen Chinee." [illegible] the co-operation of

It is about time [illegible] this nonsense concerning Chin[illegible] labor should cease; especially th[illegible] those who favor the immigration of Irish and German cheap labor [illegible] should speak with bated breath. [illegible] between the immigration of an obstreperous Irish Catholic immigrant who is bound to raise a Fenian row for the sake of "ould Ireland," and upholds the Romish church and its despotic tendencies; or of a German atheist and red republican who is opposed to Sunday laws, prohibition and even a "license law" and goes in for a "free and easy" social, irreligious republic; and the immigration of a quiet Chinaman who labors faithfully, obeys the laws, saves his money and secretly "chin-chins" his ancestors: the difference is so apparent that no sober minded man Wendell Phillips excepted, can fail to see that the advantages are greatly in favor of John Chinaman.

Let any one read the accounts published in a late issue of the New York Tribune of the number of butcher shops supported in that city by Irish and German citizens in the sale of infantile [illegible], diseased meats, and sausages, and he may judge the larder of "John" with his clean cats and fat young mice to be far preferable to the nasty stuff which these continental immigrants consume.

The truth is, that in the providence of God this country has been preordained to be the resort of the nations, of the earth, wherein all who desire may live, labor and work out a career. It has taken many years to beat this idea into the heads of our natives, and we fear that it is not yet impressed on the skulls of our working-men. The Puritans fought against this providential purpose for many years by whipping the Baptists and hanging the Quakers. They desired to found a commonwealth wherein the weal of only Orthodox Puritans should be preserved and to establish a theocracy which should heed only the voice of God when sounded through the ram's horns of regularly ordained ministers of the Puritan churches. God not only prevented, we use the word in the Biblical sense, but he smashed their plan, for it obstructed his great design of building a commonwealth wherein the profession of religion and practice of religious duties, and the development of the Messiance idea should be left to the spontaneous, free, unbiased impulses of individuals uninfluenced by the secular law. The Puritans did not, could not or would not discern these significant indications, and therefore their ideas were overturned and overturned until the principals of Him whose right it is to reign and who rules by moral and spiritual forces were partially established. Years and years came and went, but at last the hung Quakers and the lashed Baptists put their chosking and their whelps into the general statutes of Massachusetts.

The political party which usurps the name of one of the noblest movements of the age, Labor Reform, is guilty of a similar folly. Like Puritans, shutting its eyes to the indications of Providence it butts its head against the laws of nature and the plan which eighteen centuries have drawn out. It should learn wisdom, charity and common sense from history.—Christian Era.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,

No. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for obtaining Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

The Chronicle.

—The Chicago Post tells the following, which is too good for merely local circulation: "In reply to a correspondent, we would say that it was the day after the Republican State Convention.

On the Illinois Central Railroad.

The cars were wending their way northward from Springfield.

It was a sleeping car.

The three persons were sitting vis-a-vis. That is, one was facing the other two.

'Thank you, Parsons; I'll send it,' said he, with a laugh; 'it's just the way all over the State. They're going for my Inter-Ocean with a rush.'

'Should think so,' said Parsons, encouraged. 'Send me bill. Fact is, Scammon, Tribune used to be good paper, when Medill had it, but it's degenerated—gone to thunder—edited by some cursed fool—got so can't anybody stomach it—'

'By the way, Parsons,' said Scammon, rousing up and interrupting, 'I don' know's you know—I-mune introduce you—Mr. Horace White of the Tribune, Parsons.'

'Ho' are ye?' said Horace White, looking out of the window. 'Corn a little backward.'

And there was a great calm."

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray; either of them disposes to fall off prematurely, and either effect is unsightly and unpleasant to behold. DR. AYER'S consummate skill has produced an antidote for these deformities, which has won gratitude for him from multitudes of men and women. His HAIR VIGOR sometimes reproduces lost hair; and always restores to faded and gray hair its natural color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The comparatively few bald and gray heads, that we now see, are those who have not yet discovered the virtues of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR for renewing the hair. The fresh and youthful hair we see on older heads is often the product of his art. If you are disfigured, or made old, austere and ugly, by gray hair, restore its youthful color, and with your features to their original softness and agreeable expression.

As an elegant dressing for beautifying the Hair, it has no superior.

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LAGGARD and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, quietude to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Dermal Eruptions, Liver, Kidney and Spleen Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lapulino, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS. Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREFETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

The Daily Chronicle,

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1872.

The Jubilee.

BOSTON, June 19.

Editors Chronicle:—The last gun has just been fired,—old Hamburg rolled out by heavy artillery, heavy chorus, full organ, full orchestra, and all the people in the audience who could sing, besides several who couldn't,—a glorious finale to a glorious whole. The Jubilee is highly favored in respect to weather, and the sunshine that fills the spacious roof, playing among the rainbowed-colored flags and the delicate net-work of the rafters, constitutes no small part of the beauty and animation of the scene.

The attendance to-day was much greater than that of yesterday, and "the cry is still, they come." The chorus performance to-day has been better than yesterday. Bach's noblest choral, "A strong castle is our God," was admirably rendered at the opening of the Concert, and nearly the same degree of excellence was attained in the choruses which followed, especially in "Yet saith the Lord," from Elijah, which was magnificently done. The novelties of the afternoon were, the appearance of the German Band and of Franz Abt,—the latter by no means the spiritual-faced man some ardent admirers of his music head, figured to themselves, but a portly, matter-of-fact looking, elderly German, who ascended the platform amidst the inevitable burst and led the performance of "When the Swallows Homeward Fly." It was as well done, perhaps, as so graceful and delicate a composition could be done by such an enormous body of performers—that was, rather poorly, like "L'eclair" on the preceding day. The Prussian Band displayed great skill in the execution of brilliant passages, and electrified the listeners now and then by sudden flashes and peals of music that brought down the house. But their selections were not in the main so pleasing to the multitude as those of the Grenadier Band; they were of too serious and meditative a character. Keller's German Union Hymn was given with tremendous power, by full chorus and organ, and immediately afterwards the Prussian Band struck up "Hail Columbia," and followed it, as soon as the applause had sufficiently subsided, by "Yankee Doodle" translated into German. It was very oddly arranged, new harmony introduced, and one slight change made in the air,—just enough to give it a German accent. Of course lungs, boots, handkerchiefs and hats were tasked to their utmost. Madame Peschka-Leutner appeared for the second time to-day and renewed the triumphs of Tuesday. She makes herself heard without difficulty in all parts of the hall, and this without impairing the sweetness and purity of her tone. Her execution is marvellous, and she renders G in alt with ease. It must be X or Q, or some of those outlandish culture, because I have heard plenty of C's and F's in alt, and this is dizzy distance above them all. She throws out that wonderful note with a toss of the head and a look of delight that enhances its effect very much. In answer to a recall that would take no denial, she sang, as before, the last few strains of the aria, which is from the Magic Flute. A superb basket of flowers was presented to her at the conclusion of her song, and was gracefully acknowledged, as were all the honors showered upon her. The Grand Concert Waltz, by the orchestra under Strauss, was splendidly played, and as an encore he gave us "The Pizzicato Polka," the most fantastic and bewitching thing thus far in the Jubilee. It was asked for again but with a positive little bow of refusal the great composer and leader of waltz music disappeared like all the other celebrities of the Jubilee, in a mysterious manner, just in the middle of the clamor. Apparently the earth opens and swallows them up.

Thus you see one feast of music follows another, each are enough for a day,—until we are compelled to acknowledge that the Jubilee is open to one objection,—we get rather too much for our money. That, however, could be remedied by leaving before the close, but who but a Spartan could do it? *M.E.B.

— A dead man in Pittsfield received a telegram the other day.—Exchange. * Where was he?

—Madame Leutner touches high G easily, which speaks well for her hygiene.—Lowell Courier.

Steamship California of the North Pacific Transportation Company, from San Francisco for Sitka, with merchandise and government stores, was wrecked on the coast of the Gulf of Georgia. No lives lost.

The bodies of several hundred Confederate soldiers were recently taken to Richmond, Va., from Gettysburg, and the event was made the occasion of a general demonstration of mourning throughout the city.

The Jubilee managers have invited all the choral societies to sing through another week, including all the auxilieries. The price of admission will be reduced and excursion trains will run from all quarters at low fares.

The case of Tilden against Butler was abruptly concluded by the withdrawal of the plaintiff. General Butler made a statement in his behalf, at the close of which the opposing counsel announced that they would proceed no further in the case.

A German fleet has bombarded Port au Prince several hours, and boarded and captured the Haytien fleet. These acts were committed in consequence of the Haytien government refusing to pay the German merchants of Hayti for interfering with their commerce and levying a forced loan during the revolution. The Haytien government paid the German commander $15,000 on account, and the fleet withdrew.

The Boston & Maine Railroad propose building a Round House upon their line somewhere in the vicinity of Dover, provided the land can be procured without expense to them. A meeting of the Dover Board of Trade was called on Monday evening, and it was decided to purchase the land necessary, about seven acres, and nearly enough money was contributed on Tuesday for the purchase.

Mr. Isaac H. Willey of Quincy, Mass., who was visiting friends in Dover, mysteriously disappeared on Thursday last, since which nothing has been heard of him. His mind has been somewhat impaired by sickness, and consequently much anxiety is felt for him. He is about 50 years old, 5 feet 10 inches high, and stout built; was dressed in dark clothes with a blue-black coat. Any information in regard to him will be gratefully received and suitably rewarded by his brother, Thomas J. Willey, at Dover.

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jul 4w

PILES.—The unceasing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using BRIGGS' PILE REMEDIES.

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is compounded. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vatility into your exhausted and disordered system. A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a Standard Restorative an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? Plantation Bitters has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific, or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for, diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism, and all nervous and billious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alterative of the Western Hemisphere.

PIMPLES AND HUMORS ON THE FACE.—In this condition of the skin, the Vegetine is the great remedy, as it acts directly upon the cause. It cleanses and purifies the blood, thereby causing humors of all kinds to disappear.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—For rheumatism, neuralgia, scrofula, cancer, sore leg, salt rheum, and all eruptions, the ointment is the only safe and certain specific, and the Pills are equally reliable in dyspepsia. Sold at 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per pot or box. Ask for new style, the old is counterfeited.

DON'T HAWK, HAWK, SPIT, SPIT, BLOW, BLOW, and disgust everybody with your Catarrh, and its offensive odor, when Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will speedily destroy all odor and arrest the discharge.

What the Weak Need.

Why do the debilitated and feeble dread the summer? It is because heat is an exhausting element, and they are not in a condition to bear the new drain upon their languid systems, which they think must necessarily commence with the warm weather. But cannot this evil be obviated? Most indubitably it can. What these weaklings need—in fact, what nine-tenths of us need at this season—is an accession of physical vigor, and this desideratum can be secured, with absolute certainty, by a course of the mightiest, yet mildest, of all vegetable tonics, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Thousands of men of business, mechanics and professional men, break down, partially or wholly, under their summer labors, simply because they have neglected to reinforce the powers of nature in this way. To persons who use the celebrated invigorant and corrective regularly in hot weather, the exhaustion which excessive heat is apt to produce under other circumstances is unknown. They are not troubled with nausea, their appetites are good, their digestion excellent and their habit of body all that can be desired. This for twenty years has been the uniform testimony of all who have taken the Bitters as a summer tonic and alterative. Its efficacy is due to the care and scrupulous fidelity to the teachings of experimental science, with which its medicinal ingredients have been culled from the vegetable kingdom, the admirable proportions in which they are combined and the unequalled purity of the stimulative basis.

Both Houses passed the bill changing the day of electing city officers of Portsmouth from November to March. The Senate has indefinitely postponed a bill in amendment of the charter of the city of Portsmouth, and in relation to the wards thereof.

Eight youngsters were capsized from a sail-boat in "the strength of the tide" near Badger's Island, Friday afternoon. They then clambered into a wherry they had been towing, and that sank. Postmaster Peirce, Pension Agent Vaughan, Surgeon King, and Asst. Paymaster Brown, U. S. N., seeing the accident, while at the Navy landing, this side of the river preparing for a sail, procured two wherries and after some tall handling of the oars succeeded in reaching and saving the little fellows from a watery grave.

The Congressional convention of the Republicans of the First Maine District will meet at Portland on Wednesday next. The Biddeford Journal thinks Messrs. "Wentworth and Stone will be the leading candidates." Should Gen. Wentworth receive the nomination, many friends on this side of the Piscataqua well congratulate him, although his patients on both sides of the river can ill afford to spare from their midst such a faithful and skillful physician.

We have been amused at reading an account of a "temperance mass meeting" (of fifty persons) in Concord, at which some mistaken friend wanted the DAILY CHRONICLE endorsed. It was the unkindest cut of all, we think, to propose it—and if the thing succeeded (and we are in doubt about it,) we mourn. We do not propose to blindly follow any party or sect. A little independence in action would be of great benefit to religious, political and socialistic journals—and whether invited or not to run with them in intemperate temperance ruts, we decline the association, or even the honor of being proposed for endorsement of any set of galoots, be they an association of rum drinkers, rum makers or rum haters, or do they choose for a figure head John Brown, John Smith, or B. F. Thorndike.

The Bethany Encampment of Knights Templar of Lawrence, Mass., are to visit this city on Monday, and will be the guests of De Witt Clinton Commandery. They will arrive on a special train from New Market Junction, Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock, and will be received at the depot by the Sir Knights of De Witt Clinton Commandery, accompanied by the Marine Band; and after a short parade will be conducted to the Rockingham House. In the evening the Portsmouth Sir Knights with their ladies will give them a reception at Congress Hall. On Tuesday forenoon, the party will have an excursion down the harbor in the steamer Appledore, returning in season to partake of a dinner at the Rockingham House, served in the elegant new billiard hall, which will be opened on that day for the first time. In the afternoon, the visiting Sir Knights will return home on the regular trains by way of Newmarket Junction.

City Councils.

In Board of Aldermen, Thursday evening, $50 additional was voted to the heirs of Leonard Cotton for land taken to widen Howard Street.

The hearing upon the petition of Frank Jones and others for widening Warren Street, was postponed till next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

The subject of furnishing crushed stone for the Cutts improvements on Richards Avenue, was referred to the Committee on Streets with power to act.

In Common Council, a communication from Mr. Samuel Donnell, resigning his seat in the Council on account of his removal to another State, was received and his resignation accepted.

The annual appropriation bill was reported from committee, with amendments; report accepted and bill laid on the table. A motion to take the bill up for immediate consideration was lost, not being seconded.

A message was sent to the upper Board that the Common Council were ready to meet the Alderman in convention to choose Mayor to serve during the municipal year. A return message was received that the Alderman would meet the Council in Convention at half-past 8 o'clock on Thursday evening next, June 27.

The appropriation bill was taken from the table and assigned for consideration at half past 7 o'clock next Thursday evening.

Clippings.

—Horace Greeley is to be at the Isle of Shoals sometime during the summer.

—Ship Siam, 795 tons, built here in '47, and hailing from London, has been sold at Hamburg to sail under the North German flag.

—Business men will remember that revenue stamps are abolished by Sec. 36 of the new law on all instruments except checks, drafts and orders, on and after Oct. 1, 1872.

—Mrs. Mary A. Livermore is to deliver one of her lectures at the Universalist church, Kittery, this Saturday evening, and will occupy the pulpit of that church the following Sunday afternoon and evening.

—Mr. E. A. Tilton, Director of the Portsmouth Music Society, was, on Friday evening last, made the recipient of a generous sum by the members. This local organization has gained great efficiency under his able leadership.

—Carpenter William M. Laighton, U. S. N., now at this naval station, is to be retired next fall. He entered the service September 29, 1836, making nearly thirty-six years of active duty on shore and water. Mr. Laighton has been a faithful and honored officer.

—The Universalist Sabbath School announce their annual fair, at Congress Hall, next Thursday evening June 27. The success in the past attending their efforts in catering to the public will doubtless insure a large attendance, and a generous sum to aid them in furnishing the new vestry.

—The agent of the N. H. Bible Society, Rev. N. L. Chase, is soon to commence a canvass of the city of Portsmouth. He will seek to make a thorough supply of all needy families and individuals, and will receive contributions to aid in carrying forward this work through the State and country.

—Came Brothers will commence operations in their new quarters, the Sagamore and Rockingham Mills, about July 6th, the large number of orders for carriages having prevented the removal until then. Their present quarters, which will be vacant soon, offer superior facilities for a shoe or some other manufactory.

—Howe's London Circus and Sanger' English Menagerie are to perform here July 8. Their street parade makes an attractive pageant, which, in addition to the decorated vans, will present five ornamentally carved and gilded chariots, the entire company appearing in cavalcade, with teams of piebald ponies, spotted donkeys, and even of Zebras.

—The outlayers of new streets in this city for the past six years have exhibited commendable foresight, in giving them good width, convenient arrangement and proper grading. Our city grows in beauty every year, and all needed improvements and alterations should be made with reference to Portsmouth being eventually one of the most beautiful of seashore cities.

Four midshipmen from the class recently graduated will be ordered to the vessel. A surgeon is yet to be ordered to her. Since the arrival of this ship here in January 1871, her hull has been extensively repaired new boilers added, the cabin and forecastle decks enlarged, her masts lengthened and rigging changed to a ship's. Her armament consists of two eleven-inch pivot guns, four nine-inch guns in battery, and two twenty-four pounder brass howitzers. The vessel will steam about nine knots, and sail about ten with a fair wind. Her crew all told is 195.—Journal.

The Singer

SEWING MACHINE

STILL LEADS THE MARKET.

The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the

Daily Manufacture

—OF—

400 OF THE SINGERS

Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.

All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or price—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the

seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.

THE SINGER

IS THE

OLDEST!

SEWING MACHINE

IN THE MARKET,

All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.

It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

N. B. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

SPLENDID COUNTRY REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE.

"Dr. Stevens' Place."

Situated in Greenland, N. H., in close proximity to the Railroad station, on the old stage route from Portsmouth to Exeter, and four miles from the first named place.

The property consists of 25 Acres most excellent Land, all to grass or tillage, and in a high state of cultivation, upon which are some fifty lofty and beautiful Shade Trees, 120 thrifty Apple Trees, all in bearing, and some 90 Pear, Cherry and Peach Trees, a large Asparagus Bed (will cut 300 bunches next season) Gooseberry Bushes in great profusion, Currant Bushes, a large bed of Rhubarb plant and Strawberry beds.

The buildings consist of a handsome Cattle Barn, the dwelling house having been burned last November), 40 feet square, with a splendid cellar beneath for storing fruit and vegetables, making manure and keeping hens in winter; a fine, well appointed Stable for three horses with spacious Carriage room; a large and well made Tool House and Workshop with Piggery attached; also a fine summer Hen House with splendid run and appointments. All the above buildings are in perfect order and are well painted.

The site for the house is all that could be desired, being well elevated and commanding, and having a large and beautiful lawn in front, well fenced and splendidly embellished with Hedges, Bushes, Spruce Maple and Elm trees.

To any one wishing a beautiful Farm for the sake of the health and pleasure of a farm life, or to any one desiring a Country estate for a Summer Residence with the privilege of erecting a house to suit their tastes and convenience, this offers a rare and inviting opportunity.

The subscriber will hold this offer of sale open only for a limited time,—to July 23d, if not disposed of previous to that time, it will be withdrawn.

Should a purchaser present, possession will be given immediately with the Crops, or later with the crops removed, as may be agreed upon.

Terms $2000 down, the balance to suit the convenience of purchaser. Apply to DR. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Congress Street, Portsmouth, N. H., or to JOHN B. STEVENS, Esq., on the premises. j18

Morning Chronicle.

—There is a man near the Thompson (Conn.) depot on the Boston, Hartford and Erie Railroad, which is reported to be the headquarters of a band of robbers, counterfeiters and thieves. Last Thursday night about forty men and boys from Grosvenordale, under the command of one of the citizens, started out with the determination to capture the robbers. Three small boys, bearing of the brave act, resolved on some sport. They borrowed an old cannon and two shotguns and started for the cave. When the attacking party arrived within about twenty feet of the cave, the boys discharged their pieces and gave a general yell, when the party, led by the gallant commander, retreated back to Grosvenordale, very much demoralized, with the loss of hats, guns, etc. Friday morning quite a number of the force were excused from duty by the surgeon.

To Grass a Bank.—A German method is: For each square rod to be planted, take half pound of lawn grass seed, and mix it intimately and thoroughly with six cubic feet of good dry garden earth loam. This is placed in a tub, and liquid manure, diluted with about two-thirds of water, is added and well stirred in so as to bring the whole to the consistency of mortar. The slope is to be cleaned and made perfectly smooth, and then well watered, after which the paste just mentioned is to be applied with a trowel, and made even and thin as possible. Should it crack by exposure to the air, it is to be again watered and smoothed day by day, until the grass makes its appearance, which will be in from eight to fourteen days, and the whole declivity will soon be covered with a close carpet of green.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,

No. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

NELLIE GRANT AND VICTORIA.—The following correspondence, which is at once sensible and appropriate, will be read with interest. It is precisely such a correspondence as might be expected on the occasion to which it refers between that quiet, unassuming and intelligent American girl, Nellie Grant, and the good-hearted, sensible and motherly woman, Victoria:

LANGLEY HOTEL, May, 1872.

MY DEAR LADY AND QUEEN: I am embarrassed at the honor of an official request, given through a high officer (your Lord Chamberlain, I think), to be presented to your Majesty. I should dearly love to see you, that I might tell my mother and father that I have been thus honored. I am but a simple American girl; that I am the President's daughter gives me no claim to your recognition as a sovereign. It, with the kind lady who is acting as my chaperone, I might visit you I should be very glad. Our Secretary of Legation hints at some political significance in this opportunity. I cannot so interpret it, and would not wish to be so received, because it would not be right, as I am nothing in American politics, and I am sure my father would not desire me to appear other than as my simple and humble self. If, with this explanation, your Majesty will allow me to visit you, I shall be greatly honored, and be very proud.

I have written this note of my own motion, and because I think it the right thing to do. I am your Majesty's very obedient servant and admirer,

NELLIE GRANT.

The following autograph letter was received by Miss Nellie from her Majesty the Queen, and the visit took place at the time indicated and was very informal and pleasant:

WINDSOR CASTLE.

Miss Nellie Grant:—I have instructed Lady —— to convey to you this note, and we will receive you as the daughter of your honorable parents without the intervention of our high officers of State. I shall accept your visit as an "American girl," and there shall be no other significance in the fact than your kindly expressed desire to see the lady and not the sovereign. I shall find it pleasant to forget that I am Queen in receiving you to-morrow afternoon at palace of Windsor. VICTORIA.

—There is a little Biddeford boy who put a lighted match into a nearly empty powder keg to see what would happen. His curiosity is entirely satisfied, but the girl who sits next to him in school thinks he looked better with his nose on.

—A Fort Madison man fainted while standing up to be married.

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LIQUID and DEBILITATED system needs strengthening vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restorative effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUGHS: Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest Instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREFETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

CORNS, Bunions, Bad Nails, and other diseases of the feet, Scrofulous and Cancerous Humors, Piles, etc., skillfully treated at the great central Chiropodical and Healing Institute, No. 765 Broadway, New York. DR. J. BRIGGS, President; DR. ALEXANDER WEBBER, Secretary. ap9

Political.

The Savannah News says:—"We think it would be bad policy for the Baltimore convention to indorse Mr. Greeley. Speaking for this State alone we are quite sure it would be disastrous. We have been very careful in giving the results of the primary meetings in the different counties, and it is apparent from these that the opposition to the Greeley movement, which has developed within the past four weeks, is both wide spread and deep-seated. Fifteen counties have declared against the proposed alliance in terms that are not to be mistaken, while in several instances, where the resolutions are non-committal, quite respectable minorities were found to be firmly opposed to Greeley, as in the counties of Troupe and Harris and Clark and Muscogee. It is quite useless to attempt to disguise the plain fact. If Horace Greeley is indorsed by the Baltimore convention the campaign in Georgia will be disastrous to the Democracy; will result in division and bitterness; will bring about discord and dissension, and will carry the State back to the days of the carpet bag rule. The demoralization will be complete, and we fear final. * * * But we warn the politician now that the indorsement of Greeley by the Baltimore convention will collapse the Democratic party, not only in this State but throughout the South. In the event of such nomination the State of Georgia will go for Grant 20,000 majority. Thousands of Democrats will remain away from the polls rather than stultify themselves by voting for Greeley. We have received hundreds of letters since the Cincinnati convention, wherein the writers give expression to their utter abhorrence of the proposed alliance, and state their intention of remaining idle and inactive spectators in a campaign in which they, as Democrats, can have no possible interest. There is not a county in the State of Georgia where the Democrats will unanimously unite on Greeley.

Toombs of Georgia, who supports Greeley, announces almost in the same breath that he is proud to declare that, "so far as the government of the United States is concerned he is still its enemy."

At a supplemental conference of "Liberal" free traders who don't believe in Greely as a candidate, held in New York on Friday, William S. Groesbeck of Ohio and Frederick Law Olmstead of New York were nominated for President and Vice-President. A platform was adopted. This movement will not exert a feather's weight on the Greeley convention at Baltimore.

The Democratic State conventions in Arkansas and Nebraska declare in favor of the Cincinnati platform.

The News.

The Spanish ministry, it is reported, has declared in favor of the separation of church and State.

The insurgent chief Pepilie Gonzales and fifty men, armed with Remington rifles, surrendered to the Spanish forces at Las Tunas. It is reported that the steamer Fannie landed a cargo of men in safety at Cayo Romano and then steamed towards Nassau, and that the insurgents carried her cargo to the main-land. An insurgent letter-carrier while conveying despatches from President Cespedes was captured by Spanish troops. On his person was a letter from Cespedes to General Modeste Diaz, ordering the general to concentrate his forces for the purpose of aiding in a grand movement in the direction of Holguin.

A Columbus, Ohio, despatch says a large boiler in the Ohio brush and wire works exploded, killing and wounding between 35 and 45 of the prisoners at work in the factory, and destroying the building. Twenty-five persons, it is reported, were killed instantly.

Political affairs in France are getting into a critical condition. Between the delegates of the right in the assembly and President Theirs there is now a complete rupture, and the latter is now obliged to look entirely to the left for support. The members of the ministry all tendered their resignation, but, with one exception, they were induced to withdraw them.

Elie Frederic Forey, marshal of France, died in Paris on Thursday at the age of sixty-eight years. He was educated at Saint Cyr and gained his first military experience in Algiers, at Medeah, Constantine, the Iron Gates and in numerous minor skirmishes and operations. In 1848 he got his generalship, and his services to the coup d' etat, with his entire adhesion to the cause of Napoleon, were rewarded by the commander's cross in the legion. He was accounted an able organizer and tactician. In 1854 he was general of reserve, and in the Crimea held for a short time the command of the troops before Sebastepol. Forey met the Austrians at Montebello, 20th May, 1859, and after a severe engagement compelled them to retreat. In 1862 he was sent to Mexico with the expeditionary corps that was to support the new Emperor on the throne of that country. His first act was a proclamation giving the Mexicans liberty to vote. This was speedily succeeded by a general sequestration of the property of all those who voted adversely to the pretender. This excited much angry comment, but it seemed to meet the approval of the French government, for general Forey was made marshal. Having appointed a provisional government, Forey turned over his command to Bazaine and returned to Paris in October, 1863.

The police arrangments in Boston during the past week have been excellent. If the Jubilee had taken place in New York, not a member of the foreign bands would have had a decoration left by this time.

The English Court of Inquiry into the circumstances attending the loss of the Cunard steamship Tripoli on Tuskar rock, have pronounced Captain Barr in default for navigating his vessel too closely to a well known danger, and he has been suspended for six months.

The schooner Jamaica, bound from Milwaukee to Oswego, with wheat, capsized and sunk in deep water on Lake Huron. The crew, with the exception of the cook (a woman), were saved.

By an explosion of vitriol at a fire in New York, Saturday, seventeen firemen were killed or so badly injured that they died soon after. The fire was a small one, and was occasioned by a person kindling a fire in a stove with kerosene.

State News.

Jonathan Folsom, aged 63 years, died at Laconia, Saturday morning. He was the oldest man in Belknap County. He was a native of Dover and has numerous relatives in that place and in Exeter. His death was caused by the excessive heat of Friday.

The Concord Patriot says that two snakes, about eight inches in length, recently issued from the mouth of a son of Mr. Frank Plummer of Sandwich, thirteen years old, who has had nearly three hundred fits a year for the last five years. The lad has suffered terribly, and has nearly lost his mental powers.

The temperance reform party has, through its State committee, nominated a presidential electoral ticket to be supported at the November election, consisting of the following gentleman; Jonathan Cartland of Lee, Dr. John Blackmer of Sandwich, Lorenzo D Towle of Kingston, David Heald of Milford and Seneca Congdon, one of the representatives of Lancaster in the present legislature.

The Rockingham county convention of Representatives voted to raise $63,000 for the coming year, $15,000 of which goes towards paying the county debt, which amounts to $134,000; this amount will be reduced $20,000 by the appropriation made last year. Bonds to the amount of $75,000 are being issued, one-third to run ten years, one-third fifteen years, and one-third twenty years, at 6 per cent; $35,000 worth of bonds have already been disposed of.

Major A. B. Thompson of Concord has been appointed deputy secretary of state. Mr. Thompson is a graduate of Dartmouth College.

The Great Falls Manufacturing Company made for the six months ending June 1, 9,301,179 yards of cloth and 196,300 seamless bags, using 95,500 bales of cotton in their production.

The late Paran Stevens left to the Stevens high school at Claremont full length portraits of Washington and Webster.

It is stated that President Asa D. Smith of Dartmouth College contemplates resigning on account of impaired health, and Senator Patterson is suggested as his successor.

—Lemons are now abundant and cheap. A grateful drink may be easily prepared with them, which can be kept for use warm and sultry summer days. Remove all the pulps from the peels, and boil them in the water in proportion of a pint for a dozen pulps, to extract the acid. Boil a few minutes, then strain the water with the juice of the lemons, and put a pound of white sugar to a pound of juice of the lemons, and put a pound of juice. Boil all ten minutes; bottle. A teaspoonful of this lemon syrup, in water, makes a refreshing drink.

—The Isle of Man Telegraph Company, which was bankrupt, has been purchased for a round sum by the English government, and the lucky stockholders have received back double their original investment.

Castoria—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Narcotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jel 4w

Piles.—The nucessing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using Briggs' Pile Remedies.

The Bar Room Remedy for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with Vinegar Bitters, a pure Vegetable Stomachic. Corrective and Aperient, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vatility into your exhausted and disordered system. m29 4w

A Whole People's Opinion.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a Standard Restorative an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? Plantation Bitters has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific, or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for, diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism, and all nervous and billious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alterative of the Western Hemisphere.

Pimples and Humors on the Face.—In this condition of the skin, the Vegetine is the great remedy, as it acts directly upon the cause. It cleanses and purifies the blood, thereby causing humors of all kinds to disappear.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—For rheumatism, neuralgia, scrofula, cancer, sore leg, salt rheum, and all eruptions, the ointment is the only safe and certain specific, and the Pills are equally reliable in dyspepsia. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per pot or box. Ask for new style, the old is counterfeited.

What the Weak Need.

Why do the debilitated and feeble dread the summer? It is because heat is an exhausting element, and they are not in a condition to bear the new drain upon their languid systems, which they think must necessarily commence with the warm weather. But cannot this evil be obviated? Most indubitably it can. What these weaklings need—in fact, what nine-tenths of us need at this season—is an accession of physical vigor, and this desideratum can be secured, with absolute certainty, by a course of the mightiest, yet mildest, of all vegetable tonics, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Thousands of men of business, mechanics and professional men, break down, partially or wholly, under their summer labors, simply because they have neglected to reinforce the powers of nature in this way. To persons who use the celebrated invigorant and corrective regularly in hot weather, the exhaustion which excessive heat is apt to produce under other circumstances is unknown. They are not troubled with nausea, their appetites are good, their digestion excellent and their habit of body all that can be desired. This for twenty years has been the uniform testimony of all who have taken the Bitters as a summer tonic and alterative. Its efficacy is due to the care and scrupulous fidelity to the teachings of experimental science, with which its medicinal ingredients have been culled from the vegetable kingdom, the admirable proportions in which they are combined and the unequalled purity of the stimulative basis.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Laconics.

We are requested to announce that members of the Portsmouth Jubilee Chorus can obtain their tickets for this week's concerts or any information concerning the same, at the store of Mr. E. A. Joy, on and after Tuesday.

We learn that our dramatic amateurs, in connection with Harlow's Orchestra, are arranging an entertainment to be given at the Temple on the Fourth of July. We have been enlightened enough as to the programme—which has been arranged by Messrs. Palfrey and Sanborn—to assure our readers that a rich treat is in store for the musically and dramatically inclined portion of our community. The well known reputation of the above mentioned professionals and amateurs will without doubt bespeak a generous patronage. Give them a bumper.

"WHAT THE CHORUS THINKS," we find in the Boston Advertiser, and very apopos it is:—

First, the organ. We do not like it. It seldom helps us. It is too loud and distracting. We like its ponderous bass (wood, not reeds) as it gives us confidence. Beyond this we do not care for it. Its tone is too reedy and "mixture" like. Then, the organist has not always helped us. The organ does not give us our parts in every place as they are written, nor does it follow the light and shade as quickly or carefully as do the singers, and we are rapidly losing confidence in it. This is plainly shown in the ease with which the unaccompanied four-part song was performed. Once or twice, as in "Yet doth the Lord," the organ, instead of trying to assert itself, becomingly took its proper position of mere accompaniment, and at the close there was a sense of gratified satisfaction at the performance. On some occasions the choir have sat down in a most unhappy state of mortification and disgust, for which the organ has been often to blame.

Next, the rehearsals. Here the choir is no doubt at fault. We cannot help it, and respectfully urge that we have our daily bread to win, and cannot give our whole day to the festival. We have paid our own way, and rehearsed night after night for months, and we think if we are rightly handled we can do fairly well without the morning rehearsal.

This leads to another important matter. The performance of "God save the Queen," was a mortifying failure. We know it, and we know why and how it happened. Never was there a choir more dead in earnest to do its best than assembled that day. Each had a book containing printed directions for the performance of each line. The conductor rises and at once violates the rules. The printed rules say the organ is to give the signal to rise. Our leader beckons us, and we scramble up in mortified confusion, and the prelude starts. At the marked place the choir and organ come in with precision. At once we are treated like children, and bid be silent, and the New York critics laugh and sneer at the failure. Now we are utterly at sea, and the rest of the performance goes into history a wretched fiasco. Who's fault is it? Not ours, certainly. It may be urged that we should have attended the morning rehearsal. Perhaps so, but if every one from gray-haired basso to youngest alto had been in the rehearsal seats it would have been a failure if the conductor had violated the printed directions in the books. If this had happened once we would say nothing. It happened several times, and each time the twenty thousand ladies and gentlemen were compelled to bear the blame of failures they did not bring about. In a choir of twenty hundred it is possible to change the style of performance; among twenty thousand impossible.

Next we think it a great mistake to change the leader. Give us one conductor through every choral number. We learn to know his every sign, and learn to rely on him. Few people in the audience can understand the sense of uncertainty and positive alarm that spreads over the choir at sight of a new leader. We admire Mr. Paine, and we have rehearsed his splendid music with care and pleasure, yet hundreds of sopranos were ready to cry with vexation at their failure to attack the first line. They had been taught to watch for a certain sign to sing. The strange conductor was not understood, and the piece fell dead. Under Zerrahn it would have been a triumph for us and the talented composer. Mr. Tourjee, Mr. Keller and Franz Abt command our respect and affection everywhere except when on one six feet of boarding, and that is the conductor's platform. Great composers, fine musicians, no doubt, but they were new to us. Two of them we had never seen before. They did not know our ways, and we understood not theirs, and the result was very sad.

Finally, we think the incessant performance of the "Anvil Chorus" a blunder. The best of music becomes tiresome, and if it is poor—Heaven help us! The opera music we object to altogether. It may be very fine to have the chorus read it at sight, but we don't care to do it often. As for the bells, cannon and big drum, we like them not. One of these fine musical days the long-suffering choir will rise in good-natured rebellion and put the dreadful things out of joint. Lastly, let us never be asked again to sing songs in mass. Choral and concerted sacred music is our only forte. In it we can succeed—in anything else we are very unhappy, and we know it. As for the hymn at the close of each day's performance, we do not care for it. We are too tired and anxious to get home to spend another moment in our huge, hot and noisy hall.

This is not the last festival. We are coming again in smaller numbers, and we want to see these gatherings made a permanent success. Give the choirs a chance, treat them with respect, print the music months beforehand, and make no changes or additions, and give us one leader,—and if Mr. Gilmore or any one else, wants to gather a choir of fifty thousand he can easily do so.

NEW HAMPSHIRE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—The fifteenth annual meeting of this Society was held at Concord, on the 12th inst. Hon. Charles H. Bell of Exeter, was elected President for the ensuing year; Hon. William L. Foster of Concord, and John M. Shirley of Andover, Vice Presidents; Rev. N. Bouton, Concord, Corresponding Secretary; P. B. Cogswell, Concord, Recording Secretary; William L. Foster and Samuel C. Eastman, Concord, Publishing Committee.

The Society enters upon the second half century of its existence with prospects which not only indicate a green and vigorous old age, but greater and more extended usefulness as it rounds out the century. During the past year the Society has purchased the building which it has for some time past occupied, and fitted up the second and third stories for its library, at a cost of nearly $5000 in all. Rev. Dr. Bouton has been appointed Librarian. The Standing Committee has also been authorized to appoint an Assistant Librarian, and it was voted to increase the funds of the Society to $6000 by subscription and the future sale of Dr. Bouton's Provincial Records, of which five of the six volumes are now published, the Society receiving 200 of each of the 800 printed, from the State. These volumes now sell at $4 each, except to members of the Society to whom they are furnished at $1.50.

The following gentlemen were elected honorary members:—Hon. Joseph L. Chester of Loudon, Esq.; Hons. Charles B. Goodrich and Marshal P. Wilder, and Rev. Increase N. Tarbox, Boston; Geo. A. Marden, Lowell, and Samuel P. Humphrey, Bangor.

The following resident members were also elected: William W. Bailey, Virgil C. Gilman, Samuel T. Worcester, O. C. Moore, Nashua, James W. Emery of Portsmouth, Joshua G. Hall and Geo. T. Day of Dover; Abbott Smith of Peterborough; H. S. Cummings of Exeter; Geo. Olcott of Charlestown; Geo. H. Marston, William G. Caxter, Charles F. Stewart, Jacob H. Gallinger, John H. Albin, Concord; Geo. F. Beede of Fremont, Joseph W. Fellows of Manchester.

In the evening a valuable address was delivered by Rev. Dr. Increase N. Tarbox of Boston, on the early history of New Hampshire in connection with Dartmouth College.

Of the thirty original members of the Society, by whom it was organized, George Kent, Esq. then of Concord, is now the only survivor.

Among the original members were the following gentlemen of Portsmouth:

Nathaniel Adams,	Jeremiah Mason,
Richard Bartlett,	Nathan Parker,
Charles W. Cutter,	Israel W. Putnam,
Nathaniel A. Haven,	Timothy Upham,
Alexander Ladd,	Levi Woodbury.

The Singer

SEWING MACHINE

STILL LEADS THE MARKET.

The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the

Daily Manufacture

— OF —

400 OF THE SINGERS

Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.

All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices —and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the

seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.

THE SINGER

IS THE

OLDEST

SEWING MACHINE

IN THE MARKET,

All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.

It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

SPLENDID COUNTRY REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE.

"Dr. Stevens' Place."

Situated in Greenland, N. H., in close proximity to the Railroad station, on the old stage road from Portsmouth to Exeter, and four miles from the first named place.

The property consists of 95 Acres most excellent Land, all to grass or tillage, and in a high state of cultivation, upon which are some fifty lofty and beautiful Shade Trees, 120 thrifty Apple Trees, all in bearing, and some 90 Pear, Cherry and Peach Trees, a large Asparagus Bed (will cut 500 bunches next season) Gooseberry Bushes in great profusion, Currant Bushes, a large bed of Rhubarb plant and Strawberry beds.

The buildings consist of a handsome Cottle Barn (the dwelling house having been burned last November), 40 feet square, with a splendid cellar beneath for storing fruit and vegetables, making manure and keeping Cows in water; a fine, well appointed Stable for three horses with spacious Carriage room; a large and well made Tool House and Workshop with Piggery attached; also a fine summer Hen House with splendid run and appointments. All the above buildings are in perfect order and are well painted.

The site for the house is all that could be desired, being well elevated and commanding, and having a large and beautiful lawn in front, well fenced and splendidly embellished with Hedges, Bushes, Spruce Maple and Elm trees.

To any one wishing a home and farm for the sake of the health and pleasure of a farm life, or to any one desiring a Country estate for a Summer Residence with the privilege of erecting a house to unite their means and convenience, this offers a rare and inviting opportunity.

The subscriber will hold this offer of sale open only for a limited time,—to July 23d. If not disposed of previous to that time, it will be withdrawn.

Should a purchaser present, possession will be given immediately with the Crops, or later with the crops removed, as may be agreed upon.

Terms $2000 down, the balance to suit the convenience of purchaser. Apply to DR. A. F. STEVENS, No. 5 Congress street, Portsmouth, N. H., or to JOHN B. STEVENS, Esq., on the premises. j18

Morning Chronicle.

WHAT I KNOW ABOUT BOATING.—Says he, "Hail from York?"

"No," said I, "I came by rail."

"Well," said he, "I see by the papers that the Atlanta boat crew have gone to Europe."

"They have, sir," says I.

"Did they take a shell with 'em?" says he.

"What in thunder would they want of a shell?" says I.

"To row in," says he.

"You old pudding-head," says I, "they don't row in a shell, they row in a boat."

"Sir," says he, "a shell is a boat."

"Stranger," I replied, "I have traveled extensively, but I must say that you are the first individual I have ever met so cussed green that he couldn't tell a boat from a clam."

He looked amazed and so did I. Then he said, "What kind of sculls did they take?"

"Darn it," says I, "they took their own skulls."

"Do they dip 'em light in the water?" says he.

Here I edged away from the fellow, and I asked him what reason he had to suppose that they dipped their skulls in the water."

"Why, to row with," said he.

"Hang it," says I, "they don't row with their skulls, they row with oars."

"Sir," says he, "you know a pile about boating. Sculls are oars."

Then I asked him did he really think he could make me belive any such nonsense as that, and I told him that oars were made of wood, and until I had the pleasure of meeting him I had never before seen a skull made of the same material.

That fellow insisted that he was right, and continued to elucidate nautical matters until he got things mixed enough to kill three ordinary seamen and a stoker. He accused the Atlanta's best man "of pulling steadily at port," when he doesn's drink anything stronger than coffee, and he said that a crew would be more likely to crow with a cock-swain than without one.

I got disgusted and told him he was a bigger fool than a man I once heard of who was sailing ten knots an hour, when he lost his watch overboard, and the darned fool cut a notch in the side of the boat to tell where he lost it, so he could go back and get it. This finished our nautical conversation.—"John," in New York Sun.

REMEDY FOR STRIPED BUG.—Having occasion to use Paris Green and calcined plaster, in the proportion of one of the former to fifteen of the latter, as a destroyer of the potato bug, I tried the stuff on squash, melon and cucumber vines; with me, the mixture dusted on from a common dredging box, has proved equally effectual against the Colorado Potato Beetle and the striped bug. On squashes of the tenderest variety of foliage, like the Hubbard, for instance, and on the hardier, like Cymlin and the Winter Crook-neck, this mixture, whether put on while the plant is wet or dry, does not injure them; and so of musk melons and cucumbers. The water melon, however, does not like to be so treated, but I would recommend that the mixture be used with care.—Cor. Prairie Farmer.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

The Chronicle.

The News.

An accident occurred upon the Grand Trunk Railroad, near Belleville, Ontario, on Saturday night, which was hardly less terrible than that at Revere by which our community was so shocked about a year ago. The engine of the express train jumped the track, two cars—the smoking and second class passenger—were telescoped and the occupants were crushed and scalded in a terrible manner. The killed and the fatally injured will probably number about twenty, and twice as many more are more or less wounded.

The encouraging news from Geneva received during the past few days having led to the belief the arbitration would hereafter proceed amicably and without hindrance, there now comes a satement that our agent will maintain that the board under the treaty is competent to entertain the question of admissibility of indirect claims, and if England still refuses to proceed with the arbitration he will press for judgment by default.

A considerable number of Carlists in the province of Navarre had an engagement with Spanish government troops on Saturday, and were defeated. The Duc de Montpensier has issued a manifesto, in which he asserts the right of Alphonso, the son of ex-Queen Isabella to the throne.

Boston had a $50,000 fire last Sunday forenoon. It caught in a building on the corner of Milk and Congress streets, from spontaneous combustion as is supposed.

At Mystic Park, Friday, Phil Sheridan won the race for 2:35 horses—purse $1,500; best time 2:28 1-2. Susie won the race for horses that had never beaten 2:26—purse $2,500; best time 2:25.

A Grant and Wilson ratification meeting was held in Faneuil Hall, Boston, on Saturday evening, at which speeches were made by A. H. Rice, E. R. Hoar, Stewart L. Woodford of New York, Governor Geary of Pennsylvania, General Butler, Senator Wilson and Governor Harvey of Kansas.

San Francisco was shaken on the evening of June 22, by the explosion of fifteen hundred pounds of nitro-glycerine in the California powder works near Laguana Honda, four miles distant from the city hall. Six buildings were wrecked. A hole twenty feet deep and one hundred and twenty-five feet in circumference was made in the ground by the explosion. No persons were injured.

A collision occurred, June 22, on the Washington and Baltimore Railroad near Connellsville, Pa. The freight and mail trains ran together at full speed on a sharp curve. The entire train was wrecked. Two men were killed, one mortally and eight seriously injured, and it is expected that a number of these will die. Nine others sustained injuries less severe. The freight train was running at a high rate of speed in order to reach a switch before the approach of the mail train.

By the fall of a derrick at Exeter, Friday evening, Mr. Daniel Hodgdon was killed, Mr. Albert Janvrin had his foot injured and Mrs. John P. Blake was hurt by being struck with the end of a guy-rope.

The fishing schooner James Bliss has been seized by the Dominion government cruisers, and taken to Quebec with the American flag flying beneath that of the Dominion. Chance for a row.

Steam lighter Wallace blew up while steaming out of New London harbor, June 24. Two men were blown away, the engineer was fatally scalded, and five others badly.

—A Rochester gentleman really has invented a type-setting machine that does the business.

—The Queen, the ladies' newspaper in London, declares the Dolly Varden dress to be vulgar.

—Colored man in North Carolina pulled a mule's tail to show his docility. His funeral sermon was an hour and a half long.

—Josh Billings says, "If a man has got eighty thousand dollars at interest and owns the house he lives in, it ain't much trouble to be a philosopher."

—A Florada fruit-grower sent a basket of fine peaches to New York, directed to "Horace Greeley, next president of the United States." There is no such person.

The Singer

SEWING MACHINE

STILL LEADS THE MARKET.

The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the

Daily Manufacture

—OF—

400 OF THE SINGERS

Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.

All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the

seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.

THE SINGER

IS THE

OLDEST

SEWING MACHINE

IN THE MARKET,

All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.

It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

N. B. Those purchasing for cash, before the 1 of January next, will have a consideration allowed them.

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupulina, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUGHS. Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so entirely successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it will positively cure the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest nags, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREPEHEN, Kittery; E. S. SANFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

The Daily Chronicle,

Portsmouth, N.H.

TUESDAY, JUNE 25, 1872.

The Jubilee.

PORTSMOUTH, June 22.

Editors Chronicle:—With the tender interest felt by all (we were about to say young, but conscience compels us to substitute inexperienced) reporters, in their first productions, we called today for those precious copies of the CHRONICLE containing our recent letters from the Hub, and sat down to their perusal, little knowing what was in store for us. We laid the papers down, "a sadder and wiser" correspondent. We are a reformed penman from this hour—witness this copy. No more spider-tracks on paper, to be followed by such direful results. Many a luckless wight has been sent to board at Somerville Asylum for smaller offences against common sense than I find in these letters, thick as currants were in buns in the good old times that are never coming back.

But "I acknowledge my transgression;" the CHRONICLE is not to blame. Nothing short of inspiration could have conveyed to any compositor a correct idea of what was meant by those scratches and blurs and botches. A long study of Egyptian hieroglyphics might enable him to catch the import of those cabalistic characters, but as he probably hasn't the time to devote to obelisks and pyramids, I shall be obliged to buy a writing-book and hire somebody to "teach an old dog new tricks,"—if he can. But I do wish I hadn't written "vast" so that it looked like "rash," and "grim" so that it came out a "genius," and "X in alt" so that it was translated G, and "we" so that it was metamorphosed into "are;" but most of all do I wish that in the couplet, applied to Madame Leutner, my compositor had not discovered the word "great" where I had tried to write "soared." A few more such discoveries would bring my career as reporter to a speedy and ignominious close.

"Singing, ever soared
And soaring, ever sang,"

To attend the Jubilee faithfully throughout its whole duration, would tax a constitution as strong as that of the United States, and leave it as much in need of amendment. The French day, Thursday, in several respects the finest thus far, was our last. We succumbed to the heat of Friday, and remained at home all day, but when toward sunset the clamor of the bells and the rythmic boom of the artillery recalled the scenes of the four preceding days, we were full of anguish and despair, ready to beat our breast and tear our hair,—but refrained, on account of the heat and the entire absence of spectators. It is never worth while to waste those demonstrations on the desert air.

Thursday's attendance was the largest of the week, and the enthusiasm equal to that of Tuesday, which nothing could ever surpass, and in which then was a certain quality, a flavor of national friendliness, aside from its intense fervor, which must distinguish it from all other demonstrations of the Festival. The "Gloria" from Mozart's Twelfth Mass was a disappointment—it was rather tamely rendered, but the chorus more than redeemed themselves in "The Marseillaise," "The Anvil Chorus" and "Nazareth," whose magnificent breadth of harmony was almost lost in the tramp of the thousands of feet that were already thronging to every place of exit, as is usual, toward the end of the programme.

Strauss, that day, was more interesting than ever, with his graceful "perpetual motion," his reckless plunges of the magic fiddle-bow down at the orchestra, as if he were aiming at their heads, his sudden "right about face" now and then, when he lifts the violin to his shoulder and makes that lead for him, its voice being often distinguishable from all the rest,—the contagious animation of the man, which pervades everything about him, even to his broad-cloth, and would set a mummy dancing if he was there. Twice recalled, Strauss gave us twice the delicious "Pizzicato Polka." Those who have attended the rehearsals say that then is the time to see him. We hope to have that pleasure and to write of it to you next week.

After Strauss had disappeared in a way that recalled "facilis descensus Averni," and a stir of impatience for the coming of the French Band began to rustle through the audience, suddenly appeared upon the platform a man with a great white placard bearing these words: "Madame Peschka-Leutner will sing the Aria from the Magic Flute." It would have been impossible to announce vocally to the assembly this fact or any other. Her song was put before the Band's performance, instead of after, as announced by the programme, probably because a long and enthusiastic interview between band and audience was anticipated (and rightly) which would have deferred her singing till very late. In a few minutes the artist on whom seems to have fallen the mantle of Jenny Lind, came forward in a hurricane of applause, to fulfill the promise of the placard, and give a quietus to those musical critics who had complained in several of the papers that she sang "Aria E Varie" instead of the aria from the Magic Flute, on Tuesday and Wednesday. We wish the critics had kept still, for that aria of Proch's suited her voice and the Coliseum and the audience perfectly.

The Magic Flute was beautiful, but not so beautiful. She was encored, of course, and gave a delicious German air whose sustained votes displayed her superb volume of voice to great advantage.

Another pause, filled by the hum of forty thousand voices talking, a sound like that of Niagara,—suddenly crashed in upon and drowned by a peal from the mighty organ—the Marseillaise! The Garde Republicaine Band was before us, fifty strong, filing down the centre of the chorus, and the whole forty thousand,—singers, players, spectators,—sprang to their feet with a simultaneous shout, and shook the building with their mighty welcome. Several times the uproar lulled and then burst out afresh, but M. Paulus at last gave the signal to his band, who began the overture to William Tell, in a manner that filled their hearers with amazement that commanded such a stillness of attention as nothing else had produced since the Jubilee began. An instant's pause after the wonderful music had ceased, and then the great multitude thundered its delight until the roar shook the Coliseum. When the leader was seen to give the signal for playing again, the storm subsided. Again we heard those marvels of skill and taste,—the finest music of its kind ever performed in America, and the same tumult followed the last note. Next from organ, chorus, orchestra, cannon and bells burst forth the grandest of all national songs, the blood-stirring Marseillaise—the blood-soaked Marseillaise, as we could not help thinking while its fiery strains were filling the Coliseum full as it could hold, and sweeping all hearts away with its passionate ardor. Poor France! No wonder that she goes crazy with such a national song as that. We were all crazy when we heard it, that day. It had to be sung again, as you know. And the Band greeted us then with the Star Spangled Banner, and Yankee Doodle, and the reciprocation of national airs and vociferous applause was kept up till all parties were worn out, when with the Marseillaise as their farewell, the Band of France went the way of all their predecessors, down to the lower regions, from which they are to rise again, on Tuesday of next week. May it be our good fortune to hear them then. This was the last sensation of the day,—except fatigue. M. E. B.

As our efficient reporter was not present at the Jubilee on Friday and Saturday, and is much too conscientious (as yet, being not long in the reportorial harness) to display the charming fancy so often exhibited by reporters in giving "full and accurate accounts of facts" concerning which they know nothing,—and as we were at the Coliseum on the days mentioned, we propose to do the best we can as a substitute for "M. E. B."

Friday, the "Austrian Day," was hot enough for a day in the torrid zone; the audience was not so large as on the preceding day, but the people were determined to be pleased, liberally applauded the chorus, the conductors and the artists,—the reception of the British band on this, their second appearance, being as uproarious as their playing was good,—and even forebore to swear at the outrageous din of the big organ when its time conflicted seriously with that of the conductor's baton, as it did more than once. The closing hymn, "Coronation," was given by the audience, chorus, bands, orchestra, roaring old brute of an organ, and the artillery; and the effect was magnificent, notwithstanding the apparent incongruity of setting cannon to sing hymns, and the frowns of extra-musical critics. The heavy boom of the guns made the richest sub-bass we ever had the pleasure of hearing.

Saturday was the "Russian Day;" hot as Egypt, or Senegal; or wherever it is that the sirocco raises a dust; and not a single Russian air was performed in the Coliseum nor stirred outside it, though a little Russian air would have been pleasant to take that afternoon. The German band played faultlessly; at least we could detect no faults in their playing. The band, Madame Peschka-Leutner, Strauss, Mrs. West the Band's performance, instead of after, and the bouquet of artists, were applauded loud and long, though our editoria dignity and our apprehensions that the organ might play some more, together with the intense heat, were sufficient to deter us from joining in with the applause. But the warmest welcome of the day was given to the colored singers,—one hundred and fifty in number, including the Hyer sisters and the Jubilee singers of Nashville, Tennessee,—as they advanced to give the song celebrating their release from bondage "Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord," to the tune of "John Brown." The melody of the stanzas proper was rendered by the Hyer sisters as a duet, the one hundred and fifty taking up the refrain and the chorus and audience joining in its repetition. The sweetly musical tones of the colored singers, as their simple hymn of thanksgiving rang through the vast building, produced a fine effect; but when the chorus was exultingly taken up by hundreds of skilled musicians and thousands upon thousands of the voices of white men and women, while the cannon thundered and the bells rang and the organ roared, and hands were clapped and handkerchiefs were waved and cheers upon cheers were given by the vast audience, there was a deeper feeling in many breasts than any mere music can arouse,—a feeling of earnest gratitude that the foul stain of human slavery has been removed from our land and that these colored men and women can never again be chattels under the flag of our Union. Russia was honored in the name of the day on the programme, but Africa was the lion after all.

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not disress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nacotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or scolding children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without this article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jal 4w PILES.—The unceasing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wresting away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place, to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using BRIGGS' PILE REMEDIES.

"THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are charged with Red Oil, a deadly lubricant, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vability into your exhausted and disordered system. M20 4w

"A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a Standard Restorative an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, which can be absurdly ridiculous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? Plantation Bitters has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific, or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for, diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism, and all nervous and bilious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alterative of the Western Hemisphere.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—For rheumatism, neuralgia, scrofula, cancer, sore leg, salt rheum, and all eruptions, the ointment is the only safe and certain specific, and the Pills are equally reliable in dyspepsia. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per pot or box. Ask for new style, the old is counterfeited.

What the Weak Need.

Why do the debilitated and feeble dread the summer? It is because heat is an exhausting element, and they are not in a condition to bear the new drain upon their languid systems, which they think must necessarily commence with the warm weather. But cannot this evil be obviated? Most indubitably it can. What these weaklings need—in fact, what nine-tenths of us need at this season—is an accession of physical vigor, and this desideratum can be secured, with absolute certainty, by a course of the mightiest, yet mildest, of all vegetable tonics, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Thousands of men of business, mechanics and professional men, break down, partially or wholly, under their summer labors, simply because they have neglected to reinforce the powers of nature in this way. To persons who use the celebrated invigorant and corrective regularly in hot weather, the exhaustion which excessive heat is apt to produce under other circumstances is unknown. They are not troubled with nausea, their appetites are good, their digestion excellent and their habit of body all that can be desired. This for twenty years has been the uniform testimony of all who have taken the Bitters as a summer tonic and alterative. Its efficacy is due to the care and scrupulous fidelity to the teachings of experimental science, with which its medicinal ingredients have been culled from the vegetable kingdom, the admirable proportions in which they are combined and the unequalled purity of the stimulative basis.

The summer arrangement of trains on the Eastern Railroad went into operation on Monday, as will be seen by referring to the advertisement. The slowest train on earth leaves Boston at 3.15 and arrives here at 5.50 P. M.

A fine and commodious coach, drawn by four good horses under the guidance of an able, careful and gentlemanly driver, Mr. Stephen E. Grant, is now making daily trips between the depots in this city and the beautifully situated Marshall House at the mouth of York River.

The friends of Mr. Charles E. Bidwell will be pleased to learn that a letter written by him from Toronto, (where he was at the time of writing acting as agent for Miss Dollie Bidwell on a starring tour, not yet being well enough to himself appear on the stage,) to Mr. Edwin R. Laighton of this city, announces a very marked improvement in his health.

The Strawberry Festival and Fair of the Universalist Sunday School, at Congress Hall on Thursday evening next, June 27, will doubtless be an enjoyable occasion, for the festivals gotten up by this society always are. Strawberries and cream, ices and other refreshments will be provided, and many fancy articles will be disposed of. Admission for adults, 20 cents; children 10 cents.

Bethany Commandery of Knights Templar, of Lawrence, Mass., Eminent Commander Caleb Saunders, numbering seventy-five Sir Knights and accompanied by the Lawrence Band, arrived in this city on Monday as the guests of DeWitt Clinton Commandery, and were met at the depot by the latter with the Marine Band, and escorted through the principal streets to their quarters at the Rockingham House, where the ladies accompanying the visiting Commandery had already been conveyed. In the early evening the bands made music in front of the hotel, attracting a large crowd of listeners, and later there was a reception, promenade concert and dance at Congress Hall. To-day the party visit the Shoals, returning in time to leave by the afternoon train for Lawrence.

The Eastern Railroad Company are now manufacturing at the works in Salem a set of signals to be used on their road as a preventive against accidents. The Chelsea Public gives the following description of the new system: At intervals of a mile a post will be set surmounted by a crystal globe, in the interior of which is placed a small battery. The wire from this battery runs down the posts and projects upward between the ends of the rails about a quarter of an inch. The locomotive passing over this breaks the connection and throws up a large colored disk in the interior of the globe, which remains in position a sufficient length of time to allow the train to reach the next station. The engineer of a train is thus kept warned of the proximity of other trains, and will govern his speed accordingly. At night a light is used instead of a disk.

Political.

The New York Journal of Commerce thus alludes to Mr. Greeley as a Presidential candidate: "He is not wanting in certain elements of popularity, and his friends and backers are making the most of them. Even his amiable personal eccentricities—which some prosaic persons call weaknesses—are made to redound to his advantage. The American people have a kindly disposition toward the whims and humors of Presidential candidates, and these often stand in good stead in working up campaign enthusiasm. But this machinery for making votes when put in operation for Mr. Greeley seems to be unsuccessful. The people are amused, but not stirred, and are beginning to evince symptoms of being bored by the talk about white hats, scientific farming and wood chopping. If Mr. Greeley was a comparatively unknown man, the original peculiarities of his character, which are usually called oddities, would be really serviceable to him. But he has made a great deal of history in his long public career as journalist and politician, and it is upon that, which is spread open before us, that the people fasten their gaze and not upon the sideshow of his pastoral life at Chappaqua. The study of this candidate during the generation on which he has left his mark for good or evil does not tend to create a powerful impulse to see him lifted into the presidential chair."

The New York Evening Post draws the following not very cheerful picture of what it anticipates would be the result of the election of Greeley: "Should Horace Greeley ever be the President of the United States we firmly believe that the corruption and the crime of an administration with a man at its head so weak in principle as he, so infirm of purpose as he, so imbecile of character as he, so surrounded by such a crowd of adventurers and cormorants and knaves as would surround him—that the corruption and the crime of such an administration would reach proportions that would put their perpetrators beyond the cognizance of ordinary courts of law, and that would call for and compel other correction than ordinary penitentiaries can afford. Where the rebellious element and the corrupt element of the country are combined to gain possession of the government, and on a false pretence, we may prepare ourselves for any calamity that in the course of human events can possibly befall any people in their political relations with each other and the world."

The Republicans at the West are opening the campaign in earnest. A large meeting was held in Indianapolis, Saturday night, and a Grant club organized in which over two thousand members were enrolled. Speeches were made by Senator Morton, General Coburn and others. The great interest manifested was not anticipated, for in the beginning the Democrats were actively engaged in getting up a Greeley club, with fair evidences of securing some former Republicans.

"ROUGH ON THE MOURNERS."—At the circus ground, last night, a son of the Emerald Isle, in a state of balmy intoxication, and spoiling for a fight, was wandering about with a good sized stick in his hand, outside the tent, searching for some one with whom to quarrel. Pretty soon he came to a place where the canvas of a tent "bulged" out by the back of a man who was sitting on one of the seats inside. Stepping lightly to the place, Patrick measured well the distance with his stick and then "drew off" and "welted" the obnoxious protuberance. Something was heard to drop, inside, and Patrick "walked off on his ear." In about a minute more, a man rubbing his back, might be seen emerging from the tent making anxious inquiries after the missing perpetrator of the deed; and the last we saw of him, he was still upon the war-path, but had failed to capture the Irishman, who was probably wise enough to keep out of the way.—Concord Patriot.

—One day we are told that the noble army of potato bugs has pitched its tents on the plains of Kansas, and is on short rations waiting for the esculent root to put forth its sprouts. Then we get the announcement that in Wisconsin the potato bugs are sitting around on the fences offering 75 cents a bushel for potatoes and $1.50 a day for men to plant them. Next we hear that the potato bug will poll a full vote in Indiana, and proposes to adopt the cumulative system. Then we hear that these interesting creatures are holding a joint convention at Council Bluffs and repudiate the one term principle. The last advices are to the effect that potato bugs are loafing about on the street corners in Dubuque, awaiting the tardy growth of their favorite vegetable.

— Muskrats have a curious method of travelling long distances under the ice. In their winter excursions to their feeding grounds, which are frequently at great distance from their abodes, they take to breath at starting and remain under the water as long as they can. Then they rise up to the ice, and breath out the air in their lungs, which remains in bubbles against the lower surface of the ice. They wait till this air recovers oxygen from the water and the ice, and then take it in again and go on till the operations has to be repeated. In this way they can travel almost any distance, and live any length of time under the ice.

—Punctilious, at the jubilee, saw a great many vacant seats in front, and started to take one of them to hear Madame Arabella Goddard's performance on the piano. One of the nice young men who serve as ushers asked to see his check. Punctilius explained his situation. "But you can't sit there; it is of no use to argue," said the usher. "Of course I will not argue with you," replied Punctilius; "they couldn't hire men for ushers who could argue worth a d—!"

FRESH BEEF AND VEGETABLES.

OFFICE OF PAYMASTER,
PORTSMOUTH, N. H. June 24, 1872.

Sealed Proposals, endorsed "PROPOSALS FOR FRESH BEEF AND VEGETABLES," will be received at this office until 12 o'clock, M. on the 20th day of June 1872, for the supply of Twenty Thousand (20,000) pounds of Fresh Beef and Twenty Thousand (20,000) pounds of Fresh Vegetables, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard and Station, as required.

The Beef must be of good quality, and equal to the grade necessary to make the best mess beef, and be delivered in equal proportion of fore and hind-quarters. The Vegetables must be of the best quality the market affords, and the Beef and vegetables must be offered for by the pound.

Bonds, with approved security, will be required in one-quarter the estimated amount of the contract, and 15 cents per cent. in addition will be withheld from the amount of each payment, as collateral security for the due performance of the contract, which reservation will not be paid until the contract is fully complied with.

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons, that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation within five days, with good and sufficient securities, to furnish the articles proposed.

No proposal will be considered unless accompanied by such guaranty, and the Department reserves the right to reject any proposal unless the responsibility of the guarantors is certified to by the Assessor of Internal Revenue for the district in which they reside, and unless satisfactory evidence that the bidder is a regular dealer in the articles he offers to supply is furnished with the proposal, as well as to reject any proposal not considered advantageous to the Government.

It is to be understood that the contract will expire at the close of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1873, without regard to the quantities which may have been delivered, and, in case the stipulated quantity of either article shall be delivered before that date, leaving a balance due on the other article, the contract may be considered as completed in full, at the option of the Department. AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures, which have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicines. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, which is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords in sudden attacks, and by its timely use.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN

HAIR RENEWER.

ITS EFFECT IS

MIRACULOUS.

It is a perfect and wonderful article. Cures baldness. Makes hair grow. A better dressing than any "oil" or "pomatum." Softens brash, dry and wiry hair into Beautiful Silken Tresses. But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR.

The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter.

The first application will do good; you will see the NATURAL COLOR returning every day, and BEFORE YOU KNOW IT, the old, gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving place to lustrous, shining and beautiful locks.

Ask for Hall's Sicilian Hair Renewer; no other article is at all like it in effect.

See that each bottle has our private Government Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations.

ANTIQUARIAN MISCELLANIES.

THE DUCKING-STOOL.

This was used in England and Scotland to punish scolds and unquiet women. They were placed in a stool or chair, attached to the end of a long pole, and immersed in a muddy pond of stagnant water. There are frequent charges in the old parish accounts for making or repairing these stools, and they must have been much in use. The practice continued in England till a late period. In April, 1745, an ale-house keeper, a woman of Kingston in Surry, was ordered by the Court to be ducked for scolding, and was placed in the chair and ducked in the Thames, under Kingston bridge, in presence of two or three thousand people. These stools were in common use when Gay wrote. He speaks of "the pond where the high stool, on the long plank, hangs o'er the muddy pool."

A Mr. Cole, who died 1682, saw a woman ducked at Cambridge. The chair hung to a bridge by a pully, and was let down into the water three times, with the woman on it, and then taken out. The stool always hung in its place, and on the back panel was painted or engraved the devil laying hold of scolds. A new chair was built, with the same carved devil on it. The punishment was formerly inflicted upon brewers and bakers.

The records of Liverpool, 1656, contain the following:—"Ordered that a new cuckstoole, (they were sometimes called cucking-stools,) be made and erected at the water place at the lower end of Mr. Crosse's field." In Pennsylvania, there was an attempt to revive this practice in 1824, but it was not successful. It had been done in 1772. In Massachusetts, this mode of correction was settled to be contrary to the constitution.

A man in England gives the following poetic description of the ducking-stool punishment:

"There stands my friend in yonder pool,
An engine called a ducking-stool,
If jarring females kindle strife,
Give language foul, or lug the coif,
If noisy dames should once begin,
To drive the house with horrid din,
Away! you cry, you'll grace this stool,
We'll teach you now your tongue to rule."

He goes on to tell how the fair offender fills the seat which descends into the water, and she comes up raving more than ever; so they "thrice and again repeat the dose," until the water quenches her brawling fire.

WASHING.

In Paris, washerwoman do not carry on their work under cover, nor do they use hot water. The operation is carried on generally in boats or rafts, moored to a river's side, where a running stream performs the office of soap. Companies of washerwomen may be seen from morning to night, plying their vocation, and perpetually ascending with heavy loads of wet linen, the deep stairs leading to their floating laundries, in the heat of summer and in the cold of winter. They are cheerful and sing songs. They wear a large leathern apron, which their dripping vocation renders necessary. One hundred may be seen at once, elbow to elbow, in a bark or machine, moored to a quay or the shore.

Great numbers of washerwomen are seen all along Lake Leman, in Switzerland, washing on the shore. They are there all days in the week, but not so many on Sunday. They tuck up their clothes, and stand ankle deep in the water and rub their clothes, each on a little platform. In some positions there are wash-houses over the water, and kettles for boiling, and troughs for washing.

In Germany, washing is not done every week but at intervals varying from two or three weeks to two or three months or more. The longer the time, the more respectable the family, as indicating a great abundance of linen. Twelve sets of every article are considered barely respectable.

Formerly, hedges and bushes seem to have been the common drying places of the poor, and probably of the rich too. When Queen Elizabeth sold Branton Hill, it was made a condition that the buyers were to maintain the hedges and bushes, "and admit the drying of clothes by the townswomen as had been accustomed." The same was the early practice in this country. Ebenezer Ferry of Northampton, had a clothes line in 1752, but they were very few in those days. He also had a clothes basket.

Monday or washing-day seems to have been considered an unpleasant day in New England in past generations, and is so considered now, by many. A writer represents that on that day, "the chickens fly, children cry, wives scold, husbands sigh, sister sings rock-a-by-baby." "Soap and suds, scalding and choking, dirty duds fumbling and smoking, puff and spatter, wring and souse, wet floors and clatter on all about." All other business is neglected.

"The men are all mad,
For the women say
A picked-up dinner,
Or none to-day."

But the girls looked well over the wash-tub, with glossy curls, loosely tucked back, cheeks all glowing, skirts short enough to show the feet, and

The Singer

SEWING MACHINE

STILL LEADS THE MARKET.

The Success of the Company is far beyond that of any other similar concern; the

Daily Manufacture

—OF—

400 OF THE SINGERS

Failing to Supply the Constant Demand.

All other machines call the public attention to some new loop or stitch or tension or finish, some advantage in running or needles or feed or prices—and many of these are as we have said very good points, and the agents selling them use them to divert entirely the would-be purchaser from fairly considering the facts in the case; but the

seems to unite the good qualities of all, and is never found wanting.

THE SINGER

IS THE

OLDEST

SEWING MACHINE

IN THE MARKET,

All others being copied from its first model. It does two-thirds the sewing done in this country and preserves its advantages over all others combined.

It is readily kept clean, and has THE BEST TENSION EVER INVENTED; it is higher speeded and requires but little power to run; it works equally well upon the finest and heaviest goods; it does all the varieties of work known to the art.

JURUBEBA

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER.

Is a Powerful Tonic, specially adapted for use in Spring, when the LAROTID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities, and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Liver and Spleen, Tumors, Dropsy, Poverty of the Blood, Debility, Weakness of the Intestines, Uterine or Urinary Organs.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutritious food taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and by its powerful TONIC and restoring effects, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR is composed of Ammonia, Chloroform, Spirits of Camphor, Tincture of Lupuline, Oil of Juniper, and Alcohol. This compound is unequalled in the annals of medicine for the cure of Nervous or Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Trembling or Twitching of the Nerves, and all Nervous Diseases. It will counteract all poisons, banish pimples, cure scaly eruptions, itching, humors, &c.; it equalizes the circulation, invigorates the system, increases the action of the heart, without exciting the brain, cures Heartburn, Palpitation and Fluttering of the Heart, Dyspepsia, &c. Briggs' Allevantor absolutely possesses more curative properties than any other preparation. Physicians, chemists, and others are requested to examine and test the remedy, and $1000 will be paid if found different from representation.

COUCHS. Much has been said and written, and many remedies have been offered for the relief and cure of throat and lung diseases; but nothing has been so eminently successful, or obtained such a wide celebrity, as Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer.

CORNS! The excruciating pain produced by Corns, the unceasing twinging from Bunions, the piercing, distressing pain from Ingrowing Nails, cannot be described. Thousands suffer, not knowing there is a cure. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are no acid or potash compounds, but are reliable, soothing, and effectual, and just merit the success they have earned from an appreciative public. The Curative is a healing ointment; immediate relief is obtained by its application, and it positively cures in the worst cases of Festered Corns, Inflamed and Ulcerated Bunions, the sorest instep, the largest and severest Blisters, the most extensive Callosities on the soles or heels of the feet, unequalled in the cure of Chilblains or Frosted Feet. The Allevantor for ordinary corns and preventing their formation is absolutely unexcelled by anything ever known.

PILES have been a terror to mankind for centuries, and almost every attempt to cure them has been baffled. By unceasing study and experimenting, Dr. Briggs has discovered an absolutely cure for internal, bleeding, external, and itching piles. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure.

For sale by J. H. THACHER, WM. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth; JAMES O. TREFETHEN, Kittery; E. S. SAFFORD, Kittery Point; H. M. CURTIS, Newcastle, and dealers generally.

CORNS, Bunions, Bad Nails, and other diseases of the feet, Scrofulous and Cancerous Humors, Piles, etc., skillfully treated at the great central Chiropodical and Healing Institute, No. 766 Broadway, New York. DR. J. BRIGGS, President; DR. ALEXANDER WEBBER, Secretary. sp9

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1872.

The News.

The coroner's jury in the case of the late railroad accident on the Grand Trunk, near Belleville, Ontario, find that it was purely accidental; that the track was in good condition, and that the engineer was a sober, efficient and careful officer and died at his post. A Belleville despatch reports thirty deaths so far from the accident.

All the striking piano-forte makers in New York have gone back to work on the ten-hour-system, but in one or two instances with increased pay.

In the ocean race of the New York yacht club the Wallack cup was won by the Madeline, which beat all her competitors by two miles.

The journals of Madrid deny the assertion that the government of Spain has requested the recall of United States Minister Sickles.

General William T. Sherman has arrived in Geneva, and Lieutenant Frederick D. Grant and Miss Nellie Grant are expected within a day or two.

A young man named Moore died at Wheatland, Mo., on Wednesday, it is alleged from a compound given by a country physician to cure the ague, composed of Peruvian bark, logwood and whiskey. Drs. Redfield and Barnes, summoned by Mrs. Moore to attend her son, swallowed some of the mixture to allay her suspicion of poison, and both barely reached home when they died. It is not yet known whether the doctor who prepared the medicine or the druggist from whom he purchased the ingredients made the blunder.

Athletic 6, Troy's 2.

James Minchen of Boston, a disreputable, drunken character, shot Miss Nellie Reardon on Sunday evening in her father's house, intending to shoot her brother. The girl may live.

Political.

The Alabama Democratic State Convention declined to nominate electors, leaving it to the Congressional Districts after the Baltimore Convention. The following resolution was adopted by a large majority: "That in the opinion of this convention, under existing circumstances, the National Democratic Convention ought to make nominations in opposition to the nominations recently made at Cincinnati."

The Volkes-Blatt of Indianapolis, a German Democratic paper, has declared it cannot support Greeley. One German paper in Indiana now remains with the Democracy.

Ten thousand Republicans attended a ratification meeting in St. Louis Saturday night. Senator Carpenter, Governor Oglesby and ex-Senator Henderson were the principal speakers, the latter stating that he was fully convinced of the folly of his late course in taking part in the liberal movement.

The Arkansas Democratic State Convention instructed the delegates to the Baltimore Convention to support Greeley and Brown, indorsing the Cincinnati platform and declaring against the nomination of a Democratic State ticket but favoring coalition with the Liberal Republicans.

The Indian bounty-fraud cases prosecuted against Judge John W. Wright, which last month were submitted to arbitration, have now been made up, and on the part of the government a statement of account submitted which claims upwards of $400,000, alleged to be due the government from the defendant. Judge Wright detests the present arbitrary administration, and goes for Horace Greeley, true reform, and "letting bygones be bygones."

Information from Georgia represents great dissatisfaction with the Greeley movement among the Old Democrats of that State, and indicates that in case he is accepted at Baltimore this element will generally refuse to vote.

It becomes more and more evident that the Brooklyn Ring, though not so well known as its Tammany relative, has not been at all deficient in inventing means to transfer the money of the people to the pockets of the ring masters. An affidavit of George W. McDonald, lately in the employ of the Water Board, indicates that the ring manufactured a water famine by wasting the contents of the ponds in order to convince Brooklyn citizens that a new reservoir at Hempstead was a necessity. The Brooklyn Ring and its organ, the Eagle, favor Greeley and "reform in the administration of National affairs," and oppose Grant and "corruption."

The Schoharie Union has the following amusing paragraph: "For thirty years the portrait of Horace Greeley has adorned the sanctum of the Union office. When he advocated secession in 1860, the picture was turned with face to the wall. As soon as Horace saw the error of his ways, the picture was reversed, and once more the smiling countenance of Greeley illumed our office. In 1864, when he threatened to bolt the nomination of Abraham Lincoln, the picture was again reversed. When he signed Jeff Davis' bail bond we turned him again to the wall for three months, and again when he took up the defence of Tammany Hall. We have tried him long enough. He is the greatest political acrobat of modern times, and now that he has gone over to the camp of the Democracy we don't propose to take the chances of placing his portrait to the right about a dozen times in the future, as we have in the past. This time we take the portrait down."

The Chicago Times (Dem.) reads the Baltimore delegates out of the Democratic party, and indorses the platform of the Fifth Avenue Hotel meeting.

ACCIDENT TO A FEMALE GYMNAST. The amusement seekers at the Howard Theatre, Boston, Monday night were terror-stricken by a trapeze performance which was no more expected by them than intended by she who executed it. In a performance by Mlle. Geraldine and Mons. Leopold, the former was precipitated a distance of twenty-eight feet to the stage beneath. The accident occurred in performing a feat in which Geraldine was suspended headforemost from the toe of Leopold, on which her toe was caught and slipped off. It is said that the accident was owing to the fact of Geraldine's having on her feet a pair of new morocco boots not suitable for the performance. In falling through the air her body assumed a horizontal position, striking at full length upon the floor. Mr. Stetson and several others rushed to her assistance and conveyed her to the green room. While the quiet of the stage rendered ominous whispering rife, and a chill began stealing over the audience, great applause and deafening cheers were suddenly produced by the appearance of Mlle. Geraldine on the stage, who bowed to the delighted audience and withdrew. She was conveyed to the New England House, where she is boarding, and the attendance of a physician secured. His investigation shows that no bones were fractured, though fears are entertained that she may have sustained internal injuries.

CORNS.—Since pride and fashion have had control of mankind, and shoemakers were compelled to make boots and shoes to fit fancy instead of the feet, the suffering from Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Sore Insteps, Blistered Heels, Callosities on the bottoms of the feet, &c., cannot be described. But Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies will cure all such torments, and proper fitting boots will prevent their reproduction. Sold by all druggists. s12

CASTORIA—a substitute for Castor Oil—a family physic which is pleasant to take and does not distress or gripe, but is sure to operate when all the other remedies have failed. It is a purely vegetable preparation, containing neither Minerals, Morphine nor Alcohol, the result of fifteen years experimenting by Doctor Samuel Pitcher. It is perfectly harmless and far more effective than Pills, Nucotic Syrups or Castor Oil. By soothing the system it produces natural sleep, and is particularly adapted to crying or teething children. It kills Worms, cures Stomach Ache, Constipation, Flatulency and Derangement of the Liver. No family can afford to be without that article. It costs but 50 cents—ask your druggist to get it for you, and he will always keep it. J. B. Rose & Co. 53 Broadway, New York. jel 4w

PILES.—The unceasing torture from internal bleeding, external and itching piles is fast wearing away the thousands of those who are afflicted and their hope and courage have long since given place to despair. Let those who see this cheer up, for a mild and sure cure may be had by using BRIGGS' PILE REMEDIES.

THE BAR ROOM REMEDY for weakness of the stomach is a dose of Rum Bitters. They are surcharged with Fusel Oil, a deadly element, which is rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak, or your liver or bowels disordered, tone, strengthen and regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a pure VEGETABLE STOMACHIC, CORRECTIVE AND APERIENT, free of alcohol, and capable of infusing new vatility into your exhausted and disordered system. m29 4w

A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a Standard Restorative an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? Plantation Bitters has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific, or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for, diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism, and all nervous and bilious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alternative of the Western Hemisphere.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—For rheumatism, neuralgia, scrofula, cancer, sore leg, salt rheum, and all eruptions, the ointment is the only safe and certain specific, and the Pills are equally reliable in dyspepsia. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Price, 25 cents per pot or box. Ask for new style, the old is counterfeited.

Special Notices.

Lost Health Regained.

Self-neglect lays the foundation of much bodily suffering. As a rule men are more solicitous to repair and preserve their houses, stock in trade and other perishable property than to repair and preserve themselves. They can see when a wall requires a prop, or a weak structure a girder, but appear to be unconscious of, or indifferent to, the cracks and flaws and evidences of decay in their own frail and sensitive organizations.

The consequence of this want of common prudence is that thousands fall by the wayside in the prime of life every year who might have lived to enjoy a hale and hearty old age, if they had resorted to the proper means of recruiting their failing vigor at the proper time.

Seeing what that famous vitalizing and invigorating elixir, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, has done for countless multitudes of the enervated and broken down, and with the long, unbroken records of its cures before him, it seems amazing that any sufferer from premature decay, nervous weakness, dyspepsia, biliousness, chronic constipation, or disease of a remittent or intermittent character, should delay, even for an hour, to seek the aid which its toning, regulating and invigorating properties have never failed to afford.

It is no exaggeration to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the most faithful ally of nature, in her struggles with weakness and disease, that medical botany and honest chemistry have yet given to the world.
